CAMERON COUNTY PRESS.

H. H. MULLIN, Editor.

Published Every Thursday.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

ADVERTISING RATES: Advertisements are published at the rate of one dollar per square for one insertion and fity cents per square for each subsequent insertion. Rates by the year, or for six or three months, are low and uniform, and will be furnished on are low and uniform, and will be remarked application.

Legal and Official Advertising per square, three times or less, $2$: each subsequent insertion 10 cents per square.
Local notices 10 cents per line for each subsequent consecutive insertion.
Obituary notices over five lines, 10 cents per line. Simple announcements of births, marriages and deaths will be inserted free.
Business cards, five lines or less, $5 per year; over five lines, at the regular rates of adversions.

local inserted for less than 75 cents per

JOB PRINTING

The Job department of the Press is complete and affords facilities for doing the best class of work. PARTICULAR ATTENTION PAID TO LAW PRINTING.

No paper will be discontinued until arrearages are paid, except at the option of the publisher.

Papers sent out of the county must be paid for in advance.

The raising of Angora goats is 3 new industry to be established at Ft. Collins, Col. The ranch of 480 acres is on the north fork of the Big Thomp son river, and the company starts operations with $25,000 capital and 800 head of goats eligible to registry.

Prof. Calmette, of the Pasteur Institute in Paris, is making war on linear handkerchiefs, which he considers a great source of infection. He suggests the use of specially constructed wallets for Japanese paper handkerchiefs with separate divisions for the new and the used ones. The latter are to be burned.

Recent tests show that in 51 per cent of the cases the human right arm is stronger than the left: in 33 per cent the left is stronger, and in 16 per cent they are of equal strength. Of 50 skeletons measured, 23 had the right arm and left leg longer, six had the opposite, and 17 showed members of equal length.

A "battle-ax windmill" is a curious feature of the landscape in the once arid plains of the far West. It is of rude construction, made by ranchmen or sheep herders, and the wings consist of square pieces of tin attached to wooden arms. It is the appearance of these that gives the improvised windmill its name.

When Chinese parents arrive at about the age of 55 their affectionate sons and daughters club together and give them each a coffin, and wish them many happy returns of the day. When death comes these receptacles are used for the purpose for which they were intended. Coffins are to be seen many houses in China, some of them being utilized as wardrobes.

From the annual report of the mininster of mines of British Columbia 1903, just issued, it appears that the total production of the mines of the province shows a very slight increase over the year previous, being of the value of $17,495,954, compared with $17,486,550 in 1902. Excepting copper and coke, which show an increase, there is a falling off in all other products.

Reduction by electricity of an aneurism or dilation of the aorta, the main artery of the body, has been attempted in nine recorded cases, but only three of the patients survived. In a recent successful attempt the galvanic current was applied to a Philadelphia man for one hour, reducing an aneurism that extended three inches above the base of the breastbone and was three and one-half inches wide.

According to a New York statistimonial market is the preference of widowers for spinsters and the indifference of widows for bacnelors. The carefully prepared figures of this expert shows that inga given period 451 widowers sought to heal the breach in their domestic arrangements by espousing 25,451 spinsters, while available for that purpose.

The largest watch in the world has just been made at an American watch factory and shipped to England, where it will adorn the front of the London office of the watch company. This mammoth watch is of the elec-trical variety and will furnish the Londoners with correct time. The case of the watch is aluminum finished in gold, and is five feet in diameter.
The two dials, one on either side of the watch, are each four feet in di-

In an article on the subject of average incomes in England and France M. Paul Leroy Beaulieu, in a recent number of L'Economiste Français, as-serts that there are by far a greater number of extremely wealthy people in England than in France. In France there are bewteen 700 and 800 persons whose annual income from property exceeds $50,000 per annum, whereas in England there are no than 2,418 persons in the same enviable position.

