State Library THE CAMERON COUNTY PRESS.

ESTABLISHED BY C. B. GOULD, MARCH, 1866.

"Liberty and Union, One and Inseparable."-WEBSTER.

TERMS: $2.00-$1.50 IN ADVANCE.

EMPORIUM, PA., THURSDAY, JANUARY 4, 1906.

D. S. HELMER & CO.

VOL. 40.

Real Estate and Loans,

PORT ALLEAGNY, PA.

DEATH'S DOINGS. CYRUS H. SAGE.

Johnsonburg Press It is with a feeling of sadness that the Press is called upon to chronicle the death of Cyrus H. Sage, which oc curred at his home on Clarion Heights Wednesday night about 10:45, after an illness with typhoid fever that extended over a period of the last six weeks His death was wholly unexpected, and on the day of his death he was suffic-iently recovered from the fever that he was able to sit up around the house with his cloths on-in fact in a couple of days more would have been able to leave the house in which he had been confined for such a long siege. He stated to his family that he was feeling almost like himself again, and it was with much pleasure that he anticipated a return to his daily business life. However during that afternoon a change was noticed that caused no small amount of alarm, and the attending physician Dr. J. W. Warnick, was called, but despite the best of medical care and treatment death resulted from a sudden failure of the heart functions.

Cyrus H. Sage was born in Emporium on Dec. 16th, 1861, and at the time of his unexpected death was aged 44 years and one day. He was married about thirteen years ago to Miss Rose Burlingame, of Sizerville near Emporium who survives together with four children, Susan, Sidney, Frederick and Elizabeth. Eight years ago he removed to this place from Emporium to assist his only brother, Fred Sage who came to this place a couple of years previous to that time and started the Johnsonburg machine shop. The business grew and flourished, and in a course of a few years, a nice establishment and a growing trade was the result, in which the people of Johnsonburg took pride as an all home industry. It is needless to state here that in the loss of Mr. Sage the town loses one of its best citizens, a man whose time and effort was spent towards the improvement of the town in many ways, a man whose word and business integrity was never doubted.

Funeral services will be held at his late home Saturday morning at 9 o'clock, conducted by the Rev. S. R. MacEwen, rector of St. Martin's Episcopal church, and remains will be taken to Emporium the place of his birth for burial. Services will be held at the Presbyterian church in Emporium at one o'clock, conducted by the Rev. S. R. MacEwen assisted by the Revs. McCaslin and Robertson. The pall bearers will be E. O. Aldrich, Henry Hasbrouck, H. P. Howe, W. E. Zierden, Gus Florth, R. Stutz, W. S. Gleasan and Wm. Martin.

has made her home with her children. The is survived by one brother, Mr. George Chapman of Sterling Run, who is 90 years of age, five children, twen-ty-nine grand children and five great grand children. The remains were taken on Erie Mail Tuesday morning from Sinnamahoning to Huntley, the funeral being held from the Huntley Church, interment in the family lot in Huntley cemetery. Funeral director Wykoff of Sinnama-mahoning had charge. The sermon was delivered by the Rev. Mr. Noble of Sinnamahoning. Mrs. Nelson was one of the sturdy, faithful joineer women of this section of the county who has helped to build dren, who became good and honorable give a splendid example. She was loved by all who knew her and her loss will be greatly felt. The following relatives and friends were present at-the funeral: H. B. Nelson, son, Du Bois, Mrs. Fidella Lightner, daughter, John Lightner, Frank Lightner, Ella informer, Ophelia Lightner, Ellsworth Fry, Clyde Krebs, Chas. Krebs, of Sinnamahoning, Wm. Wylie, hrother-niadw, Bertha Wylie niece, Mrs. A. F. Nelson, daughter-in-law, Wm. Nelson, nephew, Wayne Nelson, nephew, of Huntley. Friends-W. R. Smith, B. J. Collins and family, David Logne, and Wm. Logue and family, David

POLLOCK.

POLLOCK. Mrs. M. A. Rockwell received the sad intelligence Wednesday, Dec. 27, of the death of her cousin Mr. Frank Pollock aged 44 years, which occurred at Punxsutawney that morning, of cerebral hemorrhage. Mr. Pollock re-sided at this place several years ago and went from here to Ridgway where he engaged in the Bakery business, after which he moved to Punxsutaw-ney. Having no near relatives Mrs. Rockwell had his remains brought to this place and the funeral was held from the Presbyterlan church last Saturday morning, interment being made in Newton cemetery.

