

PARALYSIS CURED

Case Seemed Hopeless but Yielded to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Mr. Kenney has actually escaped from the paralytic fate to which he seemed a short time ago hopelessly doomed.

"The doctor," said Mr. Kenney, "told me that if I wanted to live any length of time I would have to give up work altogether, and he told my friends that the paralysis which had begun would in time involve my whole body."

"Just how were you afflicted at this time?" Mr. Kenney was asked.

"Well, I had first hot, and then cold and clammy feelings, and at times my body felt as if needles were being stuck into it. These sensations were followed by terrible pains, and again I would have no feeling at all, but a numbness would come over me, and I would not be able to move."

"Night after night I could not get my natural sleep and my system was wrecked by the strain of torturing pains and the effect of the opiates I was forced to take to induce sleep."

"But relief came quickly when I was induced to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. The very first box seemed to help me, and seven boxes made me entirely well."

FUNNY

People Will Drink Coffee When It "Does Such Things."

"I began to use Postum because the old kind of coffee had so poisoned my whole system that I was on the point of breaking down, and the doctor warned me that I must quit it."

My chief ailment was nervousness and heart trouble. Any unexpected noise would cause me the most painful palpitation, make me faint and weak.

I had heard of Postum and began to drink it when I left off the old coffee. It began to help me just as soon as the old effects of the other kind of coffee passed away. It did not stimulate me for awhile, and then leave me weak and nervous as coffee used to do. Instead of that it built up my strength and supplied a constant vigor to my system which I can always rely on. It enables me to do the biggest kind of a day's work without getting tired. All the heart trouble, etc., has passed away.

"I give it freely to all my children, from the youngest to the oldest, and it keeps them all healthy and hearty." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

RIOT REIGNS IN RUSSIAN CITIES

HUNDREDS OF LIVES LOST IN ENCOUNTERS BETWEEN THE MOBS AND SOLDIERS.

A GREAT SLAUGHTER AT ODESSA

Reports from Many of the Larger Cities Show that as Usual the Jews Were the Especial Victims of the Spirit of Murder and Pillage.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 2.—Though yesterday passed in comparative quiet in St. Petersburg and Moscow, dispatches from all parts of the empire report disorders in many cities, with a heavy total of dead and wounded. The people while celebrating their new found freedom were in many instances set upon by Cossacks and police, while sometimes the spirit of mob violence broke forth and the lower elements of the population gave themselves up to pillage and destruction.

The most serious disorders apparently occurred at Odessa, where hundreds of persons are reported to have been killed or wounded and where the rioting is expected to flare out in a repetition of the slaughter of last July, and at Kazan.

A deplorable feature of the news from the interior is that anti-Jewish uprisings have occurred in many places, especially in South Russia, where the populace vented its hatred of the Jews by sacking their stores and clubbing the members of the race, in some cases resorting to the torch.

Warsaw, Nov. 2.—Twenty persons were killed and upwards of a hundred wounded in the encounters last night between the mobs and the troops. At 10 o'clock a crowd gathered before the town hall and demanded the release of political prisoners. The chief of police liberated 300 who had been arrested during the last few days, but refused to release 12 who were arrested by order of the central government.

The crowd then commenced to smash the doors and windows of the town hall, whereupon the chief of police telephoned the barracks for assistance and a force of hussars and Cossacks with a battery of artillery galloped to the scene.

The hussars charged the mobs, killing 16 persons and wounding 73. Later there was an encounter between infantry and a mob in the Bank Square, when the troops fired into the crowd, killing four and wounding 30.

London, Nov. 2.—The correspondent of the Daily Mail at Kieff in a dispatch dated November 1, says: "Jew baiting started at midnight. Strong patrols passed frequently, but they looked smilingly on and gave no help."

"The Jews fired from the balconies of their homes on the troops and on the processions of loyalists, the soldiers returning the fire. The residences and offices of many wealthy Jews were wrecked. The Jews now threaten to massacre the Christians."

CLARK'S LAST STATEMENT.

Cashier of the Enterprise National Bank Laid the Blame for His Ruin Upon W. H. Andrews.