To telegraph 16 messages simultaneously over a single wire has now been made possible through an invention of Dr. Michael Ivorsky Pupin, professor of electro-mechanics in Columbia university. Heretofore the maintenance of four circuits on one wire has been the limit of the multi-plex machines invented. The Pupin system differs chiefly from the multi-plex systems now in use in that it operates with an alternating instead | ge, which is kept in a box trebly locked. | Star.

TWO GREAT CAMPAIGN TALKS

Mr. Root's Address to Senator Fairbanks, Notifying Him of His Nomination for the Vice-Presidency, and the Nominee's Response.

Root, formally notifying senator Fairbanks of his nomination, at Indianap-

"Senator Fairbanks: The committee which now waits upon you was appointed by the national convention of the republican party, held at Chicago in June, and its agreeable duty is to notify you of your nomination as the republican candidate for the office of vice president of the United States for the term to begin on the 4th day of March, 1905.

We give you formal notice of that comination with assurance of the undivided and hearty support of the great party which has executed the people's will in the government of this country for the better part of the last half cen-The nomination comes to you in tury. accordance with the best methods and practices of representative government. It was the result of long and earnest consideration and discussion by members of the convention. It was not the chance product of an excited hour. and it was not upon the demand of any powerful influence-political or otherwise-constraining the judgment of the delegates. It was not made for the purpose of conciliating possible malcontents or of sweiling the campaign fund of the party. No bargains or intrigues contributed to it. No suppressions of the truth or misleading of the convention as to your principles and opinions were necessary to bring it about. It was the deliberate, informed and intelligent judgment of the delegates from every state and territory, and it was their unanimous judgment.

Called to Great Office.

"It is a great office to which you are called. John Adams and Thomas Jef-ferson and George Clinton and John C. Calhoun and Martin Van Buren and many others whose names are illustrious in the history of our country have filled it. It is an office of high dignity and immediate, ever-present impor-tance. The credit and honor of our country are greatly concerned in the character and conduct of the man who presides over the senate of the United States, of which you are already so experienced, so useful and so honored a

"But the vice president has other grave duties of imperative obligation. When the people elect a president under our political system, they do not merely select the man for the office; they give their approval to certain controlling principles and policies of government: and the administration of which the vice president is a part is bound to give effect to these principles and policies. primary duty of the vice president to be always ready to take up the burdens of the presidency if occasion requires carries with it the duty to be always ready to continue unbroken the policies which the people have intrusted to the administration for execution. For the due performance of this duty the vice president should be familiar with the conduct of affairs by the administration as it proeeds, a part of its counsels, and imbued with a knowledge of its labors, its perplexities and its motives, that can come only from intimate association and confidence and sympathy.

"To often it has happened that after excited contests for the presidential nomination the candidate for vice presi-dent has been selected from the defeated faction for the purpose of appeasing their resentment, and that after election he has remained antagonistic in spirit and a stranger to the counsels of the president whom he may be called upon to succeed. Happily, we are now in no such case. The people would fain see again such relations of sympathy and loyal helpfulness for the public good and Vice President Hobart, and the personal relations between President Roosevelt and yourself, your mutual esteem and good understanding assure us that these happy conditions will come again after the 4th day of next March. We count upon your wisdom and experience and loyal aid as an element of everpresent strength in the coming administration.

Many Presidents Die in Office. "As to the supreme responsibility of the vice presidency in case of succession to the presidency, we shall all pray, and no one more earnestly than yourself, that it may not come to you. But we are not at liberty to ignore the possibility that it may come. Sad and bitter experience admonishes us that provision for succession to the presidency is no idle form. Of the last 12 presidents elected by the people of the United States, five—nearly one-half—have died in office and have been succeeded by vice presidents. A serious obligation rests upon the political parties which select the candidates between whom the people must choose to see to it that they nominate men for this possible succession

Failed to Hear Her.

"It is said," remarked the moralizer, "that fortune knocks once at every

"I guess the old girl forgot to remove her gloves when she knocked at mine," rejoined the demoralizer.—Chicago

Secret of Eau De Cologne.

