

HENRY H. MULLIN, Editor and Manager.

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION:

Per year in advance, $2.00. If paid in advance, $1.50.

ADVERTISING RATES.

Advertisements are published at the rate of one dollar per square for one insertion and fifty cents per square for each subsequent insertion.

Legal and Official Advertising per square, three times or less, $2.00; each subsequent insertion 50 cents per square.

Obituary notices over five lines, ten cents per line. Simple announcements of births, marriages and deaths will be inserted free.

The Job Department of the Press is complete, and affords facilities for doing the best class of work. PARTICULAR ATTENTION PAID TO LAW PRINTING.

No paper will be discontinued until arrearages are paid, except at the option of the publisher.

No advertisements will be accepted at less than the price for fifteen words.

Robinson Crusoe.

The second volume of "Robinson Crusoe" by Daniel De Foe, published on Aug. 20, 1719, was the first story published in England with illustrations.

A Curiosity in Figures.

The following remarkable contribution to the curiosities of figures consists of two series of numbers, of which no description is necessary, as they speak for themselves.

- 1 times 9 plus 2 equals 11. 12 times 9 plus 3 equals 111. 123 times 9 plus 4 equals 1111. 1234 times 9 plus 5 equals 11111.

White Animals Can't Smell.

"Pure white animals," said a pet stock dealer, "have no sense of smell. Hence they are continually eating things that disagree with them, and in eight cases out of ten poison themselves and die."

Butler's Flag.

Feb. 21, 1866, General Benjamin F. Butler presented to congress the first genuine American flag, made of American materials by American labor, ever constructed in this country.

His Last Name.

A gentleman once asked a lad what was his last name. "Johnny," replied the boy. "Well, what is your full name?" "Johnny Brown, sir."

A Narrow Escape.

The company had assembled in the church, but the bridegroom was nowhere to be found. Finally a messenger announced that the young man had been run over and killed while on his way to the church.

A Prank of Memory.

Why have we memory sufficient to retain the minutest circumstances that have happened to us and yet not enough to remember how often we have related them to the same person? --La Rochefoucauld.

A Wonder.

"Crime worked a miracle with that dumb convict." "How so?" "He was sent here for uttering forgery."

Latest County Correspondence.

FROM OUR REPORTERS.

MASON HILL.

Who said Mason Hill died. Mrs. J. M. English, of Castle Garden, is visiting friends and relatives of this place and attending revival services.

Mrs. Nancy Lane has moved to Four Mile to keep house for her daughter Avis who is teaching school at that place. What is our loss is their gain. We greatly miss her.

Robert Whiting and wife, of West Virginia, visited the latter's grand-parents D. F. Marsh and wife, of this place, a few days last week.

Mrs. Geary, of Lock Haven, is spending a few days with her daughter Mrs. O. B. Tanner and family.

Fred Wrighter has moved his family into Mrs. Lane's house for the winter.

Alice Williams visited her sister Mrs. George English one day last week.

Alfred Smith, of Sterling Run, attended revival meeting at this place Saturday evening. Come again.

Omer Ives and E. G. Hicks are assisting Harve Hicks, of Huston Hill in putting up his new barn.

Frank Barr, of Huston Hill, attended preaching here Sunday morning.

Mrs. Hanscome, of Huston Hill, was called to this place last Thursday on account of illness of a little grand-daughter.

Mrs. Harve Hicks and sisters Rosa and Abbie, of Huston Hill, assisted their sister Mrs. Omer Ives a couple days last week.

Everett Duell visited the county seat last Thursday.

Bert Moore, of Hicks Run, visited relatives at this place a few days last week.

Rev. Dow, of Rich Valley, who is assisting Miss Hayward during our revival meetings has delivered us some fine sermons. We like to hear the truth.

We have a great deal of sickness in our vicinity of late, but all are better at present writing.

CAMERON.

Millard Lupole is wearing a very broad smile these days we notice. The occasion of the above being caused by an heir to his throne, a boy. Congratulations.

Mildred Hazlett is acting as assistant post mistress and clerk for D. C. Liniger, during his illness.

