SINNAMAHONING.

It Pap Blodgett starts right in writing for the Gazette or the Independent either, in the same style that is natural to us, he'll find a heap of our best Citizens dead yet agin him. Eynone believes in allowing credit where its comin but there is a pile of difference twixt mendin shoes, rummin peanut roasters, chewin gun, slot machines on the outside and strappin razors and writin for the columns of these papers as we are.

Vine Hanscom and Ellick DeShetler are fixin up the saw mill so they can run it next summer O. K. Vine is the one that files the saws always when the mill is rummin and Ellick runs them. Vine is a good man to file a saw allright & so is Ellick a good one to run it. There's enough logs this time to run longer than any before if they get them all in.

Some of them are sayin Mabunom aint very well educated and tryin to be little our style of writin and puttin things but Mabunom finished up at a school where they teach a language that was not all writin nor found in books and off and on in the columns of these papers, we may put things that will be clearer maybe, if you read betwixt the lines, where there aint any words printed on.

George Shaffer who runs the House his Father used to has takin to writin' for the Sun which is peddled on our streets at night after the train goes up & his article on account of the big paper mills at the head of the creek polluttin, the water and killin' all the fish meets the sanctum of all our Patriotic Citizens and maybe if George keeps on touchin' his quill to the paper somethin' 'will be done 'bout it.

A bad accident came mighty near takin' place last week on day when I of our Citizens viz: Howard Metzgar who does the buyin' for Barelays' big store tumbled backwards out of George Grassley's bob sled and lit on his head and shoulders in a heap. Howard is a powerful big man all right and had good footin' in the sled but when the horses started unbeknownst to him he tumbled right out hekitysplit O. K.

There's a heap of talk goin' round 'bout the way some of them will be fixt up with macks for the party like once before I told you. Everybody is wonderin' how the other fellow is goin' to be rigged up and guessin' whose goin' to get the prize for havin' the smartest git up which some one says is a real old fashioned Pumpkin pie, Abe Turain reckons he'll get the prize. His make up will kindle your eyes O. K.

Some time ago I wrote in prose I scarcely know of friend or foes A sewing circle the R. P. U. They handle well what ere they do This seldom any one they spars Of gossip get there proper share But folks have learned to grin and bear The news that goes just flyin' round Until it fall upon the ground And hits somebodys name.

I've told you of the motely band They turn out anything at hand The latest gossip in the land Is spread broadcast and round about You'd wonder how they found it out To get so quickly spread The neighbors all declare it true The Old Maids Club the R. P. U. The best to say when all are thru Let it remain unsaid.

You'd scarcely think this be say through. The R. P. U., could get along, Within a country, sid-so small, With such amazing skill, Let it be said the gossip spread Is surely fit to kill. But then how can we all a tone, When we do not to others as we should When we are saved by Grace alone To gain an ever lasting home How can we all be good This is at best a faulty sphere Hence we are left to guess and fear And every doubt.

P. S. Note.
The R. P. U. will give a ball Am told takes place in Brooks' Hall Just bring you mask and be in line To do honor to St. Valentine Am told the doors will close at eight. Cards are out to one and all Of stature small and stature tall Old, young, fats and leans Maids of fourty, maids of teens We hope to dance the time away At the masquerade of St. Valentines Day. Avoid congestion at the door.

Farmers' Institute.

The Cameron County Farmers' Institute closed its sessions at the Court House, Tuesday evening after a most interesting and profitable meeting. Much credit is due the Chairman, Mr. W. H. Howard, for making this one of the largest institutes ever held in this county and which can be reported to the State Department of Agriculture as one of the best in the state. The farmers of Cameron county should be sorry to lose Mr. Howard as chairman, this being his last term.

MONDAY AFTERNOON.

Monday afternoon, Dr. I. A. Thayer, a scientific man of Lawrence county, responded to the Address of Welcome by W. H. Howard, in a very creditable manner, and complimented the Cameron county farmers on their beautiful American-Switzerland. Hon. A. J. Kahler, of Lycoming county, gave a valuable discourse on "Hogs for Profit" and L. W. Lighty of Lycoming county, talked on "The Farmers' Cow and How to make her Profitable." Mr. Lighty is a practical dairyman and his talk was very concise and interesting.

MONDAY EVENING.

In the evening Hon. A. J. Kahler talked on "Corn Culture." Dr. I. A. Thayer on "The Clover as Food and How to Cure," and L. W. Lighty discussed "Feeding the Dairy Cow." A beautiful piano solo was rendered by Miss Flossie Taggart, and Miss Mazie Gallagher entertained the audience with a very pretty violin solo. Miss Byrde Taggart sang a solo extremely well.

TUESDAY MORNING.

Tuesday morning, Mr. L. W. Lighty delivered an address on "Silos Experience and Practice." Hon. A. J. Kahler talked on "Proper Care of Barnyard Manure" and Dr. I. A. Thayer spoke on "Alfalfa." The question box was a main feature and many practical questions were asked and answered.

AFTERNOON.

The subject "Taxation and How it Affects the Farmer," was discussed by Hon. A. J. Kahler, "Soiling and Soiling Crops," by L. W. Lighty was an exceptionally good talk and Dr. Thayer spoke of "Clover as a Fertilizer."

EVENING.

The most interesting theme of the evening was a splendid address on "Strawberry Culture" by Dr. Thayer. This gentleman is largely engaged in strawberry raising and talks intelligently on the subject. Mr. Lighty talked on "Education for our Boys and Girls; What and How." He compared the rural school houses of to-day with those of thirty years ago, and really there seemed small difference. Mr. Lighty spoke of the centralizing of schools and gave several examples. Hon. A. J. Kahler gave a short talk on "How Best to keep the Boys on the Farm." In his remarks he gave the reasons why boys, who were reared on the farm preferred employment in the cities.

The music provided by Miss Byrde Taggart was exceptionally fine. Miss Grace Lloyd who has a sweet and well trained voice, sang a solo "Poppies." Miss Flossie Taggart furnished a piano solo, Miss Grace Walker rendered two violin solos in her capable manner. Mr. A. D. Ericsson played two piano solos, much to the delight of the audience and Miss Frank Huntley sang two beautiful songs.

There is a Universal Dread

Among patients on their approaching the dental chair, owing largely to the traditional story of its tortures. In a modern Dental practice there is little to justify such dread. Dental operations are not necessarily painful. With sharp instruments, a skilled hand and a general know how ability, the worst is over.