When the originator of the genuine eau de cologne died, aged 80, he gave his secret to his nephew and heir. Since 1769 only ten persons have seen the rec-man's door."

Daily News

Following was the address of Elihu | who have the strength of body and mind and character which shall enable them, if occasion comes, to take up the burdens of the great presidential office, to endure its trying and exhausting demands, to meet its great responsibilities. and with firm hand and clear vision to the government of the country until the people can express their choice again.

"Our opponents of the democratic party have signally failed to perform this duty. They have nominated as their candidate for the vice presidency an excellent gentleman, who was born during the presidency of James Monroe and who before the 4th of March next will be in the eighty-second year of his age. Before the next administration is ended he will be approaching his eighty-sixth birthday.

Too Old for Office.

"It is no disparagement of this gentleman, for whom I believe we all have the highest respect, to say that he shares the common lot of mortals, and that the lection of any man of such great age would furnish no safeguard to the Amercan people against the disaster which would ensue upon the death of a president with a successor not competent to perform the duties of the presidential office. It is common experience that very aged men however bright and acthey may appear for brief periods, cannot sustain long-continued severe exertion. The demands of the presidential office upon the mental and physical vitality are so great, so continuous and so exhausting as to be wholly beyond the capacity of any man of 85.

"The attempt by such a man to per form the duties of the office would with practical certainty be followed speedily a complete breakdown both of body and of mind. In contemptating the re mote possibility of the election of the democratic candidate for vice president the people of the country are bound to contemplate also as a necessary result of such an election in case of the president's death, that others, not chosen by the people, and we know not who, would govern in the name of a nominal successor unable himself to perform the constitutional duties of his office; or worse still, that serious doubt whether the vice president had not reached a condition of "inability" within the meaning of the constitution would throw title to the office of president into dis-The serious effect of such event upon the government and upon the business interests and general welfare of the country, and the serious effect even of the continual menace of such an vent must be apparent to every thought-

Prepared for Any Duty.

"In your election, on the other hand, this chief requirement will be fully met. In the full strength of middle life you are prepared for the exhausting duties of the presidency. Your successful and distinguished career, the ability and pro-bity with which you have already discharged the duties of high office, the uniersal respect and esteem of the people of Indiana who have delighted to honor ou, the attachment of hosts of friends throughout the union all assure us that you have the character and the ability to govern wisely and strongly should you become president. Many indeed among our people have already turned toward you as a suitable candidate to be elected directly to that great office.

"It is the earnest wish of your party and of many good citizens who have no party affiliations that you shall accept this nomination and that you shall be elected in November to be the next vice president of the United States. pressing to you this wish, we beg to add an assurance of our own personal respect, esteem and loyalty

MR. FAIRBANK'S RESPONSE.

Praises Republican Politics and Present Administration.

Following was the speech of Senator Fairbanks accepting the nomination for the vice presidency 'Mr. Root and Gentlemen of the Committee: I thank you for the very generous terms in which you have conveyed the official notification of my nomination for vice president of the United States The unsolicited and unanimous nomination by the republican party is a call to duty which I am pleased to obey. I accept the commission which you bring with a profound sense of the dignity and responsibilities of the exalted position for which I have been nominated. My utmost endeavor will be to discharge in full measure the trust if the action of the convention shall meet the approval of the American people. "The platform adopted by the convention is an explicit and emphatic declara-

Uncle Sam's Boys.

Facts in the Case.

that the parties use high words?

Judge-Did I understand you to say tion made frank and explicit declaration of the inflexible purpose of the party to maintain the gold standard. It is essential not only that the standard should be as good as the best in the world, but that the people should have the assurance that it will be so maintained.

"The enemies of sound money were brought great honor and prosperity to our common country, and which, if continued, will bring us like blessings in the future. The monetary and economic policies which have been so forcibly re-announced lie at the very foundation of the fullest development of our national strength. They give vitality to our manufactures and commerce, and if impaired or overthrown there would inevitably ensue a period of industrial depression, to the serious injury of the vast interests of both labor and capital.

