REPUBLICAN TICKET.

STATE. For Treasurer, J. LEE PLUMMER, Hollidaysburg. For Justice of the Supreme Court, JOHN STEWART, Chambersburg.

Where the President Stands.

The chief of the Gordon newspaper "dares to put" on the side of the City Party the President of the United States and with him "the great Cabinet officer" who lately spoke of a "corrupt and criminal combination masquerading under the name of Republicans."

No doubt Mr. Root is personally opposed to corruption. So is the President of the United States.

So is every respectable citizen of Philadelphia and of Pennsylvania.

No right-minded man would espouse the cause of a boodler or grafter.

No one would stand in the way of a most careful inquiry into any possible charge of civic crime.

But there is a very great difference between charges of criminality against individuals, no matter whether they "masquerade as Republicans" or not, and the Republican party itself.

That distinction is readily recognized by the President of the United States, who has given us a practical example of how to secure lasting reforms.

He has been investigating three departments of the government—those of the Postoffice, of Agriculture and of the Interior—but never once has he been found inviting help from Democrats and outsiders.

He has never joined the foes of Republicanism.

Reform within the party is what he has carried into actual practice.

In the Presidential campaign of last year we have very much the same situation that presents itself in Philadelphia just now.

Charges had been made against certain Republican officials and contractors for government supplies.

The Democratic newspapers were filled with these charges.

Judge Parker, from the platforms upon which he spoke, detailed them at length and called upon the people to defeat the Republican Party.

He and his orators tried to convince the people that because of these charges against individuals the whole Republican Party was corrupt, and that no reform could be expected unless the party was overwhelmed at the polls.

Against this false logic President Roosevelt and his supporters made response that the Republican Party was an organization of principle, that it could not be held responsible for the acts of individuals, that it was big enough to do its own housecleaning.

That issue went directly to the voters, and they supported the position of the President.

It is not at all likely, therefore, that the President will be found on the side of the City Party in Philadelphia when that organization is doing its best to defeat the Republican Party of Pennsylvania. The Republican Party of Pennsylvania is a grand collection of responsible and free citizens. It is not to be held up to scorn because of charges against a few contractors in Philadelphia. It is quite big enough to do its own reforming.

And the local ticket that it has put up, composed, as it is, of Republicans whose integrity cannot be assailed, is evidence that it is perfectly ready to do all the reforming that may be required.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work.
