CHARTER NOTICE.

NOTICE is hereby given that an application will be made to the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, on Tuesday, the nineteenth day of September, A. D. 1905, by Joseph Kaye, George J. Labar, George P. Jones, Henry Auchu, Josiah Howard, A. C. Blum and E. W.
Gaskill under the Act of Assembly, entitled "An act to provide for the incorporation and regulation of certain corporations," approved April 29th, 1874, and the supplements thereto, for the charter of an intended corporation to be called PARK CHEMICAL COMPANY, the character and object of which is for the purpose of manufacturing all kinds of chemicals, and utilizing and selling the by-products resulting from such manufacture and for the purposes to have, possess and enjoy all the rights, benefits and privileges of said Act of Assembly and supplements thereto.B. W. GREEN, Solicitor.

Interesting Paragraphs from Our Exchanges.

Pennsylvania's peach crop this year is estimated at over one hundred thousand bushels, it is said. Centre county will furnish from seven to eight thousand bushels according to estimates.The Altoona police arrested a beggar in the streets the other day and investigation brought out the fact that the man had a $60,000 bank account and a handsome home in Pittsburg which he had acquired through begging.At Solomon, Kan., a farm of 160 acres is operated entirely by five women—a mother and four grown daughters—and a boy of 12 years. Each of the women has her own department. The labor is distributed equally among them.A Philadelphia paper has gathered statistics which show that women's chances to marry between the ages of 25 and 30 are only 18 per cent. while between 20 to 25 the chances in her favor are 52 per cent. Apparently it is rather dangerous to say no to the first man.Postmaster General Cortelyou has issued orders that rural mail carriers shall paint all boxes along their routes.
The paint will be supplied by the government and the carriers will be allowed twenty-five cents per box for their work. All right, but don't paint 'em red.It has always been known that sheep injured or killed by dogs are paid for by the county, but that the law also applies to cows, horses, pigs, etc., is not so generally known, and yet the State Legislature recently passed a law which clearly provides that any such damage may be recovered through the County Commissioners in the same manner as sheep damages are recovered.After reading the criticisms of the Bradford newspapers of the late firemen's tournament held in that city, the average citizen will be left to wonder whether such gatherings are not a positive detriment in the long run to any community. It is a disgusting and sickening tale that the Bradford papers tell of so-called respectable married and unmarried women consorting with drunken strangers, and conducting themselves in a most disgraceful manner.—Smethport Democrat.The story of the action of Postmaster Bowen, of Berwick, in sending to President Roosevelt for 2 cents due on a letter, has been copied until it has crossed the sea and its being read in the papers the world over. Ernest
graph gallery at Berwick, received a clipping from the Evening News of Portsmouth, England, containing the account. The clipping was sent by his father. The paper held up the action as an example of American law and that in obeying the law and postal regulations the President is on the level with the humblest of citizens.— Exchange.Miss Roselle Knott, who is starring this season in Kane, Shipman and Colvin's grand production "When Knighthood Was in Flower," has probably received as many laudatory comments as any living actress. More especially as "Mary Tudor" in her present play has her work been favorably criticized. The following expression from one of the best critics of the day, and a severe one, seems to best set forth the opinion of theatre goers in general: "The play 'When Knighthood Was in Flower' affords many theatrical opportunities, and these Miss Knott avails herself. Her embodiment of Mary Tudor crystallizes into one engaging personality the attributes of authority, impetuosity, intrepidity, force of will, gleeful caprice alternating with tenderness, and ardent passion tempered with both sweetness and mirth. She presents a woman who loves, and who, amid enemies and perils, has the courage of her love. It seems probable that her impersonation shows her personal ideal of womanhood and is but little, if any, removed from a revelation of her actual self.
It certainly is an interesting and winning image of feminine variety, integrity, romantic ardor and feminine charm." At opera house, Aug. 30th.
Performance commences at 8 o'clock, sharp.

Big Circus Coming.

