LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

PERSONAL GOSSIP.

Contributions invited. That which you would like to see in this department, let us know by postal card or letter, personally.

Miss Nellie Thomas suffered an attack of Grip this week.

James Farrell came down from Kane Tuesday to visit friends.

A. H. Shafer came home to vote and at the same time visit his family a few days.

Miss May Iva Gould visited over Sunday with her brother and wife, at Eldred.

D. C. Kirkpatrick, of Beechwood, was in Emporium on business last Saturday.

Grace and Raymond Andrews were recent visitors in Emporium.—Potter Enterprise.

Bert Olmsted came home from State College to vote and he has nothing to regret for so doing.

J. M. Spafford, of Colesburg, Pa., visited with E. J. Rogers and family last Friday and Saturday.

T. F. Moore came home from his lumber operations Saturday evening and remained over election.

Lyman Wiley dropped into town Tuesday. We are always glad to see our old friend "Lyme," "by gravy."

Miss Gertrude VanWert gives a party to a number of her little friends this evening, in honor of her sixth birthday.

William Auchu found a pair of spectacles, a few evenings ago. He can't use them and wants the owner to call for them.

The Rev. O. S. Metzler having returned from a ten days absence will occupy his pulpit next Sabbath morning and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Felt returned to Emporium last Tuesday, after visiting at Olean for some time, where Mr. Felt is engaged in business.

D. S. Logue of Gibson, and E. F. Comley, of Lumber, visited the Press office yesterday. Of course they were delighted over the results of the election.

H. S. Lloyd was blowing his own horn Tuesday, but not without a disdainful desire. He will be all right in a few days with some of Munyon's grip cure.

Vernon Heilmann and bride returned from their wedding trip last Saturday night. After a few days sojourn in town they will take up their residence at Portland Mills.

F. P. Rentz, who spent a ten days' vacation in New York and other Eastern cities, returned Tuesday morning in time to vote for Teddy and the rest of the Republican ticket.

Misses Caldwell and Follmer, of Trout Run, Pa., have been visiting friends in Emporium during the past week guests of Miss Maud Thomas. Miss Caldwell returned home on Monday.

Mr. John L. Johnson the popular and genial proprietor of the American Hotel, had business at Cameron last Saturday. Mr. Johnson is working some of his team at the new brick works near that place.

F. B. Housler came up from Somerset county to cast his ballot.

Frank McCabe, of Austin, is spending a few days in town with his mother and sister.

Dr. Heilmann is at Ridgway to-day to read a paper before the Elk County Medical Society.

It is reported that R. W. Barrows will erect a brick plant at Cameron in the near future.

Mrs. Smith and Miss Laura Kirkpatrick, of Beechwood, visited friends in town on Tuesday.

Mrs. Lenna Feltwell leaves to-day for Cross Forks to join her husband who is employed at that place.

Dr. Colcord came over from First Fork on Tuesday evening to hear the election news. The Dr. enjoyed the pleasant quarters of Business Men's Club.

Miss Grace Lloyd, who is attending Dickinson Seminary, arrived home Friday evening to spend Sunday, and as election occurred Tuesday she decided to remain long enough to hear the results. Of course Miss Grace didn't vote—she isn't old enough, and that is not the only reason either. The climate agrees admirably with her, and after consulting a physician her general health is as good as the best.

World's Fair Excursions.

Low-rate ten day coach excursions via Pennsylvania Railroad, afford a fine opportunity for those who have not yet seen it to visit the greatest exposition ever held in this country. Wednesday, November 2, 9, 16, and 23 are the dates during the last month the Fair is open. Rate $15.95 from Emporium. Train leaves Emporium at 8:10 a. m., connecting with special train from New York, arriving St. Louis 4:15 P. M., next day.

BRIEF MENTION.

A good pastry cook can secure a permanent position by applying at New Warner at once.

The Childrens Aid Society would like a home for a little girl of eight. Information will be given by the members of the society.

Goosebone Weather Prophet Elias Hartz, of Berks county, has made his first prediction for the season, in which he foretells a severe winter, with great snow storms and big ice crops. "The bone," he says, "is dark all the way through," and the winter of 1904-05 will be severe. It will start in early in November, and we may expect very cold weather.

Timeliness, freshness, interest are the keynotes of the November Woman's Home Companion. Merely to enumerate is to show the wealth of good things. "Election Night in a Great news paper Office," "The Rise and Fall of Sully, King of Cotton," "A Visit to Sod-House Land," "Saint Patrick's Purgatory, Old Ireland's Strangest Shrine," "The Strike and the Housewife," "How Wild Animals Prepare for Winter" are all of unusual interest. The fiction is of high excellence—a humorous story. "The Rising Up of Ezzie Wygella," by Ella Higginson; "The King of Diamonds," by Louis Tracy; "The Girl and the Game," by Ralph Henry Barbour. The articles to interest the housewife are many—"An Election Day Dinner," "A page of Prize Thanksgiving Dinners," "How to Bring Up the Children," "Some Famous Old Virginia Dishes," and four pages of timely fashions. Published by The Crowell Publishing Company, Springfield, Ohio; one dollar a year; ten cents a copy.

