THE CAMERON COUNTY PR State Library 1 july 1905

ESTABLISHED BY C. B. GOULD, MARCH 1866.

"Liberty and Union, One and Inseparable."-WEBSTER.

TERMS: $2.00-$1.50 IN ADVANCE.

VOL. 39.

EMPORIUM, PA., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1904.

NO. 34.

Mud Slinging Reacts.

I do not think the average citizen believes in mud-slinging in polities, especially in county polities. We all, we think, want the best men we can get to fill all our offices, but more especially county offices, for the county matters come nearer our pockets than any other matters. What honest man wants to run for an office if he feels he is to be abused the moment he allows his name to be presented to the public for any office? How long will we be able to get good men to run for any office the county can offer, if mud-slinging is to continue? We think all thoughtful citizens will agree that it is time to call a halt on mud-slinging, and go to work and get the best men we can get for county offices and Representative. Surely no county needs good men more than ours does. I noticed in the Independent of Oct. 6th an article, in my judgment, uncalled for. I have reference to an article headed "A Wall for a Platform and a Declaration of Principles." Surely the writer of that article could not have meant what he wrote. We believe it was written with the idea in view of catching the vote of some disgruntled citizen, but will it? As before stated, we believe EDITOR CAMERON COUNTY PRESS:what he wrote. We believe it was written with the idea in view of catching the vote of some disgruntled citizen, but will it? As before stated, we believe our citizens are tired of mud-slinging, and it seems to me the article referred to is full of uncalled for mud-slinging and venom. Every one in the county knows Mr. Josiah Howard, and his great benevolences, but they do not know all of them. The writer knows well many kind acts of Mr. Howard that the general public never knew of, but what the public knows should be enough to send him to Harrisburg with the largest majority ever given a Representative from the county. If the voters of this county do not elect him how can they ever expect a good, clean citizen to allow his name to go before them again for any office of responsibility.

voters of this county do not elect him how can they ever expect a good, clean citizen to allow his name to go before them again for any office of responsibility? The Independent says Mr. Blumle has done ten times more for good roads than Mr. Howard has. That may be true, but we do not think the general public will believe it. Mr. Blumle has done quite a little for the roads on Plank Road Hollow, but Mr. Blumle was more benefitted by that road than any one else. Mr. Howard has spect hundreds of dollars and given his personal time fixing onr streets for the benefit of the public at large, and no one will deny but that our streets are in much better shape than ever before. Mr. Howard, at his own expense, has for years kept open a free library, gymnasium and reading room for the general public. In the afternoon this place is open for the accommodation of the farmers wives and daughters from all over the county, or elsewhere, with a lady attendant to wait on them. He also saw to it that our citizens had a beautiful Park, where the young can congregate any time to play their games, and the older folks can go and rest. He, and he alone, made it possible to have a county fair, who put up the buildings there, cleared the land, and made it possible for all our citizens to have a public place of enjoyment. Perhaps Mr. Howard can tell you better than any one else, yet you never hear this gentleman speak of it. Many other things this gentleman has done, and more improvements are contemplated. Mr. Editor, can the citizens of this county, knowing all this, vote for a man who has not such a record? I do not think they will. Which of the two men has the good of the county most at heart? Which of the two men is likely to be the most useful in the halls of the Legislature? I do not think any citizen can doubt. Mr. Howard has made his money in this county, and in it he is spending it, and after a while when the timber is gone, and perhaps some of the other industries, Mr. Howard will be here to help us on with his charities and br and we have no reason to think he will ever change. We also know what Hr. Blumle has done, and have no idea he will change. We ask the general pub-lic which of the two candidates is most worthy of their support?

We believe there are enough good. honorable thinking voters in this county to give Mr. Howard a very large majority, and vindicate the stand taken after the last election, that we will no longer allow beer or whiskey to influence the standard of the standa our vote or allow it to rob us of the value of it.

FAIR PLAY. Emporium, Pa., Oct. 11, 1904.

Birthday Party.

Mr. and Mrs, Geo. Huffman entertained a large party of friends last Monday evening, in honor of Mr. Huffman's thirty-third anniversary. The following friends were in attendance and that they enjoyed the happy ocand that they enjoyed the happy occasion goes without saying: Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Newton, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Newton, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Newton, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jessup, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Nellis, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Morrison and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Will Schnyder, Mr. and Mrs. John Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Huffman, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fisher, Master Clyde Fisher, Peter Schnyder, Mrs. O'Leary, Mrs. Robt. Faucett, Mrs. Samuel Faucett and daughter, Miss Bessie Lewis, Mrs. Will Robinson and son.

