HUNTLEY.

Jesse Johnson and wife move into the Squire Nelson house this week, where they will begin housekeeping.

Jesse Johnson and A. M. Smith are going to build the new road from Huntley to Grove Hill. It is needless to add that the work will be weil done under such able management.

Bertha Wylie was a Driftwood caller

W. R. Smith called on friends in Sterling Run, Sunday. Dr. and Mrs. Corbett and Roy Gleason and party spent Monday enjoying an outing at Tunnel Hill Park. The Emporium callers this week were

W. H. Logue, D. W. Logue, Mrs. J. F. Sullivan and daughter Ruth.

The Driftwood callers this week were Miss Alice Jordan, Thomas Kilbourne and W. H. Logue.

Mrs. Henry Cole, formerly a resident of this village, spent the past week in town, getting her household goods ready to ship to West Virginia, where Mr. Cole has a good position.

H. S. Getchell, the genial operator at the tower, secured five nice squirrels Saturday morning. He also got on the track of a bear but after following it several miles gave up the chase, as he is troubled very much with hay fever, especially when he is close to any hay fields. He was formerly the champion wing shot of Fayette county.

Mrs. John Johnson, who has been very ill for the past week, is slowly recovering.

Anna Helmbrecht our popular school teacher, is attending the Institute at Emporium this week. The PRESS takes this opportunity of echoing the expressions of satisfaction from the people of excellent a teacher and extends warm congratulations to Miss Helmbrecht on her successful management of our school.

Operator J. F. Sullivan was taken suddenly ill Monday morning and as no regular physician could be procured, trained nurse W. R. Smith was quickly called and diagnosed the case as being a severe attack of Materia Medica, brought on by an accumulation of hot air in the somewhat easier at this writing but is still very weak.

We are wonering why Leander Market, of Wilcox, who is on the Pennsy signal force, is feeling so happy these days. We understand he is going to lay off next week and look forward with pleasant anticipations to the good cigars that will surely come.

The Huntley Athletic Club will open for the tall and winter entertainments, Friday evening. Two good "bouts" are scheduled. The main attraction will be a six round set-to between W. W. Johnon and J. F. Carson at catch weights; both men are training faithfully and a good showing is expected. The next on the card is a short talk by assistant foreman Alfred Smith, explaining the attrac tions and other interesting features of Portage Falls. This will be very entertaining and instructive, especially to those who have not been to that beautiful resort. The W. R. Smith male quartette, consisting of W. W. Johnson, E. D. Krape, J. F. Sullivan and Henry Layton, will sing a few patriotic selections. Referee Wm. Logue has charge of the arrangements. Tickets at popular prices.

If an article is imitated, the original is always best. Think it over, and when you go to buy that box of salve to keep around the house, get DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. are repairing the state road this week. Fred Comley received a message from Curwensville, Pa., last Thursday informing him of his sister being very ill. He left on Friday morning. It is hoped that it is not anything serious. Chas. Christian, a freight brakeman on fast freight No. 85, met with a very paintul accident Saturday evening about 7:30. He was relieving the fireman a few minutes and swung out on the engine gangway to see if the signals were all right, coming in to Cameron and failed to notice that he was so close to the bridge, which, struck him in the face, almost severing his nose, knocking all the front teeth out and splitting both lips clear through, also cutting a piece out of the upper lip about an inch square. At last landing him in the river. Luckily the fireman thinking he heard something looked almost as soon as the accident oc curred. They at once stopped and went back to the east end of the bridge, where operator Page discovered the unfortunate man trying to climb up the steep bank. He was injured so badly that he didn't know what had happened. The train men helped him on the cabin and they took him to Emporium, where medical attention was at hand and from there he was taken to his home at Renovo on Erie mail No. 54.

Operator Page visited Renovo a few hours Saturday.

Nick Russell, whose comedy company will appear at the Emporium Opera House, Thursday, Friday and Saturday evening, Nov. 1st, 2nd and 3rd, had all kinds of trouble in getting his company together. It was not that actors were scarce—the Rialto has been full of them for weeks past-but the difficulty was to get players capable of filling the roles in the plays selected by Mr. Russell for his tour this season. Such plays as "Peaceful Valley," "Wife in name only" and "The Poor Mr Rich" are not the kind that ordinary repertoire actors can play and each play is so different that it takes remarkably clever players to "make good." It is told on good authority that since rehearsals of the pieces started a month ago, that Mr. Russell has tried out over thirty actors and found them wanting. Finally, however, he got together a company of sixteen people who were fully capable in every way and the result is one of the strongest organizations playing at popular prices that ever toured the country. Mr. Russell has provided a magnificent scenic equipment for each of the plays in his repertoire.
