What the Hand Symbolizes.

Look where we will, we find the hand in time and history, working, building, inventing, bringing civilization out of barbarism. The hand symbolizes power and the excellence of work.

How to Banish Fog.

The fact is incontrovertible that the dismal fogs, which do so much to make London a city of Dis at this season of the year, are perfectly controllable phenomena.

Japanese Ship Names.

It is of interest to learn that Japan has christened her big battleships after great mountains and the small war vessels from some well known natural features of the country.

Nurses Are Unfit.

The nurses who went to Japan were received with courtesy, but the medical department of the Japanese army has been frightfully embarrassed by their attentions.

Indigo Manufacture.

Artificial indigo is now manufactured in Germany in large quantities and the low prices asked for it have tended to reduce the production of the natural indigo in East India.

Golden Bees in King's Tomb.

It is said that when the tomb of Childeric, a king of the first Frankish dynasty in the fifth century, was opened in the seventeenth century, hundreds of golden bees were found in it.

Excellent "Plumb" Pudding.

Take one pound of suet, shred very small and sifted. One pound of raisins stoned, four spoonfuls of "flower" and four spoonfuls of sugar, five eggs but three whites, beat the eggs with a little salt.

Solved at Last.

Teacher—All the meridians, you must remember, converge at the poles. Shaggy-Haired Pupil—Then why don't these people who want to find the north pole follow one of them there meridians clear up to it?—Chicago Tribune.

Save the Horses.

If we are ever to have any more wars like this between Russia and Japan, let us hope that the good Lord will permit them to be fought out with the use of automobiles, and not with the use of horses.—Our Dumb Animals.

Fried Mushrooms.

Soak the mushrooms for a few minutes in salt and water and then fry them slowly in butter. Season with salt and pepper. Lay them in a dish, hollow side up, and pour over them the gravy from the pan.—Chicago Post.

Where Napoleon Died.

Longwood, Bonaparte's house in St. Helena, is now a barn. The room in which he died is a stable. On the site of his former grave is a machine for grinding corn.

Carrots and Green Peas.

Boil separately one pint of green peas and one pint of carrots, cut into dice, until tender. Mix and season with butter, salt and pepper.—Chicago Post.

MR. BRYAN USES HIS JEFFERSON PUNCH BOWL.

Mr. Bryan is engaged in his plans for reorganizing the Democracy. He recently presided at a secret conference held in Judge Tibbetts' office in Lincoln. No Eastern Democrats were present.—News Item.

SIGN OF SOUTHERN SANITY

Roosevelt Will Be More Kindly Judged When He Is Better Understood.

It is apparent that the democratic press of the country, and more especially of the southern states, is traveling the same path with reference to President Roosevelt that it pursued in its treatment of the late lamented President McKinley, says the Donaldville (La.) Chief.

OPPOSED TO ARBITRATION.

Democrats Will Make a Fight on Treaties with Foreign Countries.

If the democrats carry out their threats to oppose the arbitration treaties they will furnish a new reason why the American people should rejoice at democratic defeat in the recent election, says the St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

CURRENT PRESS OPINIONS.

The Dingley tariff needs no stronger advocate than the prosperity with which it is identified.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

What the democratic party needs above all, says the New Orleans Picayune, "is wise and able leadership."

At the proper time Mr. Bryan will mention the names of several prominent democrats whom he deems unfit for the presidential nomination in 1908.—Chicago Tribune.

Progress in Philippines.

The ants will be unhappy again. The annual report of the collector of customs for the Philippines shows that the management of affairs in his department is carried on with exceptional care and honesty. The receipts for the year were $7,131,379, and they were collected at an average cost of .0426 per cent., which is smaller than the average in the United States for 30 years.

STORM CAUSED SEVEN DEATHS

NEW YORK AND VICINITY VISITED BY A BLIZZARD OF LARGE PROPORTIONS.

Grocers and Coal Dealers Ran Short of Supplies and Raised Prices—Trolley Cars Stalled for Hours.

New York, Jan. 5.—Not in several years has New York been visited by a storm of such proportions as that which commenced Tuesday and continued until early Wednesday.

AN OHIO RIVER HORROR.

Boilers of the Towboat Defender Exploded—Eight Men Killed and Three Seriously Injured.

Huntington, W. Va., Jan. 5.—Eight men are known to be dead and three seriously injured, the result of a boiler explosion and fire which destroyed the towboat Defender near here early Wednesday morning.

A New Ship Subsidy Bill.

Washington, Jan. 5.—Congress yesterday received the report of the American merchant marine commission, composed of members of the senate and the house, who began their inquiry on March 23, 1904.

Death of Theodore Thomas.

Chicago, Jan. 5.—Theodore Thomas, the noted orchestra leader, died of pneumonia at his residence here yesterday. He was 70 years old.