Quite a number of our towns people attended the Democratic jubilee at Emporium and report an "air-splitting" time.

The young son of Mrs. Edward Haines, who is visiting with his grand-parents, A. E. Lord, has an attack of scarlet fever.

Warren McConnel and son Jessie, are assisting C. E. Williams with his arduous fall duties.

A. W. Smith visited with his sister Mrs. R. A. Lord on Friday.

J. E. Lester was a visitor over Sunday with his family.

Hub Smith is a frequent caller in town we notice; what attraction is the cause of this we can only surmise. It is up to you Hub, explain.

Chas. Pennington and his wife who have been incarcerated in the county jail, have so far, failed to secure the necessary bail for their release.

Our efficient and obliging telegraph operator, E. D. Krape, is fast becoming popular with the people at large by his strict attention to duty and it is safe to say that in the near future he will become one of our leading lights in the railway circles.

We also note, that another duty has been added to his numerous duties, that of wheeling an "automobile" occupied by Ernest Marcellus Krape, who is a late arrival at his domicile and, we sincerely trust, that he may live long to assist E. D., in any position that it may be his good fortune to be promoted to and we extend our congratulations.

Our two popular landlords, A. F. Walker and Robert Graham, report the transient trade good, and each one receives a fair share of the business. These two gentlemen are conducting up-to-date hotels and hold the esteem of the traveling public, as well as our town citizens.

City ticket agent J. M. Scheider, informs us that his garden on the "Island" has succeeded beyond his fondest hopes. The yield of his celebrated "Boves" potatoes comparing favorably with the enormous yield of Squire Robinson's.

C. E. Williams and family will return to their home in Gold, Potter county, shortly, and their many friends regret to have them leave.

Robt. Graham proprietor of the Valley House received half a car load of hard wood flooring which he intends using to remodel building throughout, interior of building.

Our highly esteemed citizens J. P. Eddy and B. W. McClure and families moved to Johnsonburg the latter part of week expecting to go into business in that place. We are very sorry to lose these worthy citizens but what is our loss is another's gain.

Squire Robinson purchased two of the finest hogs in this town. On account of not having scales weighing more than 1000 pounds were unable to weigh them. Agent Schneider estimated them at 1166.

Operator R. I. Price [who is working the night trick in the telegraph office at this place is doing very satisfactory work and is liked by all. He is a very good operator and expects to hold one of the three positions when the new tower is put in service.

Mrs. Rockwell had a very severe fall the latter part of the week, breaking three ribs and injuring herself internally. At this writing she is getting along as well as can be expected.

Edward Chalmer who is staying with G. L. Page was suddenly taken ill Saturday and at this writing is no better. A later report informs that Mr. Chalmers died at 4:30 Monday p. m.

J. F. S.

STERLING RUN.

"The melancholy day's have come, the saddest of the year, but let us be cheery and glad; as we welcome November, for on the 29th of this month is Thanksgiving day.

We had our first fall of snow on Sunday.

Mable May one of our school teachers, was called home last Sunday on account of the illness of her mother.

M. C. Sherwood has moved his family to Canoe Run.

A number of our town men were home for election.

Lulu Lewis can take some very good pictures with her camera, also finish them.

We are glad to see Milton and Elmer Whiting, J. B., and Alex Mason on our streets again.

Died—Tuesday, Nov. 6th, 1906, the Democratic party. Interment will be very private. Please omit flowers.

Mrs. Hulsinger, of Renovo, was visiting her parents over Sunday.

All report a good time at the James and oyster supper held in Brooks' Hall on Nov. 6th.

James Berry has moved his family in the Will Summerson house.

We are sorry to say that some of our town boys tantalize and abuse Senator Wade shamefully. Boys if you have no respect for yourselves, you should have for old age.

Several of our young ladies and gents were out on Chapman Hill last Saturday, taking in the sights and shooting mark, no game. What is the attraction girls.

Mrs. A. L. Barr has returned home from a visit with her mother at Ulysses.

Joseph Kissel attended the funeral of Mr. Daugherty at Driftwood. He had the pleasure of meeting our former pastor, Rev. M. C. Piper now of Milesburg.

