AGRICULTURAL BULLETIN.

The Pennsylvania State College Agricultural Experiment Station issues the following Bulletin on Adulteration, April 25, 1905.

By the ordinary milling process buckwheat is divided into three products:

(a) The flour, which contains chiefly the starchy matters.

(b) The middlings or bran, which includes that portion of the seed which is richest in protein and is situated next to the true seed coat; as the name implies, it also contains the seed coats themselves; it is therefore much richer in protein than any other of the buckwheat products.

(c) The hulls, which are largely composed of woody matter, forming a strong protective cover for the seed, and have but little value for feeding.

The average proportions of protein and fiber in these three classes of products are:

Table with columns: Protein Per Cent., Fiber Per Cent., Flour, Middlings or bran, Hulls.

The term "buckwheat feed" has come into use to designate a mixture of hulls and middlings, just as the term "oat feed" is used to designate a mixture of oat hulls with a little of the fragments of oat kernel, whereas in case of rye and barley the name "feed" applies to a mixture of the true bran with the middlings.

The composition of buckwheat feed will vary, of course, with the proportions in which the hulls and middlings are combined, but the temptation always is to make it carry as much of the inferior hulls as possible.

A number of instances have recently come to our notice in which sales of buckwheat feed have been made under the name "buckwheat middlings." As an illustration; a sample of these "middlings" has recently been examined by the station and found to have the following chemical composition:

Table with columns: Per Cent., Water, Ash, Protein, Fiber, Nitrogen-free extract, Fat.

100.00

The microscope revealed the presence of grass seeds from green and yellow fox tail and barnyard grasses, probably introduced as accidental impurities with the buckwheat hulls, which were present in large quantities. If hulls and middlings were mixed in equal proportions, the mixture would contain about 17 per cent. of protein and 20 per cent. of fiber. It appears, therefore that in this sample there was present upward of 50 per cent. of material of extremely inferior value for feeding purposes. In particular, a purchaser intending to use the middlings as a source of protein to balance the ration of his dairy herd would be likely to be greatly disappointed in the results obtained and to lose much more than the commercial value of the middlings replaced by the hulls.

The buyer can, however, readily detect this adulteration, for the middlings themselves are comparatively fine and light-colored and do not have a large quantity of coarse, dark material present, while in the buckwheat feed the hulls are especially conspicuous.

Time Tried and Merit Proven.

One Minute Cough Cure is right on time when it comes to curing Coughs, Croup, Whooping Cough, etc. It is perfectly harmless, pleasant to take and is the children's favorite Cough Syrup.

THE COUNTY.

FIRST FORK.

Messrs. Chas. and H. C. Jones moved their families from Burlingame Orchard, at Wharton to Jerrys Run in Cameron county last week.

J. M. Brooks and family moved to Emporium Thursday last and the same day the family of Jas. Brooks moved into the house Brooks vacated and we understand are going to board a lot of pipe liners, who will put in the new line. The work will commence soon.

M. J. Colcord of the Journal and son Harold of Ridgway and Albert Colcord son of Postmaster Colcord of Port Allegany, were in to see grandpa Colcord last Monday and incidentally taking a few of the speckled beauties as sort of a side issue. All returned to Coudersport on Wednesday.

The mill crew moved in one day last week, with their families and are now manufacturing sawdust and lumber.

J. P. Hurlburt is doing quite a stroke of farming, besides attending to his store business at Brooks Run.

SINNAMAHONING.

Pretty wet weather for corn planting. G. B. Barclay has planted 65 bushel of potatoes so far this season.

The big mill is making full time these days and all are busy. A large black and tanned hound drove a deer into the creek below here this week. Where is the game warden.

There is quite a good deal of dynamite used up the run near here, by the sound of the shooting. It is too bad, to kill trout with dynamite as it kills all the little trout as well as the big ones.

A fisherman on Cooks Run last week found a sack with about three hundred trout, less than six inches long. It was at a camp of fisherman but no fish warden near.

The Keystone Handle factory is all under roof and the machinery is being put in this week.

The Fulton Bros., have the job of painting and decorating the hall room of the P. O. S. of A. building and a fine job is looked for when completed.

Wm. Lupole is home from the Williamsport Hospital. He speaks very highly of the institution.

