AFTER A FRUITLESS SEARCH FOR BAIL SHE IS FORCED TO OCCU-PY A CELL IN THE TOMBS.

It Is Said that Mrs. Chadwick Will be Prosecuted in Ohio on Charges of Forgery-Beckwith Is Reported to Have Made a Startling Confession.

New York, Dec. 9.—Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick last night occupied one of the scantily furnished cells in the Tombs. She was held in default of $15,000 bail for a hearing on December 17, after being arraigned before Commissioner Shields. After a fruit-less search all day for bail, her attorneys gave up the fight and Philip Carpenter, her chief counsel, stood in the corridor of the federal building at 9 o'clock when United States Marshal Henkel threw open the doors of his ofice and led the woman out on her way to prison.

The party passed through a double party, and after the usual prelimiparty, and after the usual preliminaries had been attended to the woman asked permission to have her nurse remain with her. This was denied, the warlen saying that she should have have no privileges not allowed other prisoners.

While lying on a couch in the United States marshal's office awaiting a bondsman, Mrs. Chadwick, for the first time since her name has been before the public, consented to talk for publication, and gave the representa-tives of the Associated Press a statement in which she denied relationship to Mrs. York, of San Francisco, who gave out an interview yesterday tell-ing of the earlier life of Mrs. Chad-

SECURITIES HELD BY

REYNOLDS WORTHLESS
Cleveland, Dec. 10.—The package in the possession of Iri Reynolds, supposed to contain $5,000,000 of Mrs. Chadwick's securities, was opened Friday. It contained securities with a world, and the hadral resources of the country are so great that this is sure to continue and increase for many years to come. He says:

"In spite of all this, however, we do not seem to be taking our proper rank and position in foreign and international banking."

The End of a Long Strike.

Chicago, Dec. 9.—A bitter fight of a Rysdon Co., sheet metal contractors, Rysdon Co., sheet metal Workers' union No. 73, has been settled. In the struggle one killing and many assaults were committed, public school building repairs were tied up by sympathetic strikes and the Rysdon Co. was fined a total of $3,000 by the Sheet Metal Contractors' association and the union. The settlement is a complete surrender by Rysdon. His employes go back on a "closed shop" basis, a union scale of wages.

The "$5,000,000" package has been in a safety deposit vault in Jersey City un-til Friday, when it was brought to Cleveland by Iri Reynolds.

Cashier Spear and Director Whitey, of the Citizens' national bank of Oberlin, testified before the grand jury in session here Friday afternoon. Adjournment was taken at 3:30 p. m. Prosecutor Keeler said the testimony showed the Carnegie notes had been uttered in this county, and conse-quently he had jurisdiction in the New York, Dec. 10.-After a day's wrangling with her counsel as to whether she should waive examination and go to Cleveland, Mrs. Chadwick finally consented to remain another night in the Tombs, but expressed the hope that she might leave there to-

Mrs. Chadwick had made up he mind to ignore the advice of her local counsel, Messrs. Carpenter and Powers, and go to Cleveland to stand trial there, when late in the afternoon she received a telegram from her Cleve land counsel, Judge Albaugh, askins her not to return to Cleveland just yet. This telegram caused her to remain over night.

Mrs. Chadwick was led to her cell in the Tombs by an attendant about o'clock and ate a hearty supper.