MARRIED.

CAREY—PENDER—AtSt Mark's Church, Emporfium, Pa., Wednesday, Oct. 12th, 1904, by Rev. Father Downey, Mr. Emmett Carey, of Austin to Miss Stacia Pender, of Gardeau.

BLISS-FRY,—At the Free Methodist Parsonage, Emporium, Pa., October 10, 1994, by Rev. R. A. Robertson, Gillis Bliss, of Emporium, and Anna Fry, of Montoursville, Pa.

Teachers' Institute Next Week.

The following list of testimonials regarding Institute attractions is submitted to our citizens for their inspection, believing that a careful perusal of them will convince all, of the superior class of attractions secured by County Superintendent, Miss Collins, for intended patrons:

for intended patrons:

Monday night, October 17. "Last year Mr. Wallace Bruce Amsbary endeared himself to all who heard him; he is a reader of exceptional merit; all who hear him are well pleased and many are delighted. His manner is so natural that whatever his subject it seems to be original and spontaneous—impromptu; in his month old pieces take on such new meaning that you hear them for the first time; at least a new interpretation for them. This is real histrionic genius; it is the personal equation that gives perennial freshness to the best literature; it is the personal presence and manner that says so much more than the mere words of a writer can express. We hope that there will be a good Chautauqua here next year and that Bruce Amsbary may be here with it, improved by time as much as he has been the past year. All will give him a hearty welcome, and laugh and cry as he reads as they have done before. Then his triends want the pleasure of meeting him personally, for he is as genial as talented.—Danville (III.) News.

Tuesday night, October 18. Germaine is one of the most skillful magicians who has appeared in this city for years. He kept his audience in a state of enthusiasm by the pleasing features of his work. He carried throughout his talk a vein of humor which was pleasing in itself, and some of his surprises were as funny as they were inexplicable. Possessing an unusual power to please as welf as to deceive the eye, he is delightful, and the audience was more than satisfied with the entertainment.

—The Saginaw (Mich.) Evening News.

Wednesday night, Oct. 19. Senor

Wednesday night, Oct. 19. Senor Lala's lecture on the "Philippines and Their People" in the Y. M. C. A. Lecture Course last night proved most interesting. He is a speaker of good voice, and talks in an interesting manner, occasionally illustrating his remarks with vivid pictures and folksoness. The pictures shown were well. marks with vivid pictures and folksongs. The pictures shown were well selected and gave the unacquainted an insight into the walled city of Manila,
as well as the villages outde of the city.
Mr. Lala speaks English fluently, and barring the color of his skin, would not be taken for a native of the Philippines
He has written many books and is, as well, somewhat of a composer. Last evening he rendered a native waltz song that completely charmed the audience.—The Morning Call, Paterson, N. J.

Thursday night Oct. 29. The Cleve.

son, N. J.

Thursday night, Oct. 20. The Cleveland Ladies' Orchestra appeared to one of the largest and most appreciative audiences ever assembled in the town in the history of the lecture association. The orchestra is first-class in every particular—every one an artist, every number a gem. They play with a smoothness and quality of tone and finish that can hardly be excelled. Miss Parsons, the trombone soloist, deserves especial mention as an artist, as does each soloist. The results accomplished by their leader, Alfred Metzdorf, show him to be an artist of the highest class, and his violin solos are the work of a master.—Evening Republic, Columbus, Ind.

The price of a Course ticket, $1.25.

The price of a Course ticket, $1.25. places this magnificent list of entertainments within the reach of all and should be taken advantage of by hundreds of our citizens. The teachers of our public schools are now making the can was and it is hoped their efforts on Friday afternoon a groupe picture. will be attended with the success they deserve. The chart will open at Lloyd' Monday, Oct. 17, at 9:00 a. m.

Train No. 4 will stop at Cameron, Sterling Run and Sinnamahoning, on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights of institute week for the accommodation of patrons from the lower end of the county.

Edward Goodman Killed.

