Quotations From Republican Campaign Text-Book, 1904.

"The question of human rights and human liberty are the potential questions which have summoned our mightiest armies and have assembled our fleets and stirred our country to the utmost depths."—Hon. C. W. Fairbanks, in U. S. Senate, February 22, 1902.

"The foundation of our whole social structure rests upon the material and moral well-being, the intelligence, the foresight, the sanity, the sense of duty, and the wholesome patriotism of the wage-worker."—President Roosevelt at Labor Day pienie, Chicago. ***

"We ask that sober and sensible men compare the workings of the present tarifi law and the conditions which obtain under it, with the workings of the preceding tariff law of 1894 and the conditions which that tariff of 1894 helped to bring about."—President Roosevelt's speech accepting 1904

"Laying aside the fact that trusts are organized under English free trade as well as German, Austrian, and American protection, it is susceptible of absolute demonstration that American free trade would operate in the interests of trusts and against the interest of American labor-"—Hon E. L. Hamilton, in Congress, April 14,

"That whenever the need arises but such changes can with safety devotion to the principle of a protective tariff is beyond question. for otherwise the charges would amount not to readjustment but to repeal. The readjustment when made must maintain and not destroy the protective principle."— President Roosevelt's speech accepting 1904 nomination.

"The 3,000,000 of men who went out of employment with the revision of the tariff by the Demoeratic party found employment in the enactment of the Dingley law by the Republican party, and a a million and a half have been added to those who have employment in the industries of the country."—Hon. P. P. Campbell, in Congress, April 1, 1904.

"We know what we mean when we speak of an honest and stable currency. We mean the same thing from year to year."—President Roosevelt's speech accepting 1904 nomination 1904 nomination.

"The safety and interest of the people require that they should promote such manufactures as tend to render them independent of others."—Washington.

Mr. Bryan on the Issues.

In the latest number of the Saturday Evening Post Mr. Bryan gives his reasons for supporting Parker and Davis in the present campaign. He begins by pointing out that Judge Parker's declaration concerning the gold standard is binding only upon Judge Parker himself and not upon the Demoeratic party. This assurance may be pleasing to the free silver Democrats but it will not hasten the return of gold Democrats to the party fold. Mr. Bryan goes on to discuss the issues on which he and Judge Parker are agreed, discussing militarism, imperialism and the race question. Mr. Bryan ought to know better than to regard the Booker T. Washington episode as a possible attempt on the part of tall. President Roosevelt to establish general social equality between the races. Mr. Bryan conveys the impression that he, Bryan, professed champion of the common people and of the rights of man, would not have admitted to his table a negro of such distinguished character and service as Booker T. Washington. The less the Democrats have to say about this matter the better it will be for themselves. It is not the Republicans who are injecting the negro question into The old criticisms upon the alleged war-like spirit of the President are repeated by Mr. Bryan. He is careful, however, not to specify when and where President Roosevelt has sought to embroil the nation in strife, either foreign or domestic. The same silly charge has been brought against every strong President, including Jackson. We may remark in passing that had Jackson or Roosevelt been President in 1860, instead of Buchanan, there would have been no civil war. To-day it is recognized by intelligent lovers of peace the world over, that the personality of Theodore Roosevelt is a most powerful factor for peace. The judgment of such men as Hay, Root and Taft will carry more weight than will this baseless criticism repeated by Mr. Bryan. The most inane charge of any that have yet been brought against the President if that he is planning to succeed himself in 1908, on the ground that the uncompleted term of President Mc-Kinley is not to be counted. Mr. Bryan bases this charge on the failure of Mr. Roosevelt to pledge himself not to be a candidate for re-election in 1908.

Mr. Bryan brings forward nothing new in his discussion of the Philippine question. His contention is that American sovereignty over the Filipinos is oppression to them and a danger to American there should be a readjustment of liberty. He does not explain why the tariff schedules is undoubted; he advised the Democratic Senators to ratify the Treaty of Paris be made only by those whose in 1898, thereby endorsing the act by which the Filipinos came under American sovereignty. If it is our duty to scuttle out of the Philippines now, it was our duty to for a short visit. have hept out in 1908.

> Mr. Bryan in effect, confesses that Parker is a negative candidate. He thinks that Judge Parker may be useful in the way of extinguishing the policies of the Republican party, so preparing the way for the advent of the Bryanic Kingdom later on. This line of argument is not very flattering to Judge Parker, and if it has any effect at all, it will be in the way of alienating rather than by winning votes for the Parker ticket.

Can You Eat. T. B. Taylor, a prominent merchant of Charlesman, Tex., says: "I could not eat because of a weak stomach, I lost all strength and ran down in weight. All that money could do was done, but all hope of recovery vanished. Hearing of some wonderful cures effected by the use of Kodol Dyspepsie Cure, I concluded to try it. The first bottle benefitted me, and after taking four bottles, I am fully restored to my usual strength, weight and health." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and cures. Sold by R. C. How to Retain Youth

Middle aged and aged people can retain their youthfulness by keeping certain organs in a healthy condition. In a tain organs in a healthy condition In a man the liver and kidneys will cause him to look, feel and act careworn. In a woman the liver and organs peculiar to her sex will give her a careworn, sallow, wrinkled look and dragged out feelings.
All this can be avoided by Thompson's
Barosma. It builds up and strengthens all those functions, giving renewed youth. Thompson's Barosma retains youth. For sale by R. C. Dodson.

Why You Should Visit the World's Fair. The principle reason why a visit should be made to this greatest of Expositions is on account of its educational value. A visit to the World's Fair is in itself a trip around the world, for fifty cents, the price of admission. The president of one of our greatest universities has said "To the bright at the transfer the Evacuation is worth a thouuniversities has said "To the bright student the Exposition is worth a thousand college lectures." The opportunity of a life-time is afforded in which to acquire, by a few days' sojourn at the Fair, an education which could not otherwise be received.