Robert Whiting, wife and little daughter, of Richwood, W. Va., where visiting their parents and friends last week.

James Furlong, of Pittsburg, is home on a short visit.

Nellie Whiting has returned home from taking a business course at Williamsport.

We are sorry to hear that Thos. M. Lewis was not able to vote on election day. We hope for his speedy recovery.

John Neenan and wife have returned home after an extended visit with their parents.

Mrs. Robert Warner and son Arthur, of Emporium were visiting at T.M. Lewis' on Monday.

On Monday the Bachelor Girls met at the home of Jessie V. Sterling for a taffy pull; all report a pleasant time. A usual party broke up with a flash light picture.

We understand the new tower will be ready for business in about two weeks.

Miss Brink has returned home from a visit with relatives in Philadelphia. She is suffering from ivy poison on her arms and face.

If you wish to have a good time call at the residence of J. A. Dice; you are always welcome, and he has some fine music on his piano and phonograph.

George Darren and son John was seen on our streets one day last week.

Rabbits are sitting around with a sort of humped up look, field mice have wrinkles in their tails. If all this means anything, it means 20 degrees below zero from November away through May.

The post mistress is doing a rushing business in souvenir postals. Forty-eight postals passing through the mail one day last week.

We would advise C. O. Dice to have shoes made to order for dogs.

BLUE BILL.

CANOE RUN.

A very enjoyable farewell party was given in honor of B. W. McClure on Tuesday evening, Nov. 6th, who will take their departure for their new future home in Johnsonburg shortly, Mr. McClure having accepted the position of Superintendent of the mines near there.

The many friends they leave behind were very loud in their expressions of regret, at having to part with such estimable residents and neighbors, but all join heartily in best wishes for their future success and happiness in the new field of labor. After partaking of the bounteous feast prepared in the most edible style by the ladies, cards, music, and games of various kinds were indulged in until the small hours when the assembled dispersed wishing them God-speed.

J. F. S.

Wm. Kilbourne who has been quite ill for the past few days, is able to be around again.

Pearly Teats who has been working for Mrs. A. F. Nelson has returned to her home in Karthaus.

Thos. Kilbourne the Pennsy bridge carpenter, accidentally cut one of his fingers off on Saturday while engaged in sawing.

Dan Logue is ill with the grippe. He is being attended by Dr. Beale of Driftwood.

Darius Ives has moved from Pine street into one of Squire Levi Smith's tenement houses on River Terrace.

The new township road from Huntley to Grove Hill is fast nearing completion and promises to be one of the finest thoroughfares in the county, and is especially adapted for automobiles and bicycles.

John Jordan has finished his contract, cutting the right-of-way for the new Grove Hill road, and has resumed his fall and winter hunting and trapping.

The Hon. Wesley Barr, of Evergreen Junction, was a pleasant caller on his many friends in town on Sunday. He feels greatly elated over the results of the recent election, and prophesies a bright future for the G. O. P.

C. J. Miller was a Driftwood caller on Saturday.

The tie contracting firm of Layton and Smith dissolved, and Mr. Smith will continue the work with hired assistance.

Mrs. W. R. Smith and children have returned from a visit to her parents at Medix Run.

Squire Smith is preparing to thresh a crop of oats for Judge Huntley.

W. R. Smith's trolley line which has been out of service for the past few days is again in fine working order. To observe Mr. Smith passing to and fro, would remind you greatly of the "Empire State Limited."

We are informed that the new opera house to be erected here, and for which plans have been drawn and contracts, have been let, it is to be commenced at once.

Alex Mason formerly of Sterling Run, now of Shyrock, W. Va., Greenbrier county, is spending a few days among his many friends throughout Cameron county. Mr. Mason is connected with the vast lumber interests of Judge Huntley in that section. He says the climate cannot be excelled in any part of the country and the people are all that could be desired in the way of hospitality.

Since August 1905, Judge Huntley's men have taken twenty millions of logs from this tract, and expect to have the job finished by May 1907. They have fourteen miles of railroad and two engines, which to transport the timber. This plant is only two hours journey from where H. H. Cloyes is representing the vast lumber interests of the Droncy Lumber Co.

