The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

How to Break up a Cold.

It may be a surprise to many to learn that a severe cold can be completely broken up in one or two days' time. The first symptoms of a cold are a dry, loud cough, a profuse watery discharge from the nose, and a thin, white coating on the tongue. When Chamberlain's cough remedy is taken every hour on the first appearance of these symptoms, it counteracts the effect of the cold and restores the system to a healthy condition within a day or two. For sale by L. Taggart; J. E. Smith, Sterling Run; Crum Bros., Sinnamahoning.

While Fred Comley was engaged in planting potatoes on the Huntingdon farm one day last week, he had occasion to lay his potato bag on the ground for a short time. While he was absent a huge snapping turtle crawled into the bag among the potatoes, unknown to him. Although he thought the bag unusually heavy, he started to drop more potatoes but when he reached in the bag the turtle grabbed him by the hand and hung on for dear life. His cries brought C. E. Williams, Wm. McElvain and Patrick Kleen swiftly to the rescue, and released him by prying the turtle's jaws open with a crow bar. His fingers were bitten quite severely and he says he will look in the potato bag before dropping any more potatoes.

John M. Olsen who for the past year has conducted business in the Valley Hotel in this place, while negotiating the sale of his property was stopped by the sheriff of this county on an attachment issued by G. C. Woods, of Grampian, Pa. This blow coming as it did unexpectedly upon Mr. Olsen has forced him into bankruptcy. Since coming into this community Mr. Olsen has proved himself an honest man and a good neighbor. He has the sympathy of his many friends throughout the county in his misfortune, and they hope that he will be more successful in his next business undertaking as he expects to start again in the hotel business inside of a month. We understand that he has a new place of business rented.

Among the many town's people who enjoyed Turtles Big Circus last week were a party of Cameron county citizens, comprising Messrs. John Schneider, Joseph Robinson, Bob Smith, Crugar and F. L. Webster. They report a very enjoyable evening and Mr. Schneider who is somewhat given to poetical asperations, describing the event in the following little composition which is very entertaining as are all of Mr. Schneider's little verses:

When Turtles Big show came around,
Five good solid men of our town,
To the big circus went,
Each upon pleasure bent.
For they had lots of coin to put down.
Brother Schneider the animals liked,
He saw the back bear ride the bike,
And he wanted to see
The great chim-pan-zee,
But they said it was out on a strike.
Brother Robinson saw the great ank,
The parrots gave him some back talk,
While the rest of the birds,
Who could not speak in words,
Gave vent to their feelings with squaks.
Brother Smith preferred the big snakes,
But he said that they gave him the shakes,
They filled him with fear,
And although friends were near,
The way that he shook took the cake.
Brother Crugar admired the trapeze,
He said with the show I am well pleased,
The performers looked fine,
As they got up in line,
What wonderful showman were these.
Brother Webster took in the side show,
He said it was well worth the dough,
The ossified man,
Tried to dance the can-can,
And the fat lady swallowed her toe.
These gents felt that they were well paid,
For the little expense that was made,
But before they went home,
They spent quite a sum,
On peanuts and red lemonade.

B. J. Collins was suddenly called to Lock Haven on Monday on account of the death of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Mary Fleming. Mrs. Collins was with her when she passed away.

Through being misinformed we reported in last week's issue that Miss Mabel Nelson was ill with diphtheria. We are in receipt of a letter from Mr. W. A. Nelson, under date of June 11th contradicting this report. Mr. Nelson informs us that his sister did not have this disease and requests that we correct our previous statement which we hereby do and are glad to learn that Miss Nelson is greatly improved at this writing.

Relief operator Miller relieved operators Krape and Sullivan Sunday and Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Collins returned from their wedding trip on the evening train Wednesday. Later in the evening the Huntley Symphony Orchestra assembled in front of Mr. Collins' residence and rendered several soul stirring selections, after which Mr. Collins invited the boys in to a bountiful supper, which was enjoyed immensely. At a late hour the joyous party dispersed, after wishing the couple a long life of happiness and prosperity. J. F. Sullivan of the Amalgamated

Poultry Graft, set 53 duck eggs in one of his incubators and on Sunday one lonely little duck hatched out into this world of sorrow. The duck was bald headed, cross-eyed and had a slight impediment in its speech. The Sullivan ducks went on a strike recently on account of the feed bags not having the union label on them, and it is thought that the fowls are in a combine to force him out of the poultry business. Sullivan has taken steps to have an injunction served upon these ducks to force them to lay eggs.

Mr. English distributed the new mail boxes this week to the people who purchased them from Ray Jordan. They are fine boxes and are giving good satisfaction. In speaking of our rural free delivery messenger on this route the humble poet of Big Run begs to pay the following little tribute to this kind and popular gentleman:

He is a man we all know well,
His face we're glad to see,
As day by day he greets us all,
Along the R. F. D.

Some times he brings us joyful news,
Of loved ones far away.

And sometimes news that causes tears,
To drive our smiles astray.

But daily we all wait for him,
Although he may bring sorrow,
His cheerful face will always find,
A welcome on the morrow.

So here's to brother English,
Our genial postal man,
May he live many, many years,
To work for Uncle Sam.