Value of Gold Standard.

"The Republican party, since it preserved the integrity of the republican and gave freedom to the oppressed, never rendered a more important service to the country than when it established the gold standard. Under it we have increased our currency gapply sufficiently to meet the normal requirements of business. It is gratifying that the conven-industrial life, and are essential to powerful enough to suppress mention of the gold standard in the platform lately adopted by the democratic national convention. The leader of the democracy in two great national campaigns has declared since the adjournment of the convention that as soon as the election is over he will undertake to organize th forces within the democratic party for the next national contest, for the purpose of advancing the radical policies for which his element of the party stands He frankly says that the money question is for the present in abeyance. In view of these palpable facts it is not the part of wisdom to abandon our vigilance in safeguarding the integrity of our monetary system. We must have not only a president who is unalterally committed to the gold standard, but both houses of congress in entire accord with him upon the subject. In congress and not with the president rests the supreme power to determine the standard of our money. Though the chief executive should oppose, congress, acting within its independent constitutional authority, could at any time overthrow or change the monetary standard:

Protective Policy Wise.

'The wisdom of our protective policy finds complete justification in the indu trial development of the country. This policy has become a vital part of our industrial system, and must be maintained unimpaired. When altered conditions make changes in schedules desirable their modification can be safely intrusted to the republican party. If they are to be changed by the enemies of the system along free trade lines, uncertainty would take the place of certainty and a reaction surely would follow, to the injury of the wage-earners and all who are profitably employed. Uncertainty undermines confidence, and loss of confidence breeds confusion and distress in commercial affairs.

"The convention was wise not only in enunciation of party policies, but in its nomination of a candidate for the During the last three years President Roosevelt has been confronted with large and serious questions. These he has met and solved with high wisdom and courage. The charges made against him in the democratic platform find an irrefutable answer in his splendid administration, never surpassed in all the history of the republic and never equaled by the party which seeks to discredit it.

Record of Deeds Done.

"The election of the president is imperatively demanded by those whose sucss depends upon the continuance of a safe, conservative and efficient administration of public affairs. We have an emple record of deeds done, of beneficent things accomplished in the public interest. The vast business of the government has been well administered. The laws have been enforced fearlessly and impartially. The treasury has been adequately supplied with revenue and the financial credit of the government never was better. Our foreign trade balance continues to increase our national wealth. We have adopted an irrigation policy which will build homes in the arid regions of the west. The Panama canal, the hope of centuries, is in course of construction under the sole protection of the American flag.

"We have peace and great prosperity at home and are upon terms of good neighborhood to the entire world. The onditions constitute the strongest possible assurance for the future.

"Later I shall avail myself of a favora-ble opportunity to submit to you, and through you to my fellow citizens, a fulexpression of my views concerning the questions now in issue. Permit me again to thank you and to express the belief that we may confidently submit our cause to the candid and patriotic judgment of our countrymen.

Marriage Brokers.

The marriage broker in Italy is a regular institution. In their offices there are books with the names and particulars of all marriageable girls, rich or poor, who live in the district, and the brokers go about endeavoring to arrange engagements in exactly the same way as they would do ordinary trading business. It depends entirely upon tion of principles in entire harmony with those policies of our party which have payment for their efforts or not.

Retort Courteous.

Uncle Sam has on his pay roll about He—Girls are queer creatures—they marry the first fool who asks them, as who are employed as special delivery a rule. I suppose you would do the messengers. Each boy gets eight cents same, wouldn't you? out of the ten cents paid the govern-ment for a special delivery stamp. She—Suppose you ask me and find out.—Washington Star.

Odd Way of Making a Living.

A score of people in Paris fish in the Witness-Their voices were pitched river for corks as a means of livelihood. rather high, but the words they used One Parisian earns a living by skimwere extremely !ow.—Washington ming the Seine of the grease he finds on the surface.