Mr. Geo. D. Mead and Miss Bessie Walker were united in the holy bonds of matrimony on Wednesday evening at the bride's home, by the Rev. Mr. Noble, pastor of the M. E. Church. The young couple are highly esteemed and the best wishes of their many friends go with them in their married life.

Miss Alice Jordan of Huntley is visiting her sister Mrs. G. W. Batchelder this week.

Mrs. Geo. Gore is quite ill. Dr. Russell is attending her.

G. W. Gore visited the county seat Monday.

John F. Berfield visited his wife at Williamsport hospital Sunday.

A band of Gypsies passed through town Tuesday.

The water in the First Fork is getting worse than ever this summer and it seems the people have to put up with it.

CAMERON.

Among the out of town visitors in town this week are L. L. Cole, county surveyor of Potter county.

Engineman Mack of Calder Brick Co., has resumed duty after a two weeks illness.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Co. are preparing to extend the double track to Sterling Run. A carload of laborers arrived Monday night at Emporium, to work on the job.

While driving to Emporium Monday, one of the valuable carriage horses of E. V. Dunlevie, stepped on a small stone and broke its leg. The animal was shot. It was valued at $300.

The families of J. C. Skillman, John Rhoades, Chas. Belden and Wm. Joloff have removed from Square Timber Run, after finishing a year's contract for Cameron Lumber Co. Mr. Rhoades will conduct the boarding house for Mr. Dunlevie.

Mr. Isaac Wykoff is visiting in Emporium.

Mrs. Liston of Emporium visited friends in town this week.

H. G. Danlevie has returned from a visit with friends in New York.

Mrs. Dan'l Sullivan has returned from a visit with her sister at Salamanca.

Mr. Sprowl of Cleveland, O., is a visitor in town.

Letter to J. A. Kinsler, Emporium, Pa.

Dear sir: Would you like to hear of a 20 year paint?

Mr. James A. O'Neil's house, Henderson, N. C., was painted 20 years ago with Devoe lead-and-zinc, and never painted again till last year; it then looked better than common paint in half that time.

The reason is; Devoe is all paint and true paint, while the common paints are part true and part false. Don't pay to monkey with paint.

And Devoe costs less than any of 'em; not by the gallon, of course; by the house and year. That's how to reckon it. Go by the name.

Yours truly F. W. DEVOE & Co., New York.

P. S. Murry & Coppersmith sell our paint.

Protruding Piles Cured.

Five years ago I was troubled with protruding piles. They were very painful, and for six weeks I was unable to replace them. I used one 25c bottle of San-Curr Ointment, which relieved the pain and cured me entirely. I have had no return of them in five years. San-Curr also cured my daughter of the piles. I could make oath to the above. John C. Ross, Hydetown, Pa. For sale by R. C. Dodson 25c and 50c.

A man is never too old to learn, but sometimes he is young to realize it.

A Creeping Death.

Blood poison creeps up towards the heart, causing death. J. E. Stearns, Belle Plaine, Minn., writes that a friend dreadfully injured his hand, which swelled up like blood poisoning. Bucklen's Arnica Salve drew out the poison, healed the wound, and saved his life. Best in the world for burns and sores. 25c at L. Taggart's drug store.

Silk lined gloves interest a woman more than silver lined clouds.

A Tried and True Friend.

One Minute Cough Cure contains not an atom of any harmful drug, and it has been curing Coughs, Colds, Croup and Whooping Cough so long that it has proven itself to be a tried and true friend to many who use it. Sold by R. C. Dodson.

People whose troubles don't worry them need no medicine.

Strictly Genuine.

Most of the patent medicine testimonials are probably genuine. The following notice recently appeared in the Atchison (Kan.) Globe: "Joe Taek, a well known engineer, running on the Missouri Pacific between Wichita and Kiowa, lately appeared in a big one, with a picture, and when he was in his office to-day we ask him about it. He says he had terrible pains in his stomach, and thought he had cancer. His druggist recommended Kodol and he says it cured him. He recommended it to others, who were also cured." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and cures all stomach troubles. Sold by R. C. Dodson.

No Gloss Carriage Paint Made.

Will wear as long as Devoe's. No others are as heavy bodied, because Devoe's weigh 3 to 8 ounces more to the pint. Sold by Murry & Coppermith Co.

