Our Special Hicks Run Letter

Hicks Run, Sept 10th, 1905.

DEAR MR. EDITOR:—
Thinking perhaps you would like to hear something from Hicks Run and the surrounding country, where your paper, the PRESS, has been a household word for more than a century, I write you a few lines, telling you of our prospects, prosperity and inhabitants, many of whom you were acquainted with in the days of Auld Lang Syne. Things move along smoothly with us, we obey the laws, love our wives, rear our children in the fear of the Lord, till the soil (when we can find any) and now and then go to Austin and get drunk.

We have the usual amount of prosperity that is vouchsafed to the inhabitants of the country and our school and educational privileges are good. Longevity seems to be our inheritance, in fact at the coming fall election a vote is to be taken by the people in the district to determine who shall be sacrificed to start our new cemetery in order to keep up with the progress of the times.

Our school opened last week with a full attendance. Prof. Bigger, who has been principal for the past five years, returned from his vacation which he spent at Camp 21, fighting mosquitoes and bathing his pedal extremities in the limpid waters of North Creek.

The Prof. is a graduate from the Sennamahoning Seminary and worked his way through college by peeling barn and killing rattlesnakes. He is a man of letters, scholarly and well read, and is now, so to speak, resting on the middle rung of his ladder of fame.

Our Star Course of lectures for the winter is assured, the subscription list being more than satisfactory. The speakers secured for the course are Vice President Fairbanks, John Wesley and Victor Hugo.

Prof. Leonard Stacks lectured before the school last evening. His subjects: "Personal recollections of Joan of Arc and The Use of Axle Grease in the Arts," were interesting and instructive.

The Daugusahonda Glee Club will give an entertainment on Thanksgiving evening for the benefit of the Young Ladies Guild. As singers they have lately come into prominence and their music is rag time and sacred, from the Old Apple Tree to the Holy City.

The harvest is passed and the summer is ended with us and very few have been gathered in, and as I said before we have been fairly prosperous and have no kick coming.

Abner Carpenter picked from one stalk in his buckwheat field, twenty-five solid ripe buckwheat cakes and wants to know if any one in the county can beat it. The cakes were good, first-class as your correspondent can testify, having eaten ten of them bordered with good pork gravy from a piece of pork from a hog killed on the 10th of last month by Eben Sowers, which he had been flattening since the year of the Centennial.

Andrew Rhubottom of Vineland, N. J., is visiting his son Peter. Andrew is an old time resident here and moved away years ago, his father now living in New Hampshire, was one of the men that grasped the prow of the boat and pulled it on shore, that carried Washington across the Delaware. His Uncle Abner, (his father's brother) who was at Yorktown when Cornwallis surrendered, and got gloriously drunk on apple jack in logging this fall in the Jersey Meadows for Geo. Gould, the railroad magnate. He Abner, was at one time engaged to Lydia Pinkham, but broke the engagement, because she would not give him the formula of her celebrated medicine in a marriage settlement.

Elkana Peters, is visiting his nephew, Hiram, proprietor of the Bark Peeler's Exchange. Elkana is an old soldier and his reminiscences are very interesting. He crossed the Alps with Napoleon and was in the battles of Austerlitz and Hohenlinden and afterwards at the burning of Moscow. He is a well preserved man, jet black hair, reads without glasses and has a perfect set of teeth. He amused the boys in the Post office Saturday evening by biting three ears of corn in two at once.

Malvinia Hedges who has been teacher in the primary department of our school the past year was married on Wednesday to Lysanter Becker. The wedding was quite swell. Malvinia was dressed in a cheese cloth wrapper and a green glass breast pin and Lysanter wore a tan colored suit he bought on the installment plan, from Jasper Harris in Emporium. They are spending their honeymoon with Lysanter's aunt at Cross Forks.

Mrs. Mary Carpenter is visiting here.

Her husband John Carpenter resided here for a long time and was very prominent in church work. He moved to Pittsburg some years ago and his wife informs me, owing to business cares and trying to keep the wolf from gnawing his back door steps, he has backslid, has given up his pew in church and is doing his sleeping at home.

Aunt Harriet Beckett drove up from Huntley last week. Aunt Harriet is as spry as a kitten and loves to tell how she used to stand in her doorway and lasso Buffalos and sell corn juice to the Indian.

Cy Carter found a nest of flying squirrels in his barn. He stopped up the knot holes through which they entered with pieces of bark and the next day an agent for the society to prevent cruelty to animals arrested him and he was taken before Squire Pingres and gave bail for his appearance before the grand jury. Wallace Clark went his bail and mortgaged his father and mother's tomb stones in order to qualify.