MASON.

Mrs. Elizabeth Mason, of Sterling Run, widow of John Mason died at the home of her daughter Mrs. Julia Straw-bridge Wednesday morning, at five o'clock. She is survived by two sofs and three daughters.

*** JOHNSON.

Dorothy, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Johnson, died Wednesday, Dec. 27, from an illness dating from its birth. Brief funeral services were conducted by Rev. Metzler last Friday.

Council Proceedings.

Regular meeting Borough Council, Emporium, Jan. 2nd, 1906. Present: Catlin, Butler, Friendle, Green, Cramer, LaBar. Absent: Norris, Marshall, Julian. Minutes of last meeting read and ap-proved.

Minutes of last meeting read and ap-proved. Moved by Butler, seconded by Green, that Messrs. Johnson & McNarney be requested to draft a resolution calling for a vote of the people on the question of increasing the Borough debt for the purpose of completing the sewer system. Carried, On motiod by Cramer seconded by Butler, the following bills were order-ed vaid. Emporium Water Co., to Jan. 1906... W. F. Lloyd for Freight

Balcom & Lloyd Invoice
Mary Winfield, Invoice
Murry & Coppersmith. Invoice
St. Marys Gas Co., for December
Westing E. & M. Co., Invoice
Atlantic Refining Co., Invoice
Robertson El Co., Invoice
F. Vernon Heilman, Invoice
Frank Muady, Invoice	•••

Moved by LaBar, seconded by But-ler, that secretary be instructed to order six Westinghouse Electric lamps. arried.

"What Happened to Jones." Manager Butler is indeed fortunate in having secured that merriest of farce comedies, "What Happened to Jones," headed by the eminent comedian, Richard Milton, and a celebrated cast for his theatre next Wednesday even-ing Dec 10 for his theatre next Wednesday even-ing, Dec. 10. This play has been presented and seen by more people than any other production in the past twenty years and is destined to remain at the head of the procession for at least as many years more. It is aptly called "the masterpiece of farce comedy," there isn't a moment when the audience is not fairly bubbling over with merri-ment, laugh follows laugh, complica-tion follows complication in rapid suc-cession.

The story of the play tells of a Mr The story of the play tells of a Mr Ebenezer Gondly, a profeessor of anatomy who is persuaded to attend a prize fight by his prospective son-in-law in order to develop his knowledge of the "actual working of the human system" The place is raided and the old system " The place is raided and the old gentleman in his escape from the police, slides down a fire escape, tears his cothes, and blackens his eyes. At the fight is a gay young sporty drum-mer of hymn books and as a side line carries samples of playing cards. To use his own words, "If the town is dead, hymn books; if it's alive, play-ing cards. I catch them coming and going."

going." Mr. Richard Milton who appears in Mr. Richard Milton who appears in the title role has played the part over five hundred times and is identified in it in every city of prominence through-out the United States and Canada. He is to appear in it for only a short time this season as he goes to London to create the leading role in a new farce. Besides Mr. Milton will be seen such well known artists as Edward Fawcett, DeWitt C. Mott, Harry Dorn-ton, W. J. Kane, Juliette Atkinson, Marie Rawson, Emma Gallagher, Bartha Livingston, Edith M. Cooke and Eva Marley. It would be indeed difficult to muster together an aggregation equal to this one, in which each and every member is suited to his or her part perfectly. Emporium Opera House, Wednesday evening, Dec. 10.

Wedding Bells.

Wedding Bells. A very pretty wedding took place on Christmas morning at St. Mark's church in which the contracting part-ies were Mr. Singleton Mortimer La pold and Miss Rosa Bair, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Bair, of Fifth street. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Downey. Miss Bair was born and raised in Emporium and is an estimable young lady and enjoys the respect of all. Mr. Lupold has resided here the past two years and is well spoken of by his ac-quaintances. After the ceremony din-ner was served at the bride's home to relatives and a few intimate friends after which they all enjoyed a straw ride to the Junction, and at that place gave the couple a warm reception until the 12:25 train east, when they depart-ed for Philadelpiha, the home of the groom to spend their honeymoon, after which they will reside at Olean. The PRESS extends congratulations and best wishes

Married at Buffalo.

st wishes

Married at Buffalo. Miss Dora P. Longan, of Milton, Pa., was united in marriage to Mr. Harry E. Taylor, formerly of Empori um, but now residing at Buffalo, N. Y., Rev. B. L. Farrell, of Christ Church, Dec. 21, 1965. The wedding ceremony was performed at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. sad Mrs. Val Ledbetter, No. 702 Swan street. Miss Eva Root was bridesmaid and Mr. Geo. Taylor, brother of the groom, was best man

New Commissioners Meet.