TO CHECK FAMILY ROWS.

Novel Plan of a Chicago Minister-Would Have Church Appoint Peacemakers. "We have homes for children, or phan's anchorages, old people's homes, humane societies, and, in fact, or-ganizations for the care of nearly all classes of society in Chicago, but we have no association whose duty it is to conserve the family, the most sacred of all institutions," said Rev. David D. De Long in a recent address before the Congregational ministers of the city.

of the city.

"I think every church should establish a home-mending society, whose duty will be to act as peacemaker in all disputes in families in the vicinity of the church. If a father and mother disagree and are in imminent danger of separating, let a member of the home mending society, call at the total speak."

"I suppose you have received no dispute for me the will be to act as peacemaker in all dispute for you the other day, but it was all twisted and confused. I couldn't make head or tail of it, so I didn't think it was any use to send it up to you."

It Cures While You Walk. the homemending society call at the home of the family and arbitrate the dispute so as to save the family and preserve the home. If a parent cannot get along with a child and the dispute threatens the security of the home, let the society step in and offer its services in bringing about peace.

"I am going to try the plan in my church, and I think every other congregation in Chicago would do well to follow my example. I believe the plan will result in much good every year by preventing the disruption of hundreds of homes.

GRADUATES TIED TO TREES. Ducked in Pond First-Victims Free Themselves by Burning Their

Bonds. Fifteen members of the graduating class of the Mount Vernon, N. Y., high school were kidnaped on the night after the commencement exer-cises by a band of hazers, composed of former graduates, and taken to the woods, where they were baptized in a pond and tied to trees.

Some of the graduates did not get back to Mount Vernon until after daylight. Two of them, after being lashed to trees for nearly two hours, struck upon a novel scheme to free themselves. They took matches from each other's pockets and burned the ropes with which they were tied.

Before the exercises began the police heard a rumor that the graduates were to be hazed, and policemen were stationed around the school building to guard against any "rough house" tactics, but the hazers foiled them.

Dyeing Eggs.

Just now the foreign egg trade of England is much exercised over the disclosures made recently by Lord Onslow, president of the British board of trade, as to the nefarious practice of certain foreigners of dyeing their eggs for the London market with coffee in order to secure the rich brown shade which it seems all Londoners prefer in their eggs. Lord Onslow advised the English egg producers to take a leaf from the book of their continental rivals and by the liberal use of coffee secure the shade which in London adds 25 cents a hundred to the value of their eggs.

It isn't the people that ask for what they want that bother folks; it is the people who insist upon telling why they want it and why they hate to ask for it.—Chicago Tribune.

The children are having their own way to uch a degree that old bachelors and old such a degree that old bachelors and old maids are expecting to see another custom upset by the pie being served first at meals. —Atchison Globe.

A German socialist has discovered that rattlesnake bite is a cure for leprosy. This certainly seems to be one of those strong remedies that will either kill or cure.—Austin (Tex.) Statesman.

A music hall performer now appearing in London has stated that she was oftered £525 a week to stay in Chicago. Whether this sum was offered by London or Chicago has not transpired.—London Punch.

When a man loses his collar button under the bureau, and then kicks the cat and swears just horrsbly, his wife feels sure that she is only just beginning to know his true character.—Baltimore American.

"De trouble 'bout bein' an orator," said Uncle Eben, "is dat as soon as de people gits through cheerin' yoh remarks, de brass band strikes up an' makes 'em fohgit every word you done said."—Washington Star. A traveling man found a hair in his order of honey at a Muscotah (Kan.) hotel and complained to the landlord about it. "I can't help it," the landlord bought it for combed honey."-Kansas City Star. The Japanese and Russian names one sees in the dispatches suggest the sweet voices from a frog pond on a summer evening: lenor-Kuroki, Kuroki, Kurok; falsetto-Kuropatkin, Kuropatkin, Kuropatkin; asso—Togo, Togo, Togo!—Baltimore Sun.

