THE CAMERON COUNTY PRESS.

ESTABLISHED BY C. B. GOULD, MARCH, 1866.

"Liberty and Union, One and Inseparable." - WEBSTER.

TERMS: $2.00-$1.50 IN ADVANCE.

VOL. 40.

EMPORIUM, PA., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1905.

NO. 38

INSURANCE POLICIES PURCHASED

We buy life insurance policies and pay more in cash than the companies issuing them. We also buy policies subject to loans. Write for terms.

PYLE & CO., New Warner House, Emporium, Penna

Russell, Magician,

AT THE OPERA HOUSE, Tuesday Ev'ng. Nov. 14

Don't fail to see him in his marvel-

Fancy Cookery for Christmas. What would Chistmas be without the traditional dinner with the good oldfashioned plum pudding and the numsomething new in this line in the practice, coming into favor, or including various forms of cookery among one's Christmas gifts. In the December Delineator there is a suggestive chapter in "The making of a Housewife," by Isabel Gordon Curtis, giving many useful hints to this purpose. "Suggestions for a Child's Christmas Party," "Various Plum Puddings and Harmonious Sausces," and "Quaint Little Cakes for Holiday Occasions" prove to be useful' as well as something new to add to one's menus, and Home-Made Holiday Beverage" and "Table Decorations for Children's Christmas Parties" close the very valuable department of the maga-

The Apolo Glee Club.

The Apollo Glee and Minstrel Club, the concluding number in the Teacher's Institute series of entertainments was the climax of the week. For two hours the attention of the audience it was of capacity size) was not allowed to lag and had all the demands for encores been responded to the length of the program would have greatly exceeded that limit. The Glees were sung with a snap, a soulfulness and a sweetness that was inspiring. The minstrel specialties were splendid, absolutely free from courseness, compelling those not accustomed to merriment, to laugh immoderately. Every part of the program was of indisputed excellence and the audience felt on fully entertained.

Wedding Bells.

the bride's father, performed the cere- New York. mony, assisted by Rev. McCaslin, using the ring service.

The church was artistically decorated in pick and white, under the supervision of Mrs Chas. W. Shaffer.

The bride was given away by her Jay P. Felt, Chas. W. Shaffer, Guy Felt and Russell McQuay.

Mr. and Mrs. Felt left on the midnight train for Washington, D. C., and other southern points to pass the winter.

"The Missouri Girl" with Zeke and Daisy and their fan making associates, will be seen a Opera House, Thursday,

DEATH'S DOINGS.

SCOTT.

Walter Scott, an aged colored gentle man, who has been in feeble health for some time, owing to his advanced age, being about 90 years old, passed away last Saturday at the residence of his son, William Scott, on West Sixth street. The funeral, which was largely attended, took place on Tuesday afternoon. The following relatives from a distance were present: Jos. Warren, nephew, Bridgeport, O., and Sina Harris, niece, Cleveland, O. The deceased was a remarkable old gentleman and energetic up to a few months. He was father of twelve children and proud of the fact that he had over seventy grand and great-grand child-

SHNYDER.

MRS. SUSAN M. SHNYDER, aged 41 years, eight months and 28 days, passed away Nov. 6th, 1905, leaving a husband and four children-Peter, Alex., Boyd and Lessie. For eight years this lady has been a great sufferer, but bore her affliction with a christian's fortious and mystifying tricks at popular tude. She was a devout member of the Emmanuel Episcopal church but health prevented her from attending services as much as she desired. Her death is a sad affliction to the family. The funeral takes place to-day at two o'clock from the residence on Cherry erous other seasonable dainties? But street, services to be held in the Emmanuel Episcopal Church.

RELATIVES IN ATTENDANCE.

