Joe Fountain, son of Reuben Fountain, is having a serious run of typhoid fever.

Miss Anna Garniety went to St Marys to visit her sister, Mrs. Philip Dixon.

Mrs. Chapman, of Smyrna, N. Y., cousin of the late D. W. Felt, is guest of Mrs. Sallie Felt.

Mr. Fred Julian and Mr. John Gleason took in the Shrine gathering at Erie yesterday.

A number of Emporium big eaters took in the Masonic banquet at Driftwood last Friday evening.

Mrs. Elmer Kaye arrived last Saturday from Westboro, Wis., to reside here permanently with her husband.

A. D. Ericsson, of Keystone Powder Co., who has been confined to his room for several days, is now able to be about again.

Wm. Hackenberg and Riley Warner are taking the inventory of the Exchange Hotel for Mr. B. W. Green, the Administrator.

Mrs. W. H. Lapham and children, of Houghton, N. Y., are visiting the former's father, sister and brother—E. W. Gaskill and family.

Mrs. Paul S. Smith and little son, left Saturday for their home at Punxsutawney, after spending Thanksgiving with her parents at this place.

Mrs. Lemuel Evans and daughter Laura have returned home after spending a week with her daughter, Mrs. Walter H. Seeley, at Warren.

Miss Mary Nunn, of Williamsport, and Miss Harriet Lipp, of Muncy, R. F. D., No. 2, visited in Emporium over Sunday, guest of H. R. Klees and family.

Dr. H. S. Falk returned on Saturday from attending his father's 75th anniversary, at Wilkes-Barre, his old home. Of course the Dr. enjoyed the short visit.

Misses Anna Market and Margaret Nickler, two of Shippen's pleasant school teachers, were PRESS callers on Saturday last. Both are energetic and proficient in their work—none more popular.

Mr. A. C. Blum came home in time for the Holidays and publicly announces that he will see that every child in Emporium not provided for, shall have a Christmas present. Why not include the widows, A. C.?

Hector Norris, of Urbin, W. Va., visited his brother J. W., in town a few days this week, on his way home from visiting old friends, who are legion, in this part of Pennsylvania. We were glad to receive a call from our esteemed friend and pleased to see him looking so well.

Our friend Jason Loucks, who resides on Woodland Ave., was determined not to allow his neighbor Elek to have a monopoly of the girl business, so he reported a beautiful girl at his home on Wednesday morning. Ye editor smoked a good cigar to the health of the little Miss.

We have been using all the strategy of a Japanese field marshal for several days past in order to get a few lines inserted in the News, stating that Mr. Mohr, our genial foreman, has reached the dignified age of 25. But the modesty of the young man is so great and his eye so keen while making up the forms that we have been unable to accomplish our purpose heretofore.—Henoys News.

Mrs. W. H. Howard is visiting at Philadelphia this week.

Mrs. Michael Murphy was called to Bellefonte on Tuesday to attend the funeral of a relative.

Misses Margaret Cavey and Rena Jordan, two of Emporium's nice little ladies, were PRESS callers yesterday.

Mrs. T. Ganey and Miss MacMahon, of Wilcox, visited Mrs. John Ganey a few days last week.

Mrs. W. R. Krebs, of Pine Street, was in town Saturday consulting the eye specialist. While here she was the guest of Mrs. Ed. Morse and family.

Mrs. Sherer, of Huntington, Pa., who has been visiting her brother and family—Daniel Armstrong—was a PRESS visitor yesterday, accompanied by Mrs. Armstrong.

Little Misses Annie Robertson and Gladys Proudfoot were PRESS visitors on Tuesday and investigated our printery.

It is not an unusual sight to find the audiences of Gordon & Bennett's "A Royal Slave," which comes to the Emporium Opera House, Dec. 19, demanding an encore when the play is over.

Mrs. Gertrude Egbert and daughter, of Ithaca, N. Y., and Mrs. W. L. Sykes, Buffalo, N. Y., are guests at the old home, corner Fourth and Maple streets. Mrs. Egbert will remain here two or three weeks.

Miss Nellie Tabridy, who makes her home with Mr. and Mrs. Michael Murphy of Commercial Hotel, goes to her home at Snow Shoe on Saturday to visit relatives during the Holidays.

Dr. Albra W. Baker, of Williamsport, came up on Tuesday's Flyer to visit Masonic lodge and take in the banquet. The Dr.'s many friends were pleased to meet him.

John E. Smith, of Sterling Run, was a PRESS caller yesterday and promptly renewed his PRESS, and an additional copy to a relative, for another year, as is his custom promptly every year, almost to the day.

Mrs. M. J. Byrnes, nee Minnie Creaton, and daughter, of Lancaster, Pa., are visiting the former's mother, Mrs. Michael Creaton, in town. Accompanied by Mrs. Richard Moore they visited the PRESS on Saturday and the old PRESS continues to visit their home.

J. Harvey Welsh, one of Emporium's industrious carpenters and builders, was a PRESS visitor last evening and pushed his paper ahead. "Harve" is all right and is getting there with both feet.

We wondered what made our old friend P. J. Flynn make himself scarce lately, but it is all plain now. He has just lately returned from a wedding tour to Philadelphia, Washington and other points. The lady of his heart was formerly Miss Bettie Lippman. The PRESS wishes Mr. and Mrs. Flynn all kinds of good luck.

At a meeting of Emporium Council, No. 990, K. of C., of Emporium, on Monday evening, Dec. 4th, 1905, the following preamble and Resolutions were unanimously adopted:
Resolved, That the members of Emporium Council, No. 990, K. of C., do hereby record our high appreciation of our late Brother John Butler, whose life Divine Providence has seen fit to take away by a deplorable accident. While we bow in humble submission, we desire to attest our high appreciation of the worth, character of our deceased Brother, whose life was one of integrity and honor, his faithful attendance upon the duties of our Council, his family and Church were of a character that make it fitting that we place on record our sense of his loss.
Resolved, That we extend to the family of our deceased brother our profound sympathy in his sad bereavement.
Resolved, That these Resolutions be spread upon our minutes and an attested copy sent to the family of deceased and published in the local papers.

Give Your Stomach Rest.
Nothing will cure indigestion that doesn't digest the food, itself, and give the stomach rest. You can't expect that a weak stomach will regain its strength and get well when it is compelled to do the full work that a sound stomach should do. You wouldn't expect a sick horse to get well when it is compelled to do a full day's work every day of the week. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is a perfect digester and digests the food regardless of the condition of your stomach. Relieves Indigestion, Belching, Sour Stomach, and all stomach disorders.—Sold by R. C. Dodson.
