LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

PERSONAL GOSSIP.

Contributions invited. That which you would like to see in this department, let us know by postal card or letter, personally.

Mr. Warren McConnel, of Cameron, was in town one day last week.

Several of Emporium's jolly young ladies visited Sterling Run last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. L. Wheeler spent last Friday and Saturday in Buffalo.

Guy Klees visited relatives and friends in Williamsport over Sunday.

Col. J. O. Brookbank, of Driftwood, transacted business in Emporium yesterday.

W. J. Leavitt visited friends at Sinamahoning and First Fork Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. John Carney, of Renovo, spent a couple of days last week, with Mrs. H. P. Roberts.

Miss Blanch Kissell, of Sterling Run, was the guest of Mrs. Ed. Morse one day last week.

Mrs. Walter Morrison and Mrs. Fred Dinning made the Press a business call last Thursday.

E. D. Leet and wife, of Ulysses, Pa., were guests of H. C. Olmsted and family over Sunday.

Louise La Fevre Smith, of Portville, N. Y., is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Seth J. Hackett.

Mrs. Thomas Gilroy, of Austin, and daughter Ezma, were the guests of Mrs. H. P. Roberts over Sunday.

Mrs. Walter Clark is quite ill with typhoid fever. Miss Carrie Miller, professional nurse, is nursing her.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Allen, of Port Allegany was the guest of Seth J. Hackett and family over Sunday.

Mr. E. H. Southwick, a practical druggist, from Pittsburg, is now employed in M. A. Rockwell's drug store.

Murdock McCloud, who has been located in Alaska for fifteen years, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Frank Mylan, at this place. A brother from Boston is also here.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mylan, of East Fifth street, received two beautiful Valentines on St. Valentine's day—a daughter and son. There was great rejoicing in that home.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Crist, of Pine Summit, Pa., were called to Emporium last Sunday owing to the serious illness of the former's father, Mr. J. T. Crist, who resides with his daughter, Mrs. Wm. Lyons.

Master Harold Chadwick, who has just recovered from typhoid fever, went to Bradford county one day last week to visit his little sister, Miss Irene. He took his grand-father, Mr. Mott, with him.

W. W. Knickerbocker, one of Emporium's energetic and reliable young men called at the Press office yesterday and pushed the date on his Press ahead another year. Mr. Knickerbocker has charge of Emporium electric light plant and gives excellent satisfaction.

Miss Elvia Whiting, of Ridgway, has accepted the vacancy in the corps of teachers in the borough schools, and took up the duties of her new position yesterday. Miss Whiting is an experienced teacher, and the directors were quite fortunate in getting so capable a person for the position.—Johnsonburg Press.

J. E. Rhodes, accompanied by his wife and two children, arrived in town Saturday from Dunlevie, West Va., to visit for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes conducts the boarding house for E. V. Dunlevie Lumber Company. They like the prospects in sight at Dunlevie. Mr. Rhodes was a Press caller on Wednesday and pushed his paper into 1907.

Orvis Hemphill will play ball with the DuBois team this season and expects to leave here about the first of May. We wish the young man success.

Capt. J. E. Mitson, of Buffalo, representing the Salvation Army, called on his Emporium friends this week, meeting with marked success. This noble army accomplishes much good. They deserve all they secure.

Common Colds are the Cause of Many Serious Diseases.

Physicians who have gained a national reputation as analysts of the cause of various diseases, claim that if catching cold could be avoided a long list of dangerous ailments would never be heard of. Every one knows that pneumonia and consumption originate from a cold, and chronic catarrh, bronchitis, and all throat and lung trouble are aggravated and rendered more serious by each fresh attack. Do not risk your life or take chances when you have a cold. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy contains no opium, morphine or other harmful drug, and has thirty years of reputation back of it, gained by its cures under every condition. For sale by L. Taggart; J. E. Smith, Sterling Run; Crum Bros., Sinamahoning.

Grave Trouble Foreseen.

It needs but little foresight, to tell, that when your stomach and liver are badly affected, grave trouble is ahead, unless you take the proper medicine for your disease, as Mrs. John A. Young, of Clay, N. Y., did. She says: "I had neuralgia of the liver and stomach, my heart was weakened, and I could not eat. I was very bad for a long time, but in Electric Bitters, I found just what I needed, for they quickly relieved and cured me." Best medicine for weak women. Sold under guarantee by L. Taggart druggist, at 50c a bottle.