About 5:30 o'clock Sunday morning, the mangled remains of Edward Goodman were found lying along side the P. & E. R. R., near the wagon road crossing, a short distance below Cam-From the nature of the injuries his death must have been instant. It is the supposition that Goodman who had remained at Cameron until a late hour, was struck by one of the west bound Flyers. He was found on Sunday morning by Dan'i McFadden, who was going home.

His remains were taken to his sister's McFadden and prepared for burial, Undertaker Egan being called from Emporium for that purpose. The funeral was held at St. Mark's Church, Tuesday morning, the following serving as pall-bearers: M. C. Tulis, Jos. Lechner, R Seger, Michael Brennan, John Lawson, F. X. Blumle. Deceased leaves one son and one daughter-Mrs. M. Morriarty-who was present at Mr. A. P. VanGelder, will occupy the the funeral, accompanied by her husband. Edward Good man came to Cameron in 1873 and for a time conducted a this church is changed to 7 o'clock. hotel. He was aged 74 He was his own worst enemy.

A Respectable Canvass.

Mr. Josiah Howard, candidate for Representative, and Dr. E. O. Bard-well, candidate for County Treasurer, well, candidate for County Treasurer, are both making an honorable, legal and manly canvass. While they are desirous of meeting every voter they may miss seeing many. The people fully understand the questions at issue and knowing the men to be fully competent will give them a rousing majority.

The Shriners Meet.

About one thousand Shriners con-vened in extra session at Bradford vened in extra session at Bradford yesterday afternoon and evening—103 candidates having drauk camel's milk and walked through the hot sands. The following Emporiumites were in attendance: Messrs. Fred Julian, E. W. Gaskitl, Jos. J. Lingle, J. P. Felt, A. C. Blum, Dr. S. S. Smith, I. K. Hockley, U. A. Palmer, Jus. L. Norie, L. W. Gleason and John D. Logan. They report a grand time.

Where Was It?

Boss Hockley fears politics w injected into the Fair, last week, every well regulated Fair "politics the expected time" for candidates do a little hand shaking, but in the case no one attempted any political game, and we know of no attempt to mix in politics, only that emanating from Boss Hockley's wonderful imaginary brain. He can see politics in everything, or thinks he does, even when such is not in evidence. The friends of the Fair would like you to tell who the "fiend" may be that so disturbed your rest. Name him.

At Emporium Opera House.

At Emporium Opera House.

Commencing to-night, (Thursday), one of the best known and most meritorious popular price stock companies on the road will open a three nights engagement. Wild & Rich's players, the company which will appear at this time, have sustained a very high reputation for many years as purveyors of high class and legitimate plays at low prices.

dees. Messrs.*Wild & Rich the managers this company make no pretences to of this company make no pretences to presenting a dollar show for 30 cents— for that kind of advertising is fakism for that kind of advertising is fakism which the public very readily find out, but they do pretend to give productions which, for their all round excellency, are not surpassed by any organization playing at "living" prices.

Five specialties are presented to tween the acts and a change of playand specialties nightly.

Saturday Matinee; Tickets, 10c; children 5c.

The County Fair.

The second annual Fair and Pic-Nic of the Cameron County Agricultural of the Cameron County Agricultural Society was held at Keystone Park, Emporium, last Thursday and Friday. It was a grand success and too much praise cannot be given to Dr. R. P. Heilman for his able and gentlemanly management. The attendance on Friday must have been about 2,000 per sons, perhaps the largest assembly ever held in the county. Not one drunken person was noticed on the grounds. The Fair is not held for the purpose of making money and all purpose of making money and all fakers and games of chance are exclud-ed. Mr. Josiah Howard, the sole owned. Mr. Josiah Howard, the sole own er, has supplied all the conveniences er, massappined and the conveniences, erected buildings and made it possible for the Association to make the Fair a permanent affair, not one dollar being charged. The public are now con-vinced that this is the best for the upvineed that this is the best for the up-building of true sport and wholesome amusement, as well as the ambition, energy and good will of the entire community. The exhibits were half again larger than last year, especially the fruit, vegetable and produce de-partment. In this department, Messrs. Hobson & Cousins had the largest dis-play.

was taken by Photographer, W. G. Bair of ye Old Folks, in attendance who have resided fifty years in Cameron nave resided fifty years in Cameron county;

