Pennsylvania A GREAT MEDICINE

BRINGS HEALTH TO THREE MEM-BERS OF SAME FAMILY.

Cures a Wife's Debility After Malaria, a Husband's Rheumatism, a Daughter's Nervous Prostration.

"I have recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to many people," said Mrs. Gossett, "because I have seen such good results, time after time, right in my own family. There are three of us who have no doubt about their merits. We do not need to take anybody's word on the sub-ject for our own experience has taught us how well they deserve praise.

"It was just about ten years ago that I first read about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and bought my first box. I was at that time all run down, weak, nervous and without ambition. I had been doctoring all summer for malaria and stomach trouble. Everybody thought I was going into consumption, as my other had died of that disease.

"Thanks to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, I am now alive and hearty. I began to improve as soon as I began to take them, and when I had taken three boxes I was a well woman. Everyone wonders how I keep so well and am able to care for my home and six children without help. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills explain it.

'My oldest girl's health began to fail when she was about fourteen. She was nervous, complained of sharp pains in her head, would get deathly sick and have to leave the school room to get fresh air to revive her. I gave some pills to her. She took only a few boxes, but they cured her troubles, and caused her to develop into a perfect picture of health. Then my husband took them for rheumatism and found that they would cure that too. So you see we have all got great good from using them, and that is why we recommend them to others."

Mrs. Minnie B. Gossett lives at Uhrichsville, Tuscarawas Co., Ohio, and is well known, as she has resided in the same neighborhood for more than thirteen years. Her story shows that a medicine which makes the blood sound and the nerves strong, overcomes a variety of diseases and should be found in everyhousehold. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists everywhere. They have cured anaemia, and all forms of weakness, also the most stubborn cases of dyspepsia and rheumatism. They are indispensable for growing girls.

CHILDREN AFFECTED

By Mother's Food and Drink.

Many babies have been launched into life with constitutions weakened by disease taken in with their mother's milk. Mothers cannot be too careful as to the food they use while nurs-ing their babes. The experience of a ing their babes. Kansas City mother is a case in point:
"I was a great coffee drinker from a child, and thought I could not eat a meal without it. But I found at last it was doing me harm. For years I had been troubled with dizziness, spots before my eyes and pain in my heart, to which was added, two years ago, a chronic sour stomach. The baby was born 7 months ago, and almost from the beginning, it, too, suffered from sour stomach. She was taking it from

"In my distress I consulted a friend of more experience than mine, and she told me to quit coffee, that coffee did not make good milk. I have since ascertained that it really dries up the milk.

"So, I quit coffee, and tried tea and at last cocoa. But they did not agree with me. Then I turned to Postum Coffee with the happiest results. It proved to be the very thing I needed. It not only agreed perfectly with baby and myself, but it increased the flow of my milk. My husband then quit coffee and used Postum, quickly got well of the dyspepsia with which he had been troubled. I no longer suffor from the dizziness, bind spells, pain in my heart or sour stomach. Postum has cured them.

"Now we all drink Postum, from my husband to my seven-months'-old baby. It has proved to be the best hot drink we have ever used. We would not give up Postum for the best coffee we ever drank." Name given by Postum Co. Bettle Creek Mich. Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

HOW TO GROW DEWBERRIES.

Method Which Simplifies the Clearing Away of the Old Vines So as to Give the New Growth a Chance,

The diagram shows a sketch of one plan of training the dewberry vine, writes an Indiana farmer to the Rural New Yorker. Fig. 1 represents the dewberry vines trained to a wire tightly drawn between two anchored posts at ends of row (BB), with central posts (C). This wire (A A) is put up in the spring, and the vines raised up and thrown over it, and tied, if necessary, leaving the ground bare beneath, where the sprouts for next year's crop can grow and be trained so as to be under the wire out of the way of cultivation. When the berries are all picked, loosen the wires (A A) at both ends, first cutting off the old vines, and by means of

ARRANGEMENT OF VINES. this wire, one man at each end, the old vines are pulled away from the new vines now spread out on the ground; then by straightening one end of this wire and pulling at the other end, you can easily pull the wire out from the old vines and leave them between the rows, where they can be easily forked into heaps and carried off the ground, leav-ing everything out of the way as seen In Fig. 2, the new vines ready for the winter mulch. If desired, the posts (B B) can be pulled up and set away in the dry, ready to drive down in the spring. The anchor wires (Y V) which are an chored to a stone underground, must be attached to top of post, so it can be removed when you wish to take posts up. These guy wires would be the only thing left on the ground through the winter. In the spring drive down posts, stretch the wire (A A), and again train vines by lifting them over wire, and in this way one wire and the same posts can be used, and the best possible conditions had for cultivation, and for large, fine berries, at less expense than any method wire is plenty large for this training

PROTEIN VALUE OF ALFALFA

Experiments Show That Latter Contains a Fraction Over Eighteen Per Cent. of the Former.