Everybody is going to the county fair. Some of the people are greasing their wagons now, so as to be ready.

Algeron Snips, who is spending the summer with his aunt, Mrs. Purdy, is an artist and a poet. His crayon sketches of a bark pile and a dead milch cow hanging in the post office are creditable and very life like. Algeron says the in vernacular of the day there is something doing.

Everybody is rustling
Up and down the Run
Everybody hustling,
Going to have some fun
Everybody's Happy,
Its flying in the air,
Fresh and pure and snappy,
We are going to the fair,
Girls have got new dresses,
Hats that's just in style,
Gressed up all their tresses,
They shine for half a mile,
Boys have got new sweaters
And new shoes, each a pair,
Can't hold them with fetters,
Going to the fair,
We are going to get some prizes
For the pumpkins that we bring,
We have them of all sizes,
The dwarf up to the king,
So let the band keep playing,
We will all be there
There will be no home staying,
All are going to the fair.

MUNCHAUSEN.

Annual Conference of the Free Methodist Church.

The Seventh Annual Session of the Oil City Conference will be held in the Methodist Episcopal Church of Emporium, Pa., September 27th to October 1st, 1905, Bishop Wilson T. Hogue, Presiding.

ORDER OF SERVICES.
First sitting, Wednesday, Sept. 27th, at 2 p. m. Preaching at 7.30 p. m., Thursday, Friday and Saturday; business session from 8.30 a. m. to 12 m. Preaching at 2.30 p. m. and 7.30 p. m. Sabbath services at 10.30 a. m. and 7.30 p. m., conducted by Bishop Wilson T. Hogue. All are invited to attend these services.

R. A. ROBERTSON.

Why Not Emporium?

Under an act of last legislature many boroughs of this state are constructing brick or Macadam roads, the state to pay three fourths of the cost. Saltsburg, Indiana county is laying one mile of brick pavement. Why not lay a brick pavement from Buffalo Junction to connect with the road to be built by the state from the iron bridge west of town? What say you, Mr. Councilmen. Remember the old saying, "the early bird."

Recovering Slowly.

Jos. Kinsley who was thrown from one of J. W. Norris' wagons and severely injured about ten days ago, is able to be about again, yet not able to resume work. It will be some time yet before he can work.

Returned From Hospital.

Alfred Nelson returned on Saturday from Williamsport Hospital greatly improved. Mr. Nelson has been suffering from heart weakness for some time. He is one of our good citizens and we in common with our people hope he may be fully restored to health.

Emporium vs St. Marys.

One of the most interesting games of base ball will be pulled off at Keystone Park next Saturday afternoon, between St. Marys and Emporium nines. This promises to be a good game and no doubt the sports will all be on hand. Game called at 2:30 o'clock sharp.

Good Farm for Sale.

A good farm of 34 acres, all cleared and in good state of cultivation; growing orchard of fine fruit; well watered; new house and good barn. Farm located on Moore Hill, six miles from Emporium. Will sell with or without stock and utensils.
30tf. THOS. H. ARNOLD.

Republican Party Supper.

Notices and invitations are issued for a Supper to be held by the Republican voters of Cameron county, at the New Warner House, Emporium, Pa., Thursday evening, October 5th, 1905. This is to be the first of a series of Suppers to be held every year by the rank and file of the Republican Party, (each person to pay for his own ticket), and is not gotten up in the interest of any one candidate, but as an informal social gathering of all voters interested in supporting the Republican principles of Peace, Progress and Protection to home industries and home labor.

The invitation is general and all Republicans are requested to purchase their tickets early, either at the New Warner House, or from Mr. L. W. Gleason, Chairman, Driftwood, Pa. All applications for tickets should be made not later than Oct. 5d.

Who Is He?

By the placing of Mrs. Helen Carter in the County Home, another example of brutal, inhuman and despised nature of some men has been brought to light. Mrs. Carter is but 19 years of age, a bride of a few months, and is in a delicate condition. The beast whose name she bears, has deserted her, and in her pitiable condition she has to seek shelter and attention in the poor house. Carter, who is a heartless cur, and a man to whom the law should show no mercy, is said to be in the vicinity of Emporium. Every effort should be made to find the fellow, and make him partially repay in suffering, the anguish he is causing the poor young woman whom he has so basely wronged. The Enterprise does not believe that any mercy should be shown a man of his stamp and no stone left unturned to bring him as near justice as the law can sanction—which the Enterprise feels would be inadequate punishment for his crime—Coudersport Enterprise.

Wedding Bells.

