Preaching services in the First Methodist Church will be omitted next Sunday, but the class-meeting, Sunday school and Epworth League will be held at the usual hours.

Foot Ball Game.

There will be an interesting game of foot ball next Saturday afternoon between St. Marys and Emporium, at Athletic Park. Trouble will commence at 3:30. "Rube" Waddell, the famous Athletic pitcher will play "full back" for the St. Marys team. This promises to be the most interesting game of the season and will attract a large number of lovers of the sport. There will be a dance at the opera house during the evening.

A West Virginia Republican.

A. S. Zaner, of Morgantown, West Va., formerly a resident of this county, was an agreeable Press visitor on Wednesday. Mr. Zaner, who is in the employ of the Standard Oil Company, is emphatic in his declaration that West Virginia will give Roosevelt and Fairbanks a good safe majority. While the Republicans of West Va., have great respect for candidate Davis they openly declare they cannot vote to destroy the prosperity of the country by voting against "the robber tariff" that has developed their state.

Right Thinking Men.

Mr. Josiah Howard, the Republican candidate for Assembly, the honorable business man, consistent christian gentleman, the employer of hundreds of laboring men, needs no flattering mention. The people know him as a true man, having the welfare of Cameron county always at heart and will elect him to represent Cameron county in the Assembly. Right-minded voters are thinking men and they think right when their homes are in danger from the passage of unwise legislation. Hence they will support Josiah Howard, who is engaged in the upbuilding of Cameron county.

Pye—Wright.

MISS GRACE WINIFRED PYE, of this place, and MR. GEORGE A. WRIGHT, of Port Allegany were united in marriage at Rectory of Emmanuel Episcopal Church, at 11 o'clock this morning, Rev. J. M. Robertson performing the ceremony, in the presence of the immediate family and a few friends. The bride and groom depart on Buffalo Flyer this afternoon for Buffalo and other points. They will reside at Coudersport, where the groom is engaged in business. The bride is a model young lady and will make the husband of her choosing a faithful wife. The groom, who resided here last season, is highly spoken of by our friends. The Press wishes them well, feeling assured that the Wright Pye has been secured.

A Love Letter.

Would not interest you if you're looking for a guaranteed Salve for Sores, Burns or Piles, Otto Dodd, of Ponder, Mo., writes, "I suffered with an ugly sore for a year, but a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured me. It's the best Salve on earth, 25c at L. Taggart's Drug Store."

DEATH'S DOINGS.

ELLIS.

As announced in last week's Press, the remains of JOSEPH VICTOR ELLIS, aged 22 years, who was killed at Corry last Wednesday afternoon, while attempting to jump upon a freight train, arrived in Emporium last Thursday evening, accompanied by the grief-stricken father and Undertaker Rishell. The remains were taken to the home of the afflicted family on West Fourth St., where they remained until Saturday afternoon, when the funeral service took place, being conducted by Rev. O. S. Metzler, Pastor of First Methodist Church, assisted by Rev. L. B. Twichell, Pastor of First Baptist Church, and Rev. S. Ebersole, Pastor of Messiah Church, Sterling Run, who was an intimate friend of the family and their Pastor when they resided at Sterling Run. The funeral was largely attended and attested to the esteem in which the deceased was held by the friends of the family. From Kane, where the young man was employed as "snapper" in the glass works, a large number of friends came down to attend the funeral.

JOSEPH VICTOR ELLIS, was the third son of Mark and Martha Ellis; the second death from the family of ten children. He was a quiet, industrious young man and respected by all who knew him.

FLORAL OFFERINGS.

The floral offerings were very numerous and beautiful, from the Kane friends, Electric Assembly and brothers and sisters.

RELATIVES AND FRIENDS IN ATTENDANCE.

The following relatives and friends from out of town attended the funeral: Mr. Henry and Mr. George Kenworthy, father and brother of Mrs. Ellis, of Sterling Run; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Swallow, Elbon, Pa.; Mrs. L. Fuser; Miss Lillian and Mr. Lawrence Fuser, Mrs. K. Mischeau, Mrs. M. Rhyun, Miss Gertrude Thurstonson, Kane; Mrs. James Hobson, Buckwalter.

