"Make Hay While the Sun Shines."

There is a lesson in the work of the thrifty farmer. He knows that the bright sunshine may last but a day when he prepares for the showers which are so liable to follow. So it should be with every household. Dysentery, diarrhoea and cholera morbus may attack some member of the home without warning. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which is the best known medicine for three diseases, should always be kept at hand, as immediate treatment is necessary, and delay may prove fatal. For sale by L. Taggart, J. E. Smith, Sterling Run; Crum Bros., Sinnamahoning.

You will never make a mistake by talking to a man about himself.

Prof. Tyler, of Amherst college, said recently: "A man can live comfortably without brains no man ever existed without a digestive system. The dyspeptic has neither faith, hope or charity." Day by day people realize the importance of caring for their digestion; realize the need of the use of a little corrective after overeating. A corrective like Kodol for Dyspepsia. It digests what you eat. Sold by R. C. Dodson.

FIRST FORK.

The principal industry of this place, Currier's mill was totally destroyed by fire on Wednesday night about 11 o'clock. B. & S. engines blew the fire alarm, but the apparatus for fighting fire was very limited and nothing could be done to save it. The mill had been shut down since 11 o'clock a. m. This is the second time a mill has burned on this sight. Whether the mill will be rebuilt is doubtful, though there are a good many logs in the woods yet, that were to have been sawed here.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Williams are entertaining Mrs. A. E. Woodard and daughter Nina of Salamanca, N. Y.

H. W. Martindale was around here a few days last week. We understand he has sold his hotel at Youngstown, Ohio.

The loss of sawed lumber at the fire at Currier's mill was small, as the bucket brigade paid attention to saving that.

Joseph Gorman of Johnsonburg was looking after his property here one day last week.

Blackberries plenty but huckleberries nit.

J. W. Philips returned to his home at Austin Saturday evening after visiting friends here a few days.

NUP SED.

STERLING RUN.

Lyle Berry of Emporium, spent Sunday in town.

F. J. Confer spent Sunday with his parents at Shintown.

John Kissel and Charles Bunce spent Sunday evening in Emporium. What is the attraction?

P. E. Trump has returned from Pittsburgh.

T. M. Lewis and Jas. Strawbridge were Cameron visitors Sunday.

P. J. Robinson and son Frank attended the base ball game at Driftwood first of the week.

John Devling is visiting his parents in town.

Grant Hart and Clarence Howlett spent Sunday at Hicks Run.

The Sterling Run athletic club held a smoker Saturday evening, which was a grand success. Among the out of town patrons were: Wm. and Leroy Carter and the worthy correspondent from Rich Valley. The Huntley male quartet attended in a body with the exception of brother Krape, who sent a message of regret and explained his absence was due to that 10 pound boy taking up all of his time. His excuse was accepted as several of the parties in attendance had been through a like experience. W. R. Smith sang a patriotic song as a curtain raiser; then Everett Barr danced a two-step, followed by Steven Bunce. The main attraction of the evening was a three round exhibition between Samuel Barr and Grant Hari, both of Sterling Run. Each man was trained to the minute and started mixing things from the sound of the gong. It has been a long time since the sports of this county witnessed such a fast bout. There was some clinching in the brake away but no damage was done aside from Mr. Barr getting his eyes blackened and Hart lost two suspender buttons. Referee P. J. Robinson called the contest a draw, which was a very popular decision. Barr then issued a challenge to any man on the Penny lines east of Pittsburgh at catch weights. He is certainly a comer and should receive every encouragement. Special trainer Jas. Strawbridge deserves great credit for fitting the men in such fine shape. Sammy Barr sang the audience the following little song which was greeted with a storm of applause:

I'm Sammy Barr from Sterling Run,
How do you like my style;
And when it comes to boxing,
I can beat them all a mile;
I've boxed with Fitz and Corbett too,
I always take my part,
But nothing gives me greater joy,
Than warming up Grant Hart.

In upper cuts I am the goods,
I use the pivot blow;
My left hand swings the claret brings,
My right knows where to go,
So when you want a good fast bout,
You need not travel far;
Just take the train for Sterling Run
And call on Sammy Barr.

Well, talk of the immortal John L.,
he wasn't in it with the cheering and encoring that Sammy got after the song.
Trainer Strawbridge then treated the audience to elderberry wine and the party adjourned.

