The Mad Ambassador.
There was a tragic little scene immediately preceding the marriage of King Edward VII. when he was the Prince of Wales. With several of his royal relatives he was staying at the Prussian embassy in Rome, where his host was the German ambassador, Baron von Kanitz.

The responsibility of entertaining so many august personages under his roof was too much for the ambassador. He appeared at dinner one night in his dressing gown and slippers and to half the royalties of Europe exclaimed: "Is this to go on much longer? I am heartily sick of it, and it must come to an end at once."

They carried him to his room and the next day removed him to an asylum, a raving lunatic.

Rocking and Sleep.
Dr. Manacoe, the famous Russian authority on sleep phenomena, says that rocking is an artificial method of inducing slumber. The process fatigues consciousness by a series of monotonous sensations and incidentally deprives the brain of its blood supply. Absence of blood from the brain makes sleep. The influence of the lullaby is objectionable, but not equally so. A baby will go to sleep unaided when it needs sleep.

Her Recommendation.
Cholly—So Miss Tartan loosened up and said a good word about me, did she? Archie—Yes; she said that when one got better acquainted with you one found you were not half as big a fool as you appeared to be.—Exchange.

WINTER EATING RUINS STOMACHS

"Now is the Time You Need Mi-o-na," Says L. Taggart.

Think for a moment of the extra strain you put upon the stomach in the Winter. The hearty food, the late suppers, and the lack of exercise and out door life all weaken and strain the stomach, laying the foundation for poor health and suffering.

Chronic stomach troubles, nervous irritability, and serious bowel and kidney diseases have often dated from a week of extra "good living." Nearly everyone is bothered with more or less headaches and backaches, furred tongue, poor appetite, dry, hacking cough, heartburn, spots before the eyes, dizziness or vertigo, sleeplessness, lack of energy, loss of flesh or a general week, tired feeling.

Now is the time when Mi-o-na is needed to repair the ravages and wastes the hearty eating of Winter has caused in the stomach and digestive system. This is the only known agent that strengthens the stomach and digestive organs, so they can and will digest whatever food is eaten. A Mi-o-na tablet taken before each meal will remove all irritation, inflammation and congestion in the digestive organs, and so strengthen them that they will extract from the food all that goes to make good rich blood, firm muscle, and a sound, healthy body.

This remarkable remedy costs but 50 cents, and if its use does not restore your full vigor, vitality, and health, L. Taggart one of the best known druggists in this section will refund your money. Unbounded faith like this deserves your confidence.

Fearful Revenge.
Watts—Does your wife ever scold when you have been out late at night? Potts—Oh, no; she never says a word! She gets up the next morning about 4 o'clock and practices on the piano, and I haven't say a word.

A Mark of Culture.
Maud—That's a letter from Jack, is it? What horrid spelling! Mabel—I know it. He does it on purpose. He says that bad spelling is a mark of high literary culture nowadays.—Chicago Tribune.

"FOUND"

Odd Notice in Prominent Southern Paper of Interest to Emporium Residents.

One of the best known newspapers in the South is the "Guide" of Dunn, N. C. Its publisher, J. P. Pitman, sends us the following clipping with request to publish.

"Found.—by the editor of the Guide, a bottle of Hyomei, the wonderful treatment that cures catarrh without stomach dosing. We can speak in highest praise of its remarkable power to cure and relieve catarrh of the head and throat. This mention is made not as an advertisement but in the interest of those who suffer the torture of that terrible disease, catarrh."

In sending the clipping, Mr. Pitman wrote the following letter:
"I enclose a little piece from my paper, issued to-day. You will see from this that I desire to push the selling of Hyomei as far as possible. I am using it in my own family, and find that it gives the desired relief, so that I take pleasure in spreading far and near the knowledge of the sure relief for catarrh."
L. Taggart, in preparation for the Catarrh troubles of this season of the year, has ordered a large stock of Hyomei, and sells it under guarantee to refund the money if it does not relieve. The complete outfit costs but $1, and extra bottles can be obtained for 50 cents. Ask him to show the strong guarantee under which he sells it. This remarkable remedy medicates the air you breathe, soothing and healing the mucous membrane of the air passages, and making a complete cure of the worst case of catarrh.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

JACKSON.
The funeral of Appleton R. Jackson, Sr., formerly of the South Side, but of late years of Virginia, who died on Friday at Washington, D. C., was held Monday afternoon from the chapel at Wildwood cemetery. The remains arrived here in the morning, accompanied by three of the sons of the deceased. The services were conducted by the Rev. Dr. Elliott C. Armstrong, of the Third Presbyterian church. The pall bearers were four sons of the deceased, Walter, Charles, John and A. R., of this city. Interment, which was private, was made in Wildwood.—Williamsport Bulletin. Deceased was father of Mr. Walter Jackson, well known here. Years ago Mr. Jackson resided at Beechwood and will be pleasantly remembered by many of our citizens.

Unctuous humor that is worthy of a Richard Carle, a comical countenance that rivals Frank Daniels, a pair of twisted legs that makes even Francis Wilson look to his laurels, and the ability to dance in George M. Cohen's class, is a quartette of attractive recommendations that has made diminutive Frank Deshon invaluable to Messrs. Nixon & Zimmerman. He is now appearing in the role of Billy Van Millon in Willard Spenser's dainty comedy opera, "Miss Bob White," and his clever portrayal of the millionaire tramp is now a well known bit of comedy. It will be a source of great pleasure to know that he will next season be starred in a new opera to be launched by Messrs. Nixon & Zimmerman, his present managers. At opera house, Emporium, Feb. 28th.

Mothers and Daughters

Every woman who has a grown daughter knows well the worry and anxiety which always comes at that period of life when girlhood merges into womanhood. Upon a girl's condition at this time depends her future health, strength and happiness. Too much care can not be taken to see that she passes through this period safely.

AUNT DINAH'S OLD VIRGINIA Herb Tea

is of the greatest assistance to nature in bringing about the change which takes place, without disturbing the natural functions of the system. It is a strengthening tonic. It will keep the roses in a girl's cheeks and prevent that tendency to decline which so often endangers her life at this critical point in development.

This Herb Tea is likewise of corresponding value and assistance to matrons and mothers at the end of this period. Its use will at this time prevent endless pain and worry. A woman will enter the evening of life with scarcely the knowledge that the change has occurred. Many are the thankful women who know the value of Aunt Dinah's Old Virginia Herb Tea and are grateful for the benefits derived from its use.