The small boy and his sister have long been looking forward to Saturday, August 26. Yes, and the older folks, too, doubtless, have the day marked on the calendar, for isn't the great Sig. Sautelle and Welsh Bros.' combined railroad shows scheduled to exhibit in Emporium on that date?
The circus will come here on its own specially constructed cars, of which there will be two long trains. The advent of the circus will recall in mature minds the days of early youth. In retrospection we can see ourselves as little children getting up long before daylight to watch the circus come to town. And we shall always vividly remember the delightful impression the first circus made on us. It may have been a very small and unpretentious affair,—even insignificant, when compared with the Sig. Sautelle and Welsh Bros.' circus—but it will always linger in the memory.Circus day is distinctively an American holiday. And, excepting Christmas, it is about the most enjoyable holiday in all the year. Everybody, age notwithstanding, is young on circus day and we will be glad to welcome the circus here. Every sign seems to indicate that these all new and enormous shows will be given a royal welcome in this town.The first important event of circus day will be the gorgeous gigantic free street parade which will leave the show grounds promptly at 10 a. m., and traverse the principle thoroughfares of Emporium. This pageant is said to be second to none and is worth traveling many miles to witness. It will be replete and resplendent with a profusion of such features as are customarily found in a large and well-regulated circus parade. Don't miss the mammoth free street display. The famous Sautelle and Welsh Bros.' circus will be in Johnsonburg, Monday, August 28.

Stole Woodman's Shoes.

A man giving his name as Edward Kelly was arrested on Monday by Chief of Police Frank Mundy charged with stealing a pair of "woodmen's" shoes from Joseph Luther who he had been in company with that day.The facts are as follows: Kelly and Luther had been together during the day and had drunk considerable, but had become separated. Luther purchased a pair of Woodmen "Wisconsin" shoes, and intended to go to work.
He sat down, but in order that he would not lose his shoes, if he should go to sleep, wrapped the laces around his hand so they could not be taken without awakening him and went to dreamland. While asleep the laces were cut and the shoes taken and to his surprise when he awoke he had nothing but part of the laces left. He notified Chief of Police Mundy, and gave a description of the man that he had been with and the Chief went down the railroad to the East Ward and located his man at Costello's hotel. Kelly seeing Mundy, started to run up Allegany Ave., to A. F. Andrew's where he took to the railroad but was met by Chief Mundy and he started back, and to his great surprise again ran into Mr.
Mundy, who had cut across lots and came out above Costello's hotel, where Kelly gave himself up. He was taken before Esquire Larrabee and in default of bail was committed to the county jail. The shoes that were stolen were recovered and are now in possession of the proper authorities.Previous to the arrest of this man Kelly, landlord Murphy of the Commercial Hotel made complaint to Policeman Mundy that he could not keep a comb, soap or brush in his wash room, and upon searching the prisoner, a comb and other articles identified by landlord Murphy were found in his possession. Officer Mundy does not allow any of the law breakers to escape if he gets a clew of some kind.
It is thought that this man Kelly is an old offender.

Preaching by the Pastor.

The Rev. W. H. Closson who has been appointed to succeed Rev. H.
C. Bower who has resigned to go as a missionary teacher to Penang, Straights Settlement, will preach next Sunday Aug. 27, at More Hill, 11 a. m.; Howard Siding, 3 p. m.; and Beechwood at 7.30 p. m. Sept. 6, Dr. Wilcox, Presiding Elder, will preach at More Hill. We hope that there shall be a large attendance next Sunday to greet the new pastor.

asonable price. Apply to Chas.

Was Rolled.

A Romanian peddler went to sleep beside his pack near Pan-Am., depot last Friday night where he had the front cut out of his pants and relieved of his pocket book, containing about $20. The thieves also went through his pack and took a number of articles.

Fast Riding.

Attention has been called a number of times in regards to fast driving through our public thoroughfares but the driving of a horse is not to be compared with the fast running of an automobile or a motor cycle. The law is being violated every day. The pace is entirely too fast for the safety of our citizens and steps should be taken to stop the practice before some body is injured.

Did Not Preach.

The Rev. Mr. Vrooman, of Keating Summit, who was to have preached at First Methodist Episcopal Church here last Sunday was unexpectedly called to his home late Saturday night, on account of the serious illness of his daughter. The lady who has suffered from a stroke of paralysis for some time, suffered another attack Saturday evening. The many friends of the reverend gentleman were sorry to learn of the sad news and grievously disappointed that they did not meet their old pastor on this occasion.

Barn Burned.

The barn of R. P. Bingeman was discovered to be on fire Monday evening about 9:30 o'clock and the alarm brought out the firemen who succeeded in extinguishing it, it was thought, but the fire had gotten under the hay and about one o'clock broke out again and was put out by Thos. Smith, Alton Housler and Wm. Auchu. The fire started in the mow which contained about seven tons of hay and had gained considerable headway when discovered. The building was badly damaged. No insurance.

New Trespass Law.