THE ACCIDENT.

An eye witness describes the accident as follows: "While standing in front of the depot at Corry I noticed the young man when he attempted to jump onto the car, losing his hold and falling at the side of the track, both feet being crushed. The injured boy attempted to rise when the car struck him in the head. He was carried to a neighboring hotel and medical aid sent for. He died within a few minutes, not regaining consciousness."

MORRISEY.

Mrs. James Morrisey, aged 65 years, widow of the late James Morrisey, died yesterday morning, after a long illness. The good lady suffered from the effect of two strokes of paralysis, the fatal messenger calling her came and found her house in order, the lamps filled and burning. Mrs. Morrisey was a very estimable lady and a devout Catholic. The funeral takes place from St. Marks Church on Saturday morning.

The Boy Protectionist.

I am like the boy who hired his sister to make his shirts. Some one said, "You could have taken them shirts to the factory and had them made and saved $2." "Yes," said the boy protectionist, "Sister Sally got a pretty fair price. She always pays me well for what I do for her. That two-dollar bill is still under the same roof with me, and if sickness or trouble or hard luck comes to any of our family that money is here in the house."

The free-trade boy would call his sister a tariff robber.

Eye Specialist.

Prof. W. H. Budine, the well known Eye Specialist, of Binghamton, N. Y., will be at R. H. Hirsch's jewelry store, Emporium, Pa., November 11th and 12th. If you can't see well or have headache don't fail to call and see Prof. Budine, as he guarantees to cure all such cases. Lenses ground and fitted in old frames. Eyes tested and examined free. All work guaranteed.

Woodsmen Rolled.

Last Friday a woodsman while having a good time in town was "rolled" by a fellow woodsman and relieved of $65. We understand a warrant has been issued for arrest of the thief.

Baptist Church.

Rev. L. B. Twichell takes for his morning subject, "The World Turned Over". His evening subject will be "The powers of Purity pitted against Satan enlisted Self." Morning service at 10:30, evening service at 7 o'clock. Public cordially invited.

Art Exhibit, 200 Pictures, Nov. 9-12.

For the benefit of the public schools, to raise a fund by which the walls of the school rooms may be decorated permanently with pictures of the highest artistic merit, the Horace K. Turner art exhibit will be brought to Emporium on the above mentioned date.

This collection of pictures is made up of carbon-prints and color-prints, all reproductions of the great master paintings of the world.

The exhibit is loaned free to the schools and will be placed on exhibit in the old Presbyterian church building. An admission fee of 10 cents for children and 15 cents for adults, single admission, will be charged to view it.

The terms on which the exhibit is loaned are that the money raised by this means shall be expended for pictures purchased from this company. Prices of all pictures are stated and are guaranteed to be as low as the same work can be obtained elsewhere. Subscriptions will also be solicited from our citizens to swell this fund. A committee is now operating toward this end.

We believe that all will see the desirability of having placed on the walls of our school rooms copies of the great paintings. The originals are visited by thousands at a great sacrifice. No one disputes the influence on character resulting from such a source. Unconsciously the mind is influenced by the grandeur of the painting.

At present the walls are destitute practically of any permanent decoration of this kind.

Any person so desiring may order for the decorations of their homes pictures similar to those in the exhibit at the time the exhibit is made, on which the school fund will realize a commission.

Prof. H. F. Stauffer on his visit last week spoke very enthusiastically of the success of the exhibit as used by him in Millville a year ago. We think our pupils and people should have the opportunity of seeing this beautiful collection and have acted accordingly.

Gregory—Heilman Nuptials.

A very pleasant and beautiful home wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Gregory, West Fourth street, yesterday afternoon at four o'clock, the contracting parties being Miss Bertha Gregory and Mr. Frank Vernon Heilman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dr. R. P. Heilman. Promptly at the appointed time, Rev. O. S. Metzler, Pastor of First Methodist Episcopal Church took his station in the tastefully decorated parlor, when the Wedding March rendered by Miss Lillian Heilman, sister of groom, announced the approach of the bridal party, consisting of bride and groom, Miss Myrtle Gregory, sister of bride, bride's maid and Mr. Fred Heilman, brother of groom, best man—Mr. Ed. Shollenberg, of Montgomery, Pa., served as usher. The solemn vows being taken the assembled relatives and a few intimate friends heartily congratulated the happy twain.

