MARINES LANDED.

Armed Men from the American Cruiser Denver are Ready to Protect American Interests.

Washington, D. C .-- It was officially announced here late last night that the sailors who were landed at Havana from the American cruiser Denver have been ordered to immediately return to their vessel save for a small guard which will be left at the American legation. This action fol-lows the receipt of an official report by Acting Secretary of State Bacon from Mr. Sleeper, the American from Mr. Sleeper, the American charge d'affaires at Havana, regard-ing the landing of the men. The re-port was not made public, but it was announced officially shortly afterward that the sailors were landed from the Denver solely for the protection of Denver solely for the protection of the lives and property of Americans. That the landing in any way con-templated the protection of either the Cuban government or President Pal-ma or any other persons than American citizens was disclaimed officially.

Tampa, Fla. — A private cable-ram received here Thursday night gram from Cienfuegos, Cuba, states that marines from the United States gun-boat Marietta were landed at that place Thursday to protect American interests

Harversts. Havana, Cuba. — There are 120 sailors from the United States pro-tected cruiser Denver camped in front of old La Fuersa castle, facing the Plaza De Armas, the little park in front of the presidential palace, which is the seat of the Cuban government. The American flag is planted just inside of the low stone coping separat-ing the castle grounds from O'Rellly street, which thoroughfare passes beween the camp and the plaza. The American sailors are armed with regulation rifles with the exception of a few who carry revolvers or carbines. Two field howitzers and two rapid fire guns were sent ashore with the sailors and now point across the little park, a significant warning to anyone approaching the executive headquarters of the Cuban govern-ment with hostile intent.

The Denver, which originally an-chored further up the bay, dropped down last evening to a position abreast of the foot of O'Reilly street.

The whole business was done quietly and quickly that it caused the greatest surprise. The reason for the sudden landing of the American sailors was a conference between Presi-dent Palma, Charge D'Affaires Sleeper and Commander Colwell Thursday afternoon. On the occasion of the lat-ter's formal call upon President Palma, Mr. Sleeper asked the president whether he thought the govern-ment was able to protect American interests in Cuba unaided.

The president replied that he hoped the government would be able to do so, but suggested that it might be advisable as a measure of precaution in the interests of the Americans, as well as for the maintenance of order in general, to land marines at onvenient port, suggesting the Plaza

Convenient porc, and De Armas as the place. Commander Colwell, of the Denver, Commander Colwell, of the Denver, was approached last night by an emis-sary of Gen. Castillo, one of the in-surgent leaders, offering to surrender to him if guaranteed a fair trial. Commandor Colwell, accompanied by Charge D'Affaires Sleeper, carried the proposition to President Palma. The president was immensely pleased and asked Colwell if he would accept

WARNING Bridges-Several Fights Are Re-ported-An American Warship

Arrives at Havana.

Havana, Cuba.—The insurgents in Pinar del Rio and Santa Clara provinces on Wednesday signalized the resumption of war by blowing up railroad bridges, again blocking traffic, and committing other acts of de-struction. The insurgent command-ers in Santa Clara had previously threatened the railroad authorities and others that they would begin to burn and destroy property, and the railroad officials so informed the prov-incial governor, but that functionary incial governor, but that functionary was powerless to prevent the depre-dations. As the insurgents in Havana province have made similar threats, there is much apprehension here of the inauguration of a like policy. The event of Wednesday in Havana was the angingle of the United Stotes was the arrival of the United States protected cruiser Denver. When the flag on Morro Castle signalled the approach of the American warship the news spread throughout the city and large crowds hastened to the wharves. As the cruiser moved up the harbor, firing the usual salute of 21 guns, which was responded to by the Ca banas fortress, the countenances of Americans showed pleasure while those of the Cubars expressed wonder and perplexity. Cuban officials are unanimous in stating that the visit of the Denver here no encoded stirting the Denver has no special significance

Immediately after the Denver anchored Ensign Blakely was sent ashore to the American legation to notify Charge D'Affaires Sleeper of her arrival and that she was at the lega tion's service

Asked as to the Denver's available landing force in case of necessity, Commander Colwell replied that while she carried no marines at pres-ent, she had 150 well armed satiors and several field guns which could be put ashore on 15 minutes' notice. A railroad bridge on the Cuban Central road between Cruces and Las Lajas has been blown up. The man-ager of this railroad reports that the insurgents also are attacking stations

Several minor fights are reported two of them quite near Havana. At Luyana, just south of Havana Bay, 200 shots were exchanged between rural guards and a band of insurgents. The latter dispersed. Near Punta Brava, west of Havana, there was a hot skirmish, the details of which have not yet been received.