New Commissioners Meet. The new board of County Commis-sioners met on Monday and elected Wm. Thomas as their clerk and Geo. Barker janitor, the vote in both cases being unanimous. Mr. Thomas will make an efficient clerk, being ac-quainted with all county affairs. Mr. Barker has held the position of janitor for several terms and is the victures. for several terms and is the right man in the right place.

After battling against fate for nine years, Sheriff Harry Hemphill died suddenly Christmas evening about 11:30. Starting from the jail residence, to conduct his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Bing Hemphill to her residence, on West Fifth street, he felt quite well and did not complain until he reached her home when he complained of a smothering sensation and started for the gate to return to the jail. Just as he reached the sidewalk he fell upon his face in an unconscious condition-Neighbors being summoned he was taken into his son's home and expired within ten minutes. Harry Hemphill came to Emporium eighteen years ago and although laboring under great dis advantages he soon gained a foot hold and enjoyed the confidence and respect of our people to such a degree that he was elected reneatedly to the offices of and enjoyed the confidence and respect of our people to such a degree that he was elected repeatedly to the offices of constable and assessor. His faithful and punctual services made him more friends and when he aspired to the of-flee of Sheriff, in 1902, he was elected by a large majority. As Sheriff he left a record equal to that of any per-son ever elected to that important of-flee and only lacked one week, when stricken down, of serving the full three year term. Harry Hemphil came from Clearfield county, Pa., and was a member of a loyal Republican family. He was 54 years of age last July. The writer knew him possibly more inti-mately than any other person in Cam-eron county and his loyal support in many contests will long be remember-ed.

many contests will long be remember-ed. Deceased leaves four sons, and four brothers and one sitter to mourn his death. His sons are Xalph, Bing, Orvis and Kerr, all of whom feel their loss very keenly—his wife having died a little over a year ago. Funeral services were conducted at the residence of his son Bing Hemphill last Thursday morning, Rev. Robt. McCaslin and Rev. O. S. Metzler con ducting the services, the county offi-cials attending in a body and serving as casket bearers. The remains were taken to Clearfield for interment. Several beautiful floral offerings from the family and county officials and friends were shipped to Clearfield.

Highly Praised Menu.

Highly Praised Menu. The popularity of The New Warner, under the proprietorship of Mine Host Wheeler, continues to spread along all roads leading to Emporium from the Delaware to the lakes. In a large measure the popularity is due to the elaborate dinners daily served with the choicest in the land. The public showed their appreciation on Christ-mas, when the following was present-ed:

Death of Sheriff Harry Hemphill. Sudden Death of the Reverend Robert McCaslin.

A great sorrow has suddenly fallen upon Emporium, and especially upon the entire Presbyterian congregation. Ere the New Year bells had rung, ringing out the old, ringing in the new, the death knell had rung for one of Emporium's greatly beloved and greatly honored pastors. At 10:45 o'clock Sabbath night, as the old year was dying, the Reverend Robert Mc. Caslin passed from the mortal to the immortal and blessed life. He had rformed with wonted strength and bility his usual Sabbath labors. His e vening service was especially impres-sive and remarkable. That closing and so an message of the day and of the year and, as it has proved, of his long and fruitful ministry, from the lips of the holy man and faithful pastor, will never be forgotten.

Friends and intimate members of the congregation were present with him during the afternoon and evening, and while he was speaking it was noticed that he appeared to be laboring under a feeling of distress. At the conclusion of the service he turned to those near him and spoke of his suffering, He was conducted to his home, and loving, tender hands ministered to him as his suffering increased Dr. Smith his physician, was called when it was evident that his case was alarming. He was suffering from acute indigestion which developed neuralgia of the heart During a brief time he suffered intense pain. His breathing became labored and painful, and very soon death brought relief from suffering, and allayed the pain of earth's fever and toil forever. Conscious that the end was near, in the midst of weeping, sorrowing, ministering friends, his daughter Grace, Miss Jettie Wiley and others, bidding all his last effectionate farewell, he commended his spirit to the everlasting keeping of his covenant God and gracious Saviour, and fell peacefully asleep in Jesus.

