LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

PERSONAL GOSSIP.

Contributions invited. That which you would like to see in this department, let us know by postal card or letter, personally.

C. S. Larrabee sold the pony to A. J.
Turley.

Mr. L. C. Voshage, of Ashland Pa., visited in Emporium this morning.

Elmer Kaye and wife have rented the J. H. Butler residence on West Fifth street.

Mrs. Jos. Kaye returned on Sunday evening from visiting friends at Westboro, Wis.

Rev. J. M. Robertson went to Meadville on Monday to attend a church convention.

Mrs. McCloskey, of Pittsburg, formerly a resident of Emporium, was a Press caller on Monday.

George Barker and family have been entertaining the former's brother, from Williamsport this week.

Mrs. Edward Mastan, of St. Marys, was the guest of Mrs. James Logan of this place one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Harris returned last evening, from an extended visit to New York City and other points of interest.

Messrs. Henry Auchu and W. H.
Howard went to West Va., on Monday to look over the recent purchase made by C. B. Howard Company.

Miss Mabuell Bailey, of Niteong, N.
J., is visiting her sister, Miss Bailey, at the residence of Mr. A. P. Van Gelder, on Sixth street.

Alfred Nelson, early this morning found a homeless boy at his residence and took in the lad. He is a dandy, just the same.

Yesterday morning one of the pupils in primary department of our public schools asked a teacher, "is it necessary that a fireman shall get drunk in order to put out a fire?"

Mr. and Mrs. James Logan were given a surprise party one evening last week. A host of their friends gathered at their home and stayed till a late hour. All returned home reporting a very good time.

Jas. H. Havens and his partner, Mr.
Dean visited in Emporium on Saturday, examining the specifications for the rebuilding of the old Walker block. Mr.
Havens has become an extensive contractor since leaving Emporium.

Mr. A. Kresge, of DuBois, formerly a resident of Emporium, called on his trade here Tuesday and Wednesday, as representative of Phoenix Milling Co., Minneapolis, Minn. While in town our old friend visited the Press and pushed the date on his paper into 1907.

Mrs. Wm. Clark and little daughter left for Elkins, W. Va., last Monday where Mr. Clark is located.

Mrs. A. J. Turley returned last Thursday from Weedville, bringing her mother here to spend the winter.

Misses Myrtle Lloyd and Bessie Mc-Quay were Press business callers on Saturday. Very pleasant young ladies.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Woodward and daughter Ada, of Port Allegany, were guests of Chas. Specht and wife, on Bryan Hill over Sunday.

Mrs. J. L. Wheeler is spending a week in Clearfield county visiting friends. Mr. Wheeler expects to join her on Sunday at DuBois.

Mrs. M. T. Hogan is making an extended visit with relatives and friends at Elmira, Binghamton and other points.

Don M. Larrabee, of Williamsport, Agency Director of New York Life, visited in Emporium Monday evening and Tuesday.

Misses Jennie Robinson and Katharine Orr, of West ward, were Press callers on Monday, the former to enter her mother's name on our books for the Press.

Miss Susie Killeen, who has been visiting her parents at Sterling Run for several weeks was in town between trains on Monday, the guest of Miss Winnie Gilmartin. Miss Killeen was enroute for Chicago.

Mr. A. L. Ensign, one of the Sinna-mahoning Powder Company's reliable men, came up on Saturday to spend Sunday with his family. While in town he made us a social and business call, renewing his Press for another year.

Mrs. E. Cladius and Mr. Howard Cramer, of Williamsport, were called here on Monday on account of the serious illness of their mother, Mrs.
Elias Cramer, of Maple street. Mrs.
Cramer was much improved yesterday.

Fred A. Hill, of Tacoma, Wash. writes the Press, renewing his subscription. In a private letter to ye editor he reports himself and family well and wishes to be remembered to his Emporium friends. He says he worked steady during past year at good wages, only losing four and a half days during the year. By the way Fred don't send that box of cigarets to us but mail it to "Teddy Roosevelt" A. C. Blum.

Among the first-class special acts which comprise the oleo of Gorton's Minstrels, is the comedy and dancing specialty of Welby, Pearl and Fell.
Jake Welby's negro comedy has long been noted for its originality and excellence, and forms a conspicuous part of this sketch. C. C. Pearl contributes a marvelous dancing performance and Miss Cleone Pearl Fell has been included in the act this season to add still more dash to an already lovely performance. Miss Fell introduces a number of her own dancing specialties, and the trio offers one of the most laughable and entertaining sketches of a vaudeville character that has been presented this season. The act, which is a whirlwind of comedy and action from start to finish, is sure to produce a sensation wherever it is presented.
They will be seen at the Emporium Opera House, Feb. 5th.

Big Business.
The New Warner House, at this place, reports the largest business the past week since Mr. Wheeler purchased this popular house. It is filled every night.

Farewell Party.
Miss Thora Easterbrooks entertained ten of her little friends at the home of her grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm.
Lyons last Saturday afternoon, before leaving for Elkins, W. Va., the future home of her parents.

Picturesque Song.
The entertainment given at the opera house Thursday evening, Jan.
25, by Miss Mary M. Howard pianist and the Harmonie Quartette, of Buffalo assisted by Miss Grace Walker Violinist was thoroughly artistic and enjoyable to those present. The quartette is appropriately named "Harmonie" as a sweeter, richer, more harmonious blending of voices would be difficult to imagine. The piano playing of Miss Howard was very pleasing while the violin solos of Miss Walker materially added to the evenings enjoyment.

Eye Specialist.

Grave Trouble Forseen.
It needs but little foresight, to tell, that when your stomach and liver are badly affected, grave trouble is ahead, unless you take the proper medicine for your disease, as Mrs. John A. Young, of Clay, N. Y., did. She says: "I had neuralgia of the liver and stomach, my heart was weakened, and I could not eat.
I was very bad for a long time, but in Electric Bitters, I found just what I needed, for they quickly relieved and cured me." Best medicine for weak women. Sold under guarantee by L.
Taggart druggist, at 50c a bottle.

"GET THE HABIT"

We are doing a splendid business. Our patrons seem to be so impressed with the de-liciousness of our baked goods that many of them have "got the habit" of coming here regularly. We anticipate more of that "habit," because our bread and pastry is better than ever before. Get the habit—the health giving habit of eating the products of our sanitary shop.
