TO THE REPUBLICAN ELECTORS OF PENNSYLVANIA.

I am directed by the Republican State Committee to announce that the Republicans of Pennsylvania, by their duly chosen representatives, will meet in convention at the Lyceum theatre in the city of Harrisburg, on Wednesday, June 6, 1906, at 10:30 a. m., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the following offices, viz:

One person for the office of Governor; One person for the office of Lieutenant-Governor; One person for the office of Auditor-General.

One person for the office of Secretary of Internal Affairs; and for the transaction of such other business as may be presented.

In accordance with the rules governing the party, the representation in the State Convention will be based upon the vote polled at the last Presidential election. Under the rules each legislative district is entitled to one delegate for every thousand votes cast for Republican electors in 1904, and an additional delegate for every fraction of two thousand votes polled in excess of one thousand.

By order of the State Committee, W. R. ANDREWS, Chairman.

The Bradford Era says: The friends of Hon. Charles W. Stone are very active in his behalf.

They desire to see him nominated for governor on the Republican ticket.

They recognize in him a man who would be a compromise candidate—one who would stand well with the anti-organization Republicans and who would also be a "regular" at the same time, and have the support of the regulars.

It need not surprise anybody to learn that delegates are being selected in his interest even now, although the Pittsburg Gazette's information is to the effect that as yet he has not fully reached a conclusion on the advisability of formally entering the arena.

Catarrah Cannot Be Cured.

With LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease, Catarrah is a blood or constitutional disease, and to cure it you must take internal remedies.

Hall's Catarrah Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surface.

Hall's Catarrah Cure is not a quack medicine. It is prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces.

The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarrah. Send for testimonials free.

Letter to Alex McDougall.

Emporium, Pa.

Dear Sir: There's nothing we like to tackle as well as a cheap paint town.

Devoe is cheaper than any of 'em. Cheap means dear, and cheap means cheap; you can always tell which. Cheap town is nasty; cheap Devoe is faithful and true Devoe.

Mr. A. J. Smith, Littlestown, Pa., painted his house; his painter told him to get 132 gallons Devoe; had 43 left.

Mr. A. H. Rebeck, same town, has lots of buildings; paints Devoe; says 20 cents more a gallon for it is glad to; says it's the cheapest paint there is. He knows how it covers; he don't half-know how it wears yet.

Yours truly

F. W. DEVOE & Co., New York.

Grip Quickly Knocked Out.

"Some weeks ago during the severe winter weather both my wife and myself contracted severe colds which speedily developed into the worst kind of la grippe with all its miserable symptoms."

says J. S. Eggleston of Maple Landing, Iowa. "Knees and joints aching, muscles sore, head stopped up, eyes and nose running, with alternate spells of chills and fever. We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, aiding the same with a double dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and by its liberal use soon completely knocked out the grip."

Sold by L. Taggart, J. E. Smith, Sterling Run and Crum Bros., Sinnamahoning.

Animals and Fire.

Rattlesnakes won't run from fire, but instead strike till the last at the flames about them.

This is true of many animals, especially of horses, who will rush back into a burning barn, apparently blind with rage, striking with their hoofs and switching their tails in great anger.

The flight of wild birds during migrating time against lighthouses is more like the action of the green bicyclist who rides against a trolley car or wagon as if hypnotized by it and in spite of his fears.

Gorillas, it is said, delight in fire, drawing closer to the flames as the fire dies down and at last wading in the red-hot ashes, apparently enchanted and not feeling the burning coals.

A little fire built beneath one of the pear shaped paper wasp nests that are seen hanging from low branches will kill every wasp in it, as the insects fly at it one by one in their endeavors to save their home and young.

Frogs leap through the flames of a little bonfire time and time again, as if having the most pleasing of fun. It may be, though, that they think the flickering flames to be some new sort of insect.

Strange Captivity.

The springbok of South Africa migrate in vast herds, moving in a compact body and carrying everything before them.

If a flock of sheep be in the line of march—as it sometimes happens—it is surrounded, enveloped and becomes, willingly or unwillingly, part of the army.

An African hunter tells the strange story of seeing a lion in the midst of the antelopes, forced to join the march. It is supposed that the lion had sprung too far for his prey, that those upon whom he alighted recoiled sufficiently to allow him to reach the ground, and then the pressure from both flanks and the rear prevented him from escaping from his strange captivity.