A Miner's Crime.

Johnstown, Pa., Jan. 5.—Jacob Houser, a coal miner, entered the home of his father-in-law at Moxham, a suburb of this city, yesterday, and stabbed to death his wife and mother-in-law.

Five Men Killed.

Connellsville, Pa., Jan. 7.—A freight train of 40 loaded cars was wrecked yesterday at Glencoe, ten miles east of Sandpatch tunnel, and five men were killed.

Crum's Nomination Confirmed.

Washington, Jan. 7.—The nomination of W. D. Crum, a negro, to be collector of customs for the port of Charleston, S. C., was confirmed by the senate in executive session yesterday by a vote of 33 to 17.

A Doubly Fatal Wreck.

Somerset, Pa., Jan. 7.—In a freight wreck on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad near Milford, last evening, two laborers, whom it is supposed were stealing a ride, were killed.

POLITICAL CORRUPTION.

Gov. Durbin Says that Vote Buyers Thrive in Indiana.

Indianapolis, Jan. 7.—W. T. Durbin, retiring governor of Indiana, in his annual message to the legislature yesterday said concerning political corruption:

"The time has come for the application of drastic remedial measures to the plague of corruption which is fastening itself upon our politics. We have in Indiana advanced legislation for the protection of the purity of the ballot, but the statistics of political debauchery in this state for 1904, if it were possible to present them, would be astounding.

"Instances have come to my attention during the past few weeks, when, in contests for township trustees, votes have brought $25 and $30 each. Our present need is legislation framed in the light of a clearer conception of the enormity of the offense involved in the purchase or sale of a vote.

"As a parting warning to the legislature the governor says: 'If reports current can be credited, this session of the legislature will be called upon to resist the importunities of the most corrupt professional lobby that has visited any general assembly in the history of the state.'

TALES OF THE TITLED.

The Duchess Cedile, of Mecklenburg-Schwertin, whom the crown prince of Germany is to marry, has been brought up in many respects after the fashion of the German housewife.

The little prince of Piedmont, unlike his sisters, Princesses Yolanda and Mafalda, is being nursed by his mother, Queen Helene, who has the other children up to the nurse, but when the long-hoped-for heir to the throne arrived she absolutely refused to let any other than herself give him nourishment.

King Leopold, of Belgium, has appointed Henry Gabriels, bishop of the Catholic diocese of Ogdensburg, an officer of the Royal Order of Leopolds, which was founded by the first king of Belgium.

Lord Charles Beresford, the commander-in-chief of the Channel fleet, is as popular in political circles as he is in the navy. In the house of commons his speeches were always invariably good-humored, and marked with sound common sense.

NEW YEAR BEGINS WELL.

Business Conditions are Favorable—Dun's Review of Trade.

New York, Jan. 7.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says: Aside from some hesitation at the south, owing to the recent fall in price of cotton, business conditions are favorable and optimistic sentiments are evidenced by extensive preparations for active trade.

The various departments of the iron and steel industry steadily extend operations, and the sentiment is in striking contrast to the conservatism that prevailed a year ago. New business is gradually coming forward.

HABIT'S CHAIN.

Certain Habits Unconsciously Formed and Hard to Break.

An Ingenious philosopher estimates that the amount of will power necessary to break a life-long habit would, if it could be transformed, lift a weight of many tons.

It sometimes requires a higher degree of heroism to break the chains of a pernicious habit than to lead a forlorn hope in a bloody battle. A lady writes from an Indiana town:

"From my earliest childhood I was a lover of coffee. Before I was out of my teens I was a miserable dyspeptic, suffering terribly at times with my stomach.

"I was convinced that it was coffee that was causing the trouble and yet I could not deny myself a cup for breakfast. At the age of 36 I was in very poor health, indeed. My Sister told me I was in danger of becoming a coffee drunkard.

"But I never could give up drinking coffee for breakfast although it kept me constantly ill, until I tried Postum. I learned to make it properly according to directions, and now we can hardly do without Postum for breakfast, and care nothing at all for coffee.

"I am no longer troubled with dyspepsia, do not have spells of suffering with my stomach that used to trouble me so when I drank coffee." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

LOOK IN EACH PKG. FOR THE FAMOUS LITTLE BOOK, "THE ROAD TO WELLVILLE."

THREE YEARS AFTER.

Eugene E. Lario, of 751 Twentieth avenue, ticket seller in the Union Station, Denver, Col., says: "You are at liberty to repeat what I first stated through our Denver papers about Doan's Kidney Pills in the summer of 1899, for I have had no reason in the interim to change my opinion of the remedy. I was subject to severe attacks of backache, always aggravated if I sat long at a desk. Doan's Kidney Pills absolutely stopped my backache. I have never had a pain or a twinge since."