In a fight Wednesday near Santa Clara killed, city three insurgents were one was wounded and seven were captured.

Independence League Nominated State Ticket in New York.

Vork .- The closing session Now of the Independence league con-vention Wednesday night began with a tremendous uproar, started by the bringing of an immense portrait of bringing of an immense portrait of bringing of an immense portrait of William Randolph Hearst, president of the league, and the only man men-tioned as its candidate for governor. the convention stood adjourned, until it actually began, there was one con-tinuous demonstration. The big auditorium was packed from floor to ceil-ing, and practically every person waved a flag.

The convention was called to order at 9 o'clock by Judge Seabury. Clarence Shearn presented the re-port of the committee on resolutions, covering first the reply of the league to the memorial of Norman E. Mack, W L Convers and other delogates to W. J. Conners and other delegates to the democratic state convention, which requested the league to postpone nominations until after that con-vention. The report said that the convention "deemed it inadvisable to postpone the important business which it has assembled to carry out." The ticket for state candidates recommended by the committee was an nounced as follows: Governor-William R. Hearst, of WAR MUST CEASE.

If Peace Does Not Come Forthwith, the United States Will Intervene -Taft to be Sent to Cuba.

Oyster Bay, N. Y .-- After a protracted conference with Secretary of War Taft, Acting Secretary of State Bacon and Secretary of the Navy Bonaparte, President Roosevelt Friday night addressed an important communication to Cuba and arranged to send Secretary Taft and Bacon to the island on Sunday to make a thorough investigation of conditions there and lend their influence to restore peace. The communication is addressed to the Cuban minister to the United States, Senor Quesada. It is an im-passioned plea to Cuba to realize her responsibility as a self-governing republic and to restore peace in the islands. Her attention is called in no uncertain language to the responsibility which the United States bears to the island and the certainty that such responsibility will necessarily be exercised should peace not be preserved.

The president says he has certain information that the peace of the isl-and is now menaced and that American property has been destroyed.

Secretary Taft and Mr. Bacon will leave for Cuba Sunday. They will go by rail to Key West, Fla., and from there the journey to Havana will be completed on a naval vessel.

Havana, Cuba.-The extra Ses sion of congress called by President Palma completed at one sitting Friday the business for which it was summoned, namely, the granting to President Palma of the fullest powers not already constitutionally pos-sessed by him for carrying on the war, including the right to appropriate any public funds for war pur-poses; revoking appropriations voted at the preceding session of congress, in order to permit the diversion of the moneys involved to prosecution of the war, and authorizing increases of the rural guards to 10,000 and the artil-lery to 2,00) men. This triples the former force of rural guards and doubles the artillery. These measures, which were combin-ed in one blanket bill, were passed by party votes, the liberals and inde-pendents refraining from voting.

Another feature of the day was the return on board the American crulser Denver of the blue jackets who were landed from that vessel Thursday evening on the request of President Denve Palma.

A FRIGHTFUL PANIC.

It Occurred at the Unveiling of the McKinley Statue at Columbus, O.

Columbus, O.-With panic threat-ening a crowd of 50,000 persons surging about a stand erected in the capitol grounds, frantic to secure a glimpse of Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, the president's daughter, the oratorical exercises arranged for the unveil-ing of a statue of William McKinley Friday afternoon were suddenly postponed until night, after the statue of the martyred president had been hur-riedly unveiled by Mrs. Longworth. The speeches of the occasion were de-livered last night in Memorial hall. of

The crowd was so large and cramped that it got beyond control and the shrieking of women and children, who caught in the crush, rapidly were worked the crowd into a frenzy. Many women fainted and were carried out of the crowd by the police Eliza Muhn and a negress were trampled on and had to be removed in an ambulance. Both will recover.

