Mrs. Henry Ellis is seriously ill. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Niles are at Smethport attending a funeral.

Mrs. J. C. Skillman has returned from Coudersport, where she spent the holidays with relatives.

Everything is on the boom in Cameron at the present time. The hotels cannot accommodate the rush of transient guests.

The skin of the Catamount recently killed by Mr. Skillman has been mounted and will adorn Mr. Hayes' bar in the near future. The remains of Mrs. McConnell were interred in Wiley cemetery at Emporium on Tuesday, Jan. 10th. Deceased was 66 years of age.

Messrs. Dunlevie, Skillman and the balance of their head men, are attending court at Williamsport this week but business goos on just the same. Miss Adelia Johnston has returned from her Christmas vacation, which was spent with her parents at Colesburg. Her brother, Rufus, accompanied her to take a position in Cameron mill. The sleighing being good Mr. Dunlevie is taking advantage of it, having thirty teams in force, hauling logs from Whitehead, besides his train makes three trips per day to Square Timber Run, bringing ight loaded cars each trip. Mr. John Snyder, formerly fireman on the Cameron Lumber Co.'s engine, has accepted the position of manager of the New Cameron House, for Mr. A. F Walker. His many triends wish him success in his new undertaking.

Fred Webster, the popular salesman at the Cameron store, has accepted a position as manager of Gallup's extensive grocery store at Smethport. Mr. Webster is very popular with the people of Cameron and vicinity, as well as being highly esteemed by his employers, having been in Mr. Dunlevie's employ for a number of years. THE DELINEATOR

The Delineator for February, with beautiful art cover and a varied table of contents, is a mos attractive number. As a special feature, Lionel S. Mapleson gives an account of Grand Opera on its travels, a paper that is full of humor, as well as of genuine interest and is strikingly illustrat ed. The romance of Chopin and the beautiful Countess Delphine Potocka is charmingly related by Gustav Kobbe in the "Composers Serles," and in an Interesting paper Allan Sutherland tells something of the origin and romance of that matchless hymn of Henry Francis Lyte, "Abide With Me." There are also good stories by Mary Stewart Cutting, Anne O'Hagan and Owen Oliver, in addition to the children's corner, which includes one of L. Frank Baum's
"Animal Fairy Tales" and a "Son Riley Rabbit" tark by Green Medicans Cooks story by Grace MacGowan Cooke. Some of the early spring styles are shown, and of further interact to women is the chapter on "The Making of a Housewife," containing a word of suggestion. The department "Good Looks," which Foley's Kidney Cure
BUFFALO, N. Y
Birney's contribution on "The Mistakes of Mothers" are other items especially helpful.

Mothers and Daughters

Every woman who has a grown daughter knows well the worry and anxiety which always comes at that period of life when girlhood merges into womanhood. Upon a girl's condition at this time depends her future health, strength and happiness. Too much care can not be taken to see that she passes through this period safely.
