

In Buying Groceries

The Careful Housewife Makes every cent count. But she can't make the pennies count by trading at every store in town, spending half her time looking for the cent cheaper article. She can save money only by searching out a reliable grocer and sticking to him. The money is saved by trading with the groceryman who

Sells Dependable Goods.

Dependable are not to be obtained in every store. Goodness and cheapness appeal to every condition of humanity. There are no fancy prices here and everybody is treated alike. Our goods are cheap because they are good.

It's Not The Prices

that make them cheap. Goods bought so cheap that they have to be thrown away on account of poor quality are the most dearly bought goods. Better pay a fair price in the first place and get the dependable kinds. You can't buy any other kinds here. We do not keep them.

Her Case Is Hopeless.
A little girl became so accustomed to exaggeration and misstatement that no body could believe her, and her parents were greatly annoyed by the unfortunate reputation that she was acquiring.

One afternoon her mother said to her: "Now, listen, Lillian, and heed my words. What has happened to one sister may easily happen to another. You know what happened to Ananias and Sapphira, don't you?"
"Yes'm, I do. They fell dead on the street corner, and I saw 'em carried into a drug store."

Loyal to the Last.
"Weren't you slightly annoyed by the manner in which your wife played when she was your partner at whist?"
"No," answered Mr. Meekton stoutly: "I wasn't annoyed. I was puzzled. I couldn't help wondering who made that fool assertion about its being wrong to trump your partner's ace."—Washington Star.

They Were Orphans.
"What a mendacious duffer you are, Phibbs," said Dibbs. "You said this was an orphan asylum, instead of which it is an old men's home."
"Well, you go in and look for an old man who isn't an orphan. You won't find him."

If you wish to please people you must begin by understanding them.—Reade.

When Christmas Comes on Sunday

By LOUIS E. THAYER

[Copyright, 1904, by Louis E. Thayer.]
TO us little fellows Sunday's mighty different
From all the other days that's in the week,
'Cause you've kind o' got to creep around on tiptoe

And you've sort o' got to whisper when you speak;
If you don't, your pa or ma is sure to scold you
And call you bad and sacrilegious boys,
For Sunday days were made for thought and worship,
But they wasn't made for romping and for noise.

AND to think that Christmas day's to come on Sunday!
Why, somehow, seems it hadn't orter be,
'Cause where's the good when you can't laugh and holler?

Say, it's pretty hard on little chaps like me,
And if a feller jes' forgets the quiet,
And bubbles out a little, who's to blame?

It's pretty hard when Christmas comes on Sunday,
For I know the day will never seem the same.

I KNOW jes' how 'twill be when, in the morning, I find my stocking filled brimful of toys.

I seem to hear my father say, "Well, Johnny, you may look at them, but don't make any noise."

And ma, perhaps, will bring me out a trumpet
And say, "Well, Johnny, it is Sunday now, you know."

Say, it's pretty hard a-waiting for tomorrow.
What good's a trumpet that you dassen't blow?

I WISH they'd print the calendars all over
And make our Christmas come some other day,
Jes' so us little chaps can have some freedom
And romp and shout and whistle at our play.

There's lots of things that ain't jes' as they should be,
And 'cause they ain't it seems to me a shame.
It's pretty hard when Christmas comes on Sunday,
For I know the day will never seem the same.

I TELL you what, the day will jes' blow over,
And we won't hardly know that it's been here.
Christmas eve will be about the only Christmas
That we will have a chance to know this year.

Another thing that makes the whole thing harder
Is that we have a Sunday every week,
While we have to go and have our only Christmas
When we almost have to whisper as we speak.

"DON'T MAKE ANY NOISE!"

NOW, if a little feller don't remember
And laughs out loud and hollers jes' a ho,
And if his feet get running as they oughtn't,
Say, who should scold and threaten him for it?

Jes' make believe that you are young and little—
Say, have you got the heart for words of blame?
It's pretty hard when Christmas comes on Sunday,
For I know the day will never seem the same.

Christmas Twice a Year.
Madagascar is probably the only place in the world where Christmas is celebrated twice a year and where there are also two New Year's days. Since the influx of missionaries the queen issued an edict that the Christian year should be followed. But in commencing the year the date of the first day was set some time in October or November. Since the natives have been converted to the Christian religion they observe Christmas on the 25th of their own December, but also have made a holiday out of the day in their year which corresponds to our Christmas.

A GOOD WIDE YAWN.

It is a Splendid Reviver For the Whole Body.

A good, wide, open mouthed yawn is a splendid thing for the whole body. A yawn is nature's demand for rest. Some people think they only yawn because they are sleepy, but this is not so. You yawn because you are tired. You may be sleepy also, but that is not the real cause of your yawning. You are sleepy because you are tired, and you yawn because you are tired.

Whenever you feel like yawning just yawn. Don't try to suppress it because you think it is impolite to yawn. Put your hand over your mouth if you want to, but let the yawn come. And if you are where you can stretch at the same time that you yawn just stretch and yawn. This is nature's way of stretching and relaxing the muscles.

Don't be afraid to open your mouth wide and yawn and stretch whenever you feel like it. Indeed, if you are very tired, but do not feel like yawning, there is nothing that will rest you so quickly as to sit on a straight back chair, and, lifting your feet from the floor, push them out in front of you as far as possible, stretch the arms, put the head back, open the mouth wide and make yourself yawn.

Those tense nerves will relax, the contracted muscles will stretch and the whole body will be rested. Do this two or three times when you are tired and see what it will do for you.