The Age of Lead. We are wont to speak of this era as the "age of iron," and there is no gainsaying that, industrially speaking, iron is a "precious metal." Nevertheless, few people realize how useful, if not absolutely neces-To Cubans is issued by President Roosevelt.

ties are what give it such a prominent place in the arts and industries.

Modern plumbing, requiring many turnings and twistings, but withal withal tight joints, would be almost impos sible without lead pipe. The great-est civilizing agent in the world—the printing art—is absolutely dependent on lead. Hand-set type, linotype "slugs," monotype type—all are made of compositions of which lead is the chief component-to say nothing of the bearings in the presses as well as all other kinds of machinery in which "babbitt" metal is used.

Solder is another lead product-what a field of usefulness that one form opens up. Then there is the most important use of all to which lead is put-paint, that necessary material which keeps our houses looking pretty-inside and out-and preserves them from decay.

How many of us thank metallic lead for the comforts of paint? Yet the best house paint is nothing but metallic lead corroded by acid to a white powder known as "white lead." Of course, there are many imitations of "white lead," some of which are sold as white lead and some which are offered by the name of ready-pre-pared paint under the familiar pretense that they are "just as good" white lead. But all good paint is made of the metal, lead, corroded and ground to a fine white powder and mixed with linseed oil. White lead is also used in the coating of fine oil cloths and for many purposes besides paint.

"Red lead" is another product of metallic lead and is what is known as an oxide of lead, being produced by burning the metal. Red lead is the best paint known to preserve iron, steel or tin, and is used largely in painting metal structures, such as skyscraper skeletons, mills and bridges.

There are many other products of the metal lead, such as litharge, orange mineral, etc., which are essential to many of the arts in which we never imagine that lead would be of the least use. Verily, we live in an age of lead as well as of iron.

"I did not know this was such a large place," he said. "I thought it had a population of only about 4,000. but the mail box numbers run much higher than that, and I don't suppose every one in town rents a box either." The postmaster peered out of his little barred window "I can explain that," he said. "You see the country post offices never get new boxes, but we have those left over when the city establishments make over their offices and get new boxes. So you see lots of country places are bound to have high num ber boxes. "Although our numbers run over 4,000, you won't find any less than 1,000, some other country post office drew the lower ones. I myself would rather get the big numbers, for it makes us seem like a bustling little

Eruptions Appeared on Chest, and Face and Neck Were All Broken

"I had an eruption appear on my chest and body and extend upwards and downwards, so that my neck and face were all broken out; also my arms and the lower limbs as far as the knees. I at first thought it was prickly heat. But scon scales or crusts formed where the breaking out was. Instead of going to a physician I purchased a complete treatment of the Cuticura Remedies, in which I had great faith, and all was satisfactory. A year or two later the eruption appeared again, only a little lower: but before it had time to spread I procured another supply of the Cuticura Remedies, and continued their use until the cure was complete. It is now five years since the last attack, and have not seen any signs of a return I have more faith in Cuticura Remedies for skin diseases than anything I know of. Emma E. #### DUN'S REVIEW.

The Volume of Trade Continues to be Beyond Precedent.

New York .-- R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says: Volume of trade continues beyond precedent for the period, the end of the vacation season restoring normal forces in most occupations, and there are no important labor struggles to handicap progress. Autumn distribu-tion is very heavy, traders as a rule preparing for needs well into the fu-ture, while mercantile collections are quite as prompt as could be expected in view of the tight money market. There is some uncertainty in primary markets for cotton goods, owing to the expectation of lower prices in response to cheaper raw material, but as yet no concessions are offered. Demand for woolen fabrics is also somewhat irregular.

Commercial failures this week in the United States are 174, against 194 the corresponding week last year, and in Canada 26, against 29 last year.
