Settle the Question Here, Boys. Someone has been foolish enough to lead the Driftwood B. B. club into believing they can play base ball. About all we can say to their ability on the diamond is that they are possessed of a yap as big as the opening of a subway. However that they may be convinced as to their inability as base ball players; and accepting the challenge they threw down through the Pennsylvania Grit, will say Johnsonuurg will play them on neutral ground, for $50 or $500, or any part thereof, as the case

The Great American Game. The several base ball games at Keystone Park were well attended and increased interest manifested. SATURDAY'S GAME.

The St. Marys base ball team came to Emporium last Saturday and were defeated by the seore of 11 to 1. While the score was rather ore sided, the game was full of good ball playing. Most all of the runs made by Empori-um were earned by good clean hitting, when hits counted runs. St. Marys did not score until the ninth inning, after two men had died and a runner on second base, when the next man up hit into right field, bringing in their only run. The features of the game was a double play by Eschbaugh to Farrell, and the batting by Cummings, who out of four times up, had two two base hits and one three bagger and a single. That's going some. Overturf had the boys at his mercy all the way and received gilt edge sup port. Mumford also was much in evi dence behind the bat.

TUESDAY'S GAME.

The Emporium nine added another victory to their list on Tuesday by defeating the Port Allegany team 5 to 3. The game was a most interesting one, on account of Port Allegany being two runs to the good at one time, but our team pulled themselves together and steadily gained until they landed the game. It looked rather bad in Port Allegany's half of the ninth with a runner on first and second, with no body out, but one run was the best they could do. The battery for Emporium was Verner and Mamford.

Struck by Train.

A Pole named Joe Sweet, employed at the Coal Mines was struck by the Erie Flyer, No. 4, at Cameron station, at 11:48 Saturday night. The man had been at the Valley House until it had closed for the night and then started for his boarding house at the Coke Ovens, and evidently stepped on the wrong track. His left arm and right leg was terribly mangled, besides he had numerous cuts and bruises all over his body. He was found insensible along the track by engineman Fetter, whose train was the first one east after No. 4. Mr. Fetter notified operator Shingledecker and Foreman Robinson who had the man brought to the station platform, where he regained and eaid Byrne, Pa., where he has a wife and four small children. The railroad offirials at Renovo removed him to the hospital at Williamsport on train No. 14. When train No. 14 was pulling out from Cameron station a young man named John McCarthy attempted to get on the rear end of the train and was thrown against the trucks with such force that his clothing became entangled in the wheels and nearly torn off his body. His shoulder was dislocated and he was bably bruised. However, he was able to walk to his home.

Large Timber Cut on Medix Run. From the scale as shown us by Mr. Dixon, of the lumbering firm of Taylor & Dixon, operating on Medix Run, we take the following as accomplished by Mr. Alex Wallace, of Goshen township of it before June, 1903. The experiand four assistants. In five hours time they cut down, cut in board lengths, and peeled three trees which made 18 logs. The first tree cut 6 logs which scaled 2828 feet, the second cut 6 logs scaling 5078 feet and the third cut 6 logs scaling 5697 feet, making a grand total scale of the three trees 12,603 feet. The trees stood within ten feet of each other and were of the pure hemlock teacher and soon takes pride in the variety. Mr. Wallace is one of the old-est lumbermen in Clearfield county and challenges any other crew of five men to produce like results in the same length of time. -Clearfield Journal.

Midsummer Comfort. Those who have found the Summer acation problem a difficult one, from the standpoint of economy, will find ome practical suggestions in the chapter on "Cooperative Housekeeping at the Seashore" by Isabel Gordon Curtis, in the August Delineator. The and figures demonstrate the advan-self government. Left to themselves of the magazine, which appeal particularly during hot weather, art "Cold Tit Bits for Hot Days," pictured and described, and a variety of seasonable recipes in cookery under the titles, "A Dozen Fresh Fruit Pies," "Tartlets," and "Iced Deliciousness." Summer fashions and reading complete the number, which is unusually interesting and attractive.

The Observer. According to Mr. Wilson L. Gill of the Franklin Institute, one defect of our system of public education is that school government and discipline rest upon a monarchical, rather than a dem ocratic basis; in consequence of which condition the training of the pupils fits them rather for subjects of an autocracy than for citzenship of a free republic.

Imbued with this conviction, Mr. Gill looked about for some practical plan by which the school might be made to fulfill its chief function in a republic, that of developing in the child a fine civic conscience and making him famil The funeral of CORNELIUS CREIGH- iar with political duties. The plan which he evolved is the School City. "Every school that adopts this method receives a charter from the board of education, and thenceforth the children govern, aided from time to time by the snmpathetic suggestions of the teacher. Under this charter they form a complete city government, each room corresponding to a ward, the government of the whole being administered by a mayor, board of councilmen, judges, policemen and other officials, all elected for a term of ten weeks by the free and full franchise of all the pupils of the School City." A manuol recently issued by the Board of Public Education of Philadelphia says:

"The duties of citizenship are so simple, easy, few and far between where citizens in general are faithful, that statesmen and scholars have failed to recognize that the habit of performing the few duties of citizenship is an art, and must be learned as other practical arts, by a long apprenticeship under competent instruction. Conducted with the right spirit, this is both simple and easy and a joy to all concerned. but the right habits of life cannot be formed except by long practice " The first School City was authorized by the Philadelphia Board of Education in 1898, and so successful did the experiment prove that in 1903 the Board authorized its introduction into all schools applying for the privilege, and thirty schools availed themselves ment has also been successfully tried in other parts of the country. General Wood employed Mr. Gill to introduce his method into the public school system of Cuba. The success there is said to be pronounced, "proving that the child mind, even when it has had no educational advantages, is quick to catch the high, fine enthusiasm of the government and discipline of the school in which it is a part of the re-sponsible government."

