LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

PERSONAL GOSSIP.

Contributions invited. That which you would like to see in this department, let us know by post card or letter, personally.

Mr. P. C. Foley, of Olean, N. Y., visited in Emporium the past week.

Mrs. John Kelley contemplates erecting a dwelling house on her Maple street lot.

Mrs. Mary Swartz, of Beech Creek, is visiting her son William Swartz and family on Maple street.

Prof. Suhrie, formerly one of the teachers in the Emporium schools, is visiting friends in Emporium.

Mrs. Wm. Robinson and sons, Master Harold and Walter, are taking in the O. F., convention at Williamsport, this week.

Our old townsman, Mr. Henry Edgcomb, is remodeling and improving his residence, corner of Fifth and Chestnut streets.

Mr. Frank Reader, of Lock Haven, visited his aunt, Mrs. G. B. Shearer a few days. His visit being cut short by fast news from home.

Mr. Ezra Smith, teacher of Sweesey school, Rich Valley, was a Press visitor last Saturday and pushed the date on his paper ahead for another year.

Miss Fannie McSherry who has been visiting her uncle Wm. Swartz and family on Maple street returned to her home at Lock Haven last week.

Mrs. J. P. McNarney returned last Thursday from an extend visit in several western states. She met many former Emporium people and enjoyed her trip.

Miss Merrill Swartz, of this place, entertained a number of young friends last Monday evening at her home on East Fifth street. All report having a pleasant time.

Mrs. Henry Barrows, of Washington, D. C., formerly a resident of Cameron, has been visiting friends in Emporium, for several days, guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Logan.

Miss Belle Hinkle, of Wilmington, Del., sister of the late John J. Hinkle, visited in Emporium over Sunday, guest of Mrs. Lizzie Hinkle and Mr. and Mrs. Warner.

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Hackett, of Buffalo, have been visiting relatives in town during the past week, being called here on account of the serious illness of the former's mother, Mrs. S. S. Hackett.

Mr. H. J. Hackett, of Philadelphia, visited friends and relatives in Emporium on Thursday and Friday, guest of Ex-Sheriff Warner and family. Many of our citizens met Mr. Hackett and talked over old times in Emporium, when he resided here.

Mr. and Mrs. P. V. Daly leave next Saturday for Dubois, where they will reside, Mr. Daly having purchased an interest in a plumbing establishment. The Press and our citizens generally, wish this pleasant young couple much happiness and prosperity in their new home. Of course the Press follows them.

Edw. Hackett, who lives in one of Mrs. Mayze's houses on Fourth street, was on Monday morning presented with a pair of twin babies, a girl and a boy. Mr. Hackett has for years been in the employ of C. B. Howard Company and knows what he could do with the boy, while he cast the other eye on the beautiful girl suddenly brought to his notice. Surprised? yes, and happy.

Mr. W. H. Cramer has returned from Philadelphia and New York.

A new boy made his advent at J. L. Fobert's residence last Friday.

Contractor Kriner and crew are rushing the work on Mrs. Rockwell's new block.

Vernon Heilman has been for the last week in Hurteau & Forbes' store balancing their books and assisting taking inventory.

Dr. G. D. Nutt, of Williamsport, Pa., stopped over between trains, on his way home from Costello, the guest of Dr. Heilman.

George Hockley and Clyde McCaslin left last week for Mo. The former young man informs the Press they will enter a school there.

Mrs. Branson and Miss Sara McDonald writes their parents from Colorado Springs that they are greatly improved. Miss Sara will remain there, or Salt Lake, all winter.

H. B. Mutersbaugh, of Driftwood, was in Emporium yesterday long enough to call on the Press. He started out with Sheriff Hemphill which looks like a man hunt.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Cooper and daughter, of Keating Summit, and Dr. and Mrs. F. C. Gorham, of Coudersport, were guests of Geo. H. Crawford, at the New Warner, last Sunday.

Datus W. Ensign went to Westboro Wis., on Monday to fit up a log loader for C. B. Howard Company. He will be absent one month. What Datus does not know about a log loader is not worth mentioning.

James A. Singler, a member of a large printing firm in Chicago and New York city, visited in Emporium Tuesday and Wednesday, guest of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Seger. This is Mr. Singler's first visit to Emporium in eleven years.

