News From WAR ARENA

GEN. KELLER KILLED.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 2.—The greatest anxiety prevails here for news of the general advance against the southern and eastern positions of Gen. Kuropatkin's army. The report of Lieut. Gen. Count Keller's death is confirmed. He was killed July 29 while repelling the preliminary attack of Kuroki's army on the Yangze pass, 30 miles east of Liao Yang. The general was standing near a battery which was subjected to a terrific fire when a shell burst close to him. He fell, mortally wounded, dying 29 minutes later.

JAPS WIN TWO BATTLES.

Tokio, Aug. 3.—Gen. Kuroki has administered a defeat to the Russian forces which defended the Russian east flank at Liao Yang, winning separate actions at Yushulizku and Yangze pass. These two places are 26 miles apart, but the two actions were fought at the same time. The Russians held strong positions. At Yushulizku the Russians had two divisions of infantry and some artillery, and they resisted the Japanese assaults vigorously. Both attacks were begun at dawn on July 31. At Yushulizku the Japanese carried the Russian right and left resistance at noon Wednesday and the Japanese occupied New Chwang the same day.

Twelve torpedo boat destroyers, four torpedo boats and some gunboats emerged from the harbor at Port Arthur on the night of August 1, but were driven back again by the Japanese warships on guard outside.

London, Aug. 5.—A dispatch to a news agency from An-Shan (half way between Haicheng and Liao Yang) says: "The Japanese advance is being continued with great energy against the southern army. The Russian main forces continue their retirement northward, but the cavalry has checked the Japanese flank movement."

KUROPATKIN HEMMED IN.

New Chwang, Aug. 5.—Gen. Kuroki with 100,000 men is now behind the Russian forces; Gen. Oku with an army of 50,000 men is on their front, while flanking them on the left is Gen. Nodzu with his division of 50,000 men.

If Gen. Kuropatkin is defeated in this battle he must either move westward or surrender. The Russian troops at Port Arthur have been driven back to the last line of their defenses. The Japanese attacking force has 350 guns in action. Vladivostok, Aug. 5.—The prize court has decided to confiscate such portion of the cargo of the steamer Arabia as was consigned to Japanese ports, namely, 5,900 pounds of flour and the railroad equipment. Che Foo, Aug. 5.—Twenty-one survivors of the British steamer Hipsang, which was sunk by a Russian torpedo wings, but on account of the strength of the main Russian position they were unable to break the attack.

At dawn on Monday the Japanese resumed the attack and by noon they had dislodged the enemy and driven him four miles to Lacholing.

At Yangze pass also the Japanese were successful. Their artillery opened on the enemy and the infantry moved forward from Makumeza. The attack on this place was made at 1 o'clock on Sunday and by nightfall the Japanese were in possession of a majority of the Russian positions, although the enemy had resisted with determination. The Japanese forces passed the night in battle formation and another assault was made on Monday at dawn. By 8 o'clock Monday morning Yangze pass and the surrounding heights had been captured.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 3.—Gen. Kuropatkin reports that the Japanese have occupied Khavuen, east of Liao Yang, and the Yangze pass, 30 miles east of Liao Yang.

PORT ARTHUR ATTACKED.

Che Foo, Aug. 4.—The steamer Wuchow, which has just arrived here from New Chwang, brings further details of the latest Japanese assault on Port Arthur. When nearing Che Foo, the Wuchow picked up a junk carrying seven men, four women and one boy who left Port Arthur Tuesday. They reported that the fighting north of the city of Port Arthur occurred at Wolf Hill and was sanguinary, resulting in the repulse of the Japanese.

Tokio, Aug. 4.—The Japanese defeated the Russians at Simoucheng and drove them toward Haicheng in a sharp fight which began last Saturday and ended on Sunday. The Russians left 1,500 dead on the field and lost six guns.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 5.—Gen. Sakharoff reports that 29 officers and over a thousand men were killed or wounded in the engagements of July 30 and July 31, and that six guns were abandoned.

Tokio, Aug. 5.—The Russians began abandoning Haicheng August 2. The Japanese entered Haicheng without boat in Pigeon Bay on July 16, arrived here Thursday on board the German steamer Sulberg. Among the survivors are three Europeans.

Mukden, Aug. 6.—It is reported here that the Japanese attacked the Russian position at Anshanshan (midway between Haicheng and Liao Yang) on August 2 and were repulsed with heavy loss. The Russian casualties were not known.

Tokio, Aug. 6.—The Russians left 700 dead on the battlefield at Simoucheng, and the Japanese casualties during the same battle aggregated 800. The Japanese captured six guns at Simoucheng.

London, Aug. 6.—A dispatch to the Japanese legation from Tokio announces that Gen. Kuroki estimates the Russian casualties at the battle of Yushu pass and Yangze pass as at least 2,000. The Japanese captured eight officers and 149 men, two field guns, many rifles, etc.

The Daily Illustrated Mirror says that two Russian cruisers have just left the Baltic Sea and are chasing a steamer which left England July 30 for Canada, carrying ammunition destined for Yokohama by way of the Canadian Pacific railway.

Berlin, Aug. 6.—The National Zeitung prints a private telegram from Tokio dated August 6 in which it is stated that there are five Japanese divisions before Port Arthur, part of them within three and a half miles of the fortress, and that there are altogether 20 Japanese divisions in Manchuria. The telegram says that Tokio is expecting the fall of Port Arthur and the capitulation of Gen. Kuropatkin on the same day.

Parker Resigns as Judge.

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 6.—Judge Parker's resignation as chief judge of the court of appeals was filed with the secretary of state yesterday. This will enable the issuance of the necessary orders to bring about the election of a successor to Chief Judge Parker this fall for the full term of 14 years instead of an appointment by the governor for one year if the resignation had been delayed until after August 10.

Union Miners are Enjoined.

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 2.—Joseph Leiter's coal company yesterday obtained an injunction from Judge Humphrey in the federal court prohibiting union miners from picketing or patrolling the premises of the company at Ziegler, Ill.; from entering upon the property, from interfering with men who wish to work, from threatening or persuading men to quit work, from interfering with or entering trains or cars going to and from Ziegler. The restraining order is temporary and the case is set for hearing September 15 in this city.

Ex-Gov. Pattison Dies.

Philadelphia, Aug. 2.—Robert E. Pattison, who was twice democratic governor of Pennsylvania and twice controller of Philadelphia, died early Monday at his home in Overlook, a suburb of this city. Pneumonia, complicated with a weakness of the heart, was the cause of death. He was 53 years old. Mr. Pattison was a candidate for governor on the democratic ticket against Gov. Pennypacker in 1902 and had not been a well man since his laborious campaign in that year, when his tour of seven weeks covered every county in the state.
