LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

PERSONAL GOSSIP.

Contributions invited. That which you would like to see in this department let us know by postal card or letter, personally.

Mrs. John Cummerford has been laid up for several days with quinsy.

W. H. Cramer is in New York City purchasing his fall and holiday goods.

Lee Halderman came over from Potter county on Saturday to visit his family.

Fred Leutze returned on Saturday from a visit to Toronto, Niagara Falls, and Buffalo.

Miss Rose Pye has returned from a delightful visit with Miss Reta Whiting at Ridgway.

Miss Alma Gauntz, Miss Belle Robinson and Robert Robinson visited at Niagara Falls this week.

Miss Minnie Smith and sister Nellie of Beech Creek are visiting their uncle Mr. N. J. Swartz and family on East Fifth street.

Attorney E. J. Jones, who has located at Bradford, where he is enjoying a large legal practice, called on his Emporium friends last Friday.

J. L. Norie, bookkeeper in C. B. Howard Company's office, went to Westboro, Wis., last Friday to accompany his wife and children to Emporium.

Miss Belle Robinson, who is located at Jersey City, where she is employed as professional nurse, is enjoying her visit at home here. She took on the sights at Niagara Falls on Tuesday.

Mrs. Stephen VanWert and little girls Misses Bessie and Edna spent Thursday and Friday at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. Wygant at Shippen. They always know how to make a pleasant time for all.

James G. Earl, an esteemed citizen of East Ward and an all around good fellow, was a PRESS visitor last Friday evening and carried away one of our handsome autograph receipts up to 1905.

Miss Mary Robinson, who has been visiting her parents at this place for some time, returned to her school at Dover, Del., on Monday. She is an experienced teacher and is meeting with success at Dover.

It is reported that T. J. Lysett will move to Williamsport in the near future, having rented a hotel in the saw dust city.—Hotel Federal. The St. Charles has been rented to Mr. Henry Shade, an industrious citizen, who has been in the employ of Climax Powder Company.

Mr. Thomas Trotter who, accompanied by his wife, have been visiting at Corry during the past three weeks, writes the PRESS they are enjoying their visit. Mr. Trotter informs us that "our former townsman, Mr. A. McInnes, Sr., left on Tuesday for St. Louis, he having entered the contest for high speed steel, by request."

H. L. McCoy and family, of Ridgway have moved to Emporium and occupy the "Faucett" house, opposite Elk Tanning office. Mr. McCoy, who is well recommended, resigned a position in Smith Bro's store at Ridgway to accept a position with Elk Tanning Co., at this place. Good people are always welcomed in Emporium and from the good reports we believe Mr. McCoy and family will find it pleasant here.

Ed. Morse spent Sunday at St. Marys.

W. R. Johnson of Bryan Hill lost a valuable cow last week.

J. D. Logan's family have returned from "Camp Punky".

Miss Mosher, of Erie, is being entertained by the Misses Ludlam.

Ross W. Barrows, of Lock Haven, visited in Emporium last evening.

Mr. C. W. Shaffer was yesterday nominated for Congress, at DuBois.

Mrs. C. G. Schmidt is entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Creasy, of Berwick, Pa.

Mrs. J. P. Felt has gone to Rock City, endeavoring to escape hay fever.

W. S. Walker drove over from Austin yesterday to visit relatives and transact business.

Landlord Murphy visited at Driftwood yesterday, looking after his property at that place.

Josiah A. Fisher, the popular Broad street blacksmith, was a brief PRESS visitor this morning.

Miss Isabel Johnson returned on Monday after visiting with friends at Port Allegany and Coudersport.

Miss Grace Lloyd, eldest daughter of Cashier T. B. Lloyd, has entered Dickinson Seminary at Williamsport.

R. M. Overhiser and F. M. Overhiser are spending a few days at Bath, N. Y., attending a reunion of the Overhiser family.

Mrs. Robt. House, of Duquesne, Pa., nee Annie Morrissey, is visiting her mother, and other relatives, in Emporium.

Miss Stacia Pendar and Mrs. Frank Maylen visited Keating Summit the guests of the latter's brother, Alex. McLeod.

Hazel, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Truman Carpenter, who has been seriously ill, is recovering under Dr. Heilman's careful treatment.

Miss Hemphill came up from Philadelphia last Monday to attend the circus, and visit her cousin, Sheriff Harry Hemphill and family.

Prof. Peter Dailey, who is residing at his DuBois home, is improving and preparing for the great event to take place in the near future.

Miss Mary Anderson, of Benovo, and Miss Nellie Thomas, of Emporium, will be the guests of honor at a leap year party given at the K. O. T. M. hall on Thursday evening.—Bradford Star.

