The Democratic Change of Base.

In our article two weeks ago we wrested the language of the Independent from its intended meaning. Our satirical construction upon the Independent's phrase was abundantly justified by the record of the Independent and of the Pennsylvania Democracy. There has been no change of principle because there has been no real principle to change. The flop of the Pennsylvania Democracy in 1896 upon the money question is unparalleled in the annals of state or national politics. The Independent and its editor fully participated in this flop.

We may remark in passing that this criticism upon the political attitude and record of the editor of the Independent is very far from being the same thing as an attack upon his personal and private character. We trust that the Independent will bear this distinction in mind.

Waiving our satirical construction, and considering in all due seriousness the assurance that the Democratic change of base involves no change of principle, let us ask what this assurance means or is worth.

What does it mean from the standpoint of Mr. Cleveland and Judge Parker? Does Mr. Cleveland declare that the Democratic change of base involves no change of principle? We should like to know the comments of the Independent upon Mr. Cleveland's article in "Collier's Weekly." Mr. Cleveland regards the acceptance of Judge Parker's telegram as a revolution, as a radical renunciation of wrong monetary principles. In Mr. Cleveland's eyes Judge Parker is a Moses who has safely led the Democratic hosts out of the Egypt of monetary heresy and through the Red Sea of Bryanism, and Mr. Cleveland himself is now playing the part of Aaron in sounding "the timbrel o'er Egypt's dark sea." We should not care to be in any one's place who would venture to declare in Mr. Cleveland's presence that the Democratic change of base involves no change of principle.

What does this assertion mean from the point of view of Mr. Bryan? We certainly concede that Mr. Bryan would much more readily endorse the assertion than would Judge Parker or Mr. Cleveland. He is still the unyielding champion of the free silver cause and did all that he could at St. Louis to prevent the party from declaring for the gold standard. He withstood to the last the proposition to accept Judge Parker's telegram, averring at the time that this telegram would tie the party up to the gold standard more hopelessly than the rejected gold plank would have done. According to his utterances at St. Louis and his manifesto issued a few days later, Mr. Bryan was far from regarding the Democratic change of base as involving no change of principle. Rather he was disposed to regard it as involving a most lamentable change of principle. Now, however, he is disposed to minimize the matter as much as possible in order to strengthen in himself the hope that the Democratic party may one day return to his leadership. He is now treating the action of the convention in accepting Judge Parker's telegram as a mere episode, unfortunate, indeed, but still as a mere episode. It is to his interest to foster the impression that the change of base on the money question is not to be taken very seriously, and that therefore the change of principle is not very serious or radical. We were not aware last week that we were conveying to any one the impression that Mr. Bryan has refused to support Messrs. Parker and Davis, but we did say and do say that he is not shouting for the gold standard. He deplores the acceptance of Judge Parker's position, but seeks to minimize its significance. He finds reasons for supporting the ticket, notwithstanding Judge Parker's telegram.

Mr. Cleveland magnifies the significance of Judge Parker's telegram and supports the ticket because of the party's radical return from heretical to sound money principles. Mr. Bryan belittles the significance of the Parker telegram, and finds reasons for supporting the ticket notwithstanding it. It is left for the East Emporium Independent to rejoice with Mr. Cleveland over the acceptance of Judge Parker's gold standard telegram, and to agree with Mr. Bryan's latest tendency to assert that the party has not seriously changed its principles.

This chaotic attitude of the Independent upon the money question is really characteristic of the Democratic party taken as a whole. And to such a party the country will not entrust the custody and maintenance of the gold standard.

BRYAN'S VIEW OF PLATFORM.

"I shall not misrepresent the situation, or appeal for votes for the ticket upon false grounds. A democratic victory will mean very little if any progress on economic questions so long as the party is under the control of the Wall Street element. * * * The labor plank as prepared by Judge Parker's friends on the subcommittee was a straddling, meaningless plank. * * * The nomination of Judge Parker virtually nullifies the anti-trust plank."—William Jennings Bryan, in "The Commoner," July 13, 1904.

How a Doctor Was Cured.

"For two years I was troubled with lumbago, or pain across my kidneys, the pain shooting down my thigh (especially on taking cold the pain would be terrible), a continual grinding, aching pain. One bottle of Thompson's Barosma, Backache, Live and Kidney Cure gave me immediate relief. I am now taking Barosma with great benefit as it reduces all inflammation of the stomach, liver and bladder, the great organs that regulate the whole system and purify the blood." Dr. A. S. Hubbard, 94 Brook St., Titusville, Pa. For sale by R. C. Dodson.

Discovery Concerning Rheumatism.

It is now known positively that rheumatism is caused by uric acid in the blood. The only possible way to get this poison away is to get this poison out of the blood is to treat the kidneys, as when they are diseased or not acting properly, the uric acid passes from the kidneys into the blood. Thompson's Barosma or Kidney Cure acts quickly, taking up the uric acid, curing the kidneys and restoring them to their normal functions. Thompson's Barosma is pleasant to take. For sale by R. C. Dodson.
