Mr. Blumle Should Not be Elected.

The Independent has made a persistent effort all through this campaign to obscure the fact that the real issue is the relative fitness of the two candidates. We were about to add that the issue is also the relative merits of the principles for which they stand, but we are halted by the remembrance that Mr. Blumle has vouchsafed to the public no expression of his principles.

Contrast the Results.

Senator Fairbanks asks whether we are to go forward or turn back. President Garfield asked the young men whether they wanted to walk in the light of hope and confidence or prowl about in a graveyard.

Both are pertinent questions for young men in this campaign. The Republican party has a record for doing things. The principal complaint of the opposition is because this party has done things, even though they were things which men of all parties, even Democrats, have been saying ought to be done.

With the exception of four years, from 1893 to 1897, the Republican party has directed the policy of the Government and under that policy there has been progress and prosperity, here more abundant than anywhere else in the world. From 1861 to 1893, notwithstanding the greatest civil war of the world's history, our prosperity was phenomenal. Our wealth increased from $16,000,000,000 in 1860 to $77,000,000,000 in 1890; our manufactured products from $1,800,000,000 to $9,300,000,000.

But in 1892 the people at the polls committed the government to the care of the Democratic party, notwithstanding the pledge of that party to undo the things that had been done and by so undoing, give us the markets of the world. That party kept the first part of its pledge. It undid prosperity and industrial enterprise, but it did not give us the markets of the world or allow us to retain our own market.

We had four years of paralysis due to the turning backward by that party, and when the next opportunity came for the people to order a change they elected William McKinley, the prophet of protection and prosperity for their Chief Magistrate. The Republican party restored the policies that had made the country great, and from the day of that election confidence returned, and business resumed. There was work and wages for all, and wages again increased until in 1903 they were higher than ever before, and earnings higher by 50 per cent. than in 1894.

In eight years we have wiped out all but the memory of the Democratic disasters. Shall we continue to move forward in the sunlight of hope and prosperity or again prowl about in the graveyard of buried issues trying to revive them and see if after resurrection they will not prove more serviceable?

A Continual Strain.

Many men and women are constantly subjected to what they commonly term "a continual strain" because of some financial or family trouble. It wears and distresses them both mentally and physically, affecting their nerves badly and bringing on liver and kidney ailments, with the attendant evils of constipation, loss of appetite, sleeplessness, low vitality and dispondency. They cannot, as a rule, get ride of this "continual strain," but they can remedy its health destroying effects by taking frequent doses of Green's August Flower.

Discovery in Medicine.
