LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

PERSONAL GOSSIP.

Contributions invited. That which you would like to see in this department, let us know by post card or letter, personally.

Mrs. J. F. Sullivan, of Huntley, was a PRESS visitor this morning.

Miss Mary Davison, of Johnsonburg, is visiting friends in town this week.

Miss Flora Schlecht made this office a pleasant business call Tuesday.

Miss Mabel Hunter, of Bradford, is visiting her father and brother at the New Warner.

H. J. Moorehouse, of Pittsburgh, transacted business in Emporium this week.

Mrs. P. Foley, of Driftwood, has arrived in Emporium and will spend the winter here, guest of her daughter, Mrs. John Hogan.

Orvis Hemphill wears a smile a yard wide owing to the arrival of that big girl baby at his home last Saturday.

Patrick Rafferty has been laid up the past two weeks; appendicitis appears to be the trouble.

Capt. C. F. Barclay who is the busiest man in this congressional district, called on friends in town to-day while making his last political visit to the several counties before election.

L. K. Huntington has returned from Oregon where he was looking over his timber tract.

For the latest popular music, call at Diehl's. Sheet music at popular prices.

Mrs. Samuel Heckman, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. M. H. Dodge returned to her home at Coudersport Tuesday.

W. H. Kresge, of DuBois, while transacting business in Emporium on Monday made the PRESS sanctum a pleasant call.

Mrs. B. Schriever and daughter Miss Julia, of Kane, who visited in Emporium the past week, left on Tuesday with Mrs. J. B. Schriever and daughter Irene for Scranton.

Clyde Washington, the 11 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Britton died last Thursday, October 25th. Death was caused by heart failure. The boy was ill only a few days and his death is a sad blow to the parents.

Alice Gross, aged eight years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gros died last Sunday morning from diphtheria. The funeral which was private, was held from the parents' residence Monday afternoon; services by Rev. Cleaver.

John A. Wykoff of Grove, was a welcome PRESS visitor on Wednesday, while en route for Coudersport. It is unnecessary to say that Mr. Wykoff is a solid Republican.

Miss Grace Walker, who has been spending the past two weeks with her brother and family at Scranton, returned home Monday.

Miss Hattie Russell, of Mt. Jewett, spent a few days in town last week.

Miss Emma Hanbouser, of St. Marys, was in Emporium between trains Saturday.

Miss Nellie Fox, professional nurse of Driftwood, is attending Howard Dodge, who is seriously ill.

Miss Mame Ritchie, who has been visiting friends in town since the family removed to St. Marys, leaves this place this week for St. Marys, where she will remain for a month before going to Pittsburg to remain permanently.

Leo Hayes returned home Thursday from Lynchburg, Va., where he is employed.

"The man or woman who stoops to writing and sending an annoying letter is an unjust critic; a coward who stabs in the back, and a stench in the nostrils of many men."

Clear Steal.

The Lincoln party of Cameron county are as mad as a March hare over the steal perpetrated by the Democratic Ring of Cameron county, who made out certificates endorsing the Democratic candidates on the county ticket as Lincoln Republicans. The steal is bitterly denounced here and has cost the Fusion ticket, in this county at least, every Lincoln vote. Ex-Sheriff Over hiser, the Lincoln committeeman authorizes us to repudiate the steal in his name—Desperate trick.

People's Star Course.

Board opens at H. S. Lloyd's bookstore Nov. 8th, 7:30 a. m. Course tickets including reserve seats for the series of five entertainments $1.50 each, except for the first five rows, for which there will be an extra charge of 25c for the course.

First attraction, at Opera House Nov. 9th, The Italian Boys' Orchestra and Ebert Poland the Boston Humorist.

The instrumentation of the orchestra is as follows: Solo Violin, Second Violin, Flute, Clarinet and Harp. The boys are all Italians, which necessarily means that they are musical. They introduce in their program selections from the great composers, which they have committed to memory. There is a dash and brilliancy, together with exquisite shading and correct interpretation, which appeals to all lovers of good music.