The bride was dressed in a beautiful gown of white peanude crepe, trimmed with mechin lace and carried a bouquet of white roses. The groom wore the usual conventional suit.

An elegant bridal dinner was served by Caterer Laidlain, of Williamsport.

Mr. and Mrs. Heilman left on the Buffalo Express for a short trip of two weeks to Poughkeepsie, Hornellsville and other New York cities, after which they will locate at Portland Mills, where Mr. Heilman occupies a responsible position with the Elk Tanning Co. The happy couple are highly respected and take with them the best wishes of our citizens.

The following were invited guests: Dr. and Mrs. Heilman, Miss Edith Heilman, Miss Lillian Heilman, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Rentz, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Cronk, Mr. and Mrs. N. A. ## This Column is for Straight Party Votes.

REPUBLICAN.

REPUBLICAN.

For President and Vice President.
ROOSEVELT AND FAIRBANKS.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS.

(Mark 31.)

Robert Pitcairn,

HOW TO VOTE.

One glance at advance sample copies of the official ballot for the November election in Pennsylvania is sufficient to convince politicians that an extraordinary blunder has been made in the new ballot law.

The last Legislature, passed what was known as the "Focht Ballot law," abolishing the old "party column" with a circle at its head for a "straight" party vote, grouping candidates' names under the title of the offices to which they aspire, but retaining the "straight" vote provisions by substituting a "party square" at the side at the left of the ballot for the abandoned "party circle" and column.

That worked very nicely last fall, the "grouping" system doing away with the old cumbersome "blanket ballot."

For Presidential years, however, the new law provides that the names of Presidential electors shall be printed in party groups or columns as they were under the old law, a single cross mark in the "square" at the head of each electoral column being a vote for the entire national ticket.

Apparently nobody realized until the sample ballots were seen that the lists of thirty-four Presidential electors for each party would appear almost exactly like the old party columns. As a matter of fact, they cover about three-fourths of the entire ballot overshadowing the little "groups" of State and local candidates at the bottom of the sheet and the new "party squares" at the left side.

The danger is at once apparent. The average voter, seeing the familiar old "party columns," as he believes, naturally will mark his cross at the top of it as he has been doing for ten years, and think he has voted for the whole party ticket. In fact he will have voted only for the Presidential electors.

At the head of this column may be found the way the ballot will start. If you make a mark in the place designated by an X as above shown, it will mean a vote for every candidate on the Republican ticket. It you just make a mark to the right of the names of Roosevelt & Fairbanks it will mean a vote for the Presidential ticket only. Mark your ballot as indicated above.

See to It.

The elective franchise, the privilege of deciding by our votes who shall make and execute our laws, is a privilege and responsibility that many fail to appreciate as such and the principle underlying this great privilege is seldom or never thought of by many. We are all very ready to find fault with poor and unjust laws or the failure of good laws to accomplish the good for which they were enacted, losing sight of the fact that we as individuals are largely responsible for the very thing that we censure.

The vote of any one man counts for as much as the vote of any other man, so that if a majority of those who vote give the subject careful and serious thought, and are influenced to a decision by the merit of the candidate for whom they vote, it results not only in good laws but also in a conscientious enforcement of same; while, if we are influenced in our choice by sordid motives, by pecuniary gain or the prospect of office, it often results in the election to office of men who are in no way qualified to represent the best interests of the community from which they are elected.

The active interest that Mr. Josiah Howard has always taken, both in supporting and in originating movements that had for advancement of the good interests of the people and his constant and consistent effort, both by precept and example, to uplift the moral standard of the community, is surely a convincing reason why he should receive the aid and votes of the people. A vote for Josiah Howard is a vote for the advancement of the interests of the people, and an aggressive effort toward the promotion of the material and moral welfare of the whole county.

Some More Smoke.