His death came so suddenly, and has fallen upon his devoted family and congregation, oh, how sorely! In the early morning of the bright new year, the sorrowful news was spread that shocked every heart. It was hard to shocked every heart. It was hard to realize that he who yesterday stood in all the vigor and majesty of his superb manhood is gone forever. Emporium mourns and weeps as it has rarely been called to do before. A most affection-ate and devoted hushand and father, a faithful, devoted and laborious pastor, a true friend, a Christian of large heart and noble soul, one who sympathized deeply with all in sorrow and distress; Emporium may well mourn over her great bereavement and loss. Mrs Mc-Caslin was iaid upon a bed of suffering, and this great affliction falls upon her in a very dark hour. The sympathy of all h-arts goes out to her and the sorely bereaved family, in whose be-half we fervently pray that they may be divinely supported and comforted, that the God of all grace and of all consola-tion may be with them in their over-whelming grief. The congregation, whelming grief. The congregation, thus suddenly and sorrowfully bereft of their pastor so greatly beloved, have the deepest and tenderest sympathy of all the churches and their pastors, who feel that this heavy stroke has fallen upon them all.

NO 46.

1july1905

THE WEATHER SUNDAY, Fair PRIDAY, St ASSETS First National Bank, EMPORIUM, PA. At the cle ess January 3d. 1906. $748,181,54. There is more luck in a little bank book of these Bank, with your name on it, than in a shop-lost of dream books

Man About Town.

A young lady up at the Summit, Wore an up-to-date new fangled bonnet, She got off the car, Hadn't gone very far, When she slipped and they heard her say dummet.

Her sister from Port Allegany Resembled the Goddess Diana, When crossing the street, Lost the use of her feet,

And the language she used was profane'a . A lovely young girl in Ridgway, With her lover went riding one day, They talked such nons

That the horse took offense, And kicked them both out of the shay. A beautiful girl in St. Marys, Ate a pie made from newly canned cherries. She swallowed the stones, They were harder than bones, And now she wears heavenly Tiara's.

A jolly old man in Renov A joiny old man in Renovo, Never would out in the snow go, One day he died, Went above to reside, But they told him that he must below go.

Eut they fold him that he must below go. There was a young man in Lock Haven, He was frugat and steady and savin', Hairs grew on his chin, He drove them back in. And never spent money for shavin'. The PRESS sanctum Christmas dayy looked like a department store. These editor has materially increased his-revenues by selling the duplicates. May his many friends always keep-him in loving remembrance. Watch the assets of the First National' Bank, published in the window daily.

Main in loving remembrance. Watch the assets of the First National' Bank, published in the window daily-Notice how they rise the day after the PRESS makes a deposit. There is an old saying that "Hell is paved with good resolutions." Lets get hold of one of those paving stones-and hold on to it. Prof. Ericsson says some people have-a great idea of making presents. There are places in town where Beetshoven Symphonies were given and they had no piano in the house. Brother Eick says the twin girls cam-talk but he is the only one that cam-understand them. Brother Pyle wore a summer necktieand out not the the only one that can brother Pyle wore a summer necktie. Christmas and has since been suffering; with a somewhat irritated throat. Brother Blinzler says an up to date shave or wiskers refurded. Pittsburg Phil. is slated to deliver as lecture some time this month before-the window sill club. His subject: The Land of the Muscovite or the Cos-sac, as he is, is very well spoken of by the press of the country. He has been a great traveler, camped in the shadow of the Pyramids and one time rode in an empty box car from Driftwood to-Dauguschonda. The editor of the PRESS has been one

The editor of the PRESS has been on the dry dock the passed week. Ban-quets and church suppers, where year mingle with cooking school cake and riz-biscuits are not condusive to longe-ivity. ivity.

The old is rung out, The new is rung in, The leaf is turned over And now lets begin.

