Jay Mills has procured the material for a most interesting chronicle of the social events and per-sonages of Old New York, which is given in this number of the magazine and illustrated with photographs never before published. W. G. Fitz-Gerald tells the story of the trials and heroism of the woman missionary abroad in an article that is graphically illustrated, and the romance of Mozart and his Constance is related in the "Compos-ers" series. Dress in its relation to health is discussed by Dr. Grace Peck-ham Murray, and there is a delightful paper in the "Joy of Living" series, which for the young people, Clara Morris, Ada Marie Peck and Albert Bigelow Paine contribute pleasant and instructive reading. The interests of the home are treated thoroughly, with regard for the special demands of the Thanksgiving season.

Second Sabbath in the New Church. Communion services at the Presbyterian church on last Sabbath morning were well attended. The Rev. Dr Pool, Secretary of the Board of Home Missions of the Reformed Church, assisted in the services and preached an excellent sermon in the evening on John the Disciple whom Jesus loved. The sermon was full of the marrow of the gospel and was listened to with deep interest.

Can You Eat.

T. B. Taylor, a prominent merchant of Charlesman, Tex., says: "I could not eat because of a weak stomach, I lost all strength and ran down in weight. All that money could do was done, but all hope of recovery vanished. Hearing of some wonderful cures effected by the use ot Kodol Dyspepsie Cure, I concluded to try it. The first bottle benefitted me, and after taking four bottles, I am fully restored to my usual strength, weight and health." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and cures. Sold by R. C.