Rev. Hunter Watts, (cousin) Lancaster, Pa; Frank F. Shnyder, Mrs. Margaret Haukey, South Williamsport; Mrs. J. C. Shaffer, Mr. N. W. Pysler, Montgomery; Mr. P. H. Sheddy and wife, Dents Run; Mr. and Mrs. Mc-Vain, Cameron; Mrs. Jas. Reid, Moore

Lecture by the Rev. Dr. Mallett. A lecture entitled "A Good Time Coming," relating to the social and in' dustrial outlook, will be delivered by the Rev. Frank J. Mallett, Ph. D., Rector of St. John's Church, Sharon, Pa. in Emmanuel Parish House, Thursday evening, Nov. 16th, at eight

Dr. Mallett was for some years a member of the Ameri an Academy of Political and Social Science, and is now actively engaged in the work of the Church Association for the advancement of the interests of Labor. He is well known as an eloquent and entertaining lecturer.

The proceeds will be devoted to the New Organ Fund. Tickets 25c

Dr. Humphreys' Specifies.

It is well known that Dr. Humphrey's Seventy-seven" is the only Specific for LaGrippe and Colds.

We want those who have used "77" to know that Dr. Humphrey's' System of Specific covers all diseases from infancy to old age-it is a question which leaving the hall that it had been dlight- derives the greatest comfort from their use, the baby with Colic or the old and feeble with the almost invariable weak. ness of the Bladder or Kidneys. The A very pretty wedding took place Specifics are fully described in a little last evening at 7:30 o'clock at the First book to be had at all drug stores or Presbyterian Church, when Miss CAR- mailed free. They are for sale by all OLYN LOUISE McQUAY was united in Druggists, 25c each with few excepmarriage to Dr. Leon Rex Felt. Rev. tions. Humphreys' Homeo. Medicine Hunter Watts, of Lancaster, cousin of Co., Cor. William and John Streets.

Don M. Larrabee Promoted. Don M. Larrabee, who has been re siding at Philadelphia for some time has located at Williamsport, where he assumes charge of the Williamsport father, and her three sisters acted as Co., at an increased salary. Mr. Lar-Agency of New York Life Insurance rabee has charge of Lycoming, Clinton, Cameron, Potter and Tioga and several other counties.

Married.

Mr. Jay Paul Felt, of Emporium, and Miss Bessie A. Earl, of Lansing, Mich., were quitely married at the bride's home last Saturday afternoon. Mr. Felt and his bride returned to Emporium last Monday and will reside here. Congratulations.

The Official Vote of Cameron County,

November 7th, 1905.

600 532 1010 692 629 582 288 67 682 591 727 791 379 442 675 713 535 365

HON. GEO. A. WALKE, AGED 76 YEARS.

A. Walker.

sad intelligence that Associate Judge other industry that owes Geo. A. Walk-George A. Walker had met with an accident while visiting, (accompanied by it until it could walk alone and proshis son Geo. A Jr., and Miss Walker,) W. S. Walker, at Austin, and was then in an unconscious state, not having at stockholder in St. Marys Gas Comany time regained consciousness after falling down stairs. The announcement of his death was 'phoned to Emporium last Friday night, about nine o'clock, that he had breathed his last at ten minutes of nine. A number save for his old age. Geo. A. Walker of the directors of the First National Bank having just returned from visit ing their President, immediately returned to Austin to convey his remains to his home at this place, arriving here on Saturday evening. Short religious services were held at Austin help mate of his long years of toil, he by the Rev. Mr. Donahue, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, before conveying the remains to Emporium. Upon arrival of the train from Austin a vast oncourse of citizens met the remains at Broad street station and many were trusted ones. the expressions of regret over the teath of this prominent and successful business man and citizen. It was the funeral on Tuesday afternoon, but n deference to the wishes of many riends from different sections it was thought best to postpone the last sad rites until Wednesday afternoon, in order to allow all to pay a proper repect to one who has been closely identified with the material interests of Emporium and Cameron county for thirty-two years.

