NO. 39.

A Prosperous Lumberman.

M. W. Whiting, of Sterling Run, visited in Emporium last Saturday, calling on old friends, the Press included. Mr. Whiting is conducting three extensive lumbering jobs—one in West Virginia—and is considered one of the most prosperous and reliable lumbermen in this state. We certainly enjoyed his visit to our sanctum and appreciated the elegant penmanship attached to a check containing three copies of the Press. Ye editor and Mr. Whiting have been friends since boyhood days and trust we may always remain as such.

Ex-Judge Huntley.

The genial Judge Huntley, of Driftwood, was a welcome visitor in Emporium on Monday meeting old acquaintances, all of whom were pleased to meet him once more. Judge Huntley is actively engaged in lumbering in both Pennsylvania and West Virginia and spends little time at home, his large business requiring his attention.

Judgeship Question.

There are so many questions asked us about the Judgeship matter, but we can only say that we, as well as hundreds of Judge Green's friends through out this Judicial district, honestly believe that he was fairly elected and if such is the case he certainly is entitled to remain on the bench. But, on the other hand, if Major Hall was squarely the victor we will have to swallow our dose and submit like all good citizens. While it is not likely Judge Green, on account of his position on the bench, will take any steps in his own behalf, he certainly owes it to the and his numerous friends in the district to allow them to investigate the many charges of fraud and illegal voting in Elk county, so that if they have to lay down they will feel it was not their fault. We trust these friends will get together and decide what can be done. All we ask is a square deal and honest count.

Now for County News.

Now that election is over and things have resumed their normal condition let us forget our little political differences and resume our friendly exchange of local news through our hustling towns throughout the county.

What can be more congenial than a full page of county news each week? It tends to draw us nearer together and creates a friendly feeling among the people at large.

Many of the people of Cameron county are scattered promiscuously throughout the different states, following their various vocations and are more than pleased to receive the latest news from their old home towns, or paces of sojourn, in times gone by.

"Though many friends have gone away, Where loved ones are unknown, How good it seems when they are sad, To get the news from home. It lightens all their daily cares, And, wherever they may roam, Their thoughts will often wander back, To the dear friends left at home."

"For years I starved, then I bought a 50 cent bottle of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, and what that benefitted me all the gold in Georgia could not buy. I kept on taking it and in two months I went back to work as machinist. In three months I was as well and hearty as I ever was. I still use a little occasionally as I find it a fine blood purifier and a good tonic. May you live long and prosper."—C. N. Cornell, Roding, Ga., Aug. 27, 1906. Kodol sold here by R. C. Dodson.

Boy Shot.

Earl McDougall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. McDougall, of this place, met with a serious accident last Saturday morning, while hunting for birds near the stone quarry north of town. While passing through the brush his rifle (a 22 Winchester) evidently caught and pulled back the trigger, exploding the load, shooting the lad in the left foot, the ball entering the instep and passing towards the second toe. Earl at once tied a handkerchief around his foot and with the assistance of a young lad, managed to get to his grand-mother's home—Mrs. P. E. Lewis—on East Sixth street. The injured boy was hurried to Dr. Heilman's office and placed under the X-ray when it was decided to amputate the second toe. Earl is now resting easy at his home and hopes to get out soon. It is unnecessary to add that Earl has a gun for sale, at a bargain.

A Success.

The Musical and Vaudeville entertainment given at the opera house last Monday evening was largely attended. The program, although quite lengthy, was pleasing, each and every member of the Junior Choir, ably assisted by their friends, doing their best. Mr. Keith and Miss Frances Siebert, all of Coudersport, greatly aided in making the entertainment a success. Mrs. Bennett Leutze, director of the choir, worked hard to make the entertainment a success. A neat sum was realized over expenses.

Sudden Death.

Our citizens were shocked Wednesday morning when the announcement was made that Mrs. A. E. Gross was at death's door, having been stricken with apoplexy about five o'clock. She did not regain consciousness and died at 10:30 same morning.

Mrs. ANNA GROSS came to Emporium in the 60's and has always been a hard working lady. She leaves a husband and two sons, Geo. H. Gross and Ed. Strait, by a former marriage.

The funeral will be held from the late residence, West Creek, next Sunday at 1:30, the services being conducted at First Baptist church at 2:30 by her pastor, Rev. Calvin.

Her death is a great affliction to the family and our citizens deeply sympathize with the bereaved ones.

