Date Set for "Bluebeard" Hoch's Execution

VERDICT AFFIRMED

Illinois Supreme Court Stands by Lower Court-Last Hope Gone Unless Governor Interferes.

Chicago, Dec. 16.—The supreme court of the state yesterday affirmed the verdict of the lower court, which condemned Johann Hoch to death for the murder of his wife, Mrs. Marie Welcker Hoch, and the date of his execution has been set for February

The first news of the action of the court was received here by a tele-phone message from Assistant State's Attorney Barnett, who is in Spring-field. He communicated the informa-tion to State's Attorney Healy. A mesalon to State s Attorney Healy. A mes-senger was sent to Hoch with the news and found him in the visitors' cage, talking with the last of his many wives, Mrs. Fischer Hoch, the sister of the woman for whose murder he was sentenced to death. When he re-ceived the news Hoch heareme meature ceived to death. When he re-ceived the news Hoch became greatly excited, and pressing his face against the wire netting he shouted: "You are a liar, a liar. It is not true. I do not helione it ".

a har, a har. It is not true. I do not believe it." He quickly became more composed and asked for a verification of the re-port. When the messenger came back a second time Hoch took it very quietly. He did not betray the slight-est emotion, and said in his ordinary tone: "I have nothing to say; nothing at all. If it must come, then it must. I have nothing more to say." The specific charge against Hoch, and for which he was convicted, was the killing of his wife, Mrs. Marie Welcker Hoch, by the administration of arsenic. He fled from the city and was arrested in New York and brought back to Chicago. He was placed on trial April 19 and convicted May 20. Sentence of death was passed on him Sentence of death was passed on him on July 3, the original date of June 23 being set for his execution. Gov. Deneen granted him a reprieve until July 28 and a second reprieve until August 25. Before the arrival of this day, however, the supreme court granted him a supersedeas to allow of the consideration of his case. The ac-tion of the court yesterday destroys his last hope unless Gov. Deneen in-toreme. terferes.

Dvina fort, commanding Riga har-bor, is in their possession and the gov-ernor and other Russian officials are prisoners. The messengers add that the provisional government exercises authority throughout Livonia and part of Courland. The new government has declared the separation of the Lithonian people from the Russian empire. They have chosen new local officials and have decreed the closing of the spirit shops and breweries and the annullment of contracts between the peasants and the land owners. the peasants and the land owners. There is a general uprising of the na-tive peasants, who are traveling in armed bodies, attacking the estates and driving off or killing their owners. The position of the peasants in these provinces has been the most de-plorable of any in the entire empire. Conditions almost approaching those of the feudal system have been con-tinued down to the present time. They practically have kept the peasants in practically have kept the peasants in a state of vassalage, placing them at the mercy of the German barons. The Russian officials are being expelled from the provinces and many of them have been killed in the streets of the towns. There is a reign of terror at Riga.

SOME IMPORTANT CHANGES.

Perkins Resigns as First Vice President of New York Life-Peabody Elected President of Mutual Life.

New York, Dec. 14.-Two incidents affecting the life insurance situation in New York yesterday overshadowed the legislative committee investiga-tion. While the committee was intion. While the committee was in-quiring into the conduct of the Pru-dential Life Insurance Co., and the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co., George W. Perkins resigned as first vice president and chairman of the finance committee of the New York Life Insurance Co. He was succeeded by Vice President Alexander E. Orr, president of the New York City Rapid Transit commission, and as chairman Transit commission, and as chairman of the finance committee by John Claf lin, head of the H. B. Claffin Co.

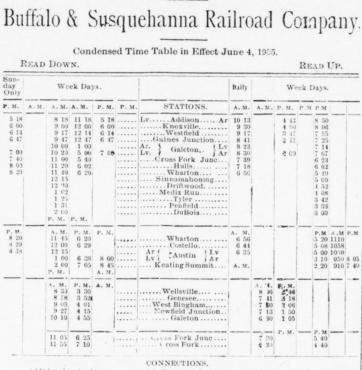

Another important move in the situ-ation was the election by the trustees of the Mutual Life Insurance Co. yes terday of Charles A. Peabody to suc-ceed Richard A. McCurdy as president of that company at $50,000 a year. Mr. McCurdy's salary was $150,000. Mr. Peabody is a lawyer, the American representative of William Waldorf Astor and a director in several banks and other corporations, of which one is the Illing's Contral Pallword Co Ma. is the Illinois Central Railroad Co. Mr. Peabody also was nominated as trus-tee of the Mutual Life Insurance Co., to succeed Justice Rufus W. Peck-ham, and Emory McClintock was nominated to succeed Elihu Root.

COURT DECIDES AGAINST HEARST.

Cannot Order Ballot Boxes Opened Nor Recount of Ballots.

Albany, N. Y., Dec. 14.-The court of appeals, in a decision handed down court of appeals, in a decision handed down yesterday in the New York ballot box case, sustains the contention of coun-sel for Mayor George B. McClellan, and denies that of attorneys for Wil-liam Randolph Hearst and his col-leagues on the Municipal Ownership league ticket. The court holds, as was argued by ex-Chief Justice Parker and his associates, that the courts have no power under the election law to order by mandamus the opening of the bal-lot boxes and a recount and recanvass of the ballots. of the ballots.

The case relates directly to the vote for mayor, comptroller and president of the board of aldermen cast in the Second election district of New York county at the election of November 7 last, but is of the utmost importance in Mr. Hearst's contest for the mayor-alty of New York City, and is fundamontal in its offect u system of this state under the present election law. The decision was ren. dered by a divided court, five to two