Ralph Goodall, the celebrated poet and songster of Cameron counties is at present working on a new sentimental song, which promises to be the hit of the season. He informs us that his last popular song, entitled "Waiting till the train comes in," was produced at the "Waldorf Theatre" last Friday evening, in New York and was a decided success, also receiving favorable mention by the leading New York papers. Mr. Goodall ranks among the best composers in the country, and is well and favorably known throughout the state.

A. W. Smith and B. J. Collins have parted from their luxuriant mustaches as the result of an election bet. As both gentlemen are fine looking men with or without facial adornment, the change will not be as marked as it would be under other conditions, although some of their friends consider it an ill proceeding, Mr. Smith respectfully submits the following verses:

The winter winds are coming on, No more the sun will bluster, Election day is also past, And we have lost our whiskers. No more our locks we will curl, We've lost our wind resistors, So let King wint'ers billiards blow, They cannot jar our whiskers.

J. F. S.

Mrs. Seely and Iva Brockus were DuBois visitors Saturday.

Grace Hicks, of Hicks Run, was visiting her sister at this place over Sunday.

Howard Barr, of Millers Run, was the guest of his aunt over Sunday.

Lois Miller and Minnie Dill from Benazette were in town Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. M. Pistner, of Rassacellas is visiting friends here.

Mrs. James Doyle and Mrs. J. B. Allen were Panksutawney visitors Tuesday.

Cora Johnson, of Home Camp, was seen in town Tuesday.

Katie Hackett was a DuBois visitor Saturday.

Mrs. J. L. Chambers of Big Run, is visiting Mrs. Ike Frantz this week.

H. S. Ford conductor for the Good-year Lumber Company got hurt Friday; a log fell on his ankle which sprained it very badly.

M. A. P.

Subscribe for the PRESS, and read the county news.

Local news on every page.

J. F. S.

SINNAMAHONING.

J. O. Brookbank, of Driftwood, was in town on Monday.

District Attorney McNarney, of Emporium was a visitor on Tuesday.

Mrs. C. E. Logue, of First Fork, was a visitor Monday.

R. M. Crum and party are moving into camp on Jerrey Run this week.

G. W. Gore and party go to Yosta Run, Wednesday, to hunt.

Frank Wolf and friends go to Cooks Run to hunt this fall.

Farmers are busy with their corn and all late crops.

Election went off very quiet here and all voted as they wanted to.

Joe Council of Tyler, was home to cast his ballot for the G. O. P.

Chas. Scudder was practicing on a "hell diver" one day last week; 37 shots and no duck.

Geo. P. Shafer, of the Sinnamahoning House, lost his bet on election and

G. B. Barclay went to Laquin on Saturday.

Capt. C. F. Barclay was at Ridgway on Saturday.

S. P. Kreider was in town Saturday on business.

Mrs. Geo. Batchelder and daughter, Eda, are visiting on Mason Hill this week.

Miss Eva Brooks came down from Sterling Run on Saturday.

The Widsye school children accompanied by their teacher, Miss Ida Housler, visited the big rocks, opposite town, Friday afternoon.

E. H. Snyder has taken the job of cutting the logs and making ties in Montours Run, for Barclay Bros. He moved into camp last week.

Geo. Darren, F. Wolf and friends are fixing up their hunting camp in Cooks Run, this week.

O. L. Bailey and party will hunt on the head waters of Jersey Run this fall.

Geo. W. Gore slaughtered the largest hog in this locality, last week. He tipped the scales at 547.

Dale Crum assisted by J. R. Batchelder, slaughtered a monster porker for D. J. Wykoff, Friday. It took a team of horses to get it to the slaughter house.

Poor master J. A. Wykoff was at Coudersport last week on business.

The parties who broke into the filling room at the mill and stole the silver solder owned up and paid the bill.

Parties with air guns are shooting out the windows in this town. Constable Crane is on the watch and several arrests will be made if damages are not paid, as the names of the parties doing the mischief are known.

Hugh Caldwell, known as Uncle Hugh, was down to this place on election day. He is 99 years old and is hale and hearty for one of his age. He visited with several of his old friends while here.