A BUSY LIFE.

crity of our citizens hard toil in a blacksmith shop, after ers Iron Works at Warren, as foreman; how he managed the great oil well supplies turned out at that time By yard work he managed to save little by little until his small investments warranted his branching out for himself, which he did, locating at St Marys and engaging in business. Believing in the future of Emporium, he located here and purchased the J. L. Beers hardware store and soon became interested in many industries here-his first the lumbering business with Andrew Kaul, on Sterling Run. In 1884 he! strongly advocated the establishing of a Bank in Emporium and with a number of gentlemen succeeded in organizing the First National Bank and was chosen President, a position he held to the day of his death. His careful and wise management soon placed the First National on a firm footing and to this day has always been considered one of the most conservative managed institutions in the state. During the depression in business it was his finan- and a prayer by Rev. McCaslin-an cial management that saved more than one business man from ruin and bankruptey. Early he formed a co-partnership with the late William Howard and erected the brick block at the corner of Fourth and Broad streets, where a successful business was conducted until he sold his stock of hardware to our giving but an abbreviated portion Murry & Coppersmith Co., in order to of his able remarks:

Death and Burial of Judge George | allow his son W. S. Walker to give his attention to the Emporium Lumber In our last issue we announced, the Company's extensive business-arer a debt of gratitude for standing by pered. He was one of the organizers of Emporium Water Company and a pany. He was always ready to invest in a safe project it he could see that it would pay a fair percentage and never took any stock in wild-cat ventures, was honorable, just and strict as a business man and knew how to drive a good bargain and seldom got caught by a sharper.

J. n. 24th, 1904, his wife was called away and while he greatly missed his continued to pay strict attention to affairs. Surrounded by a loving daughter and sons, his late years were spent by daily visits to his friends and many were the happy hours he passed with Deceased leaves a family of six children, all grown to womanhood and manhood, viz: Mrs. Stella Sykes, the intention of the family to hold the Buffalo; Mr. W. S. Walker. Austin; Mrs Gertrude Egbert, Ithaca, N. Y.: Mr. J. M. Walker, Scranton; Miss Grace A., and Gco. A. Jr., at home. All were present at the funeral but Mrs. Egbert.

rolitically Mr. Walker was a Repub lican and held most of our Borough offices in addition to two terms as County Commissioner, and when he died was filling the position of Associate Judge with credit.

Religiously he was for fectly conversant with the humble Vestryman and treasurer of Emmanuel origin of the deceased, his years of Episcopal Church and contributed to the support of all churches. His famwhich he entered the Brown & Struth. ily always highly respected in this community, have only to look into the right direction for consolation and re member the unsullied character and reputation this always busy, thoughtful, mild and considerate father has left them.

THE LAST CHAPTER OF LIFE.

When the hour for the funeral ar. rived the large residence was filled with relatives and friends called there to view and pay that last respect due a friend and citizen. The parlor was venture aside from his store being in banked with flowers in great abundance, while the body reposed peace fully upon a handsome couch casket.

peantifully draped by director LaBar. Immediately upon the arrival of the Masonic bodies, directors of the Bank and Gas Company the services commenced, being conducted by Rev. J. M. Robertson, Rector of Emmanuel Episcopal Church, assisted by Rev. O. S. Metzler, of M. E. Church, and Rev. Robt. McCaslin, of Presbyterian Church—the former reading the church services, Rev. Metzler the Scriptures especially selected choir composed of Misses Grace McCaslin, Byrde Taggart, Mr. Fred Heilman Mr. A. D. Ericsson. Mrs. Frank Beers at the organ.

REV. MR. ROBERTSON'S REMARKS .

We regret that want of space forbids

"For we walk by faith, not by sight."

—II Cor. 5:

"For we walk by faith, not by sight."

—II Cor. 5: 7.