S. C. Larrabee Practical Painter

"Don't pay $1.50 a gallon for canned oil, which ought to cost but 60 cents a gallon. Ready mixed paint is half oil and half paint. Buy oil fresh from the barrel and add it to the L. & M. Paint which is semi-mixed."

When you buy L. & M. Paint you get a full gallon of paint that won't wear off for 10 or 15 years, because L. & M. Zinc hardens the L. & M. White Lead and makes L. & M. paint wear like iron. 4 gallons L. & M., mixed with 3 gallons Linseed Oil will paint a moderate sized house. Actual cost L. & M., $1.20 per gallon.

Sold in the north, east, south and west. C. S. Andrews, Ex-Mayor, Danbury, Conn., writes: "Painted my house 19 years ago with L. & M. Looks well today." Sold by H. S. Lloyd, Emporium, Pa.

Any design you desire on a pillow top, nicely done. Room 26, New Warner.

Books! Books! The best authors. Big bargains at Chas. Diehl's.

Judge B. W. Green.

Judge B. W. Green ran ahead of the Republican state ticket in this district, viz: Elk, 276; Clinton, 804; Cameron, 331. Total gain over Stuart's vote of 1411. At the same time Judge Green reduced the Democratic majorities in the district, over the Pennypacker—Pattison vote, by 2,371 votes, to say nothing of the disputed districts to be settled. Throughout the entire campaign His Honor refrained from partisan addresses and conducted a clean, honorable and dignified contest. Up on the face of returns his opponent has 163 majority in the district, from which there appears much dissatisfaction, many wondering how the majority in Elk could be declared so many hours in advance, with only one vote changed by the official count. Time will tell. Mr. Green stood upon his record as an upright Judge, depended upon those people who encouraged and battled for his election. To the loyal friends, of all parties, who had the manhood to obey their convictions, all honor is due—Democrats as well as Republicans. Many pretended friends in this county, too weak stand upon their dignity, bowed in dictation and coercion and in the last few hours of the contest bitterly fought for Mr. Hall, which they had a perfect right to do, but they had no moral right to promise their support and then betray an old friend and neighbor.

Quarterly Meetings.

Quarterly meeting service will be held at the Free Methodist Church, beginning Friday evening and lasting over the Sabbath.

Preaching service Friday and Saturday evening at 7:30. Lovefeast Sabbath morning at 9:30, preaching at 11:00, followed by communion service. Children's Foreign Missionary meeting at 3:00 p. m. Evening service at 7:00 p. m. Rev. A. J. Hill will be in charge and preach at each service. All are welcome.

J. NELSON BENNETT, Pastor.

Buster Brown.

Hereto the attraction that will make you sit up and take notice. The best singing and dancing chorus in musical comedy, this season bigger, brighter and more talented than ever before. There is music and song in every action of this comedy, there is hilarity in every turn of its crisp, witty lines. It is the exemplification of the funniest cartoons ever conceived and you have it served by the most talented comedians obtainable. This company of sixty members will be seen for the first time at Emporium Opera House, Thursday, Nov. 22nd.

NOTES OF INTEREST.

Greatest line of rubbers, for old and young, at Chas. Diehl's.

Next Thursday evening, Nov. 22nd, we will have Buster Brown at the Emporium Opera House with Master Rosen in the title part. This is one of the best of the many musical comedies that are now bidding for favor. It is fairly rampant with fun while this season all of the costumes are entirely new and most elaborate, every stick and stick of the scenery is new, while new music and songs will also be heard. The chorus we are promised is said to be large and most comely of face and form. This attraction should offer us an enjoyable evening at the playhouse.

Readers of the Press, if you have not called at Chas. Diehl's store this fall, you are missing something by not doing so at once. It is the place for bargains.

In order to induce my customers to come early for Christmas work, I will make a reduction on all my work—from 20 to 25 per cent.—until Dec. 4th. Now is the time to get good work at a great reduction. Order your enlargements now for Christmas don't wait and have your work rushed.

W. G. BAIR.

Miss Margaret Barry with the Proud Prince Company gave a very interesting reading to the ladies in Shakespeare, Thursday afternoon in the Emmanuel Parish House. She also read part of MacBeth and a short child recitation of Rileys. Miss Barry is extremely clever.

In order to make room for Xmas framed pictures I will close out my entire stock on hand at one-half price. Christmas is not far off and they will come in handy for presents.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J.