Mrs. J. H. Swain and son Morrison who have been visiting in town, guests of Chas. Seger and family leave to-day for Olean where Mr. Swain has accepted a position with the P. R. R. Co.

Thos. W. Welsh has accepted a position with Emporium Furnace Supply Company's store, having charge of the meat department. He is a good man for the place.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Creasy, of Berwick, Mrs. C. G. Schmidt's guests visited Niagara Falls and Buffalo Tuesday and Wednesday. They were delighted with the visit.

Our townsman, Mr. J. F. Parsons, and Mr. S. E. Guthrie, of Bennetts Branch, attended the Bucktail Reunion at Lock Haven last Friday and Saturday. They meet at Curwensville next year.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Smith and children returned last Friday from an extended visit in Mass., and Conn. They were accompanied by Mrs. Smith's mother, Mrs. Mary J. Rider, who will visit here for some time.

Squire Chas. J. Howard came down from Portage on Tuesday all covered with smiles and wanted all the children within reach to take in the circus. His jolly mood was all on account of the new big boy that came to his home.

Rev. W. A. Pugsley, of Erie came to Emporium to officiate at the funeral of Mr. M. J. Leadbetter's son. The Rev. gentleman was guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Crandell during his stay in Emporium, and met many of his friends. The talented gentleman favored the PRESS with a call.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Miller and daughter, of Cameron, visited in town yesterday. Mr. Miller is proprietor of New Cameron House, coming from Lock Haven, where he had resided for fifty years, to take charge of the New Cameron. He made the PRESS sanctum a pleasant visit. We found him a very genial gentleman.

Mrs. Wm. McGee, of Meshoppen, Pa., is visiting friends in town, guest of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Macdonnell, on West Sixth street. We regret to learn our old friend McGee is in poor health this summer. He expects to visit Emporium in the near future for the purpose of drinking our mineral water.

Our good friends Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Byrne, of Mt. Alto, Pa., remembers the PRESS editor by sending us a basket of delicious peaches. We certainly have been enjoying the treat and can assure our friends we appreciate their kindness. It takes us back to our boyhood days when we feasted on Cumberland and Franklin fruit.

What is Life.
In the last analysis nobody knows, but we do know that it is under strict law. Abuse the law even slightly, pain results. Irregular living means derangement of the organs, resulting in Constipation, Headache or Liver trouble. Dr. King's New Life Pills quickly re-adjusts this. It's gentle, yet thorough. Only 25c at L. Taggart's Drug Store.

THE COUNTY.

FIRST FORK.

The corn crop is very backward and potatoes are reported rotting some.

Wm. Swank has built quite a large wagon shed and is engaged in clearing a fallow for wheat.

The freight and express office at Lushbaugh has been discontinued and is now only a flag station.

The school directors have obeyed the law and built some new outbuildings for the schools of this district. Our schools have been running a month, thus getting a start of the rest of the county.

Another old soldier has answered the final roll call. Freeman Ayers, of Wharton, died last Monday and the funeral was held on Wednesday and burial made in Wharton cemetery. He leaves one brother and a sister, Charles Ayers of Ayers Hill, and Mrs. D. D. Colcord of this place. Also leaves a wife and family of grown up children on the old Ayers homestead. His age was 74 years.
NUFF SED.

Sept. 5th, 1904.

SINNAMAHONING.

Potatoes are rotting quite badly here this season.

Fine weather for doing fall work and farmers are busy.

Nate Peasley is after ground hogs this week. Will report later.

Mrs. C. W. Peasley is very sick with diabetes. Dr. Corbett is attending her.

S. B. Weikle has been appointed Deputy Grand hustler for "Klass No. 136."

Mrs. J. R. Batchelder and Miss Bessie Walker are visiting friends at Lock Haven.

Mr. Roland Wykoff and wife, of Gowanda, Bradford county, are visiting at this place.

W. C. No 136, P. O. S. of A., have purchased the lot next to the hall building and propose to erect a fine building in the near future.

The schools opened Monday for the winter term, with the following staff of teachers: A. Grade, Prof. D. D. Stroup, of Carlisle; B. Grade, Miss Stella Orner of Lock Haven; Primary, Miss Evangeline Brooks of Sinnamahoning. The term has started with a full attendance of pupils and an excellent staff of teachers.
DEBSE.

Letter to Emporium Machine Co.

Emporium, Pa.
Dear Sirs: Mr. ——— President of a cotton-mill at Union, S. C.—he don't want to see his name in print—had two offers of 500 gallons of paint; $1.30 and $1.25. Took the $1.25; and got skinned. He'd have got three-quarters skinned if he'd taken the other.
The $1.30 was full gallon; the $1.25 was 18 per cent short. The full-measure paint was adulterated 40 per cent. The short-measure paint was adulterated 45 per cent. besides benzine in the oil, don't know how much.