Not two years have passed since this home witnessed another such gathering as this. Then it was the wife and mother, who had been brought home stricken unto death, to whom we paid our last mortal tribute. Now the widowed father has joined her in spirit, and this afternoon we shall lay his dust beside hers in the Christian hope of a joyful resurrection. He who has been taken away in ripeness of years has been a familiar, respected and distinguished figure in our community for many years; one whose loss is felt and mourned; one of whose domestic virtues and public services much might be said; one who was the soul of integrity and honor, of justice and kindness. Very lovable aud companionable was he sa friend, as all who knew him know. His death makes a void, not only in many circles of honor and influence, but also in the hearts of those who knew him, whether old or young. He was for years a communicant of Emmanuel Parish, a member of the Vestry and the Treasurer of the Parish. In these relations, as in others, he leaves a void that is deeply felt.

In the presence of the dead we stand face to face with a great mystery, one of those dark, or at least hidden, facts of existence which we can but faintly understand. Beyond the veils of time and space sight does not penetrate. The other world is truly called the Unseen. It is by faith the we know it, not by sight.

The present occasion torces the realization of this rongly upon us. Yet is it not always true, and in this part by faith, and things human, that we walk in part by faith, and things human, that we walk in part by faith, and on merely through in the sight. We cannot see one another's heart and spirit. We cannot see one another's heart and spirit with us whe was of the department of the world as even on the existence of one fellow spir, And yet our knowledge of one another is mediated through faith, and not merely through sight. We cannot see one another's heart and spirit we cannot see one another's hea

After the large assemblage had taken last view of remains of their friend the funeral cortege silently wended its way to the "silent city." After responsive reading by the clergymen at the grave, the Masonic bodies performed their duty and consigned the mortal remains of Brother Walker to his tomb, to await the call of the Grand Master on high.

"Farewell, Brother." HONORARY PALL BEARERS.

Hon. Chas. A. Mayer, Hon. John Mc Donald, Hon. Josiah Howard, Mr. J. F. Parsons, Mr. Henry Auchu, Mr. W. F. Lloyd, Mr. Jos. Kaye, Mr. T. B. Lloyd, Mr. B. W. Green, Mr. John E. Smith, Mr. N. Seger and Mr. J. P. Felt. ACTIVE PALL BEARERS.

Mr. A. P. Van Gelder, Mr. C. Jay Goodnough, Mr. Grant S. Wiley, Mr. F. G. Judd, Mr. Chas. Seger, Mr. R. C.

BEAUTIFUL FLORAL OFFERINGS. Never in the history of Emporium, have such large and beautiful floral offerings been seen here, it requiring three carriages to convey the pieces to the cemetery. The following were of especial beauty: Pillow, "Father" cut flowers, roses, chrysanthemums from children; Flower Robe of white chrys-anthemums, from Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Perley, Williamsport; Flower Robe of white chrysanthemums, from Mrs. Elizabeth Howard and family; Flower Elizabeth Howard and family; Flower Robe of lavender chrysanthemums, from Mr. and Mrs. Geo. J. LaBar and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Rishell; Pillow "Our President" from First National Bank; Wreath of chrysanthemums from Emporium Water Co.; French Wreath of chrysanthemums and violets from Emporium Lumber Co.; Broken Circle and Harp on standard, with base of bed of roses and carnations, from employees of Emporium Lumber Co. of bed of roses and carnations, from employees of Emporium Lumber Co, at Austin; Maltese Cross from active Pall bearers; Square and Compass, from Emporium Masons; White Cross from Vestry of Emmanuel Episcopal Church; Wreath from A. N. Vodack and wife, Austin; Wreath from Mr. Geo. H. Crawford, town: Casket Bouquets from Mrs. Grace Harmon, Wiley family and Dr. and Mrs. E. O. Bardwell.

Judge Walker was a member of Emporium Lodge No. 382, A. Y. M.; Bloomsburg Consistory, and Knapp Commandery, of Ridgway, No. 40 and Emporium Chapter, No. 227, and stood well up the ladder, at, if not near, the 32 degree line.

RELATIVES AND FRIENDS IN ATTEND.

RELATIVES AND FRIENDS IN ATTEND-ANCE AT FUNERAL.

ANCE AT FUNERAL.

