You can't feel good with a disordered stomach. Try Kodol. Sold by R. C. Dodson.

Ability is measured by deeds rather than by intentions.
There is no need worrying along in discomfort because of a disordered digestion. Get a bottle of KODOL FOR DYSPEPSIA, and see what it will do for you. HOW TO SELECT A JUDGE

LOCK HAVEN, PA., June 6, 1906.
Gentlemen:
The public conscience has been aroused during the last few months by revelations of greed and crookedness in commercial affairs, and call for prompt remedy. Every one feels that in such great public crisis he must appeal to the courts for relief and protection, and no little anxiety is felt lest our courts may have come under unwholesome influences. In other words, we feel more than ever the importance of an able and upright judiciary. It is unbearable to rest one's case before a judge of uncertain stability.
This subject appeals with special force to the people of this judicial district at this time, because we shall be called upon to elect a president judge at the next election. We dare not be indifferent to the quality of the man who is to be put over us. It matters little to what political party he belongs, if he commands the respect of the community by reason of his ability and professional learning, of his broad and kindly nature, and of his innate honesty of purpose. Before such a judge you have no misgivings. A judge is necessarily a conspicuous figure and exerts a wide influence. He must have a strong sense of right and dare to enforce it, and a sense of personal responsibility and try to live it.

A court is not the place for the grinding of partisan axes, nor for juggling with liquor licenses. In the judgement of the writer, it is the duty of the court to grant liquor licenses but this should be done conscientiously, according to law, and with honest regard to public opinion. What is for the convenience of the public and the good of society?—this is the test.
Nor should a judge be a trimmer for special interests. Great influences are often brought to bear upon judges for the purpose of controlling their action. The influencing of judges is a studied art that does not always end in failure. But how are we to know a man in advance? Easily. Watch his private life. Take account of the ordinary doings of his life. He is an example of some kind. What kind? What kind?

There is no more ready test of the fitness of a candidate for the judgeship than the manner of campaign he conducts. If he stoops to low methods, he thereby establishes his unfitness for high place. If, personally refraining from corrupt methods, he connives at mean things being done in his interest, he is the greater coward. What stepping stones to the bench! Sticky fingered administration of the law is abominable!

Yours Truly,
S. R. PEALE.
The Philadelphia Record has the following comment with reference to Senator Peale's article:
Former State Senator S. R. Peale, of Lock Haven appeals to the people of the Twenty-fifth judicial district to see to it that the man who goes upon the bench occupied for nearly 40 years by the late Judge Mayer possesses a strong sense of right, as well as of personal responsibility and the courage to live up to those principles. The Senator, an honored member of the Clinton county bar and a life-long Democrat, believes it matters but little to what political party the judge belongs, but he should command public respect, should not be a trimmer for special interests, be clean in his private life and clean in his political methods. "Sticky-fingered administration of the law is abominable," says the Senator, aroused by recent revelation of greed and crookedness in public and commercial affairs.

The sincerest tribute that can be paid to superiority is imitation. The many imitations of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve that are before the public prove it the best. Ask for DeWitt's. Good for burns, scalds, chapped skin, eczema, tetter, cuts, bruises, boils and piles. Highly recommended and reliable. Sold by R. C. Dodson.

Even a cheap skate may disfigure much good ice.
Thousands annually bear witness to the efficiency of Early Risers. These pleasant, reliable little pills have long borne a reputation second to none as a laxative and cathartic. They are as staple as bread in millions of homes. Pleasant but effective. Will promptly relieve constipation without griping. Sold by R. C. Dodson.

Sour Stomach

No appetite, loss of strength, nervousness, headache, constipation, bad breath, general debility, sour risings, and catarrh of the stomach are all due to indigestion. Kodol relieves indigestion. This new discovery represents the natural juices of digestion as they exist in a healthy stomach, combined with the greatest known tonic and reconstructive properties. Kodol for dyspepsia does not only relieve indigestion and dyspepsia, but this famous remedy helps all stomach troubles by cleansing, purifying, sweetening and strengthening the mucous membranes lining the stomach.

Mr. S. S. Ball, of Ravenswood, W. Va., says:—
"I was troubled with sour stomach for twenty years. Kodol cured me and we are now using it in milk for baby."