One of our rural neighbors, passing up the street early one frosty morning, noticed Mr. Silin's cow eating the frost off from the ground, asked Mr. Silin if he was in the ice cream business. He thought surely that a cow eating ice would produce ice cream.

The hunters around here are getting their guns sighted and their knapsacks packed to start on their annual hunt. There will be some big stories if no big game.

Joe Logue and John Swartz caught 9786 eels this fall in their fish baskets, up the First Fork.

The Keystone handle factory started up this week.

L. C. Wykoff brought a party of bird hunters down last Saturday and they all had a fine lot of pheasants and rabbits.

S. L. C., did not meet last week, owing to being too busy getting ready to go hunting. Look out after they get back for some whoppers.

DEBSE.

RICH VALLEY.

By the looks of things, the Independent's one crumb of comfort, pictured in last week's paper is not very likely to materialize.

Mrs. Geo. Nickerson was in the city Monday.

Miss Mable Mattison, of Howardville, and Miss Hazel Lockwood were on our streets Saturday.

V. D. made his weekly visit to North Creek friends Sunday.

Floyd Barton, of North Creek, called on Lewis Run friends Monday.

Rev. and Mrs. Dow returned Monday from Mason Hill. They have been assisting Miss Hayward at revival meeting.

W. W. Lewis accepted a position Monday with Cameron Housler, who has a large job on Cooks Run.

Miss Daisy Lewis spent Sunday with Elk Fork relatives.

William Carter, Supt., for the J. R. Droncy Lumber Co., of West Virginia, was home for election. He returned to W. Va., Monday.

W. S. Carter and wife visited friends in the upper end of the Valley Monday.

There will be a pie Social held at the home of Frank E. Swesev, for the benefit of Rev. A. C. Dow, one week from Saturday night. Everybody come.

M. A. P.

Subscribe for the PRESS, and read the county news.

Local news on every page.

Local news on every page.

Local news on every page.

Local news on every page.

Local news on every page.

Local news on every page.

Local news on every page.

Local news on every page.

Local news on every page.

Local news on every page.

Local news on every page.

Local news on every page.

Local news on every page.

Local news on every page.

Local news on every page.

GROVE HILL.

Clyde Collins and Dan Logue, of Huntley, were seen in our woods this week, hunting the festive pheasant and the ferocious bear.

Julian Vandervieske, of Sinnamahoning, also tried his double barrel on some of our woodland inhabitants, with poor success.

Albert Jordan, our up-to-date farmer, reports the finest crop of Danish cabbage in the county.

Now that election is over, will the successful candidates feel as friendly toward the poor man as they did before election?

G. S. H.

Cut this out and take it to L. Taggart's drug store and get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For biliousness and constipation they are unequalled. They improve the appetite, strengthen the digestion and regulate the liver and bowels. J. E. Smith, Sterling Run; Crum Bros., Sinnamahoning.

Chapped Hands. Wash your hands with warm water, dry with a towel and apply Chamberlain's Salve, just before going to bed, and a speedy cure is certain. This salve is also invaluable for sore nipple, itching piles and skin diseases. For sale by L. Taggart; J. E. Smith, Sterling Run; Crum Bros., Sinnamahoning.

Croup. A reliable medicine and one that should always be kept in the home for immediate use in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will prevent the attack if given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears. For sale by L. Taggart; J. E. Smith, Sterling Run; Crum Bros., Sinnamahoning.

Sells More of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Than all Others Put Together. Mr. Thos. George, a merchant at Mt. Elgin, Ontario, says: "I have had the local agency for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy ever since it was introduced into Canada, and I sell as much of it as I do of all other line I have on my shelves put together. Of the many dozens sold under guarantee, I have not had one bottle returned. I can personally recommend this medicine as I have used it myself and given it to my children and always with the best results." For sale by L. Taggart; J. E. Smith, Sterling Run; Crum Bros., Sinnamahoning.

Williams Carbolic Salve with Arnica and Witch Hazel. The best Salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Tetter, Chapped Hands, and all skin eruptions. It is guaranteed to give satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25c per Druggists. Williams Mfg.