The East Emporium Independent has been making a strained effort in its recent issues to convince eight hundred and twenty-one voters that they have been treated with ignominy and their votes cast aside as of no consequence. One would suppose from the language of the Independent that the Legislature had thrown out every vote that was cast for Mr. Blumle two years ago. As a matter of fact the number of votes thrown out as illegal was one hundred and ninety-seven, reducing Mr. Blumle's legal vote to six hundred and twenty-four, a minority of all the legal votes cast. The will of these six hundred and twenty-four legal voters was trampled upon only in the manner and sense in which the will of any minority is set aside.

Media Sportsmen.

L. F. Green, J. H. Sweeney, P. H. Reilly and D. B. Osborn, of Media, who have been enjoying a week hunting pheasants, guests of W. L. Thomas, return home to-day, well satisfied with their outing. The gentlemen are annual visitors to this section.

For Sale.

Some young pigs, seven weeks old, inquire or address, J. J. SCHWAB, Cameron, Pa.

BRIEF MENTION.

Have you read that very interesting magazine, The Smart Set?

Real enjoyment is had when reading that clever magazine, The Smart Set.

A good pastry cook can secure a permanent position by applying at New Warner at once.

For the next two weeks you can get six pictures taken for 10c in the vacant room next to Capt. Johnson's office.

Will the Independent explain the "Democratic belief" as to the Philippines. We declare we fail to remember your last declaration, or Parker's.

Don't worry Brother Hockley, the voters will know when the time comes, how to spell Ox, and plant it in the right hand box opposite Republican, on the extreme left of the ballot.

"Home Rule" did you say Mr. Hockley? That is just what the legal voters of Cameron county demand and propose having in the future. No more padded registry and "stay over night voters."

The Elk Tanning Company's plant at Westfield has been shut down indefinitely. Superintendent Eick has been ordered to Emporium; Mr. Fred Eick has gone to Tioga, and Mr. Charles Eick has accepted a position at the Hoytville tannery.—Tioga Agitator.

WANTED—A good reliable man, with horse and rig preferred, for Emporium and surrounding towns to distribute circulars samples, and tack signs, either in connection with present work, or give entire time. No money required. A good opportunity for a hustler. Address Atoz Printing Co., Dept. 6 South Whitley, Indiana.

The Independent gives the following counsel to voters: "Do not ask for assistance, but take all the money you can get." Last week the Independent spoke in a deprecating way of campaign speeches, intimating it knows of other methods that are more potent. This counsel to voters shows plainly what these potent methods are which the Independent praises. If bribing or taking is a criminal offense, what shall we say of an utterance such as this, deliberately inciting to the taking of a bribe?

The Independent has much to say recently relative to the State paying the taxes on their lands. What is the use in talking such rot, Hockley. Cameron county owns one solid block of land in Emporium. Can the Borough authorities collect taxes from the county? See! It would be more to your credit and the benefit of the entire county, the over-taxed farmer as well as the mechanic, were you to devote at least a fraction of your time to the assessment of lands, thereby lightening the burdens. Try it once.

An exchange gives this excellent advice to hunters: Gunners who go out to hunt the frisky squirrel or rabbit or the timid pheasant should be careful how they disobey the trespass notices posted on the properties. They should also be careful about shooting. Few land owners would refuse permission to hunt on his premises if he were asked, and by getting permission a hunter will know that he is safe from having the trespass law enforced on him, and then the property owner will know some one is hunting in his woods and will warn his family to stay in doors until the danger is passed.

The Calamity Howl.

According to General Manager Hockley, our county is sure to dwindle and die as soon as the Howards finish their timber, which will be in about three years.

There is one man in particular who for ten years has preached the opposite and that man is Mr. Josiah Howard, our next Representative in the Legislature. Mr. Howard not only believes in a big and bright future for our county but is backing up his belief not only by continued purchases of farm lands and building permanent improvements, but by investing money in new business enterprises, and our large pay-rolls and increased population make it look as though some of the bright future were already here.

No, Mr. Hockley we are not dying and not only Mr. Howard, but the whole Republican party, stand for Expansion, Progress and Growth.

"The man who believes that old things were best, belongs in paralyzed China, but he who thinks that to-day is the best God ever made and that tomorrow will be better belongs in the midst of life on this virile, progressive Western Continent."—Selah.