There is no food product grown on the farm which supplies protein at so low a cost as alfalfa. This, too, is obtained by enriching rather than depleting the soil, for alfalfa, like other legumes, is a nitrogen-gathering corp Its deep-reaching roots, extending eight to twelve to forty feet below the surface, bring up fertilizing elements from the subsoil and place them where other crops may feed upon them.
Experiment shows that alfalfa contains a fraction over 18 per cent. of crude protein. Young alfalfa cut five months after seeding contained the lowest per cent. of protein and that cut after one-third of the blossoms had appeared contained the highest per cent There is a very decided decline in pro-tein from the time the first blossoms appear until the seeds form. There is much more profit in three early cuttings of alfalfa than in two over-ripe cuttings. The leaves are especially rich in protein and deficient in fiber, containing twice as much crude pro-tein and one-fourth to one-half as much fiber as the stems.

Among the Fruit Trees. The plum orchard should be found on every farm. Success is almost certain if the right variety is selected. The man that would successfully fight insect pests must understand them, and In th one cannot understand them without studying about them. This takes time

Patronize none but reliable nurserymen. The orchardist can afford to pay high prices for fruit trees better than he can afford to waste his time caring for varieties that have no value in them when brought to the fruiting period.

Sunscald is one of the worst enemies of the damson plum tree, and where danger of sunscald is great the trunk and larger branches must be partly protected in some manner.

Borers are great destroyers of plum trees and constitute one of the greatest drawbacks to plum growing. The or-chardist that expects to succeed must be on the lookout for these enemi which, when found, must be hunted down.

Cultivating Sweet Potatoes.

For cultivating sweet potatoes, one needs a fine-tooth cultivator, one with 13 teeth, or a one-horse harrow and a sweep or winged shovel, writes Illinois farmer in the Orange Judd Farmer. The cultivators should have lever adjustments, so that they can be opened or closed to suit the varying widths of the rows. Don't wait until the weeds have got a start before beginning to cultivate. The sooner the cultivator and sweep are started after planting the better for the crop. If possible, never allow a crust to form after a rain. A good plan is to run through once between the rows with the fine-tooth cultivator after every rain. The potatoes can be barred off with the fine-tooth cultivator in half the time it takes to do it with a turning plow.

PREFERRED BEING JAILED.

Concealed Burglar Surrendered When the Music Lessons Took

A burglar who entered a Harlem house suffered a unique form of punishment. It happened, says the New York Press, that the family he had come to rob were inconveniently early risers, and before he had half finished his work he heard a step on the stairs. Quickly gathering up his booty, he slipped behind the piano, intending to make good his escape as soon as opportunity offered.

But opportunity did not offer, for it appeared that the step he had heard was that of one of the daughters of the house, who had come down to the parlor for a couple of hours' practice before breakfast. When she had finished another daughter was standing ready to occupy the stool for another two hours.

Next followed the music lessons of each of the young ladies in turn. After these lessons were over their brother's violin teacher appeared, and, scating herself at the piano, began his accompaniment. But this was too much. The burglar rushed from his hiding place.

"For heaven's sake have me arrested," he implored. "At least there are no pianos in jail."

STOP! WOMEN.

AND CONSIDER THE ALL-IMPORTANT FACT

That in addressing Mrs. Pinkham you are confiding your private ills to a woman—a woman whose experience with woman's diseases covers a great many years. You can talk freely to a woman when it is revolting to relate your private troubles to a man-besides a man does not understand-simply because he is a man.

Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing full well that they ought to have immediate assistance, but a natural modesty impels them to shrink from exposing themselves to the questions and probably examinations of even their family physician. It is unnecessary. Without money or price you can consult a woman whose knowledge from actual experience is great.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation:

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs.
Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women only. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; thus has been established the eternal confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America which has never been broken. Out of the vast volume of experience which she has to draw from, it is more than possible of the vast volume of experience which she has to draw from, it is more than possible that she has gained the very knowledge that will help your case. She asks nothing in return except your good-will, and her advice has relieved thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, is very foolish if she does not take advantage of this generous offer of assistance.—Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

Following we publish two letters from a woman who accepted this invitation. Note the