Francis A. Lewis, 52: Almeron Chapman, 61: Mark Wright, 67: Franclin A. Lewis, 71; George Chapman, 89: Lyman Lewis, 62: N. F. Minard, 81: C. C. Craven, 72: J. Wewis, 68; J. D. Swope, 68: E. D. Sizer, 81; Jesse Swan, 75; Mrs. E. C. Davy, 69: Washington Mason, 72; Mrs. Dorcus Mundry, 78: Mrs. J. K. Morrison, 75; Mrs. Lachae Chapter, 77: Mrs. Samuel Parks, 54: N. S. Chuer, 67; Robert Morrison, 75; Mrs. L. Lucore, 74; Wr. E. Ensign, 81; Mrs. W. L. Ensign, 81; Mrs. W. L. Ensign, 72; Mrs. J. L. Ensign, 82; Mrs. W. L. Ensign, 72; Mrs. Jonatane, 61; Mrs. Franklin Lewis, 57; Mrs. Jonatane, 61; Mrs. Franklin Lewis, 57; Mrs. Jonatane, 61; Mrs. Julia Chipman, 63; Mrs. W. S. S. S. Hacket, 77; Mrs. Jonatane, 61; Mrs. America, 62; T. N. Hacket, 51; J. W. Taylor, 70; Mrs. S. S. Hacket, 77; Mrs. Jonatane, 61; Mrs. Robert McDowell, 62; Mrs. Mary Winfield, 57.

As soon as it is settled as to the six Oldest residents we will publish the names of same.

names of same.

Missionary Service.

Rev. Dr. Poole, will preach at Missionary Service in Presbyterian Church, next Sunday evening. All in-

Card of Thanks.

We would take this means of offering (where he made his home) Mrs. E. M. thanks to the many kind friends that assisted us during the sickness and death of our beloved son, Gordon

> FATHER AND MOTHER. Shippen, Pa, Oct. 10th, 1904.

Dr. Poole Will Preach.

The Rev. Dr. Poole, of Summerville N. J., father in law of our townsman pulpit of the First Methodist Epis copal Church next Sunday morning.

The hour of the evening service in The Epworth Leagne Devotional meeting, 6:15 p. m. Letters from the People.

How Will YOU Vote? EDITOR PRESS:

Young man, the day is fast approaching when you will be called upon to answer this vital question, for answer it you must, if this government of the people is to continue to exist. Let me suggest that you weigh the matter well before you go to the polls, and, what-ever you may do, don't vote for any man simply because he is a "jolly good

There are two ways of being "a good fellow." One is to spend money freely at the bar, and in so doing demoralize and degrade the voters. The other, and better way, is to strive in every possible way to elevate and inspire the young men to become men of moral character.

The one "good fellow" encourages the use of alcoholic liquors as a beverage, and in so doing lays the foundation for drunkenness, despair, wrecked homes and ruined lives, and possibly ost souls.

The other "good fellow" encourages temperance, free libraries, public improvements and pure, undefiled manhood and womanhood.

These, my boy, are some of the issues your conscience must help you to decide, between now and November. Remember your poor old mother's prayers, that her boy might become a pure man, and then vote as your conscience dictates.

Not long since I overheard a young man say that he would not vote for a certain candidate because he refused to give him money with which to buy whiskey. Can it be possible that some mother's boy has fallen so low?

There is an old saying that "every tub must stand on its own bottom. The same may be said of political campaigns. We have but one campaign at cowardice of the editor. a time and the present campaign has nothing to do with the ones in the past. Vote for men who will be a credit to yourself and your county, is the advice

Shippen, Pa., Oct. 10, 1904.

It is Strange, Passing Strange.

The Independent says, it is strange and somewhat inconsistent, that women should attack the liquor traffic only about election sime. Has it ever occured to the Independent that this aversion to the traffic at this particular time, is probably aggravated by the fact that beer wagons are never so frequently seen on our streets, both night and day, as they are at this present time and have been on the eve of on election during the past four years, nor are so many poor drunken men in evidence on our thoroughfares-both on Sundays and weekdays-nor as many violent deaths, directly traceable to this cause, as during a period covering the two months before an

A. W. W. C. S. Emporium, Pa., Oct. 13, 1903.

A Birthday Surprise.