A. Dent Smith and family have moved to North Bend, Pa., where he will engage in business. Mr. Smith has been in the employ of C. B. Howard Company for many years as woods foreman.

Samuel P. Kreider, of Driftwood, one of the Republican candidates for county commissioner visited in Emporium this morning transacting business. Mr. Kreider is a careful business man and will make just as careful an official.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

ARNOLD.
Mr. William T. Arnold, aged 79 years and 6 months, died at the residence of his daughter Elizabeth at Elmira, N. Y., Saturday, Sept. 9th, 1905, at 10:00 p. m.
His remains were brought to Sterling Run for burial, the funeral being held from the residence of his daughter, Mrs. John E. Smith, on Tuesday morning. Rev. Clemens, of Ridgway M. E. Church, his former pastor, conducted the services, assisted by Rev. Noble, of Sinnamahoning.
Decensed for many years resided at Sterling Run but after the death of his wife, seven years ago, he lived with his son, N. T. Arnold, at Ridgway, until three years ago when he went to reside with his daughter at Elmira. He lived a beautiful life, respected to the highest degree by all who knew him. The living children, all of whom attended the funeral, are N. T., and Mrs. M. P. Whiting, of Ridgway; Mrs. T. J. Fulton, Williamsport, and Miss Elizabeth, Elmira, N. Y.

A Correction.

Editor Press—
I would like to call your attention to an error in the obituary notice on the death of our son REUBEN, aged 11 months and two weeks, who died Thursday, August 31st, at 1:45 o'clock, p. m. The funeral was held on Saturday following, Rev. L. B. Twichell, pastor of First Baptist Church officiating.

Republican Party All Right.

[Pittsburg Gazette.]

There is such a vast difference between the Philadelphia views of the political squabble in that city and the cross-eyed view of our Democratic contemporaries in Pittsburgh that we cannot help noting the discrepancy. According to the Pittsburgh view the eruption in Philadelphia has condemned the Republican party there and throughout the state. The Philadelphia Record, leading Democratic newspaper in the state, rabid supporter of Mayor Weaver and antagonist of Republican policies, discusses the Philadelphia situation in these words: The civil revolution has replaced the machine not by non-partisan government, but by a government of Republicans, which is an essentially different thing. Mayor Weaver and the heads of departments and their assistants are all Republicans and Protectionists of the strictest school. But they are honest and public spirited men courageously enforcing the laws for the welfare of the whole community, and that is the sole consideration."

This is so different from the dictum of the Pittsburgh organs that one might think it referred to a different case were it not for the particular mention of names and incidents. The Record is highly partisan in the Philadelphia mix up and cannot be accused of excess friendship to anything under the name republican. Nevertheless its conscience does not permit it to claim for the Democracy the credit for what it terms the "civic revolution." What has been accomplished, it says, has been done "by a government of Republicans." What has been done in Philadelphia may be more accurately measured in the final results. It will appear in the conclusion, when all the evidence is in, whether the eruption has been wholly for the public good, and, if not, what proportion has been engineered for selfish factional advantage. Until that time it is chiefly a matter for Philadelphians to consider and to quarrel over if nothing less can content them. To the state at large it is of general interest only, and the state at large can afford to suspend judgment until the evidence has been sifted.

In any event the Philadelphia broil has no bearing on the state campaign. There is no connection between the two. The Republican party of Pennsylvania has nominated a ticket for the suffrage of the people on a platform of sound principles. That ticket will be supported by every voter who desires to indorse Republican policies and elect Republican candidates. The ticket is a good one, containing the names of men worthy of public confidence and party support, from first to last. No Democratic support is asked for any part of that ticket and no Democratic support will be accepted as a tender for Republican support of any Democratic candidate.

He Kept up in the Race.
James S. Barren, President Manchester Cotton Mills, Rock Hill, S. C., writes: "In 1883 I painted my residence with L. & M. It looks better than a great many houses painted three years ago. Don't pay $1.50 a gallon for linseed oil, which you do in ready for use paint. Buy oil fresh from the barrel at 60 cents per gallon, and mix it with Longman & Martinez L. & M. Paint. Wears and Covers like gold. Every Church given a liberal quantity when bought from Harry S. Lloyd."