BEECHWOOD.

Peter Ferguson and son of Emporium, enjoyed a pleasant drive to our city Sunday. Pete has one of the finest driving horses we have seen in a long time.

Merion Toner of St. Marys, one of Kaul and Hall's best mill men spent Sunday at the Morrison homestead, the guest of his wife and daughters.

Allan and Oscar Hopkins, who are employed at Rathbun, visited their home here Saturday evening.

Robt. McMannus and sons have been hauling stone, preparatory to putting in a stone culvert and thereby do away with the small wooden bridge just below Beechwood. That is the proper way to repair such places and if the plan is followed up our roads will soon be the best in this part of the state.

Jake Herbstreet of St. Marys is at home confined to his house by sickness. His many friends hope that he may soon recover.

C. C. Skillman and wife of More Hill, visited Geo. W. Leavitt and family Saturday.

Al. Wagner, our efficient station agent, transacted business in Emporium Friday.

Jack Cleary, our hustling wood jobber, made a business trip to Clermont last week. He stopped off at St. Marys but didn't stay long as he says "the Irish and Dutch don't agree."

Mrs. J. H. Reed was an Emporium visitor Friday.

Wm. McDonald is cutting the hay on the Seely farm at Rathbun.

Rev. Brown, a noted evangelist and Sunday school worker, preached an elegant sermon at Truman Sunday. Mr. Brown has many friends around here and they were more than pleased to meet him again.

Miss Heath of St. Marys, daughter of Mr. Dave Heath, a former Beechwood resident, visited friends in town and attended church services Sunday. We found her to be a very pleasant and interesting young lady.

It is with much pleasure that we announce the marriage of Miss Anna Cook, one of our most highly esteemed young ladies, to Mr. Charles Burkland of Howard. Rev. Cleaver of Emporium, performed the ceremony, July 31st. Miss Cook was one of our most popular young ladies, honored and respected by all who know her. Mr. Burkland is one of the Penny R. R. Co's bridge builders and one of their most trusted men. We predict for them a bright future and join their many friends in wishing them supreme happiness and many blessings.

Berry pickers are very plentiful here at present. There seems to be just swarms of them. We rather think there are more pickers than berries.

JOSHUA ALLEN.

HUNTLEY.

Mrs. W. W. Johnson is on the sick list.

Irene Cole is very ill.

Thomas Nickerson and family, of Emporium, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Jordan.

Miss Helen Jordan has returned from a two months visit at Sinnamahoning.

Misses Nellie Grace and Florence Logue, of the East Side, spent Sunday with Miss Ruth Sullivan.

John Jordan was a Driftwood caller Monday.

C. J. Miller is ill with stomach trouble.

Ray Jordan, of Mason Hill, was a business caller in town Monday.

W. W. Johnson and Levi Smith were Driftwood callers Saturday.

Mrs. W. R. Smith and Misses Nettie and Andrew Hill spent Sunday with friends in Sinnamahoning.

Mrs. John Mack and Frank Sullivan, of Cameron, were guests of Mrs. Henry Layton, the latter part of last week.

We are glad to learn that Lloyd Logue, who had his leg cut off at Rathbun a short time ago, is improving as rapidly as can be expected. He is at Ridgway Hospital.

Ralph Goodall, of Driftwood, has just received copies of his latest song from his New York publishers. The song is a success and the words and music are arranged to please even the most fastidious critics. His many friends extend him sincere congratulations.

W. H. Logue still has a fine stock of boneless codfish and York state cream cheese on hand. Store open a 6 a. m. phone 996.

B. J. Collins and his men and teams finished hauling his logs from Big Run into the Creek Saturday. All that is needed now is a good flood to move them to the mill.

John Carson picked 75 quarts of blackberries on Saturday. Some were over two inches long. Jebb Lynch, of Sterling Run, says they beat anything he ever saw in the berry line.

W. R. Smith is soliciting subscriptions for the new Wesleyan Methodist Church at Castle Garden. Nearly four hundred dollars has been already subscribed.

Thieves stole all of Mrs. A. F. Nelson's butter Friday night and also paid a visit to the spring house of J. F. Carson, taking a supply of butter and milk from there also.

Mrs. George Collins was taken suddenly ill Saturday evening with acute heart disease. Doctors Corbett and Beale were called and relieved her suffering. She is somewhat better at this writing.

