Here's a farmer's simple remedy for getting rid of rats: "On a very large number of old shingles I put about one teaspoonful of molasses and on that I scraped a small amount of concentrated lye, and then placed them under the cribs. The next morning I found some forty dead rats; the rest vacated the farm. I have cleared many farms of the pest in this same way and have never known it to fail."—Millerton Advocate.

A Newspaper That Speaks Out.

On Feb. 2nd the Pittsburg Times was 25 years old. Its owners claim its undiminished popularity is demonstrated by the frankness with which it has discussed subjects of public interest.

Whenever there is before the people some question of absorbing importance newspaper readers are on the qui vive to know what The Times says to say, and what The Times says is right to the point. It hits to the line. That, however, is only one of the merits claimed for its publishers.

Its general news service is comprehensive and complete. It is accurate in its financial department and up-to-date on its sporting page. Its serial stories are by the best modern authors. It pays especial attention to the news and views of all the churches, and in this respect has won the admiration of the best people.

Miss May Gould, teacher of piano-forte, has received a full line of the latest and most popular sheet music. All the popular airs. Prices reasonable. 44-1f.
