Painting is practical work. Skill wins it's same with paint making. You know 4 gallons L. & M., mixed with 3 gallons Linseed Oil makes enough paint for moderate sized house—the best paint money can buy—because the L. & M., Zinc hardens the L. & M., White Lead and makes the L. & M. Paint wear like iron.

Buy L. & M., and don't pay $1.50 a gallon for Linseed Oil, as you do in ready for use paint, but buy oil fresh from the barrel at 60 cents, and mix with the L. & M.

CLINTON COUNTY SHOULD PLEDGE HERSELF TO GREEN

Reasons Why District Should Give Him Unanimous Endorsement for Judge.

[Lock Haven Republican.]

At the Republican county convention in Cameron county last month a strong endorsement was given Hon. B. W. Green, the recent appointee to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Judge Mayer, as a candidate for president judge of the Twenty-fifth Judicial district. This endorsement reads as follows:

"It is with pride that Cameron county presents the name of our honored citizen and neighbor as a candidate for president judge of the Twenty-fifth Judicial district, Mr. B. W. Green, believing that his eminent fitness, long practice in the courts of the several counties, his familiarity with our varied interests and his people will give the bench an able jurist, in the prime of life, honest, safe and impartial. We strongly urge upon our sister counties that they assure him the unanimous nomination and election, pledging his fidelity to the best interests of the entire people, unbiased by political opinions."

In urging his appointment to fill the unexpired term, the Cameron county Republican convention unanimously adopted a highly complimentary resolution as to the character and qualifications of Judge Green for the place and now that he has been appointed by Governor Pennypacker, who gave the matter careful consideration, it seems to us that the Republicans of the district should unite upon him as the candidate to lead the fight for president judge at the polls in November. We therefore, believe that Clinton county should declare in favor of Judge Green's candidacy and thus aid him in his contest. At best it promises to be a hard fight and if Judge Green is to win in this contest he will need the united support of the Republicans of the whole district. For this reason we believe that Clinton county ought to give him a straight endorsement. We are satisfied that there is an earnest sentiment in this county favorable to his candidacy, and if this is crystallized into an endorsement it will give him prestige that will count in his favor.

Cameron county's request for the unanimous endorsement of her candidate is just and reasonable, not only because he is the appointee of the governor, but also because he is a man whose private and business record prove him to be fitted for the position. They want as judge a man of unquestionable record, and as Judge Green measures up to all the requirements Clinton county should not be remiss in doing her full part to secure his unanimous nomination to a place that he will dignify and honor.

GREAT RUNNING RACE MEET AT BUFFALO

W. W. ATTERBURY, General Manager.
J. R. WOOD, Passenger Traffic Manager. GEO. W. BOYD, General Passenger Agent.

Lines up Men for Pro be Race.

Acting under instructions from the Pennsylvania's own "probe committee," officers in charge of the various divisions of the railroad are lining up the heads of departments, chief clerks and others for a hearing. Data on the local divisions was being secured yesterday, the head of each department and the chief clerk's name, in case there was a chief clerk, being taken for official use. This rounding up is not limited to anyone department, but is said to include traffic and accounting as well as operating officers and chief clerks. All department heads and, in fact, almost every Pennsylvania railroad employe in any responsible position were trembling yesterday. They did not know at what moment they might be "called on the carpet" before the Pennsylvania's own investigating committee.

The belief is that the Pennsylvania's officials acting under personal direction of President Cassatt since his return from Europe, are determined to make a riddance of all men who have been doing things that would not tally with an honest man's conscience. One man said yesterday he would not be surprised to see a general clearing out of several departments, and the men who are let out will have no chance of returning to the company's service in any capacity. The only fear among the smaller officers and clerks is that some of the higher officers will be shielded, while men in minor capacities will be made examples of.

From the course pursued in the case of Chief Clerk Boyer, dismissal from the motive power department by order of President Cassatt, local Pennsylvania men expected nothing else than that Joseph K. Atkins who was chief clerk to Superintendent Mitchell of the Monongahela division, would also be dismissed, and so there was little surprise yesterday when the word was passed that Atkins was "packing his trunk." His successor has not been appointed.

Dear Sir: Devoe, $10 a year; lead-and-oil, $22.

Mr. McMullin, late cashier of Patapco National Bank, of Ellicott City, Md. painted his house—Devoe—in 1885. It wore 17 years at a cost of less than $10 a year.

Mr. Harold Hardings, the present cashier painted his house—three coats lead-and-oil—it wore six years, at a cost of $22 a year. He then repainted Devoe; said he wanted the paint that cost least by the year.

This is important; such comparisons are extremely rare. We know the general fact, however.

The paint that goes farthest, wears longest, always.

Yours truly,
F. W. DEVOE & Co.,
