He wrote to Dr. G. G. Green:
"An' as true as I tell you, doctor dear,
I'm feelin' finer than ever I've been!"

"The poor consumptive should not be the victim of experiment, as he often is, but the moment the dread disease manifests its presence he should be given Boscbee's German Syrup—a pure, non-alcoholic medicine that is made specially for the cure of consumption, and has a world-wide fame as a certain remedy for catarrh, colds, coughs, croup, sore throat, and all bronchial affections in old and young. It is sold in all civilized countries, and has been famous as a consumption cure for almost half a century."

Two of our popular young ladies returning from Canoe Run on Friday evening were treated to an unusual, though highly entertaining dancing rehearsal by one of our citizens. He was practicing all the latest dancing figures by the music of a phonograph; all alone and unaware that he was entertaining a small, though appreciative audience. In describing the figures the ladies say:

O, first it was the Highland Fling, Sashay all and the Pigeon Wing.

Balance, then your partner swing, There are no flies on C-a-m-e-r-o-n.

Next 'twas a waltz and a two-step fine, His feet were moving all the time; The girls never saw anything so fine, Since they lived in the town of Cameron.

Then he tried the Virginia reel, He also tackled the toe and heel, A clog came next and then a spiel, What's the matter with Cameron?

So don't forget what we have said, On Saturday night don't go to bed, But go to the Eagle Hall instead, And see this man of Cameron.

DEBSE.

One would think the Laxative idea in a cough syrup should have been advanced long before it was. It seems the only rational remedy for Coughs and Colds was to move the bowels and clean the mucous membranes of the throat and lungs at the same time. Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar does this. It is the Original Laxative Cough Syrup, the best known remedy for Coughs, Colds, Croup, Whooping Cough, etc. Tastes good and harmless. Sold by R. C. Dodson.

The Modern Wife and the Money Question.

Usually it is the shadow of money that brings the first partial eclipse to the honeymoon, and unless the problem is rightly handled the eclipse may become total. The modern wife cannot be always asking for money and retain either her happiness or her respect. The husband could not keep his business going if he did not have a pay day for his employees or if he were careless about settling his bills. He cannot expect to keep his house going without a financial arrangement that will give it regularity and security. It is passing strange that this matter should be a constant difficulty in millions of homes, but it is a hardship which wives are supposed to bear uncomplainingly. She is a wise woman who rebels early and secures her rights, for she will never to a successful wife until she has her part of the income without days of grace or discounts. This is important; it is vital. Unless it is made plain and duly fixed, all her other purposes and aspirations will be forever handicapped.—From the April Delineator.
