Hyomei Cures Catarrh Breathe it—

No dangerous drugs or alcoholic concoctions are taken into the stomach when Hyomei is used. Breathed through the inhaler, the balsamic healing of Hyomei penetrates to the most remote cells of the nose and throat, and thus kills the catarrhal germs, heals the irritated mucous membrane, and gives complete and permanent cure.

Hyomei is the simplest, most pleasant and the only guaranteed cure for catarrh that has been discovered. Complete outfit, $1.00; extra bottle 50 cents. For sale by L. Taggart.

"I Thank The Lord."

Cried Hannah Plant, of Little Rock, Ark., "for the relief I got from Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It cured my fearful running sores, which nothing else would heal, and from which I had suffered for 5 years." It is a marvelous healer for cuts, burns and wounds. Guaranteed at L. Taggart's drug store, 25c.

The girl who lacks courage and self-respect.

A Disastrous Calamity.

It is a disastrous calamity, when you lose your health, because indigestion and constipation have sapped it away. Prompt relief can be had in Dr. King's New Life Pills. They build up your digestive organs, and cure headache, dizziness, colic, constipation, etc. Guaranteed at L. Taggart's drug store, 25c.

The girl who is indifferent and listless and cannot even assume an interest in her occupation.

Do not be deceived by counterfeits when you buy Witch Hazel Salve. The name of E. C. DeWitt & Co., is on every box of the genuine. Piles in their worst form will soon pass away if you will apply DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve night and morning. Best for Cuts, Burns, Boils, Tetter, Eczema, etc. Sold by R. C. Dodson.

The girl who constantly "soldiers" and plays sick.

Son Lost Mother.

"Consumption runs in our family, and through it I lost my mother," writes E. B. Reid, of Harmony, Me. "For the past five years, however on the slightest sign of a Cough or Cold, I have taken Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which has saved me from serious lung trouble." His mother's death was a sad loss for Mr. Reid, but he learned that lung trouble must not be neglected, and how to cure it. Quickest relief and cure for coughs and colds. Price 50c and $1.00; guaranteed at L. Taggart's drug store. Trial bottles free.

The girl who depends on favoritism to advance her instead of good honest endeavor.

Man's Unreasonableness.

Is often as great as woman's. But Thos. S. Austin, Mgr., of the "Republican," of Leavenworth, Ind., was not unreasonable, when he refused to allow the doctors to operate on his wife, for female trouble. "Instead," he says, we concluded to try Electric Bitters. My wife was then so sick, she could hardly leave her bed, and five [5] physicians had failed to relieve her. After taking Electric Bitters, she was perfectly cured, and can now perform all her household duties." Guaranteed by L. Taggart druggist, price 50c.

Cameron County Teachers' Institute.

October 30th, 1905—Afternoon Session. Institute was called to order by the President Miss Collins.

Devotional Exercises conducted by the Rev. O. S. Metzler.

Music by Hon. I. K. Hockley.

Talk on the "Correct Use of English." Prof. B. W. Griffith of Clarion State Normal School. The right use of both spoken and written English in the lower grades in public schools. The teacher of English has to contend with outside environment and with a lack of attention or carelessness in speech. Select and teach the essential parts of the Grammar.

History, by Prof. Smith Burnham of West Chester Normal School. Among his many excellent points were the following: Teach children to be intelligent and honest citizens. Teach definite impressions of time and place. Teach by stories of lives of great men—full of inspiration to the pupils.

Intermission.

Singing, conducted by the Hon. I. K. Hockley.

The talk on "Theory of School," by Dr. A. J. Kinnaman, President Normal College, Danville, Ind., was presented in a scholarly manner. Among other things he said: "A school is an organization of both teacher and pupil with the purpose of learning, development, progress and enlargement of the one thought the influence and direction of the other."

Institute closed by music.

Tuesday, Oct. 31, 1905—Forenoon Session.

Institute was called to order at the usual time by President, Miss Collins.

Devotional Services were conducted by the Rev. Robert McCaslin.

Singing by the Institute.

Miss Margaret Flynn, teacher of drawing in the Ridway Public Schools, gave an interesting talk on drawing, in the first and second grades.

Prof. B. W. Griffith, continued his talk on "Composition." He said, "The pupils difficulty is the teachers difficulty. Teach the pupils to express themselves correctly, intelligently and effectively. Composition develops the creative powers."

Intermission.

Singing by the Institute.