Devote lead-and-zinc wasn't sold in the town then.

I don't pay to monkey with paint.
Devote costs less than any of 'em; not by the gallon, of course; by the house and year. That's how to reckon it. Go by the name.

Yours truly,
F. W. DEVOR & Co.
P. S. Murry & Coppersmith Co.,

The Sunday School Convention—Date Changed.

The Annual Convention of the County Sunday School Association will be held in the First Baptist church on Thursday evening and all day Friday of this week. On account of the inability of one of the speakers to be present on the date previously announced, the date was changed from the 5th and 6th to the 8th and 9th.

City of Contradictions.

Lassa is a city of magnificent buildings, where the streets are never repaired and, except for a slight cleaning in January and March of the Tibetan calendar, are dreadfully dirty. Everywhere people are laden with rich ornaments, but unwashed as Caverley's organ grinder. A vast Buddhist temple stands in the center of the city, and it is encircled by a street lined with shops and roadside vendors. Both men and women are enthusiastic traders, and especially striking is the sight of Buddhist priests selling divers merchandise at roadside stalls, with the sleeves of their clerical robes rolled high up their arms.—London Globe.

The "Inside Inn."

The visitor to the world's fair walked timidly up to the clerk at the hotel desk and asked:
"Excuse me sir, is this the Inside Inn? And, if so, is the proprietor of the Inside Inn in?"

"Yes!" replied the clerk, with a far away look in his eyes, "this is the Inside Inn, and you will find the proprietor of the Inside Inn outside by the inn's side. He has been keeping the Inside Inn for several weeks. He tells me that once when he took an ocean trip he couldn't keep his inside in, and he didn't intend it to get outside."

"All right," said the guest, "if this is the Inside Inn we want to see its inside as well as its outside, before we look inside any of the outside inns. If we like the Inside Inn's inside and outside better than we like the outside inn's outside and inside we may bring our things from outside inside and stop inside the Inside Inn. Because we won't have to go from the inside outside or come back from the outside inside when we're seeing the fair, but can remain inside or outside the Inside Inn, it being the only inn inside the grounds. The other ones are on the outside and furnish no more comforts for the guests' inside or outside than does the Inside Inn with exhibits close outside at the inn's side—that is, the Inside Inn's side, in—"
But the clerk had fainted and fallen inside the Inside Inn's desk and bell-boys were hurrying with water for his outside and brandy for his inside, though in their excitement they got that which was meant for his inside outside and that which was for his outside inside.—Baltimore American.

THE LADIES favor painting their churches, and therefore we urge every Minister to remember we give a liberal quantity of the Longman & Martinez Paint toward the painting.
Wears and covers like gold.
Don't pay $1.50 a gallon for Linseed Oil (worth 60 cents) which you do when you buy other paints in a can with a paint label on it.

8 & 6 make 14, therefore when you want fourteen gallons of paint, buy only eight of L. & M., and mix six gallons pure Linseed Oil with it, and thus get paint at less than $1.20 per gallon.

Many houses are well painted with four gallons of L. & M., and three gallons of Linseed Oil mixed therewith.

These Celebrated Paints are sold by Harry S. Lloyd.

In Praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"Allow me to give you a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mr. John Hamlett, of Eagle Pass, Texas. "I suffered one week with bowel trouble and took all kinds of medicine without getting any relief, when my friend, Mr. C. Johnson, a merchant here, advised me to take this remedy. After taking one dose I felt greatly relieved and when I had taken the third dose was entirely cured. I thank you from the bottom of my heart for putting this great remedy in the hands of mankind." For sale by Jno. E. Smith, Sterling Run.

From 148 to 92 Pounds.

One of the most remarkable cases of a cold deep-seated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold by R. C. Dodson.

Lips that love bad news make poor ones for good news.

The Stomach is the Man.

A weak stomach weakens the man, because it cannot transform the food he eats into nourishment. Health and strength cannot be restored to any sick man or weak woman without first restoring health and strength to the stomach. A weak stomach cannot digest enough food to feed the tissues and revive the tired and run down limbs and organs of the body. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat, cleanses and strengthens the glands and membranes of the stomach, and cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. Sold by R. C. Dodson.

Fearful Odds Against Him.

Bedridden, alone and destitute. Such, in brief, was the condition of an old soldier by name of J. J. Havens, Versailles, O. For years he was troubled with Kidney disease and neither doctors nor medicines gave him relief. At length he tried Electric Bitters. It put him on his feet in short order and now he testifies: "I'm on the road to complete recovery." Best on earth for Liver and Kidney troubles and all forms of Stomach and Bowel Complaints. Only 50c. Guaranteed by L. Taggart, Druggist.
