Spoiled Her Beauty.

Harriet Howard, of 209 W. 34th St., New York, at one time had her beauty spoiled with skin trouble. She writes: "I had Salt Rheum or Eczema for years, but nothing would cure it until I used Bucklen's Arnica Salve." A quick and sure healer for cuts, burns and sores. 25c at L. Taggart's drug store.

Many are willing to lose this world by swallowing it.

Greatly in Demand.

Nothing is more in demand than a medicine which meets modern requirements for a blood and system cleanser, such as Dr. King's New Life Pills. They are just what you need to cure stomach and liver troubles. Try them. At L. Taggart's drug store, 25c, guaranteed.

Suffering draws man to man and men to religion.

Is It Right.

Is it right that a property-owner should lose $4.20 to let a dealer make 50 cents? A dealer makes more on fourteen gallons of ready for use paint, at $1.50 per gallon, than our agent does on eight gallons of L. & M. paint and six gallons of linseed oil, which make fourteen gallons of the best paint in the world, at $1.20 per gallon; the property-owner loses just $4.20. Is it right?

It only requires 4 gallons of L. & M., and 3 gallons linseed oil to paint a moderate sized house.

Ten Thousand Churches painted with Longman & Martinez L. & M., Paint. Liberal quantity given to churches when bought from Harry S. Lloyd.

Rah for the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway. It has advanced, at one leap, fifty years in the lead, by putting on observation cars which have compartments for women.

Ordinary a woman is pretty much of an intruder in an observation car, when she has nerve to fight her way through the tobacco smoke and timidly pick out a seat which isn't occupied by the feet of some imperial male being.

There is no doubt about it, the most effective answer to the man who claims America to be a paradise for chivalry would be to dress him up as a woman and make him spend two days in an American railway coach. The custom of providing 10x10 compartments for men to smoke in and 4x4 closets for women to dress in, three at a time, is a regular airbrake on the progress of civilization.

The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway ought to be given a medal.—Nonpareil, Council Bluffs, Ia., December 9, 1904

A SEASON'S PLEASURE.

What It Cost One Woman in Pleasure of Mind and Comfort.

Mary Makepeace sat down in her favorite chair in her own room and threw her head back, with a long sigh. "No words can tell how glad I am that I've made my last visit for the summer," she said. "Now I shall have some peace, not to mention pleasure."

"My dear!" said her mother reproachfully. "I mean it," returned Mary. "Of course I like change of scene, but I am tired of adapting my whole life to others, as I am expected to do as a welcome guest."

"My dear!" said her mother again. "Think how kind everybody has been to you."

"They meant to be—they were kind," Mary said wearily. "yet I feel as if I had barely escaped with my life, and you will admit that is not just the right kind of after feeling."

"Let me tell you, mother," Mary continued. "At the Fosters' I changed my hours for rising, for retiring and for eating my meals. At the Lanes' I changed father's politics—for of course I haven't any of my own—to please Mr. Lane, and I had all I could do to keep from changing my religion to please Mrs. Lane."

"At the Jenkins' I changed all my views about what constitutes diversion to suit the family in general. At the Pages' I entirely changed my point of view concerning music and books. And at the Nevins', where I was ill, I changed my doctor and took stuff which I felt sure would poison me just to please them."

"I ate cheese, which I abhor, and gave up fruit, which I like, at the Fisks'. I slept with closed windows at Great-aunt Marla's because she is afraid of a breath of air, and I drank twenty-one pints of hot water the four days I was at Cousin Thomas' to 'flush my system.'"

"No," said Mary in a firm voice. "I pay no more visits for months to come. Home keeping youth may have homely wits, but if I go about much more I shall not have any wits at all."—Youth's Companion.

TRUSTING TO FATE.

An Incident That Gives an Insight Into Russian Character.

A few years ago I was taking a country walk in Kovno. The road lay through a dense forest, and the day was oppressively hot. I arrived at last at a crossroad and sat down under the shade of the trees to rest. A signpost pointed its two arms down the converging roads. On one of them was inscribed "14 versts to Janova," on the other "17 versts to Shadowa." Presently the creaking of wheels and the slow "clop, clop" of a horse's hoofs on the road behind roused me. A cart piled high with tinware was coming down the road, with the driver perched on the top of the load.

"Good day, brother," I called out as the cart, with its sorry horse, came abreast of me. The man returned my salute, and the horse, glad of any excuse to rest his weary legs, came to a standstill in the middle of the road.

"Which way are you going?" I asked.

"To Janova. There is a market there tomorrow."

"But there is also a market in Shadowa," I answered, "and it is a more important place than Janova."

"So it is, so it is," the driver replied, with perfect indifference.

"What have you for sale?"

"Plenty of good tinware, as you can see, brother. I have worked for six weeks to make this cartload."

"Well, good luck to you and your tinware," I said, pulling and eating the berries within reach. "Will you take it to Janova or Shadowa?"

The man picked up the bit of cord which served as reins and prepared to go on.

"I shall leave that to my horse," he answered callously.

The lumbering wagon moved off and finally passed out of sight down the Janova road, which the horse had elected to take.—St. James' Gazette.

Memorial to a Robber.

In the little town of Forlino, near Bologna, there is a memorial tablet in the Municipal theater to the memory of a famous robber chieftain named Passatore. The reason why the theater is the home of his memorial is that in it was performed his most famous exploit. In September, 1854, while one of Rossini's operas was being performed in the presence of all the local beauty and fashion, Passatore and his band "held up" the audience and robbed them of all their valuables to the last penny.

Perfectly Congenial.

Naggsby—When a man and his wife think the same thoughts simultaneously it is a sign that they are exceedingly congenial. Waggsby—So? Well, then, my wife and I are congenial all right, for the other night when she said that she wondered why I'd ever been such a fool as to marry her I had been sitting there in silence for half an hour wondering over the same identical thing.—Baltimore American.

Saved the Trouble.

She—They say that the best husbands are always thoughtful in little things. Are you that way, Mr. Smith? Smith—No. I don't have to be. My wife always calls my attention to them before I have a chance to think.—Detroit Free Press.

By Constant Use.

"Yes, she's a woman of few words." "And, mercy, how frayed she keeps them looking!"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Love is only a woman's device for wasting time.—J. M. Barrie.

No More Stomach Troubles.

All stomach trouble is removed by the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It gives the stomach perfect rest by digesting what you eat without the stomach's aid. The food builds up the body, the rest restores the stomach to health. You don't have to diet yourself when taking Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. J. D. Erskine, of Allenville, Mich., says, "I suffered Heartburn and Stomach trouble for some time. My sister-in-law has had the same trouble and was not able to eat for six weeks. She lived entirely on warm water. After taking two bottles of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure she was entirely cured. She now eats heartily and is in good health. I am glad to say Kodol gave me instant relief." Sold by R. C. Dodson.

"Forgetting the things behind" is no reason for ingratitude.

Tonic to the System.

For liver troubles and constipation there is nothing better than DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little Pills. They do not weaken the stomach. Their action upon the system is mild, pleasant and harmless. Bob Moore, of LaFayette, Ind., says: "No use talking, DeWitt's Little Early Risers do their work. All other pills, I have used gripe and make me sick in the stomach and never cured me. DeWitt's Little Early Risers proved to be the long sought relief. They are simply perfect." Persons traveling find Little Early Risers the most reliable remedy to carry with them. Sold by R. C. Dodson.

The authority of the good does not rest on its austerity.
