Several boys under age have been seen lately with concealed weapons, such as revolvers and knives. Lookout boys, or the constable will be after you.

Hon. Josiah Howard is seen quite often these days, looking after his interests in the dynamite plant here.

W. E. Crum, of St. Marys, was in town last week. He came down to see how the dynamite plant was progressing.

Trout fishing season is over now for this year, and the few little trout left should have a rest.

Lewis Wykoff killed five rattlesnakes last week. The largest had 19 rattles.

G. H. Hyde is putting up a small test plant for the manufacture of a new kind of brick. If it proves successful he will start a large plant this fall. May it prove a success.

The talk of a gas well is still on the way. If gas is found here a large glass works will go up in the near future. The lumber is about all gone and we will need some other industries to build up our town.

The Keystone Handle Factory are putting in their machinery this week. They have been delayed owing to the rush of orders in the machine shops.

DEBSE.

CAMERON.

Mrs. P. W. Stuart and Miss May Stuart, of Westport, spent Sunday with G. L. Page and wife.

Engineers Wm. Graw and J. H. Hughes, of Renovo, visited friends in town on Friday. They intend to invest in real estate here in the near future.

The Misses Edna Summerson, Laura, Gladys and Nellie Keef, Ella Whiting and Blanche Kissel spent Sunday with Fred Comley and wife.

Jesse Miller and his force of linemen are replacing the P. R. R., telegraph poles between Emporium and Cameron.

H. G. Dunlevie spent Sunday with friends in Buffalo.

Daniel Sullivan and wife spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Patrick Farrel, at Huntley.

Wm. Wykoff and wife visited friends in Emporium Tuesday.

The home of Mr. Edwards, of Oak Hill, was visited by the stork Monday and left a fine ten pound girl. Moxie in large quantities, will do this time.

The many friends of Mrs. Frank Kepner are pleased to hear, she is recovering from her illness, under the able treatment of Dr. Smith.

Miss Jessie Fizzle, of Emporium, is visiting the Fauver sisters in town this week.

Mrs. Gertrude Deviny, of Bradford, Pa., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Ernest Wykoff.

Joseph Robinson, Robert Glenn and James B. Hayes were visitors in Sterling Run, Sunday.

Postmaster Lanniger has moved his office into Schwab Bro's store. Customers can purchase at the rate of thirteen two cent stamps for a cent and a quarter. Rattler look out for Uncle Sam.

Our worthy citizen, Robert Glenn, though not a professional, is a first-class amateur when it comes to the manly art of self defense. Saturday, p. m., Mr. Glenn was called upon to restore order in office at the Valley House. Two men were fighting and while Mr. Glenn was trying to quiet them one of the men's wives came in and took a hand in the game, directing her attacks upon Robert. Now, Robert has the reputation of being very well mannered and polite to the ladies, so he manfully took the punishment with out a murmur. However, he adds that she showed no regard for Queensbury Rules, frequently fouling him and striking below the belt. Her weapon was an iron handled umbrella.

Typhoid fever has made its appearance in this locality. Alfred Smith and John Campbell and son are seriously ill with the disease, while Wayne Nelson and C. B. Miller are suffering from slight attacks of it.

If the parties who helped themselves to Mrs. Augustus Nelson's salt pork and Mrs. J. F. Sullivan's butter and potatoes, last Friday night, will call again they will find more of the same commodities in the same place and maybe some other things not included in the regular bill of fare.

Edison, the two year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Phineas Johnson, of Ridgeway, died at the residence of John L. Johnson, July 31st, of cholera infantum, after an illness of only twelve hours. The grief stricken parents have the heartfelt sympathy of the community. The funeral was held from the Huntley Church, Monday, Aug. 1st. The members of the Johnson family were all assembled at the Johnson Homestead to hold a reunion but the happy gathering was changed to one of grief and mourning. It was indeed a sad ending to what should have been an occasion of joy and happiness.