Editor Versus Lawyer.

A lawyer in a courtroom may call a man a liar, scoundrel, villain or thief, and no one makes a complaint when court has adjourned. If a newspaper prints such reflections on a man's character there is a libel suit or a dead editor. And this is owing to the fact that people believe what an editor says; what a lawyer says cuts no figure.—Routt County (Colo.) Courier.

The Place For a Pupil.

"And there is one thing about the pupil of the eye that I can't say about lots of other pupils," remarked the teacher.

"What is that?" asked the scholars in chorus.

"It is always found up around the head."—Yonkers Statesman.

Making Sure.

Mr. Totterly—Could you marry a very old man with a good deal of money if he told you frankly how old he was and how much he was worth? Miss Timely—How much is he worth?

Then He Went.

Unwelcome Sutor—That's a lovely song. It always carries me away. She—if I had known how much pleasure it could give us both I would have sung it earlier in the evening.

THE COUNTY.

HUNTLEY.

Will Nelson, circulated with friends on Mason Hill over Sunday.

Dr. Smith, of Emporium, made a professional visit to this place on Saturday. County Supt. Miss Collins was the guest of B. J. Collins over Sunday, taking care of the sick.

O. B. Tanner, the Mason Hill butcher was in town on Saturday, buying beef cattle.

Miss Alice Quigley, of Emporium, visited Miss Alice Jordan on Sunday, while enroute to the Grove School.

A goodly number of our young people attend church at Castle Garden every Sunday night.

Davins Ives, having rented G. W. Mason's farm, moved his house hold goods to that place on Thursday.

Mrs. M. M. Hill, of Midix Run, and Mrs. Geo. Hill, of Grove Hill, were the guests of Mrs. Ray Smith over Sunday.

The noted bear hunter J. S. Jordan, has been busily engaged this fall in building bear pens and setting bear traps for the purpose of catching a large cinnamon bear and cub, that he has seen several times in the vicinity of Lower Run.

Mr. Thos. Kailbourne, who has been studying music for the last three years, has graduated with high honors. He has fitted up a room at home and is now prepared to teach all kinds of music, and dancing. He will also carry as a side line, bear traps, fishing tackle and sporting goods. We wish him all kinds of success, and hope he will show Henry Hill that the Italians cuts no figure with him.

The funny correspondent to the Driftwood Gazette from this place, had another funny spell last week. (which he is subject to about five times a year) and in an attempt to be smart, wrote about as simple a piece of nonsense as was ever penned in the storm centre of ignorance. Remember brother, that Shakespeare never repeated, and a joke, or story, no matter how good, if repeated four or five times a year, for fourteen years becomes stale and not interesting. Write something sensational. If you can't think of anything copy from Barker's Almanac. The school boys are making fun of you, AJAX.

Nov. 7th, 1904.

Miss Ethel Barr came up from Castle Garden on Saturday and remained home over Sunday.

Married—in Olean, N. Y., Wednesday, Nov. 2, Mr. Bernard Marsh, of this place, and Miss Mabel Drake, of Renovo. Miss Drake is one of Renovo's most highly esteemed young ladies and Mr. Marsh is a fine young man of good character and a favorite among his companions. They have the best wishes of the entire community and we predict for them a happy future. The young couple will make their home in Renovo where Mr. Marsh is employed as head hostler in the Penn. railroad yard.

Mothers and Daughters

Every woman who has a grown daughter knows well the worry and anxiety which always comes at that period of life when girlhood merges into womanhood. Upon a girl's condition at this time depends her future health, strength and happiness. Too much care can not be taken to see that she passes through this period safely.

AUNT DINAH'S OLD VIRGINIA Herb Tea

A BOON TO WOMANKIND is of the greatest assistance to nature in bringing about the change which takes place, without disturbing the natural functions of the system. It is a strengthening tonic. It will keep the roses in a girl's cheeks and prevent that tendency to decline which so often endangers her life at this critical point in development.

This Herb Tea is likewise of corresponding value and assistance to matrons and mothers at the end of this period. Its use will at this time prevent endless pain and worry. A woman will enter the evening of life with scarcely the knowledge that the change has occurred. Many are the thankful women who know the value of Aunt Dinah's Old Virginia Herb Tea and are grateful for the benefits derived from its use.

Kemmerer, Wyo., Nov. 29, 1902. Hamlin Wizard Oil Co., Chicago, Ill.: Gentlemen—Enclosed find 25 cents please send me another package of your Aunt Dinah's Old Virginia Herb Tea. I am greatly pleased with it. I would not be without it. Respectfully, Miss MARY BYERS.