Speaking of the idiosyncrasies of the English speech, the Nashville American wants to know if there is a better example than the fact that when you "best" a man you "worst" him. No, except, perhaps, that when a man is "cleaned out" he's "all in."—Pittsburg Gazette.

THE CIPHER WAS TOO MUCH

Telegraph Operator Thought the Message Was Too Much Twisted

to Save.

While Secretary Hay was in the country one summer, an important piece of official-business was pending, and he arranged with Washington that any news that might arrive about the matter should be telegraphed to him in cipher.

Day after day he waited, says the New York Tribune, but no telegram came. One morning, happening to go to the lonely little telegraph office, he said to the operator:

suppose you have received no dis-

Allen's Foot-Ease is a certain cure for hot, sweating, callus, and swollen, aching feet. Sold by all Druggists. Price 25c. Don't accept any substitute. Trial package FREE Address Allen S. Olmsted, Le Roy, N. Y.

That red ant they are importing for the cotton fields appears to serve the double function of killing the boll weevil and keeping the cotton pickers lively.—Milwaukee

Fits stopped free and permanently cured No fits after first day's use of Dr. Kline's Great Nerve Restorer. Free $2 trial bottle & treatise. Dr. Kline, 931 Arch st., Phila., Pa

No woman with a grain of sense even ets a man gather from her remarks that his character offers any intricacies to her comprehension.—Indianapolis News.

CHIEF OF POLICE SAVED. Newberry, S. C .- W. H. Harris, chief of police of Newberry, says: fered for a number of years with kidney complaint. There was a dull aching across the small of my back that was worse at night and made me feel miserable all the time. The kidney secretions were dark and full of sediment, and lack of control compelled me to rise a number of times during the night. Between this annoyance and the backache it was impossi ble for me to get much sleep and my health was being undermined. I tried a number of remedies, but wothing helped me until I got Doan's Kidney Pills. The use of this remedy according to directions promptly brought about a change for the better. After using two boxes the backache all left me, the kidney secretions cleared up and the action of the kidneys became normal.

A FREE TRIAL of this great kidney medicine which cured Chief Harris will be mailed to any part of the United States, Address Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Sold by all dealers. Price 50 cents per box.

It Cures Colds, Coughs, Sore Throat, Croup, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis and Asthma

FREE to WOMEN

A Large Trial Box and book of instructions absolutely Free and Postpald, enough to prove the value of Paxtine Teilet Antiseptic

Paxtine is in powder form to dissolve in water — non-poisonous and far superior to liquid antiseptics containing which irritates influence which irritates influence which irritates influence with the containing which irritates in liquid which irritates in the containing which is a superior which is not the containing th

The formula of a noted Boston physician, and used with great success as a Vaginal Wash, for Leucorrhoea, Pelvi Catarrh, Nasal Catarrh, Sore Throat, Sore Eyes, Cuts, and all soreness of mucus membrane.

and all soreness of mucus membrane.

In local treatment of female ills Paxtine is invaluable. Used as a Vaginal Wash we challenge the world to produce its equal for thoroughness. It is a revolation in cleansing and healing power; it kills all germs which cause inflammation and discharges.

All leading druggists keep Paxtine; price, for abox; if yours does not, send to us for it. Don't take a substitute—there is nothing like Paxtine.

Write for the Free Box of Paxtine to-day, R. PAXTON CO., 4 Pope Bldg., Boston, Mass.

Millions Use

CASCARETS. Surprising, isn't it, that within three years our sales are over TEN MILLION boxes a year? That proves merit. Cascarets do good for so many others, that we urge you to try just a 10c box. Don't put it off! Do it to-day.

When you ask for Cascarets, don't let the dealer substitute something else. There is nothing else as good as Cascarets, and if you are not pleased we pay your money back. 10c, 25c, 50c, all druggists. Sample and booklet free. Address Sterling Remedy Co., Chicago or New York.

Best for the Bowels