Mrs. Phinn Mason, of Tunnel Hill, while leading her cow to the pasture last Friday morning, was knocked down by the animal and rendered unconscious. Dr. Beale, of Driftwood, was called and she is improving under his treatment.

SINNAMAHONING.

All is quiet along the Sinnamahoning to-night—the merry-go-round has left.

The B. & S. R. R. Co., are repairing the crossing at the red bridge this week. It was much needed.

G. B. Barclay was at Williamsport Tuesday.

Capt. and Mrs. C. F. Barclay are making a tour of the eastern states in their auto.

Geo. P. Shafer has leased the flat of the B. & S. R. R. for pasture purposes. Dick Crum's ducks got badly fooled picking up the dead fish along Grove Run. They won't pick up any more.

Warren J. Mead and family came home from Punxsutawney Tuesday.

G. P. Shafer visited the county seat Monday.

Eugene H. Baird, of Ridgway, was in town Tuesday.

Mrs. J. V. Hanscomb, of Lock Haven, is visiting friends here this week.

The Powder Co., turned out 3,000 pounds of dynamite Tuesday for the first.

O. L. Bailey has purchased the balance of the Shafer farm from the B. & S. R. R. Co.

The Sinnamahoning Powder Co., have a crew of workmen putting up dwellings on Collegeavenue.

J. F. Wolf was over to Karthaus last week, purchasing hogs and cattle for fall trade.

Several of our town boys took in the ball game at Driftwood Monday.

V. A. Brooks killed two large rattlers in the woods last week.

Some boys who were in Jerry Run picking berries Monday, shot into the school house while school was in session. Be careful boys or you will find yourselves in the lock-up.

When the first dose of acid was run into Grove Run last week, it made all the trout and other fish turn up their dead bodies along the shore, but the fish warden could not see them. He was looking after the lone fisherman. Another home for the speckled beauties gone. Soon there will not be any streams for trout to live in.

DERSE.

NORTH CREEK.

Miss Bee Barr has been entertaining her cousin Miss Edwards this week.

Mrs. Llewella Moore is on the sick list.

Burt Chandler of Potato Creek passed through here Monday.

Agnes Taylor called on Mrs. S. M. Housler Monday.

May Moon called on Mrs. Chandler Friday.

M. E. Taylor wears a broad smile. Its a girl. Willis McClennahan, Walter Smith, Henry Carter and Will Smith were in Emporium Tuesday.

Mrs. Florence Cool went home to see her father Frank Moon, on Tuesday. Mr. Moon is very sick at this writing, paralysis is the cause and little hopes are entertained for his recovery.

F. A. Lewis, Fred Solveson and Warren Moore are having this week for S. M. Housler and Mrs. Llewella Moore. Beautiful hay weather, boys. Geo. Barr and family enjoyed the day by taking a drive Sunday; as did several other of our townspeople.

Mrs. A. O. Swartwood visited her daughter, Mrs. McClennahan recently.

[Please get your communication in a little earlier—Tuesday evening if possible.]

SAMANTHY ALLEN.

STERLING RUN.

Last Saturday evening Miss Lulu Lewis, assistant postmaster, while standing in front of the office was fired at by some one on Smith's corner about forty feet away. The ball came within one foot of her head. There were two 16 year old boys standing on the corner at the time. This matter of boys carrying revolvers should be stopped. There are seven or eight carrying them in this place.

D. W. Eastman of Connersport, is making things lively in the lumber and bark business.

Sam Barr and Grant Hart, while trying to present each other with a pair of spectacles last Saturday evening, Sam got a good fit—Grants would not work.

On Monday night the house formerly used by C. G. Minick at the old tannery was burned by some unknown party.

Unnecessary Expense.

Acute attacks of colic and diarrhoea come on without warning and prompt relief must be obtained. There is no necessity of incurring the expense of a physician's service in such cases if Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is at hand. A dose of this remedy will relieve the patient before a doctor could arrive. It has never been known to fail, even in the most severe and dangerous cases and no family should be without it. For sale by L. Taggart; J. E. Smith, Sterling Run; Crum Bros., Sinnamahoning.

Bargain in Books.

A complete set of Britannica Encyclopaedia, consisting of thirty volumes and key. Are all new and in original packages. Will be sold at a bargain, Apply at Press office. 36tf