A most enjoyable time was passed Kednesday evening, Oct. 5th, at the toresist the pressure brought to bear home of Mr. N. H. McCloskey, who upon him. lives in the part of Sinnamahoning called by that good old Bible name "Jericho." It was Mr. McCloskey's forty-sixth birthday, and the occasion was a successfully complete surprise. His first intimation of it was when he haved the godden whereast several successions. heard the sudden, pleasant sound of music, in the parlor, by the Sinnama-honing band of which he is an enthu-siastic member. The band was royally saste member. The band was royally treated to a splendid supper of many good things, including ice cream. Mr. McCloskey is a generous and wholesouled brother and shall have a long and grateful remembrance of the pleasant occasion accorded him.

Would not Vote Against His Business. "TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN."

Under this heading I find an article in the Independent of October 13th, which is said to have been written by a Hotel man, and which the above named paper says, "points a way to the correction of the abuse of the traffic," and paper says, "points a way to the correction of the abuse of the traffle," and I certainly think that every good citizen agrees with this Hotel man and the paper publishing it, and in fact such a law was passed by the Legisluture of 1903, and approved by the Governor, and is No. 189, recorded on page 257, Laws of Pennsylvania of 1903.

How about the attitude of the Independent's candidate, Hon. F. X. Blumle, toward this Bill. which points the way toward this Bill, which points the way to a correction? The Legislative Record, Vol. 11 of 1903, shows that this Bill came up for third reading and that the gentleman in question placed himself on record as "absent and not voting," or in other words he "dodged" the Bill which permits a blood setting. the Bill, which permits a blood relative or overseer of the poor to serve such a notice on a saloon keeper. Mr. Blumle was present at the same session and is recorded on other questions.

BRIEF MENTION.

There are no rats in the piano, Mike. Real enjoyment is had when reading that elever magazine, The Smart Set.

Permanent position for a good Laundry woman. Apply at once at New Warner House.

Last Saturday night the mail train east struck a beef critter, west of Park bridge, carrying it almost to Howard Uncle Phin, as everybody was wont to & Co's office. The critter belonged to Mr. Josiah Howard.

An editor, in reply to a young writer who wished to know which magazine would give him the highest position quickest, advised "a powder magazine especially if you contribute a fiery Alawyer was summoned as a witness in a certain case. The jndge find- the morning she ask him how he resting that the witness was lying badly, ed he answered "very well and felt interrupted him, saying, you to forget your profession for a moment and tell us the truth."—Wm. F. Perdue, Summitville, Ind.

Two Irishmen were eating dinner in a hotel in America for the first time. There was a bottle of pickles on the table. One of them took one of the green pickles and stolit; ne said. "Be-green Pat. thry one, they are fine." Mr. Mason was over 68 years old, Pat thought if the green one was good born April 1st, 1836, on the farm where the red one would be better, so he took he has lived from his infancy. His out a red pepper and tasted it, and life was spent in lumbering and farmlaid it on his plate. Mike said, "Is it good, Pat?" "Yes, but I will lay the riage to Miss Ellen Brooks; from this little red hot cass down till he cools,-Sterling Eulon, Michell, Neb.

Don't ask the editor to write up every evil work and rebuke every evil in the town and community, says the North East Breeze, but when convict ed that such duties need attending to, write an article for the paper yourself and sign your name to it for publica-tion. The man who is too big a coward to thus express an opinion is was a man of high respectability, the very one who will stand on the corner and talk loudly about the him; a man of kind, benevolent and corner and talk loudly about the

In the Independent of this week, the political writer conveys the idea that Democrats and Republicans alike took an undue advantage of Hon. F. X Blumle, by asking him, as early as last March, whether he would be a candi date, as public opinion had not crystallized yet. The same writer also very kindly states, that he does not care to name a time for the holding of the Republican County Convention, for which forbearance the Republican voters of this State and county should feel deeply grateful. For his information we state that the holding of these conventions is not governed by Mr. Blumle's candidacy, but by the date of the holding of the State Convention. The entire article certainly is a slur upon the manhood of the Independent's candidate. There can be no question as to the truth of the fact that Mr. Blumle stated to a number of influential Democrats, and to Republicans alike, that he was not a candidate, that "he had a mind of his own, and could not be forced to be a candidate, and that his word was as good as his bond.' These facts are subject to proof at any time. Yet the crystallizing of public opinion seemed to have this very ef-

Nothing Definite.

