A nation's diplomatic strength is measured by the size of its Navy.

Democrats have a very strong passion for free things, including free trade, free silver and free soup.

The country is not going to gain much if the retirement of Dave Hill is followed by the revival of Arthur Pue Gorman.

If the Parker Constitution Club has a good case, it should take it into court. There is always a legal remedy for existing evils.

Grover Cleveland might be called as a witness to prove that the Democratic party does not keep faith on its tariff pledges.

"Our party now has the courage of its convictions" says Bourke Cockran. The party is still shy, however, on convictions.

The merchant in the manufacturing town is not going to vote for a repetition of the times of 1893 and Democratic tariff tinkering.

The Treasury deficit the Democrats have been talking about so much has disappeared. It lasted about as long as the usual Democratic issue.

Judge Parker now believes that he is running for the Presidency. He will discover on the night of November 8 that he has only been marking time.

What is Democracy? The St. Louis platform declares that "Protection is robbery," but the Vice-Presidential candidate says, "I believe incidental protection to our industries is right and proper." Burlington "Hawk-Eye."

The Constitution of the United States is printed as preface to the Democratic text-book. It is about the only Constitution to which they have not tried to add a "grandfather clause."

It is an insult to the American voter to try to convince him that he does not know the difference between Republican performance and Democratic promise.

The Democratic "Confidence" Game. "State of New York, Huffman House, N. Y., Oct. 12, 1885. My Dear Sir: Reliable information has reached us that a marked and special effort is being made to elect General Carr.

We trust that within your own circle of friends you will make diligent efforts to defeat this object. Very truly yours, ALTON B. PARKER, Chairman Ex. Com."

[From the Irish World, Oct. 21, 1885.] "The aim of this 'confidence' circular is obvious. They want to politically kill General Carr. And why? Because General Carr is an Irish-American and a Catholic, and if he is elected the Democrats are afraid he will reinforce the Republican party in the coming election and bring fresh accessions to the Republican standard of '88. Their campaign orators and journals were wont to say that the Republican party was a foe to Catholicity. Neither the Democratic nor the Republican party is anti-Catholic. There are Know-Nothings in both political organizations; but to say that the Republican party, either in its platform of principles or in its ultimate ends, tends in that direction any more than the Democratic party is false, and the nomination of General Carr to the honored position of Lieutenant Governor proves its falsity. Every intelligent man knows what the Irish World states here is the truth."

We all know the result of that election. The Irish vote rebuked the mug-wumps once again even more signally than before by electing Hill, while giving General Carr on the Republican ticket a handsome vote over and above the rest of his ticket. The significance of this well understood.

"Where were the mugwumps? Where are the mugwumps?" queried the New York Sun sarcastically next day.

That secret circular of Parker's against Carr was an unmanly action, an unnecessary meanness, that ought not to be forgotten for Parker.

General Carr deserved well of the people of New York—Democratic as well as the Republican—and all good citizens should have rejoiced at the handsome compliment of a heavy vote for the gallant soldier, the efficient State officer, the progressive business man against whom nothing could be said except that he was the son of an Irishman and a Catholic. For these two things only he was singled out for special action against him. Afraid of his great popularity and its value to the Republican ticket, he was struck at in this cowardly and underhand fashion.

A Continual Strain. Many men and women are constantly subjected to what they commonly term "a continual strain" because of some financial or family trouble. It wears and distresses them both mentally and physically, affecting their nerves badly and bringing on liver and kidney ailments, with the attendant evils of constipation, loss of appetite, sleeplessness, low vitality and dispendency. They cannot, as a rule, get ride of this "continual strain," but they can remedy its health destroying effects by taking frequent doses of Green's August Flower. It tones up the liver, stimulates the kidneys, insures healthy bodily functions, gives vim and spirit to one's whole being, and eventually dispels the physical or mental distress caused by that "continual strain." Trial bottle of August Flower, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists. 48-ly.

How to Retain Youth. Middle aged and aged people can retain their youthfulness by keeping certain organs in a healthy condition. The Most Fatal Disease. Diseases of the kidneys cause more deaths than any other one class of diseases. Most people who have kidney disease do not know they have it. The first symptoms are neither noticed or mistaken for something else. This is why insurance companies always require a strict analysis of urine before granting insurance. Thompson's Barosma will at once relieve any congestion or inflammation of the kidneys and has made remarkable cures in Bright's disease, sciatica and all diseases of the kidneys and liver. Why You Should Visit the World's Fair.

The principle reason why a visit should be made to this greatest of Educational value. A visit to the World's Fair is itself a trip around the world, for fifty cents, the price of admission. The president of one of our greatest universities has said "To the bright student the Exposition is worth a thousand college lectures." The opportunity of a life-time is afforded in which to acquire, by a few days' sojourn at the Fair, an education which could not otherwise be received. The World's Fair Grounds cover over 1200 acres, being more than twice as large as those of the World's Columbian Exposition at Chicago.

Only a few weeks remain in which to take advantage of this great opportunity. Every day from now until the close of the Fair is a "special" day. The Wabash is selling daily Excursion tickets to the Fair at greatly reduced rates: $12.00 St. Louis and return, on sale daily, except Fridays and Saturdays. Tickets good in Palace Reclining Chair Cars, $15.00, St. Louis and return. Tickets on sale daily, and good on either Palace Reclining Chair Cars or Pullman Sleepers.