"DO IT TO-DAY!"

"And to think that ten months ago I looked like this! I owe it to German Syrup."

"The time-worn injunction, "Never put off 'til to-morrow what you can do to-day," is now generally presented in this form: "Do it to-day!" That is the terse advice we want to give you about that hacking cough or demoralizing cold with which you have been struggling for several days, perhaps weeks. Take some reliable remedy for it TO-DAY—and let that remedy be Dr. Roscher's German Syrup, which has been in use for over thirty-five years. A few doses of it will undoubtedly relieve your cough or cold, and its continued use for a few days will cure you completely. No matter how deep-seated your cough, even if dread consumption has attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure—as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble. New trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.

A Belated Prayer.

A good anecdote is related of a young minister who was supplying the pulpit of the Wrentham Congregational church during the absence of its pastor, the Rev. Elisha Fisk, better known as "Priest Fisk," whose pastorate in this church covered a period of fifty-six years.

Upon opening the Bible the young minister came across the following notice, which he read: "Mr. Libbius Porter desires the prayers of the congregation, that his loss may be sanctified for his good."

Signs of suppressed merriment appeared through the congregation, but the cause was a complete mystery to the young minister, who upon arriving at the home of Mr. Fisk for lunch inquired of Mrs. Fisk the cause of the unseemly hilarity.

She informed him he had read an old notice, used by her husband as a bookmark. It had been presented by Mr. Porter a year or two before, upon the death of his third wife. Mr. Porter, with his fourth bride, sat in the congregation while it was being read.—Boston Herald.

Enthusiastic Bird Architect.

The process of the building of a bird's nest is always interesting, and the most wonderful of all nests, those of the weaver birds, can always be seen in the making by any one who will buy a few males of the African red billed weaver, which cost about half a crown each. This is a little bird much like a small hen sparrow, with a bright red bill and decked in the breeding season with a pluk cap and breast and a black mask. He is an enthusiastic architect and in France is always sold as travailleur, the worker. Even in the cage he will weave any fibrous material in and out of the wires till they are covered, and in an aviary he will construct beautiful round nests with the greatest enthusiasm, pausing occasionally to swear at fellow craftsmen who presume to criticize his efforts or cast a larcenous eye on his materials.—London Express.

His Voice Needed Filling.

There is a young medical student living in Westport who has decided not to speak to a girl he knows. He was calling on the young woman recently, and during the evening he volunteered to sing. When he had concluded his song he turned to the girl. "I'm thinking of taking voice culture," he said. "Do you know of a good teacher whose charge is reasonable?" "I know the very one for you," she replied. "His name is Taylor. Give me a card, and I'll write down his telephone number for you." The young man gave her the card. Next day he called Taylor up on the telephone. "Is this Mr. Taylor, the vocal teacher?" he asked. "The what?" came over the wire. "The vocal teacher." "Naw," was the reply. "I don't teach nothing. I file saws."—Kansas City Times.

The Scared Hero.

The man who goes down with his engine in a wreck is considered worthy of great commendation, when the truth is, as all railway men are aware, that the unfortunate in such cases lost his nerve at the critical moment and hesitated to jump. When an accident is impending the cool and collected engineer shuts off steam, applies the brakes and opens the valves, all of the actions taking a few seconds. Then he looks out for his own safety. Another man becomes so frightened in the presence of great danger that he does nothing, not even the possible, and he is the person likely to wear a martyr's crown.—Locomotive Engineering.

Malleability of Gold.

The malleability of gold is so great that a single grain may be divided into 2,000,000 parts and a cubic inch into 9,523,809,523 parts, each of which may be distinctly seen by the naked eye. A grain and a half of gold may be beaten into leaves of one inch square, which, if intersected by parallel lines drawn at right angles to each other and distance only the one-hundredth part of an inch, will produce 25,000,000 little squares, each of which may be distinctly seen without the aid of a glass.

Who use molasses demand the best syrup obtainable. Treacle is not molasses although there's much treacle sailing under false colors. The difference between treacle and molasses lies in the fact that treacle comes from sugar in the process of making, while molasses is obtained in the process of refining. You can not get good out of bad, but you can get the best from the best which comes from the sugar.