The new trespass law which was passed by the last legislature provides a fine of ten dollars for those convicted of entering upon the premises of another to hunt or steal fruit, vegetables, etc., together with all the costs of prosecution. The law provides that where the defendants are not able to pay the fine and costs they shall be confined in jail one day for each dollar charged up against them. The law is a pretty strenuous one, but it will not effect honest people who do not steal, and dishonest people who do steal have no right to be considered.

Arrested in Oregon.

SUMPTER, ORE., Aug. 16.—S. D. Devlin a locomotive engineer, was arrested here yesterday by Sheriff Steele, of Cattaraugus county, N. Y., charged with the murder of a stranger, with whom he quarreled at Olean in that county. Devlin will be taken back to New York.OLEAN, Aug. 16.—The charge against Devlin is assault, second degree. He was indicted by the Cattaraugus grand jury in May this year. Thomas Wilson of Salamanca also a railroad man, was the victim of the alleged assault. Devlin's home is in DuBois. Officers had been trying for months to locate him.The Press published an account of the assault last spring and stated the facts at that time.

A Few Hurried Notes of A Jolly Picnic.

Through the kindness of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Baldwin and family, the hearts of the little lads and lassies of the town were made glad Wednesday.
A picnic was billed to come off at the popular grove at Sizerville, and when Old Sol winked his best eye that morning everything was ready for a day of jollification and fun, and if all reports are correct (and of course they are) the little folks; also some larger ones, had a fine and handsome time.They passed the day in pleasure, bathing, dancing, etc., and when they returned on the Buffalo train in the evening they were tired but happy.
One of the interesting features was the base ball game played in the afternoon, the girls never missed striking at the ball and of course always missed it.Mrs. Fred Seger was on hand with a kudak and took some interesting scenes. Miss Taggart and Mr. Chas.
Wiley got up just in time for the "eatins."The luncheon prepared by Mrs. Baldwin was the "best ever", and to say that it was hugely enjoyed by all present is expressing it most mildly. Refreshments consisting of ice cream, cake, sandwiches and coffee were served in the evening to which all did ample justice.

Died Suddenly.

The community was terribly shocked this morning to learn of the sudden death of Mrs. Cloyes, wife of Mr. H.
H. Cloyes. The lady arose in her usual health and after eating breakfast felt kind of dizzy, and about eight o'clock was stricken with cerebral hemorrhage and died within a half hour.
Her remains will be taken to Jamestown to-morrow morning on flyer for interment, which will be made on Sunday. She is survived by a husband and three small children. Mrs. Cloyes came to Emporium several years ago and made friends with all. She was a lady greatly beloved by all who knew her, and her death is a sad blow to her husband and children.

Base Ball.

There will be another game of base ball between the Renovo P. & E., team and Emporium nine at Keystone Park tomorrow (Friday) afternoon. While this is the same team that defeated Emporium last Saturday, owing to having no pitcher at the start of the game, the boys do not propose to allow such a walk over this time. Our team having played good ball all summer it is hoped all lovers of the game will turn out and do what "rooting" they can. The Renovo team is one of the strongest in this section and Emporium has beaten them on their home grounds. Turn out and see the game it will be a hummer.The game at Renovo last Thursday between Emporium and Renovo P. & E., teams, was won after a twelve inning struggle by the Emporium boys, the score being 4 to 2 in their favor.The Renovo P. R. R., team came to Emporium last Saturday and played a game with our boys. Owing to the crippled condition of our team, they won hands down. Score 16 to 6.

Mill Burned.

Mr. Frank Linniger, who has been employed by Hyde & Doult at Eagle Rock, Pa., was in town between trains on Tuesday and made the Press a substantial business call. He informs us that the mill owned by the above company at that place was burned on Monday. The fire started during the noon hour, and while the company did all that could be done to save their property, having two fire companies at work, the entire mill equipment was destroyed. Mr. Linniger was on his way to his home at Cameron owing to the fire, it not being positively known whether the company intends to rebuild or not. They had one of the finest mills in that section of the country.
It was fitted up with electric lights and had all the most modern labor saving appliances known. The loss is $30,000 with an insurance of $16,000.

J. C. Hyde Dead.

Word was received on Tuesday of the death of J. C. Hyde, a former resident of Emporium, who died at his home at Butler, Pa., on Monday. Mr.
Hyde was Superintendent of a division of the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburg railroad, but on account of ill health, resigned that position some time ago and traveled in Southern California in hopes to regain his former health.
We are informed he had recently accepted a position as superintendent of a Southern railroad. He is survived by a wife and two sons, Mrs. T. F.
Moore of this place, being a sister of deceased.The friends of Mr. Hyde at this place will be grieved to learn of his death.