Prof. Smith Burnham, talked upon the "Interpretation of Facts." He said "Teachers should assist the pupils in acquiring the meaning of words, since very often the dictionary is more confusing to the average pupil than the original word."

Dr. Kinnaman continued his interesting talk upon the Theory of the School. "Education consists of the knowledge that has been stored up by preceding generations and each succeeding age adds its small quota."

Afternoon Session.

Singing by the Institute.

Miss Flynn continued her interesting talk on drawing through the 3rd and 4th grades. She said: "Pupils should be taught the different tints and the use of water colors at this period."

Prof. B. W. Griffith concluded his excellent talk upon Language and Composition. He laid great stress upon the importance of thorough work in daily reading and occasional work in Technical work in Grammar and Composition.

Prof. Smith Burnham gave an able and brilliant talk on the Elizabethan Sea Kings and the effects of their daring deeds upon American History.

Solo by Prof. B. W. Griffith.

Intermission.

Dr. Kinnaman continued his talk upon the Theory of the School. He said: "Before we can get anything from the Educational Institution, we must take from it some of the facts which preceding generations have stored away. After which we will be able to add our knowledge for succeeding generations."

Wednesday Morning, Nov. 1st.

Institute called to order by the President, Miss Collins.

Devotional Exercises led by Rev. T. W. Twichell.

Drill in music by the Hon. I. K. Hockley was much appreciated by the Institute.

Miss Flynn continued her interesting talk on drawing.

How to Stimulate and Maintain Interest was ably discussed by Prof. Smith Burnham, who showed how the teacher may maintain an interest in the school by teaching current history.

Intermission.

Singing by the Institute.

Theory of the School by Dr. Kinnaman was very ably discussed. One of the important points ably discussed was: Be sure that you, the teacher are right, then it will be very easy to succeed in maintaining order and interest. Be frank and free to acknowledge mistakes to your school.

Shakespeare, The Man and the Poet, by Prof. Frank C. Lockwood, Allegheny College, Meadville, Pa. Shakespeare's literary life may be divided into four periods, in each of which he produced a different type and style of work. He was the supreme genius of the human race. His creative works, his power to depict real life are unrevealed.

Afternoon Session.

Singing by Institute.

Drawing—Miss Flynn gave an interesting talk upon how to draw plants and fruits from objects.

A Struggle for Empire—Prof. Smith Burnham graphically described the struggle between the French and English in America for the possession of an Empire which struggle culminated in the fall of Quebec and the supremacy of the English.

Intermission.

Music by Institute.

Talk by Dr. A. J. Kinnaman on Temperaments in Teaching. He spoke of the four distinct temperaments. First—Sanguine and talked upon the first one illustrating by familiar example.

Talk by Supt. Sweeney, of Elk county.

Also by Supt. Lynch, of St. Marys Schools. "How to Interpret a Literary Masterpiece."

Prof. Frank C. Lockwood, in the beginning of his talk he said reading furnishes more real pleasure than anything else in life. A few of the other thoughts were the test of a class is whether or not it will stand many readings. One must study the words—the phrasing—the figures of speech.

Ivanhoe, Scarlet Letter, Silas Marner.

Thursday morning, Nov. 2nd, 1905.

The institute was opened with prayer by the Rev. J. M. Robertson.

Singing by Institute.

Prof. Smith Burnham talked upon the expansion in American History. In an able and interesting talk he discussed the westward march of the early settlers in their search for new homes. "The American Policy of Expansion is the same to-day as it was in the days of Thos. Jefferson."

Dr. Kinnaman continued his talk on temperament. He drew some fine word pictures of the different types showing the peculiarities.

Intermission.

Song by Institute.

"The Cultural Value of Literature," Prof. Frank C. Lockwood. Every classic must breathe a living truth in order to stand the test of time, and be read by future generations.

Afternoon Session.

Singing by Institute.

Prof. Smith Burnham spoke upon, "The Political Machine and How It Works." Prof. Burnham made a strong plea for instruction in the common school which will teach our boys and girls to rise above party and vote for men who are honest and upright regardless of their political faith.

Song by Institute.

Dr. A. J. Kinnaman spoke upon the "Relations of the teachers and directors. The teacher should have the courage of his convictions and should adopt himself to his environments as far as possible. Have faith in your work.

Singing by Institute.

"Longfellow, America's Most Popular Poet." The poems of this famous Author were briefly reviewed by Prof. Frank C. Lockwood who showed that Longfellow had fully earned his widespread popularity by the excellence of his many great works.

