Nick Russell, whose comedy company will appear at the Emporium Opera House, Thursday, Friday and Saturday evening, Nov. 1st, 2nd and 3rd, had all kinds of trouble in getting his company together. It was not that actors were scarce—the Rialto has been full of them for weeks past—but the difficulty was to get players capable of filling the roles in the plays selected by Mr. Russell for his tour this season. Such plays as "Peaceful Valley," "Wife in name only" and "The Poor Mr. Rich" are not the kind that ordinary repertoire actors can play and each play is so different that it takes remarkably clever players to "make good." It is told on good authority that since rehearsals of the pieces started a month ago, that Mr. Russell has tried out over thirty actors and found them wanting. Finally, however, he got together a company of sixteen people who were fully capable in every way and the result is one of the strongest organizations playing at popular prices that ever toured the country. Mr. Russell has provided a magnificent scenic equipment for each of the plays in his repertoire.

Thomas Moore.

Measured by the popularity and market value of his poems when they were written, Thomas Moore has no rival among the poets of Ireland. While engaged at his Irish melodies, in which he was at his best—for they called forth the powers in which he most excelled—he was paid £300 a year by his publishers. Their immense and well merited success induced Longman to give Moore £500 a year—the highest price that had up to that time been paid for a poet—on the condition that he should write a new volume of "Poems for a People," which delighted readers of that day, but is now rarely read. As a lyric poet Moore was, like Burns, one of the best writers we have ever had of "words for music" and, in his case at least, the words are inseparable from the music. Goldsmith, a poet of a different order and with a wholly different experience, got little popularity and less money for his poetry, but in "The Traveller" and "The Deserted Village" he has a better chance of immortality than his compatriot—London Tit-Bits.

IMPORTANT COURT NOTICE.

AND now, to wit, October 13th, 1906, it appearing to the Court that all of the suits on the list for trial for the October Term, 1906, with the exception of two cases, have either been settled or continued, with a probability that the cases not settled will be settled; therefore, for the purpose of saving to the county the expenses of a Jury Term, it is ordered that the Sheriff of the County of Cameron notify the jurors empanelled for the October Term, 1906, by letter not to attend at said time.

By the Court: B. W. GREEN, President Judge.

The LaBelle
For Women $2.50

No other modern design so fully meets all the requirements of the ideal ladies shoe. It is an unequaled combination of style and fit, shapeliness and comfort. The high but rather broad heel, arched instep and slightly manish appearance makes it the swellest sort for the feet.

If you are a victim of faulty shoes, we can soon enable you to walk with ease and comfort, and eventually cure your tender feet. These shoes will wear twice as long as the ordinary "ready made" shoes and have a style and finish that is essentially distinctive.

Deafness Cannot be Cured.

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness caused by catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

"The last sense to die is pride, because it has the greatest vitality. In fact, the ego itself is a manifestation of pride. The most suitable form of pride is the humility that prides itself upon being without pride." These are the words of Elbert Hubbard, the famous Philistine, and it is positively known to the author that he wrote that paragraph after having witnessed a performance of Justin Huntley McCarthy's successful drama, "The Proud Prince," the most wonderful of modern dramas, a veritable classic among the stage works of our day. Emporium Opera House, Nov. 5th.

If an article is limited, the original is always best. Think it over, and when you go to buy that box of salve to keep around the house, get DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It is the original and the name is stamped on every box. Good for eczema, tetter, boils, cuts and bruises, and especially recommended for piles. Sold by R. C. Dodson.

True and tried friends of the family—De Witt's Little Early Risers. Best for results and best to take. Rosy cheeks and sparkling eyes follow the use of these dependable little pills. They do not gripe or sicken. Sold by R. C. Dodson.