In their prettily furnished home on East Fifth street, Wednesday evening, Sept. 20th, by Rev. O. S. Metzler, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Mr. PETER K. SCHNYDER and MISS DAISY L. CLAUDIUS, both of town, were united in marriage—Mr. George Neidinger and Miss Lena Weisenthal, close friends of the contracting parties, were the attendants. The parlor decorations were autumn flowers and leaves. Mr. Schnyder is a young man of excellent character and is a blacksmith in the employ of Haupt & Hauber. Miss Claudius for a number of years has resided here with relatives and is held in high esteem by all enjoying her acquaintance. A dainty lunch was served. The PRESS extends good wishes.

Hungry Negro.

Last Friday a large burly negro landed in town hungry and dry, especially dry. He first secreted himself under a bed in Cook's Hotel and was promptly kicked out, after which he managed to force an entrance into Dan's McCormick's restaurant, pocketed some canned goods and crawled under Dan's bed, where he was found and hustled out. Policeman Mundy got after him but he succeeded in jumping a freight. He was caught at Renovo and landed in our jail, where he will remain until Oct. court as one of Sheriff Hemphill's star boarders.

Bonham-Howard.

The PRESS was correct last week when it hinted that Mr. John Taylor Howard and Mrs. Mary Seger Bonham had gone to Buffalo with the intention of uniting for life. Since we have received the announcement of their marriage, which took place last Thursday morning in the presence of a number of relatives. The PRESS joins their many friends in wishing them a long, happy and prosperous life. They will be at home after Oct. 1st.

Vote for Them Sure.

The Republican candidates for the office of County Commissioner, Messrs. John W. Lewis, of Shippen, and Samuel P. Kreider, of Driftwood, are star men and the people will see to it that they are both elected. The taxpayers of the county know they will give that attention to the affairs of the county that we sadly stand in need of. Remember, tax payers, that you vote for the above named gentlemen.

WANTED.—A plain cook, in small family. Cooking only required. Wages three dollars. Apply at PRESS office.
23-tf.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

ROBINSON.

William Robinson, aged about 31 years, who has resided at Johnsonburg for four years, was taken to Kane hospital last week Wednesday, accompanied by three children, all sick with typhoid fever. The mother, who is or was, in a delicate condition, was also down with the same disease could not be removed. Mr. Robinson and one child died on Sunday, their remains being brought to Emporium for interment. The funeral took place from St. Marks Catholic church yesterday morning, the services being conducted by the Rev. Thos. Downey.

Deceased was a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Robinson of this place, and the dire affliction has been a terrible blow to the afflicted family.

$3,000 Organ.

Emmanuel Episcopal Church Vestry met yesterday afternoon and voted to purchase a $3,000 pipe organ for their church. The old pipe organ will be placed in the Parish Building.

Box Social.

There will be a box social on Moore Hill, next Saturday evening, for the benefit of James Reed who has been laid up since last January, the result of blood poisoning. The public invited.

First in Three Years.

Raymond Klees, who recently graduated from the PRESS establishment, after three years of faithful service, is taking his first vacation in that time, visiting old friends at Williamsport and other points. Raymond is a good, honest young man and we hope will continue to improve with age.

New Building.

At a recent meeting of Emporium School Board it was decided to erect a four room addition to East ward building in order to relieve the crowded condition of our schools. The expense of this improvement or enlargement will be about $2,000. We also are informed that the district will refund its bonds at four per cent.

Automobile Party.

The following Emporiumites enjoyed a visit to Austin yesterday, a number of the party using E. J. Smith's automobile: Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Andrews, Mrs. C. W. Shaffer, Mrs. Chas. Seger, Mrs. J. H. Swain, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Lloyd, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Judd, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Goodnough, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Metzger, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. J. P. McNarney.

NOTES OF INTEREST.

The colored Odd Fellows assembled in convention at Williamsport last Tuesday and Wednesday.

At the Gun Club shoot Tuesday James Wright took the peacock feather. He captured 24 out of 25 shots.

Home-grown celery to sell, fresh right out of the ground.

H. W. GRAHAM.

T. B. Lloyd is adding to the stone walk in front of his residence. He will now have the walk raised to the latest grade and all of stone.

Millions upon millions of millers are swarming around our head, making it almost impossible to write, and extremely annoying to us who are forced to work by lamp light.

The Sennamahoning Powder Mfg. Company are pushing work on their plant. From notices we note they expect all stock to be paid for this year. It will be one of the best plants in the county.

Sennamahoning, Driftwood, Sterling Run and Cameron are now connected with Emporium by phone. It will come in mighty handy this fall to get the election news, announcing the election of the entire Republican ticket.