Buffalo, N. Y.—The Y.M.C.A., audiences have had a great variety of talent from time to time. It some times seems next to impossible to satisfy our patrons, but The Italian Boys and Mr. Poland completely filled the bill. The Boys are a surprise in the quality of the music they attempt and in the excellence of their rendering. Mr. Poland abundantly supplies that other element that serves to round out an entertainment and send everybody home feeling that the evening has been well spent.

The committee is confident that the five attractions for this winter's course is the best that have ever been given in this town.

STEPHENS & SAUNDERS.

Judge LaBar is a good business man, kind neighbor and liberal to all in affliction. See that your ballot contains his name for Associate Judge.

Vote for Judge Green and thereby keep the bench free of politics.

Voters of Cameron! Read between the lines and ask yourself the question, "Why does the Elk County Gang seek to control the courts?"

Ed. J. Frysinger, the well known political writer, has had charge of the Press Bureau and editorial work for the Republican State Committee in this year's campaign for the election of Governor and other Commonwealth officers.

$10.00 Reward.

I will pay a reward of ten dollars for information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of the person who stole my medicine case and rubber storm apron from the back of my buggy.

R. P. HEILMAN, M. D.

Let every Republican do his duty next Tuesday by supporting the representative of the national ticket, Capt Barclay, for congress.

Capt. Barclay's name appears at the head of the congressional square with both the Republican and Prohibition endorsements. Don't overlook it in making up your ballot.

Birthday Party at Canoe Run.

The young people of Canoe Run gave Miss Irene Georgia a surprise party, Thursday evening, in honor of her 13th birthday. They passed a very pleasant evening, with games and other amusements. Those present were: Gene, Harold and Fred McClure, Sarah, Mary, Isabella and Joseph Harrison; Mary, Fred and Robert Holmes; Flora, Gundy and Charles Cornwall; James Harrison, Agnes Greenaleh, Dorothy and Mary Crugar and Elizabeth Davis. A very enjoyable evening dinner was served at 6:30. Everybody enjoyed a good time.

"The last sense to die is pride, because it was the first virtue. Every thing that has an ego has pride, in fact, the ego itself is a manifestation of pride. The most subtle form of pride is the humility that prides itself upon being without pride." These are the words of Elbert Hubbard, the famous Philistine, and it is positively known to the author that he wrote that paragraph after having witnessed a performance of Justin Huntley McCarthy's successful drama, "The Proud Prince," the most wonderful of modern dramas, a veritable classic among the stage work of to-day. Emporium Opera House, Nov. 8th.

The LaBelle
For Women $2.50

No other modern design so fully meets all the requirements of the ideal ladies shoe. It is an unequaled combination of style and fit, shapeliness and comfort. The high but rather broad heel, arched instep and slightly manish appearance makes it the swellest sort for the feet.

If you are a victim of faulty shoes, we can soon enable you to walk with ease and comfort, and eventually cure your tender feet. These shoes will wear twice as long as the ordinary "ready made" shoes and have a style and finish that is essentially distinctive.

A Midnight Marriage.

Some time after midnight last night Rev. F. C. Weidman, pastor of the German Lutheran church was aroused and asked to go to the Olean House to perform a marriage ceremony. Upon arriving at the hotel Mr. Weidman found a party of five young people, Miss Margaret E. Munsell, of Emporium, Orrin G. Houser, of Jamestown, Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Heliker and Dr. A. B. Mead, of Emporium, Miss Munsell and Mr. Houser being the couple for whom his services were desired. After a lunch the ceremony was performed and the party left via automobile for Buffalo.

The young people left Emporium yesterday afternoon expecting to catch the flyer at Port Allegany for Buffalo where the marriage was to have taken place but failed to reach that point in time.—Olean Herald.