"President Roosevelt, in a letter to Mr. Justice of Germantown, heartily commends the School City plan.

'Nothing," he says, "could offer higher promise for the future of our country than an intelligent interest in the best ideals of citizenship, its privileges and duties among the students of our common schools.'

In addition to a letter expressive of appreciation of the aid and succor given to the injured, and care bestowed upon the dead in the South Harrisburg wreck of May 11th by the people of Harrisburg, the Pennsylvania Railroad company has donated $10,000 to the Harrisburg hospital. The donation was given to the hospital without any restrictions as to its use, that being left entirely to its board of managers, and was accompanied with a letter from W. W. Atterbury, general manager, telling of the deep gratitude of the company.

That Shippen Road.

Mr. Chas. B. Powers, one of the bidders on the proposed state road in Shippen, favors the PRESS with a copy of the several bids filed at Harrisburg, viz:

Highway Improvement Co., Phila, $5,214.00 John McMenany, Phila., Fullerton & Co., Ridgway, Chas. B. Powers, Emporim, 4,457.00 5,153.45 4,825,00

T. F. Moore, Emporium. 4,287.0 The last three bids being incomplete are thrown out. From what we can learn of the situation it does not look favorable for the building of the road. Mr. Moore being the lowest bidder should be allowed to detail his bid.

Our Jail Full.

Dan'l McFadden and Chas. Van Ormer, of Cameron, were arrested at Lock Haven on Monday by R. R. De-tective Geo. W. Vernes and committed to jail by Esquire Larrabee on the charge of stealing 95 pounds of brass from Hyde & Doutt's junk house at Cameron. This means a good term at Allegany. Sheriff Hemphill now sports nine prisoners, one being a girl fifteen years of age, confined for stealing a dress.

FIRE AT CAMERON.

About 10:15 last night the lumber ard of the Cameron Lumber Company at Cameron, was discovered to be on fire, which destroyed most of the lumber. Mr. Bert Dunlevie was in Emporium when the fire broke out and went east on Erie mail. He telegraphed to Renovo for the fire engine, which soon responded to the call. We have not learned the amount of the loss.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(Fromour Regular Correspondent. Washington, July 18th, 1905. Editor Press:-

The railroads of the country apparently believe that they have defeated the President in his campaign for railway rate legislation. At least they have recently sent out confidential statements from the press bureau which they maintain to oppose railway rate legislation, saying that the President has been convinced of the error of his ways and that the effort to secure legislation for the protection of shippers and consumers will not be seriously pressed at the next session of Congress.

Nothing could be farther from the truth. The President is just as much in earnest as he ever was. He will present in his next message to Congress the strongest possible argument in favor of delegating to the Interstate Commerce Commission the power to fix rates wherever the existing schedules are found, on examination, to be unjust, the rates fixed by the commission to take effect immediately and to go into effect within from thirty to sixty days and to remain in force until and unless set aside by the courts. The great effort of the railways will be to prevent any rate set by the Interstate Commerce Commission from going into effect until approved by the courts. This would mean, of course, that the wealthy railroads would keep every contest in the courts for years, taking appeal after appeal, until the unfortunate shipper who had made the complaint was exhausted, financially ruined, or dead.

With the law abvocated by the President once on the statutes it is probable that there would be comparatively few instances in which Interstate Commerce Commission would feel it necessary to fix rates for the reason that the railroads themselves, knowing that such a power existed, would take care to make reasonable and just rates. There might be numerous complaints to the Commission but there would probably be few instances where the Commission would find it necessary to exercise its rate making power. The railroads appreciate all this full well, and dread the day when they may be compelled to make just rates in may be and to suit the capricies of the Driftwood bawlers. - Johnsonburg Pres

We believe the Emporium nine will then contract to defeat the winners.

To Witness a Grand Sight. Mr. Fred Julian went to New York city on Monday on business. From there he goes to Portsmouth, N. H., to superintend the blasting of a large area of rock at that harbor. they would speedily fall prey to anarchy and despotism. The policy of our government is so to protect and guide them that in course of time they will have become habituated to self-government and able to administer their local affairs without external guidance or intervention.

Yet why should we take such pains with the political training of the Filipinos, while we take no thought for the development of the civic spirit and the civic habit in our future citizens at home?

Improves With Age.

While all members of Emporium ball team play good ball and receive the applause of our citizens, it is especially gratifying to us old timers to note how admirably Eugene Mumford and Jas. Farrell, old time players, hold up their reputation and play just as good as they did twenty years ago. They seem to improve with age.

County Auditor Butler Rusti-cating Charles L. Butler stole a march on his friends last Saturday and left for parts unknown. Some say he went to Atlantic city, while others think he went to the woods with Senator Durham. However he is taking a much needed rest and we hope he will come back feeling like a fighting cock.