And now lets begin. The man About Town is minus the narative of a night robe, caused by-standing too close to a gas stove early in the morning. The neighbors could not tell by the odor of the cooking meat whether it was veal or lamb. Mose Minard is the only man living in Cameron county that knows the exact spot where the bear slept in the buckwheat. The knowledge may not be of any use to Mose but it will be valuable to his grand children. Uncle Peter Beattie does not believe in using profane language. Savs if br in doing provide language. Says if here is not one of the elect and does not go to heaven, he hopes they will give him a place where he will not hear thus name of the Lord blasphemed. Effe says a Plymoth Rock rooster, owned for says a Plymoth Rock rooster, owned fyrone of his neighbors is troubled "AND insomnia. Every morning about Softyro'clock he begins to crow to lest peopleau know he can't sleep and and darn'd want any one else to. He says in a Philadelphia hospital they have set a man's neck, and soon, in order to East a man they will have to take him 300 miles from any physician and the filles likes to see a baldheaded m; an, thin the it shows a polished intelect the BIB are says Esau was hairy and didart amount to much, while Elijah, Caesar Aristotle and the Grand Duke Nicholas who is going to marry Princess Alles thin. the amount to much, while Enjan, chestry, Aristotle and the Grand Duke Nicholas. Who is going to marry Princess Alice-Roosevelt is bald. Says some peoples dispute the Bible; he knew a ysy-son who saw Ananias and Sapphiza carried into a corner drug store about they had been struck dead for lying. He says we often hear of a man being between the devil and the deep sea and thinks if a man is too old to fight fare and don't know how to swim, and forned himself in that position he would be up against a pretty hard proposition-he say in riding in the cars last smo-he say in riding in the cars last smo-he saw in the end of the car a sign, "ladies saloon," and ladies were goinger in and out quite frequently. Gne other fellow sitting back of him remarked "ladies saloon," and ladies were goiner: in and out quite frequently. Greeofaw fellow sitting back of him remarked. "something has got to be done to stop-the liquor traffic in the cars. Soyse many of his old friends that he knew in the long ago are gone, some he knews for a quarter and some for a five dela-lar bill, and if he had it now der would give it to the suffering Jews.

The death of our former townsman was a great shock to his many Emporium friends. The Sage family, always respected was for so many years close_ ly identified with the best interests of our country and his death is deeply deplored. Since leaving Cameron deplored. Since teaving charges in county to reside at Johnsonburg, where he built up a large and flourishing manufacturing plant, employing thirty or more men, he had by hard knocks and industry arrived at a point where the fruits of his active life had commenced to mature. menced to mature. The funeral of deceased, which was held at Emporium on Saturday, Dec. 23, was largely attended by our citi-

The following relatives accompanied the bereaved widow and children, with the remains to Emporium: Fred Sage (brother) and wife, E. B. Sage, (cousin) Bradford; Delos Burlingame, H. D. Burlingame and wife, Altoona, Pa.; B N. Burlingame, Chicago-

NELSON.

Mrs. William Nelson, aged 88 vears, three months and 25 days, of Sinna-mahoning, died at her home at three p. m. Sunday, Dec. 31st. About seven weeks ago Mrs. Nelson fell from a step weeks ago Mrs. Nelson fell from a step while coming from a visit to one of her grand children, and the shock along with her old ago caused her death. Mrs. Elizabeth Nelson's maid-en name was Chapman. She was born at Dunstown, Pa., near Lock Haven, Sept 6th. 1817 and came to Sterling Run with her parents in 1826, was mar-ried Sept. 1860 to Wm Nelson of Hunt-ley. With the exception of one or two years spent in Emporium the whole of her married life was spen at Huntley until shortly before her husband's death in Dec. 1896, since that time she

On motion by LaBar, seconded by Butler, the council then adjourned te meet Monday, Jan. 8th, at 7:30 p. m. C. J. GOODNOUGH, Sec' v.

Christmas Observance.

The Sunday School of the First Methodist Episcopal Church celebrat-ed the birth of the Saviour on Christmas Eve, with a program of singular beauty and impressiveness in which the Primary, Junior and Intermediate grades sustained prominent parts. The church was crowded. Three tastefully decorated trees graced the chancel and generous distributions of candy and various suitable mementoes of the season were distributed. The interest of the operation was on

The interest of the occasion was en hanced by the assistance of the church organ and choir and an augmented orchestra.

Married.

Miss Rosa Lord and Mr. J. H. Yocum. of Cameron, were married by Justice M. M. Larrabee on Friday evening, Dec. 22nd at Mr. Larrabee's office in Emporium. This popular young couple have the best wishes of every one for a long life of happiness and prosperity.