Friday morning, Nov. 3rd, 1905.

Institute was called to order by the Pres., Miss Collins.

Song by the Institute.

Devotional Services led by the Rev. J. Nelson Bennett.

"Advantages of a Higher Education," by Dr. A. J. Kinnaman. The speaker showed how the educated man's chances of success in life over the uneducated were increased and his earning capacity increased. An investment in Education is the best investment a boy or girl can make. It always pays the best while the capital remains intact."

The torch of truth wanes dim when the wind's opposition die.

But Few Are Free.

But few people are entirely free from indigestion at this season of the year. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is not only the best remedy to use because it digests what you eat but because it also enables the digestive apparatus to assimilate and transform all food into tissues—building blood. Kodol relieves sour stomach, heart burn, belching, and all forms of indigestion.

There is only one Japanese actress—Mme. Sade Yocco.

Attractive as our Homes.

Ten Thousand Churches painted with L. & M., paint, and are most attractive. Liberal quantity always given free.

4 gallons L. & M., mixed with 3 gallons oil, will paint a house.

Wears and covers like gold.

Don't pay $1.50 a gallon for linseed oil, which you do in ready for use paint. Buy oil fresh from the barrel at 60 cents per gallon, and mix it with Longman & Martinez L. & M., Paint.

It makes paint cost about $1.20 per gallon. Delancey Gregory, Fort Plain, N. Y., writes:

"Have sold L. & M., paint for over 25 years, and everyone is surprised to find how little is required to paint a big house." Sold by Harry S. Lloyd.

The girl who cannot be honest with herself and expects a greater money compensation than the work would be worth if done by some one else.

Every Ounce You Eat.

Every ounce of food you eat that fails to digest does a pound of harm. It turns the entire meal into poison. This not only deprives the blood of the necessary tissues—building material, but it poisons it. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is a perfect digestant. It digests the food regardless of the condition of the stomach. It allows that organ to rest and get strong again. Relieves Belching, Heart Burn, Sour Stomach, Indigestion, Palpitation of the Heart, etc. Sold by R. C. Dodson.

The girl who feels herself above her position and does not even condescend to fill it adequately.

Nature Needs But Little.

Nature needs only a Little Early Riser now and then to keep the bowels clean, the liver active, and the system free from bile, headaches, constipation, etc. The famous little pills "Early Risers" are pleasant in effect and perfect in action. They never gripe or sicken, but tone and strengthen the liver and kidneys. Sold by R. C. Dodson.

CHARLES C. FAY.

Sunday being the 80th anniversary of the birth of Mr. C. C. Fay, of this place, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. H. Norris invited a number of old-time friends to celebrate the occasion at their residence, East Allegheny Avenue. Among the guests present were Mrs. J. S. Wiley, Mrs. Chas. Zarpis, Mrs. Johnson, niece of Corry, Pa., Mr. J. E. Parsons, Mr. and Mrs. Riley Warner, Hon. J. C. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Green, Mr. and Mrs. U. A. Paimier, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Felt, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Barton and Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Mullin. An elegant dinner was served at 2:30, gotten up in Mrs. Norris' elegant style. Of course all enjoyed the sumptuous repast, while talking over old times in Emporium, many interesting incidents being related by Mr. Fay.

Mr. Fay came to Emporium in January 1859 to take charge of the Cross mill. He stopped at the Dyke Hotel, which stood just opposite Mr. Fay's property. No man has been more closely identified with Emporium than Chas. C. Fay, who has always held the esteem of our citizens. He bears his eighty years well and looks as young as he did twenty years ago. The guests departed at a seasonable hour, wishing Mr. Fay many more birthdays and continued good health; also extending to Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Norris thanks for the pleasant occasion.

"DO IT TO-DAY!"

"And to think that ten months ago I looked like this! I owe it to German Syrup."

"The time-worn injunction, "Never put off 'til to-morrow what you can do to-day," is now generally presented in this form: "Do it to-day!" That is the terse advice we want to give you about that hacking cough or demoralizing cold with which you have been struggling for several days, perhaps weeks.

Take some reliable remedy for it TO-DAY—and let that remedy be Dr. Boschee's German Syrup, which has been in use for over thirty-five years. A few doses of it will undoubtedly relieve your cough or cold, and its continued use for a few days will cure you completely.

No matter how deep-seated your cough, even if dread consumption has attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure—as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble. New trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.
