STUART AND HIS TOUR

Schedule For the First Two Weeks of the Republican Spellbinders.

SHEPP TO DIRECT THE ORATORS

"Uncle Joe" Cannon and Others of National Prominence to Speak in Pennsylvania.

[Special Correspondence.]

Philadelphia, September 18.

Edwin S. Stuart, the Republican nominee for governor, and his colleagues on the Republican state ticket, will start out this week upon their tour of the state, and will make their initial speeches of the trip at Centre Hall, Centre county, on Thursday, September 20, at a farmer's picnic. They are scheduled to go to Bellefonte the same day and address the voters of that borough.

On Friday, September 21, they will address a meeting in the evening at Clearfield, and there will be an afternoon meeting the following day, Saturday, September 22, at Lock Haven, Clinton county, and in the evening they will speak at Williamsport, Lycoming county.

A meeting in the afternoon at Selinsgrove, Snyder county, will open the week, beginning Monday, September 24, and on the evening of the same day the governor-to-be and his colleagues will address a meeting in Shamokin, Northumberland county.

On Tuesday, September 25, they will be in Mahanoy City in the morning, and in Pottsville in the evening.

There will be a meeting in Wellsboro, Tioga county, on the evening of Wednesday, September 26, and on Thursday, September 27, the candidates will speak in the afternoon at McSmithport, McKean county, and in the evening at Bradford, McKean county.

Tionesta, Forest county, will be visited on the afternoon of Friday, September 28, and on the evening of the same day the spellbinders will address a meeting in Warren county.

An afternoon meeting in Corry, Erie county, will be held on Saturday, September 29, and on the evening of the same day there will be a grand rally in Erie.

Great Demand For Stuart.

There was a great demand upon Chairman Andrews, of the Republican state committee, for meetings to be addressed by Candidate Stuart, and as far as possible an effort was made to meet every reasonable request for such meetings.

Colonel Andrews has announced the appointment of Colonel Daniel B. Shepp, a member of Governor Pennypacker's staff, to be chief of the bureau of speakers for the Republican state committee. Colonel Shepp has many friends throughout the state, and it is predicted that he will enlist many of the best orators of the Republican party in this and other states in the cause of Republicanism in Pennsylvania.

Uncle "Joe" Cannon is among others that Colonel Shepp is confident he will have to speak for the whole Republican ticket in this state this fall.

Colonel Shepp has been in communication with Chairman Sherman, of the Republican National Congressional Committee, and has been advised that a number of national celebrities will be assigned to speak in this state. Republicans realize that the skirmish of the next presidential campaign is now going on.

The loyalty of Republicans everywhere must be appealed to, that they shall not be misled by the cry for fusion candidates, with the declaration that there is no national significance to the canvass in this state this fall. Emery and his supporters are busy with arguments that this is simply a local fight, but when the Garmans, the Guffeys, the Donnells and the Ryans et al. go over to New York and tell Bryan what they are really doing in Pennsylvania it is time that Republicans all along the line should awaken to the true situation and rally around the banner of Edwin S. Stuart, their nominee for governor, and have Pennsylvania give a ringing answer to the Bryan presidential boomers with a tremendous Republican and Roosevelt majority in November.

The Streets of Peru.

The streets of Peru, especially on gala days or when they wear the special dress of some celebration, are said to be among the most picturesque in the world. In their narrow proportions they resemble somewhat the streets of China, and the variety and contrast of the colors used in decoration may be compared with the Chinese. There is, however, a distinct Latin character to the decoration, which lends them an atmosphere entirely their own.

No Guarantee.

A sporting paper recommends a certain way of avoiding the bites of a dog, however savage. All one has to do is to stand perfectly still and hold one's hand out. The dog, says the writer, will take the hand in his mouth, but will not bite it. But what guarantee have we that the dog knows this?—London Globe.

He Might Be Needed.

It is best to be courteous to all, even to the man that you dislike. You may want to borrow money from him some day.—Boston Globe.

If Congressman Sibley really gets active in this campaign Mr. Emery will need to come down into this part of the State and spend all the time and money he has left to hold these counties up to even the normal Democratic vote.—Venango Citizen-Press.

Lewis Emery advocates certain reforms. Edwin S. Stuart stands for every one of these reforms. Emery is running on a ticket with three rampant Bryan democrats and standing on a platform that acclaims Bryan as the next president. Stuart is running on a ticket with three republicans who like himself, are the sincere supporters of and sympathizers with President Roosevelt. Pennsylvania is a republican state and the administration at Washington needs its endorsement and help. It ought to be very easy for any real republican to make up his mind what to do.—Ex.
