A Wonderful Saving.
The largest Methodist Church in Georgia, used 32 gallons of L. & M., mixed with 24 gallons of oil, thus making paint cost about $1.20 per gallon. They calculated to use 100 gallons of other paint. Saved about $80.00 and also got a big donation of L. & M. Dealers gladly sell L. & M., because their customers call for it and say they used it 12, 14 and even 30 years ago.

Don't pay $1.50 a gallon for linseed oil, which you do in ready-for use paints. Buy oil fresh from the barrel at 60 cents per gallon, and mix it with L. & M. Paint.

It makes paint cost about $1.20 per gallon. Sold by Harry S. Lloyd.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

NICKERSON.

The remains of J. W. Nickerson whose death from cancer occurred Wednesday, Jan. 3, at his home in Wharton were brought to the home of his son Thomas in this place on Thursday, where brief funeral services were conducted by Rev. O. S. Metzler, prior to their removal to Jersey Shore for interment. Mr. Nickerson had an extensive acquaintance in this section having lived at Cameron for a number of years. He was a highly respected citizen, was a member of D. W. Taggart Post 241, G. A. R., at Driftwood. He was a long time sufferer, but bore his affliction patiently and was prepared for death. He is survived by a father, William, of Wharton; four sons, Thos., William, James and Arthur, and one daughter, Mrs. H. M. Smith, of Renovo. Mr. Nickerson was nearly sixty years of age.

MASON.

Mrs. John Mason, of Sterling Run, died at the home of her daughter Mrs. James Strawbridge, at about five o'clock Wednesday morning, Jan. 3. Mr. Strawbridge, who is night watchman for the P. R. R., came home from his work about 5:30 a. m., and as usual went to fix the fires. Mrs. Mason's room was close to the room the stove was in and Mr. Strawbridge not hearing the regular breathing of Mrs. Mason stepped into her room and on examination found that she had expired. Mrs. Strawbridge had waited on her at 4:30 a. m., and she appeared to be in a normal condition at that time and was still warm when Mr. Strawbridge found her. Mrs. Mason was injured about two months ago by falling from the back porch and never recovered from the shock although her children did all in their power to make her comfortable and ease her suffering. She is survived by two sons and three daughters, who are Mr. M. Mason, of Driftwood; and Mr. Gray Mason, now in West Virginia; Mrs. Julia Strawbridge, of Sterling Run; Mrs. Eugene Devling, of Sterling Run; and Mrs. Amanda Lewis, of Emporium.

Mrs. Mason was an old and respected resident of Sterling Run, and had many friends throughout the community, who express their sincere sympathy for the family in their hour of trouble. Funeral Director LaBar had charge of the funeral and Rev. O. S. Metzler, of Emporium, delivered the funeral sermon.

BRADBURY.

After long illness, Mrs. Jabez Bradbury died Tuesday, January 2nd at her late home in Driftwood at the mature age of seventy-four years. Surviving her are a husband and four children all of whom were at the funeral. She was a devoted member of the Methodist Episcopal church for many years and was a most estimable woman, enjoying in a marked degree the esteem of her neighbors. Owing to the illness of her pastor the Rev. Mr. Noble, funeral services were conducted by Rev. O. S. Metzler, of town, last Thursday, at two o'clock in the Union church in Driftwood, there being a large attendance. Appropriate music was rendered by the choir of the church. Interment was made in Oak Hill cemetery.

HACKETT.

Edward Hackett, of Driftwood, died last Thursday at that place of typhoid fever, aged 22 years. He was a flagman on the work train, running between Emporium and Renovo. The young man was a favorite with his acquaintances and the announcement of his death was a severe shock to his many friends. The funeral was held on Saturday morning from the Catholic Church at Driftwood. A large delegation from Emporium Council K. of C. attended. The funeral was one of the largest ever held at that place.

SHAFFER.

When we mentioned in last week's PRESS the illness of Mrs. Chas. W. Shaffer and her daughter, little Miss Olive, aged seven, with diphtheria, we little thought we should be called upon to announce the death of the bright little lady. Her death was a great surprise to the friends of the family, it being generally supposed the child was improving. The death of this dear child is a terrible affliction to the family, Olive being their only child. The funeral, of necessity private, was held on Friday afternoon.

Will Emporium Mothers do the Same?
Before many weeks the usual complaint about overworking the girls in the schools will make itself heard. As the season of parties begins, the girls go out evenings and stay up late. They are tired the next morning, and find it difficult to recite their lessons properly. As a result they grow nervous, suffer from indigestion and other ills growing out of excitement and overwrought nerves, and then break down.

One sensible mother gets her girls through the year without any such trouble. She insists that they must refuse all invitations except for Friday night, and if they receive no Friday night invitations, she arranges a little entertainment for them at home. As her girls are popular, it has come about that in that town. Friday night has come to be known as party night for the young people, and one hears less than formerly of the hard work in the schools. Mothers who have daughters might do worse than to try this plan.—Youth's Companion.

Went to Olean by Mistake.

Miss Maud Sweeley, the well known professional nurse, returned home Thursday from Franklin where she had been engaged for several weeks. Miss Sweeley took several side trips, one of which was against her will and it is needless to say she did not enjoy it. At Emporium she boarded the wrong train, and instead of being whirled homeward, as she supposed, she was carried to Olean, N. Y. Next day she came back, and after spending a day with her sister at Wetham, got home safely yesterday.—Lock Haven Democrat.

Perfection can only be attained in the physical by allowing Nature to appropriate and not dissipate her own resources. Cathartics gripe, weaken—dissipate, while DeWitt's Little Early Risers simply expel all putrid matter and bile, thus allowing the liver to assume normal activity. Good for the complexion. Sold by R. C. Dodson. Ask for the 1906 Kodol Almanac and 200 year Calendar."

Soothing and Comforting.

The soothing and comforting effects of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, when applied to Piles, sores, cuts, boils, etc., subdues pain almost instantly. This Salve draws out the inflammation, reduces swelling and acts as a rubefacient, thus circulating the blood through the diseased parts, permitting or aiding Nature to permanently remove the trouble entirely. Sold by R. C. Dodson. Ask for the 1906 Kodol Almanac and 200 year Calendar."

Spoiled Her Beauty.

Harriet Howard, of 209 W. 34th st. New York at one time had her beauty spoiled with skin trouble. She writes: "I had Salt Rheum or Eczema for years, but nothing would cure it, until I used Bucklen's Arnica Salve." A quick and sure healer for cuts, burns and sores. 25c at L. Taggart's drug store.

Many men think they are virtuous because they are verbose.

A Grim Tragedy

Is daily enacted in thousands of homes, as Death claims, in each one, another victim of Consumption or Pneumonia. But when Coughs and Colds are properly treated the tragedy is averted. F. G. Huntley, of Oakland, Ind., writes: "My wife had the consumption, and three doctors gave her up. Finally she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which cured her, and to-day she is well and strong." It kills the germs of all diseases. One dose relieves. Guaranteed at 50c and $1.00 by L. Taggart druggist. Trial bottles free.