What greater nuisance is there than the rum-soaked human hog—smelling like an old cabbage patch—who persists in blowing his rotten breath in your face while he pours his tale of woe into your ears? We have a few of these fellows in Emporium, and many times we would have been delighted to have "soaked" one of them with a skunk just to sweeten the atmosphere around him for a few minutes.

Found.

In my store last week, sum of money. Owner can have same by giving satisfactory proof of loss.

JOS. LECHNER.

Wanted Quick.

Second cook, laundry woman, pastry cook and dish washer at New Warner.

Oyster Supper.

The ladies of Presbyterial Church will serve oysters in the basement of new church, this (Thursday) evening. All welcome.

THE WEATHER.
FRIDAY, Showers. SATURDAY, Showers
SUNDAY, Fair.

ASSETS

First National Bank,
EMPORIUM, PA.
At the close of business September 20th.
$762,039.29.

There is always an extra pay-day ahead of him who saves on pay day.

The Man About Town.

Merchants about town report business in a fair condition. Fruit is plenty. Peaches and oat meal have advanced a little in price but the quality is good.

Alex. McDougall has the agency for the celebrated Eureka Brand of Baking Powder—warranted not to fade or crack in any climate.

The East Ward Grocery advertises Brain Food for sale. Some people we know ought to buy it in bales or by the car load.

Henry Zarps is contemplating matrimony; he has a far-away look in his eyes, and goes around whistling: "I Need Thee Every Hour."

Jasper Harris says "when two persons embark on the sea of matrimony, sooner or later one of them will rock the boat."

The young man who sat with his girl—the other evening—on the side hill, above the court house, and gazed at the moon and sang "When the leaves begin to fall" and when a dog barked back in the woods, went head-first through a barbed wire fence and left his girl to climb a tree, can get the coat-tails he left in the fence by calling on Sheriff Hemphill.

Mike Hogan says: "when a dog turns and looks at his tail he sees his finish."

Twelve year-old candy is on sale in most of the stores.

Dr. Zelle extracted a molar for a Sait Run native, Sunday that was a corker. He is going to send it to the Smithsonian Institute to fill a cavity in the jaw of a mastodon.

The Huaks had a christening in their domicile near the Furnace, Tuesday afternoon. Henry Kraft's Hop Juice furnished the music. Italian Opera wasn't a marker to it.

Pat Kilguy of St. Charles is a genial bonni face and his patronage is booming. In the mixing department he dispenses mighty good dizziness.

Ed. Blinzler says he has positive evidence that barbers are employed in Heaven—they trim the Saints whiskers.

Eminent physicians say we should lie on the right side. Brother Hockley of the Independent says he can not see how a man can do it and edit a Democratic paper.

Church goers had a rare treat Sunday evening in hearing Rev. Metzler's sermon on "the fear of Belteshazzar and Daniel's interpretation of the handwriting on the wall." We know of several persons to whom the interpretation would apply. If they were weighed they would be found wanting and they are divided in their affections sure.

Dr. Ericsson the organist in the M. E. church says the time is surely coming when Rag Time music will not be sung at church socials.

Judge Brennan wears for a scarf-pin an original piece of the Blarney Stone. The Judge remembers distinctly when William and Mary rode through the streets of Dublin on a jaunting car.

The Pennsylvania Rail Road is going to install a phonograph at the depot so that Parker Jackson's voice may be preserved to posterity.

Song of the St. Marys Gas Co.—
Peter, Peter, pumpkin eater,
We have the gas, we have the meter;
No use of your kicking, Pete,
Well you know we have you beat;
Take your medicine, drink it down;
Freeze to death or get out of town!

"Ole Olson" the quaint and natural comedy drama in which the Swedish type of character was first made use of for stage purposes will be played here at the Opera House, Thursday evening, Sept. 21st. The Swedish dialect comedy has taken its place as a fun maker by the side of the German, Irish and Yiddish dialect plays and Ole Olson is easily the most interesting and pleasing of this style of dramatic work. The character is presented with natural dignity and a full appreciation of comedy effects. The play of course centers around "Ole" and the cool and unruffled manner in which he baffles the schemes of the villain; never fails to get rounds of applause. The company that will present the comedy here is an excellent one in every respect and is under the direction of Ben Hendricks, who plays "Ole." During the performance Mr. Hendricks will sing six new songs: "Fair Land of Sweden," "Northland Lullaby," "A Swagger Swedish Swell," "Strawberries," and "Open Your Mouth and Shut Your Eyes."