It has been rumored in town for several days that our genial citizen, Mr. Thos. H. Norris, Supt. of the tannery at this place, will leave Emporium in the very near future, having been appointed to a position that would necessitate his moving to Ridgway. We are glad to inform our readeas that, in part, the report is untrue. Mr. Norris has been tendered a position of responsibility, one that would take him from home a greater portion of the week. Mr. Norris has the proposition under consideration. His friends in this county hope he may remain in Emporium, having become closely identified with our town and county.

Eye Specialist.

Prof. W. H. Budine, the well known Eye Specialist, of Binghamton, N. Y., ing children, the oldest of which is in will be at R. H. Hirsch's jewelry store, Emporium, Pa., October 14th and 15th. If you can't see well or have headache don't fail to call and see Prof. Budine, as he guarantees to cure all Hill and Walter, of Mason Hill and such cases. Lenses ground and fitted in old frames. Eyes tested and ex- Dents Run and Miss Ethel, of Mason amined free. All work guaranteed.

Died From Injuries.

Michael O'Malley, who was struck by an engine at Cameron, last Friday died from his injuries yesterday morning. Funeral on Friday morning.

(Forecast by T. B. Lloyd.) FRIDAY, Fair. SATURDAY, Fair

DEATH'S DOINGS.

(3) 2002(20) MASON

Another one of our respected citicall him, died very suddenly on Huston Hill, while repairing the township road, (as he was Supervisor). He left home on Monday morning in his usual health and said to his family, I will not be home until to-morrow night. Little did they think he would never return to them alive. He stop ed over night at Mrs. Miller's and in

While at work in the forenoon he went to a spring and took a drink on his return to work. He took sick and grew worse and in about twenty minutes he was dead. No one knows the cause of his death, as no doctor examined him, but it is supposed to be union one son was born, Anson, who owns and lives on the John Mason farm. Mr. Mason has been elected to cerned.

It has been the privilege and pleasure of the writer to have known Mr. Mason, by personal acquaintance, for many years, and can truthfully say he generous heart, always cheerful. And one who will be missed; not only in his own home and among his own immediate relatives and friends, but by the whole community. Mr. Mason was a member of the M. E. church and by what we knew of him, was a consistent christian. This is a comforting and consoling thought to the bereaved wife in her loneliness, and to the sorrowing son and sisters (of whom three are living, Mrs. J. F. English, Grantonia; Mrs. Wm. Krebs, Sterling Run; Mrs. Ross Meeker, Port Alleghany, Pa.,) and all near relatives. We hope and believe he has but passed over into glory, where he awaits to extend a glad hand to all.

The funeral was conducted by Rev. G. W. Faus, of M. E. Church, assisted by Joseph Pugh, evangelist, James town, N. Y. The funeral was largely attended by friends from all parts of the county and many from adjoining counties. The remains were enclosed in a very beautiful casket and rested in the parlor. After the services were concluded the last look was taken of him who but three days before was alive. The Rev. gentleman used these words for the foundation of his remarks, "There is but a step between me and death," 1st Saul, 20 chapter, 3rd verse. After the services were ended the remains were taken to the old Pine Street Cemetery and laid beside his father, mother, brother and a sister, to await the first resurrection. "When Spring with dewy fingers, Returns to deck his hallowed mold: She there shall dress a sweeter sod, Than fancy's feet have ever trod.

J. M. E.

BARR.

ME. WILL BARR died at his home at Hicks Run, Sunday, Oct. 9th, 1904 at 8 o'clock, p. m. He had been sick about two weeks but was not considered in a critical condition until two or three days before his death. He had been e devoted husband and a kind and indulgent father.

W. E. Barr was born at Hicks Run, Jan. 25, 1867, being in his 38th year and lived all his life in this vacinity. He was married to Miss Nellie Barr, July 3rd, 1895. There are five survivher 8th year. Besides his wife and children, he leaves to mourn for him a mother, Miss Alzina Barr, of Mason Hill, two brothers, Charles, of Huston two sisters, Mrs. Carrie Conners, of Hill.

The funeral services, which were very largely attended, were conducted by Rev. Faus at the house and by Rev. Pugh at the Mason Hill school house. night, and brought to the home of his Mr. C. W. Rishell, Mr. LaBar's assistsister, Mrs. Jas. Quinn, at this place, ant, had charge of the remains and iuterment took place in Mason Hill cemetery.