Quotations From Republican Campaign Text-Book, 1904.

"The man or party that would seek to array labor against capital and capital against labor is the enemy of both."—Maj. McKinley at Canton, September 18, 1896.

"Cheap labor is not the sole end we seek in the United States.—We desire not only well-paid labor, but want that labor steadily employed."—Hon. C. W. Fairbanks, at Kansas City, Mo., September 1, 1902.

"Where possible, it is always better to meditate before the strike begins than to try to arbitrate when the fight is on and both sides have grown stubborn and bitter."—President Roosevelt at Labor Day picnic, Chicago, Sept. 3, 1900.

"We want no slave labor. Two million men, with their blood, wiped away slavery forever. We want no labor, either white or black, in a virtual state of serfdom. Labor must be free, with all the prerogatives which pertain to freedom."—Hon. C. W. Fairbanks, at Kansas City, Mo., September 1, 1902.

"The obstructionist are here, not elsewhere. They may postpone but they cannot defeat the realization of the high purpose of this nation to restore order to the islands and establish a just and generous government in which the inhabitants shall have the largest participation of which they are capable."—President McKinley to Notification Committee, July 12, 1900.

"I am a protectionist because I can see very clearly that the political independence which every patriot would sacrifice his life to preserve to his country can only be safely assured when we are industrially independent, and I am glad, if it requires that lesser sacrifice, to forego a few pennies of my savings to do my part to secure that assurance." Prof. R. H. Thurston, of Cornell University, in the American Economist.

"The certain way of bringing great harm upon ourselves, without in any way furthering the solution of the problem, but on the contrary, deferring indefinitely its proper solution, would be to act in a spirit of ignorance, of rancor, in a spirit which would make us tear down the temple of industry in which we live because we are not satisfied with some of the details of its management."—President Roosevelt at Fitchburg, Mass., Sept. 2, 1902.

"It remains true now as it always has been, that in the last resort the country districts are those in which we are sure to find the old American spirit, the old American habits of thought and ways of living. Conditions have changed in the country far less than they have changed in the cities, and in consequence there has been little breaking away from the methods of life which have produced the great majority of the leaders of the Republic in the past."—President Roosevelt at Bangor, Me., Aug. 27, 1902.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our Regular Correspondent.) Washington, Oct. 10th, 1904.

Yesterday thousands of people assembled inside and outside of St. John's Episcopal church, in this city, to attend the funeral of Postmaster General Payne. The streets were blocked for a long distance around Lafayette Square and the Arlington hotel. The services began at 11 o'clock, and continued for one half hour. Among those in the audience were the President and Mrs. Roosevelt, dressed in black, Admiral Dewey, and Chinese and Japanese ministers; the General of the Army; Gen. Black and wife, Mr. Justice Harlan and Mr. Justice Brown of the Supreme Court, with his bride; and many other officials, together with such of the Cabinet officers as are in the town. The display of flowers was very elaborate. When the casket was taken to the depot the hearse was proceeded by 200 letter carriers who marched four file front. A few carriages followed filled with members of the family and the pallbearers. The President looked in the best of health and spirits. Those nearest to him say he is very optimistic regarding the political situation. Mr. Cortelyou came on from New York to attend the funeral. Afterwards he went to the White House. As he was about to leave he said: "Mr. President I believe you will win, and you will win without a promise, express or implied, having been given a corporation, interest or individual in exchange for support." This is taken to be an answer to a lengthy attack recently made upon the President by a New York daily paper. A few days ago a delegation of Philadelphia citizens, headed by Senator Penrose, called upon the President to ask him to revoke a recent order from the War Department, which would take work away from some 3,000 widows and wives of old soldiers and give it to contractors. It seems the War Office wants 55,000 pairs of dress trousers and sought the cheapest contractor, regardless of the fact that heretofore these women have done the work. The President immediately canceled the order and dictated a letter of inquiry to the Secretary of War, asking why it was issued. He promised that an investigation shall be made. The seamstresses were delighted with their reception, and will hold a thank-offering meeting in Philadelphia. Senator Foraker has been in town, and assures the President that in his opinion Indiana, Wisconsin, and Nebraska will give Republican pluralities.

The Old Boys' Club, just organized in this city, of which President Roosevelt has been elected a member; is a Republican organization, the object of which is to use all lawful means in its power to assist in the election of a Republican President of the United States next November, and to secure to the American people "the greatest good to the greatest number." There are no fees, which is remarkable. The organization is composed of men who voted for Fremont or Lincoln. It is the purpose of the club to reach every community in the United States. Those who wish can wear a Fremont and Lincoln button. The motto of the club is: "A party fit to govern must have convictions."

Healthy Mothers. Mothers should always keep in good bodily health. They owe it to their children. Yet it is no unusual sight to see a mother, with babe in arms, coughing violently and exhibiting all the symptoms of a consumptive tendency. And why should this dangerous condition exist, dangerous alike to mother and child, when Dr. Boschee's German Syrup would put a stop to it at once? No mother should be without this old and tried remedy in the house—for its timely use will promptly cure any lung, throat or bronchial trouble in herself or her children. The worst cough or cold can be speedily cured by German Syrup, so can hoarseness and congestion of the bronchial tubes. It makes expectoration easy, and gives instant relief and refreshing rest to the cough racked consumptive. New trial bottles, 25; large size, 75c. At all druggists. 49-ly.

Broke Into His House. S. Le Quinn, of Cavendish, Vt., was robbed of his customary health by invasion of Chronic Constipation. When Dr. King's New Life Pills broke into his house, his trouble was arrested and now he's entirely cured. They're guaranteed to cure, 25c at L. Taggart's Drug Store.

Warning. All persons are hereby forbidden from trespassing upon the property of this Company without a permit from this office, or the Superintendent at the works. KEYSTONE POWDER MFG. CO. Emporium, Pa., August 1st, 1903. 24-tf.

It is an insult to the American voter to try to convince him that he does not know the difference between Republican performance and Democratic promise.

The Most Fatal Disease. Diseases of the kidneys cause more deaths than any other class of diseases. Most people who have kidney disease do not know they have it. The first symptoms are neither noticed or mistaken for something else. This is why insurance companies always require a strict analysis of urine before granting insurance. Thompson's Barosma will at once relieve any congestion or inflammation of the kidneys and has made remarkable cures in Bright's disease, sciatica and all diseases of the kidneys and liver. Pleasant to take. For sale by R. C. Dodson.

It takes more than a derrick to raise blasted hopes.

Saved Two From Death. "Our little daughter had an almost fatal attack of whooping cough and bronchitis," writes Mrs. W. K. Haviland, of Armonk, N. Confessions of a Priest. Rev. Jno. S. THE LADIES favor painting their churches, and therefore we urge every Minister to remember we give a liberal quantity of the Longman & Martinez Paint toward the painting. Wears and covers like gold. Don't pay $1.50 a gallon for Linseed Oil (worth 60 cents) which you do when you buy other paints in a can with a paint label on it. 8 & 6 make 14, therefore when you want fourteen gallons of paint, buy only eight of L. & M., and mix six gallons pure Linseed Oil with it, and thus get paint at less than $1.20 per gallon. Many houses are well painted with four gallons of L. & M., and three gallons of Linseed Oil mixed therewith. These Celebrated Paints are sold by Harry S. Lloyd.