Pittsburg, Nov. 2.—The following statement of T. Lee Clark, cashier of the Enterprise national bank of Allegheny, written a few hours before he committed suicide, was made public last night:

"Dearest Wife and Children: In ten hours or less I will be in the other world. You have been a dear good wife to me. Andrews has worked my ruin. Dear wife, keep all the insurance for yourself and babies. How hard it is to leave you all. I have made a desperate effort to keep things going until I would get the road financed, but it has been too slow. The examiner is here and I am ruined. Do forgive me; it is not my fault. I have been shamefully robbed. The bank will get everything but the life insurance."

"Your husband, Lee."

Clark committed suicide on the morning of October 18 and the above letter, written in pencil on one of the bank's letter heads, was found in the dead man's home by his 14-year-old daughter and turned over to his attorney. It was evidently written at the bank the night before the suicide.

Lee Clark, the deceased cashier, was treasurer of the Santa Fe Central railroad, of which W. H. Andrews was president.

SETS DAY TO GIVE THANKS.

President Roosevelt Issues His Thanksgiving Proclamation.

Washington.—President Roosevelt on Thursday, November 2, issued his Thanksgiving proclamation, saying: "When nearly three centuries ago the first settlers came to the country which has now become this great republic they fronted not only hardships and privation, but terrible risk to their lives. In those grim years the custom grew of setting apart one day in each year for a special service of thanksgiving to the Almighty for preserving the people through the changing seasons. The custom has now become national and hallowed by immemorial usage."

"It is eminently fitting that once a year our people should set apart a day for praise and thanksgiving to the giver of good, and, at the same time, that they express their thankfulness for the abundant mercies received should manfully acknowledge their shortcomings and pledge themselves solemnly and in good faith to strive to overcome them. During the past year we have been blessed with bountiful crops. Our business prosperity has been great. No other people has ever stood on as high a level of material well-being as ours now stands. We are not threatened by foes from without. The foes from whom we should pray to be delivered are our own passions, appetites and follies; and against these there is always need that we should war."

"Therefore, I now set apart Thursday, the 28th day of this November, as a day of thanksgiving for the past and of prayer for the future, and on that day I ask that throughout the land the people gather in their homes and places of worship and in rendering thanks unto the Most High for the manifold blessings of the past year consecrate themselves to a life of cleanliness, honor and wisdom, so that this nation may do its allotted work on the earth in a manner worthy of those who founded it and of those who preserve it."

"In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed. Done at the city of Washington this second day of November, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and five, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and thirtieth."

COILS DRAW TIGHTER.

Evidence Against Men Held in Connection with the Suit Case Mystery Accumulates.—Doctor Arrested.

New York, Nov. 4.—Superintendent Pierce, of the Boston police, and Chief Wats, of the Massachusetts state police, arrived here Friday, accompanied by the witnesses in the suit case mystery who left Boston with the police officials. When the Boston party arrived at police headquarters the prisoners were brought out for inspection.

When the cab driver saw Crawford he identified him as one of the two men who were in his cab with suit cases on the night the girl's body was thrown into the harbor. He also identified Howard as Crawford's companion that night.

After this identification had been completed the two pawnbrokers and the pawnbroker's clerk were admitted to the prisoners' presence and identified them both.

The prisoners were arraigned in the Tombs court and were remanded back to police headquarters until Monday. The men were held on an affidavit charging conspiracy, based on Howard's confession.

Boston, Nov. 4.—Dr. Percy D. McLeod, of 137 Huntington avenue, this city, was arrested Friday on the charge of abortion in connection with the suit case mystery. The arrest was on information furnished by Chief Wats. Dr. McLeod is held on the charge that he was the person who dismembered the body of Susan Geary.

A conference between Dr. McLeod and officials lasted until 5 o'clock. At its conclusion Dr. McLeod was locked up.

A telephone message received here from Superintendent Pierce at New York said that a confession had been obtained both from Crawford and Howard. In this, it is alleged, the men stated that the bag containing the head of the victim had been dropped from the East Boston Ferryboat.