If the springbok travels in such armies, how can those in the middle and rear find food? In this wise: Those in the front ranks, after they have eaten greedily of the pasture, gradually fall out of the ranks to rest, while the hungry ones in the rear come up, and so the columns are all the while changing.

Had Him Beat.

The head day porter and the head night porter of a hotel, according to the San Francisco Chronicle, became involved in a discussion on ages.

The head night porter confessed to thirty-eight.

"H'm! Say, I've got you beat ten years," declared the head day.

"You mean to tell me you're only twenty-eight?" demanded the head night.

"I should say not. I's just forty-eight," explained the head day, with an expression of withering disdain.

"Then you ain't got me beat no ten years. I's got you beat just ten years. Say, I got ten years comin' that you won't see again."

"Look here, man," declared the head day, "you ain't got no sense. I's sure of them ten years, 'cause I's seem 'em an' been through 'em. You ain't sure of yours. You might die tomorrow."

A Source of Contagion.

It has been proved by abundant investigation that one prolific source of epidemic diseases is found in the liability of the germs of such diseases to lodge in the mouth around the teeth and gums.

A physician examined the teeth of the children of a certain school. He found disease germs present in almost every case.

By careful watching he discovered that those children whose teeth were kept cleanest suffered less from epidemic diseases.

The neglected condition of the teeth is, therefore, a common cause of illness. Indeed, if one takes the trouble to observe with what rapidity the tartar and cheesy matter accumulate around the teeth of people who are out of health they will not be long in making up their minds that a thorough and judicious use of the toothbrush is not very far from a means of grace.

An Alphabetical Advertisement.

The following remarkable alphabetical ad. appeared in an issue of the London Times away back in 1842: "To Widowers and Single Gentlemen—Wanted, by a lady, a situation to superintend the household and preside at table.

She is agreeable, becoming, careful, desirable, English, facetious, generous, honest, industrious, judicious, keen, lively, merry, natty, obedient, philosophic, quiet, rosy faced, sociable, tasteful, useful, vivacious, womanish, Xantippish, youthful, zealous, etc."

The Widow's Wish.

First Chauffeur—The Judge fined me $50 for running over that man and killing him, and now his widow has come around— Second Chauffeur—For damages? First Chauffeur—No. She says she wants to pay the fine!—New York Press.

He Won.

Crimsonbeak—How did you come out on your bet? Yeast—What bet? Crimsonbeak—Why, last night when you went home late you said you'd bet you'd get rats from your wife. Yeast—Oh, yes, I won!—Yonkers Statesman.

One of Fox's Puns.

"I hear you can make a pun on any subject," said a woman to the irresistible Fox. "Make one on king."

"King is no subject," promptly replied the joker.

Her Advice.

The Actor—What shall I do to fill the house at my benefit? Lady Friend—Invite your creditors.

It is just as well that some of our blessings come in disguise; otherwise they would never catch us.—Puck.

TREASURER'S SALE OF UNSEATED LANDS IN CAMERON COUNTY, For Taxes for Years 1904 and 1905.

AGREEABLE to an Act of Assembly entitled "An Act to amend an Act directing the mode of selling Unseated Lands for taxes and other purposes," passed the 23rd day of March, A. D. 1815, and further supplements thereto; I, John Cummings, Treasurer of the County of Cameron, hereby give notice to all persons concerned therein, that unless all arrearages of taxes due on the following tracts of unseated lands, situate in Cameron county, Pa., are paid before the day of sale, the whole or such part of each tract as will pay the costs and taxes chargeable thereon, will be sold at public vendue or outcry, at the Court House in Emporium Borough, County of Cameron and State of Pennsylvania, on the SECOND MONDAY IN JUNE, 1906, it being the 11th day of the month, and continued by adjournment from day to day, as will be deemed necessary, for the arrearages of taxes, and the costs accrued on each tract respectively. Persons wishing to pay before sale will remit the amount of these taxes, together with interest and fifty cents for each tract for advertising and twenty-five cents for receipt.

Notice is also given that in compliance with the Act of Assembly, passed the 8th day of June, A. D. 1857, entitled "An Act to regulate the collection of taxes on Unseated Lands" there will be accrued interest at the rate of 6 per cent, per annum on taxes of 1894 from January 1st, 1895, and on taxes of 1905 from January 1st, 1906, until date of payment of same. See P. L. 1887, page 373.