Mr. Morton O. Epley of Sinnama-honing and Miss Lucetta Murray, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Murry of this place were united in marriage Dec. 25, by M. M. Larrabee, J. P. The young couple have taken up their abode at Sinnamahoning. May their life be a prosperous and happy one

Farm for Sale. A good farm for sale or rent; ad-

44-tf.

dre

WM. HACKENCERG Emporium, Pa.

Eye Specialist.

Eye Specialist. Prof. W. H. Budine, the well known Eye Specialist, of Binghamton, N. Y., will be at R. H. Hirsch's jewelry store, Emporium, Pa., January 6th If you can't see well or have headache don't fail to call and see Prof. Budine, as he gurantees to cure all Budine, as he guarantees to cure all such cases. Lenses ground and fitted in old frames. Eyes tested and ex-amined free. All work guaranteed.

Wreck at Wetham.

On Saturday morning the Buffald flyer ran into a land slide about ten miles east of Renovo and James Ever-hart the fireman was so severely injur-ed that he died within a few hours. Several members of the crew and some of the passengers received slight in-juries. All trains were delayed about ten hours.

Services in Emmanuel Parish House.

The services of Emmanuel Church next Sunday, as well as on Friday evening, will be held in the Parish house. This arrangement is made necessary by the work of installing the new pipe organ, now in progress

C. B. Howard & Co., have received from the Pacific Coast what is perhaps the finest lot of RED CEDAR shingles that ever came to Cameron county.

FOR RENT-House for rent with nodern improvements, apply to 46tf. MRS. J. H. BUTLER. ficer

SALAD Chicken Salad, Mayonnaise

Chicken Salad, Mayonnaise VEGETABLES Mashed Potatoes Escalloped Vomatoes Segar Corn Fried Parsnips PASTRY English Plum Pudding, Krandy Sance Green Apple Pie Home Made Mince Pie Pumpkin Pie Kaple Mousse Fruit Cake Angel Food Kisses Pruit Layer Raisns Mixed Nuts Swiss and Cream Cheese White Bread Graham Bread Raisin Bread Tea Milk Butter Milk Coffee, Noir Cocco, Whipped Cream

Cocoa, Whipped Cream Mr. Wheeler is a modest and unas-suming gentlemen therefore is not looking for bouquets, but it is a recog-nized fact, so declared by the travel-ling public, that few hotels in this section of the state can come up to the New Warner, the popular Family New Hotel.

L. O. T. M. Notice.

L. O. T. M. Notice, All Ladies of the Maccabees are re-quested to be present at regular re-view Jan 9th to complete arrangments for installation of officers. Jan. 10th. Nellie E. Launsbary Great Record Keeper will be present as installing of-ficer.

HELENA M. BUTLER, R. K.

eksborate dinners daily served with the choicest in the land. The public showed their appreciation on Christ-ed: MENU. RELISTES Mustard Pickies Olives Sweet Pickles Mustard Pickies Olives Sweet Pickles Green Lettuce, Hard Boiled Eggs Olives Grean Lettuce, Hard Boiled Eggs Olives Consomme, Clear in Cups, Salted Wafers Crearo of Chicken, Saked Wafers Fresh Cod Pish, Egg Sauce MEATS Boiled Leg Mutton, French Caper Sauce Prime Roast Beef, Au jus Young Turkey, Sage dressing, Crahberry Sauce Sugared Apples, Wane Sauce Saud Dressing Sauce Saud Dressing Chicken Saud, Mayonnaise was called to Emporium in September 1983. This his last charge, extended over a period of twelve years, has been a very happy and successful one. A beautiful new church was erected in the heart of the tuwn, and was dedicat-ed in September. 1904, which will strad

the heart of the tuwn, and was dedicat-ed in September, 1904, which will stand as a memorial of his untring labors. "Well done, good and faithful servant, enter thou into the joy of thy Lord." "The funeral services will be held this afternoon. Following a private ser-vice at the house, the public service will be held in the church at 2:00 p. m. The Rev. Dr. Cook of Renovo, clerk of Northumberland Presbytery, will offi-ciate assisted by the Rev. J. L. Robert-son, pastor of the Presbyterian church. son, pastor of the Presbyterian church, Clarendon, and by the local pastors. Members of the Session and Board of Trustees, will serve as pall-bearers. The remains will be taken to Cleve-land, Ohio, for interment.

One sweet solemn thought, Comes to us o'er and o'er, On "dead head" railroad passes We will ride no more, The ads. the railroad gets, For them they'l have to pay, And we will do our riding In a one horse shay.

GASSAWAY