William J. Walker, Binghamton, N. Y., only living brother of deceased; J. M. Walker (son) and wife, Scranton, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. (daughter) W. L. Sykes and daughters and sons, Buffalo; W. S. Walker (son) and wife and children, of Austin; Mrs. Malinda Ingalsby, Mrs. Grace Harmon, Lewis Run; Miss Grace Seeley, Spencer, N. Y. Bradford: Mr. E. J. Jones and wife, Miss Jessamine Sykes. Keating Summit: Wm. Calfish and wife, O. A. Prince and wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Prince, W. T. Turner and wife, Joshua Sykes, Fred Wood, John Eckert, R. H. Avery. Austin: A. N. Vodack, A. W. McCoy, Nathan Anderson, C. B. Underwood, Chas. Evans, A. L. Cross. St. Marys: Hon. Chas. Luhr, Geo. Weidenbourner, Chas. McVean, J. A. Hanhauser, J. M. Shaffer, Philip Dixon. Johnsonburg: Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Davison, Miss Davison. Ridgway; J. M. Schram, Jos. F. Taylor, Geo. L. McCracken, J. H. Shanbacher. Sinnamahoning: Geo. Brarchay. Driftwood: John Gleason. In addition to the above many friends from all parts of the county were in attendance.

THE WEATHER.

FRIDAY, Rain, SATURDAY, Snow Flurries SUNDAY, Fair ASSETS

First National Bank, EMPORIUM, PA.
At the close of business November 8th, 1965.

$737,936.85. A bank account is a storage battery charged with the current of prosperity.

CAMERON ON TOP.

The Republicans of Cameron county are to be congratulated over the splendid victory achieved on Tuesday, electing the state and county ticket by good majorities, which is very gratifying when looking around the state. Little Cameron has remained true to the principles of Republicanism. The demand for the election of the three gentlemen nominated for County Commissioner-all Republicans-is as it should have been. Messrs. Lewis, Kreider and Bailey will conduct the affairs of the county in the interest of the tax-payers we firmly believe. Mr. Swope pledges to give his office strict attention. See election returns in another column.

The People Have Spoken.

A wave of reform has passed over the country as it has in the past, resulting in the defeat of Mr. Plummer in this state, Gov. Herrick in Ohio and other candidates. Possibly it is for the best. The people mostly Republicans, believed the false reformers and did their bidding. When the "lid is laid bare" the people will see what dupes they have been. Then Pennsylvania will right itself and roll up an old time Republican majority. Republicans will clean house themselves, not waiting for Reformer Berry. Close up the ranks, Republicans.

The Star Course.

Patrons of the Star Course will not forget the opening of the chart at Lloyd's book store, Friday morning, Nov. 10, at seven o'clock. A line will be formed and seats assigned in order of application, each person being limited to six. The first attraction will be Mr. Pitt Parker the Crayon Humorist, Monday evening, Nov. 13, at the opera house. General admission 50 cents; gallery 25 cts.

Russell the Magician.

Ring tricks have always occupied an important place on the programme of the great magicians. Russell the Magician, who will appear at opera house on Tuesday evening, Nov. 14th, the custom of his illustrious predecessors.

"The Mystery of the Wedding Ring" is one of his favorite illusions. It is a combination of all the ring tricks now being practiced.

Russell borrows a ring from a lady in the audience and carries it on his magic Wand to a little mortar on the stage. The magician then pounds it into hard shapeless mass which is rammed down the barrel of a revolver. The pistol is shot at a mehogany cabinet on a stand twenty foot distant, During this process the owner of rings usually becomes considerably alarmed and as the magician seems to have forgotten the ring or is slow in proceeding with his trick, reminds him of the fact that her jewelry has not been returned. Russell goes to the cabinet and unlocking it takes out a series of boxes, one within the other. In the last box the ring is found securely tied to handsame bonquet of roses. pretty trick never tails to bring forth hearty and appreciative applause.

Wanted:-Representative in own community. $500.00 capital required. Good salary to right party. Bona-fide real estate proposition. Address New Martinsville Improvement Co., Wheel ing or Steelton, W. Va.