Bitten by Rattlesnake.

A. H. Barr, of Hur-ton Hill, was bitten by a rattlesnake, between the thumb and finger on Tuesday Aug. 15. Mr.
Barr was out after berries and ran into a den of the reptiles and succeeded in killing seven. The Driftwood Gazette says: Dr. Merrill, of Dents Run, was hastily sent for and he bled the hand and did all that could be done, but he grew worse and Dr. Love, of Medix Run, was summoned, and on Saturday Dr. DeLong, of Emporium was called in.
At this writing, August 22nd, he is getting better and good hopes are entertained for his recovery. The arm is swollen very badly and has turned black, as has also his right side and across his stomach.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

HERTIG.

Mrs. Hertig, mother of Mr. John Hertig who resided Plank Road Hollow died on Tuesday, aged 78 years. The lady has resided in Emporium a number of years and had many friends.
She is survived by two sons and three daughters, viz: John, George, Mrs.
Kepler, Mrs. McConica and Miss Ida Hertig. The funeral will be held this afternoon.WEATHER REPORT.

NOTES OF INTEREST.

The Methodist Sunday school picnic of Williamsport died Monday, aged 75 years.This is the season of the year when the good housewife preserves almost everything except her equanimity.A number of Williamsporters were swindled out of $97,500, stocks placed in the Western States, Portland Cement Company.Frank Striker spent a few days the past week at the city hall, at the pleasure of Chief of Police Mundy. The result of too much refreshments Satur-

Among its graduates we note, Miss Mattie M. Collins our excellent county Supt., of Schools, Misses Lillian Heil-man, Nettie Moore, Claudia Roberts and Prof. John Schwab, who are teaching in the county.The farmer is about the only business man who is in position to regulate his own hours of labor, and he fails to do so unless he uses his head as well as his hands. Business properly laid out will pay for help to carry it through.
The successful farmer does the managing and takes a day or an hour off when it pleases him to do so.Miss Roselle Knott, whose fame is spread throughout the entire country by reason of her performances, an actress whose artistry is ever well and delicately posed, is appearing in the role of the madcap "Mary Tudor" in Kane, Shipman and Colvin's gorgeous production of "When Knighthood Was In Flower" this season. Miss Knott is supported by one of the best, if not quite the best companies ever seen in the play, and their visit to this city is being awaited as a rare treat by lovers of all that is good in drama-land.
At opera house, Aug. 30th. Performances commence promptly at 8 o'clock.

Pennsylvania Railroad Maintains Schedule.

[New York Tribune, August 13, 1905.]

During the month of July the Pennsylvania Special arrived in Chicago exactly on the minute of its schedule every day. The eastbound Pennsylvania Special arrived in New York, on schedule time twenty-three days. The average detention on seven days was less than ten minutes, due entirely to conditions for which the train crew could not be held responsible. The greatest breach in the schedule was on July 14, when the Special was held up behind a freight wreck, which blocked all four tracks on the Middle Division, entailing a loss of two hours and twenty-two minutes in the regular arriving time at New York.It is difficult to find a match for this record. It demonstrates that the schedule has sufficient elasticity to take up any ordinary detentions which may occur between termini, and that even a faster regular schedule may be made should it be deemed wise. The fine condition of the roadbed, the efficient motive power, and skillful operation all contribute to the ease with which the Special accomplishes its work.

Identity of An Old Man Remains Unknown.

OLEAN, N. Y., Aug. 18.—The dead body of a man who was apparently about 65 years old was found beside a hay stack in the tank lot near the pump station in North Olean yesterday morning by some of the pump station employees. He was about five feet, seven inches tall and would weigh about 150 pounds. His beard and mustache was sandy and his hair gray.
It was somewhat thin on the front of his head. He had no teeth.The man's clothing was cheap, his coat and vest being black and his trousers and shirt gray. The shirt was a woolen one. In the pocket was found a paper with the name of a hotel in Sinnamahoning, Pa., and in another was found a ticket on the Pennsylvania road between Sinnamahoning and Williamsport. There were no marks on the body and no money except one penny.The men about the pump station saw the man lying on the east side of the hay stack Wednesday night but in the morning his body was on the north side when found. He had not been dead long.It is believed the man has been employed about a livery stable or was a barn man about a hotel.Lost—A $5 bill. Finder will please leave same at this office.
